Today's Readings

Isaiah 45:1, 4-6; Psalm 96:1, 3, 4-5, 7-8, 9-10; 1 Thessalonians 1:1-5b; Matthew 22:15-21

Lectura, as de Hoy

Isaias 45:1, 4-6; Salmo 96:1, 3, 4-5, 7-8, 9-10; 1 Tesaionicensis 1:1-5b; Mateo 22:15-21

'Give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God'.

This is the response of Jesus to some Jews who asked him whether or not they were to pay tax to the government.

We must understand, firstly, that this question was posed with an evil intention; to put Jesus into the test, so that they could ridicule him and find something to use against him. What intention do I have when I ask a person a question or in any encounter I have with someone? Is it an evil or a good intention?

By the response, 'Give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God', Jesus wants us to understand that as Christians, we have a dual nationality. We are citizens of heaven and citizens of our respective earthly nations. We have to pay our allegiance to both states. However, considering that God is the creator of all, any earthly law that contradicts His laws must be considered a bad law and such a law must be rejected by Christians.

"Dale al César lo que le pertenece a César y a Dios lo que le pertenece a Dios". Esta es la respuesta de Jesús a algunos judíos que le preguntaron si debían o no pagar impuestos al gobierno. Debemos entender, en primer lugar, que esta pregunta fue planteada con una intención malvada; poner a Jesús a prueba, para que puedan ridiculizarlo y encontrar algo para usar contra él. ¿Qué intención tengo cuando le hago una pregunta a una persona o en cualquier encuentro que tenga con alguien? ¿Es un mal o una buena intención? Por la respuesta, "Dale a César lo que le pertenece a César y a Dios lo que le pertenece a Dios", Jesús quiere que entendamos que, como cristianos, tenemos una doble nacionalidad. Somos ciudadanos del cielo y ciudadanos de nuestras respectivas naciones terrenales. Tenemos que pagar nuestra lealtad a ambos estados. Sin embargo, considerando que Dios es el creador de todo, cualquier ley terrenal que contradiga sus leyes debe ser considerada como una mala ley y tal ley debe ser rechazada por los cristianos.

Intentions for All Souls

November is the month dedicated to our beloved deceased. There will be cards and envelopes available for you to make intentions for your loved ones that will be remembered during the month of November. Additionally, we now have a ledger so that all names of our deceased will be entered and remembered in prayer. A stipend of $10 minimum per intention card is required. The tradition of praying for the deceased is found in 2nd Maccabees 12:43, and has been an ongoing tradition in the Catholic faith.

Intenciones para los fieles difuntos

Noviembre es el mes dedicado a nuestro amados difuntos. Habrá tarjetas y sobres disponibles para hacer intenciones para sus seres queridos que serán recordados durante el mes de noviembre. Además, ahora tenemos un libro de contabilidad para que todos los nombres de nuestros difuntos sean ingresados y recordados en oración. Se requiere una donación de $10 mínimo por tarjeta de intención. La tradición de orar por los difuntos se encuentra en 2nd Maccabees 12:43, y ha sido una tradición continua en la fe católica
