From the Minister

These last couple of weeks have left us overwhelmed by the horror of mass shootings. Once again we are reminded that nothing has been done to solve this problem. The typical cycle of shooting, mourning, outrage, unmet demands for gun control legislation and then apathy has been interrupted by a new energy and sense of purpose among students who are vowing to demonstrate by walking out of their classes and marching. They have already started confronting congress in Washington and there are gatherings to protest all over the country. “Do something” is the message they bring. Can they effect change? It can’t hurt for them to try. They will certainly make a difference and especially if they vote. The myth that all can be transformed in one momentous confrontation is very much a product of an idealistic culture. Ideals while admirable and inspiring rarely effect change. Ideals must be turned into ideas. And while it may be easy to imagine all-encompassing solutions, real solutions never are easy or all-encompassing. There are organizations working to decrease gun violence with many creative ideas. Everything becomes possible when we don’t allow other motivations such as greed and power mongering to prevail. One of the best ways to do this is to work at the local level to promote state and local legislation through dialog with our neighbors and friends. There is one goal we all have: No more children dying from gun violence. Experts tell us that we can get very close to this by some modest changes to the laws related to access to guns. Our children have a great deal of heart, spirit and intelligence. They will have an impact, but let’s not forget that it is fundamentally our job to protect our children. We can’t expect them to do that job for themselves. But they are reminding us that we must act. Let us reignite our ideals and allow them to motivate us to action.

Blessed Be.
Frieda

March Sundays

3/4 - Rev. Frieda , "Hospitality" Hospitality is one of the most important skills a church must have in order to grow. Without it people do not feel welcome. How do we develop that skill in an authentic way?

3/11 - Rev. Frieda "The Widow's Oil" - One of the better known miracle stories from the Hebrew Bible is the Widow's Oil. Is it a miracle we can all experience?

3/18 guest preacher

3/25 - Barry Eager - shares a Good Friday reflection.

A Thank You...and a query

We are grateful for the recent donations received recently for the office. They have been put to good use; the new office chair is extremely comfortable! Does anyone have a coat rack they are willing to part with or an electric tea kettle they would like to donate?

March Sunday School News!

Happy March to all of our Sunday School families. We are looking forward to an exciting March in Sunday School. Some of the things we will be learning about this month include Palm Sunday! We will be working on a Palm Sunday Chain of Praises activity. This is a great worship experience for our children. With my assistance in class, the children will be asked to write some praise statements on strips of colored paper. We will then collect the strips and make a beautiful long chain that we will with share with everyone. We will also be making a Palm Frond Collage that the children will be bringing home. In addition, the children will be hearing "The Story of People Waving Palms to Jesus". I have gathered some wonderful word search puzzles for the children to work on in class with the Palm Sunday theme.

Feel free to call or email me at any time with any questions, etc.

Note-worthy

The month of February can be biting cold, which, to me, makes winter less desirable than it already is. This year it was surprisingly warm, even record breaking on the 21st of the month, which just teased us with the Spring to come.

A bright spot for FPC Berlin at the beginning of the month was the annual trek here of the Boston-based Convivium Musicum to perform a Sunday late afternoon concert. This year's concert was a celebration of the 10th anniversary of their singing under the direction of Michael Barrett, and their repertoire consisted of many favorite pieces learned under his tutelage. Though the audience was small on that cold rainy afternoon, the singing was delightful, and the reception afterwards was satisfying to all who sang or listened. We are indeed fortunate to have them use our Meetinghouse to make the sound ideas created four to six hundred years ago come alive again!

The choir sang “When Jesus Wept”, a round by the early American, largely self-taught, composer William Billings (portrait at left), who wrote many pieces—hymns, anthems, fuguing tunes— both for teaching and performing. One, in particular, entitled “Berlin” is found in his 1781 publication “The Psalm-Singer’s Amusement”. Almost all of his music was written to be sung unaccompanied, or “a cappella”, in four parts, and, in his day, it was very popular, but he lost popularity when musical tastes of that time changed. He died a pauper in 1800 and is often considered to be America’s first composer.

The last Sunday of the month brought 2 guest musicians, Holly Parmenter, soprano, and Serge Paul-Emile, floutist, accompanied by Bob Cunningham, who added their musical gifts to the morning Service.

Search Update

The Search Committee continues its work. We have made contact with several UCC ministerial candidates and we will be participating in round two of the UUA process, which begins on April 9th. The process is a challenging and continuing one, but we remain encouraged by the interest of some promising candidates. We are committed to the task of finding the right match for FPC and not “settling” for a settled minister who does not show real promise to deliver leadership and inspiration.

All-Church Seder

We will be celebrating our Seder on Thursday, March 29 at 6:30 pm the Meeting House. This is the traditional Passover meal, a celebration of freedom and justice—and it is the last meal Jesus shared with his disciples. All ages are welcome to attend, but please SIGN UP IN ADVANCE on the sheet in the Meeting House, or email your intention to record@fpctberlin.org.

Everyone must have a seat at the table, so we need an accurate count. I will be asking for cooking help by handing out recipes for various traditional dishes—please let me know (in person or by emailing record@fpctberlin.org if you are willing to assist by cooking a dish at home.
