

Housing Costs Got You Down?

Imagine life...

- not stressed about money
- not always eating alone
- knowing you'll be found if you fall

You can have a home-mate* .... Yes, you can....

The right home-mate* can improve your life by

- Reducing housing costs
- Providing companionship
- Helping with household tasks
- Giving support in times of need

* A home-mate is an independent person whom you like and respect and whose ways of living at home are compatible enough with yours that everyone is comfortable.

Making this kind of a change in your life is not easy.

In fact, it could be so scary that you dismiss it as impossible. It's not. Thousands of people share housing successfully, even joyfully.

We have resources to help you.

- * Get used to the idea — sign up for our newsletter
- * Take our webinar, Discovering Shared Housing. Learn from the comfort of your home.
- * Read the book to learn a process for selecting someone you can live with.
- * Download free worksheets to guide you through the process
