15,19-21

One of the strong points that came up in the Gospel parable last Sunday was that the five virgins who landed into a mess did not actually do something wrong. This was as a result of their foolishness, carelessness and presumptuousness. Theirs, at most could be considered a sin of omission. This is one of the themes highlighted in the parable today, as portrayed in the third servant. While the first and the second servants courageously embarked in a positive adventure, taking every risk, to be productive, the third manifested a lazy, pessimistic, presumptions, grumbling and a totally negative disposition. They spent their God given time and energy looking for reasons not to be involved in the day-to-day Christian activities. Even if our political, social or religious systems are disappointing us, we know, as Christians what our responsibilities are and God has given us enormous graces in terms of talents to carry them out. Often, as in the business world, we need immense courage or risk to manifest our Christianity.

Uno de los puntos fuertes que surgió en la parábola del Evangelio el domingo pasado fue que las cinco vírgenes que se metieron en un lío en realidad no hicieron algo malo. Esto fue como resultado de su tontería, descuido y presuntuosidad. El suyo, a lo sumo podría considerarse un pecado de omisión. Este es uno de los temas destacados en la parábola de hoy, como se muestra en el tercer servidor. Mientras que el primero y el segundo sirvientes se embarcaron valientemente en una aventura positiva, asumiendo todos los riesgos, para ser productivos, el tercero manifestó una pereza, pesimismo, presunciones, refunfuños y una disposición totalmente negativa. Dedicaron su tiempo y energía a Dios, buscando razones para no involucrarse en las actividades cristianas cotidianas. Incluso si nuestros sistemas políticos, sociales o religiosos nos están decepcionando, sabemos, como cristianos, cuáles son nuestras responsabilidades y Dios nos ha dado enormes gracias en términos de talentos para llevarlas a cabo. A menudo, como en el mundo de los negocios, necesitamos un inmenso valor o riesgo para manifestar nuestro cristianismo.

What is Black Catholic History Month?

On July 24, 1990, the National Black Catholic Clergy Caucus of the United States designated November as Black Catholic History Month to celebrate the history and heritage of black Catholics. November is significant because two important black saints are commemorated within the month: St. Martin de Porres' feast day (Nov. 3) and St. Augustine's birthday (Nov. 13). With All Saints and All Souls' Day, we also remember the saints and souls of Africa and the African Diaspora.

African-American Catholics by the numbers

There are 3 million African-American Catholics in the United States. Of Roman Catholic parishes in the United States, 798 are considered to be predominantly African-American. Most of those continue to be on the East Coast and in the South.

About 76 percent of African-American Catholics are in diverse or shared parishes, and 24 percent are in predominately African-American parishes.

As of February 2017, there are 15 living African-American bishops, eight of whom remain active, and six U.S. dioceses are headed by African-American bishops.
— USCCB

What is the diocese's African-American Affairs Ministry?

On May 17, 1985, a group of 10 people calling themselves the Committee for Concerned Black Catholics met to discuss issues and concerns that were particular to black Catholics in the diocese. They urged then Bishop John Donoghue to coordinate efforts of black Catholics in the diocese.

In July 1985, the ministry was officially begun as the Diocesan Committee on Black Catholic Ministry and Evangelization, and was a part of the diocesan Ministry for Justice and Peace. In 1989 it became a separate office to address and serve the needs and concerns of black Catholics in the diocese.

Since then, the African-American Affairs Ministry has grown. Its main goal is make visible the work, contributions, traditions and culture of black Catholics to the Church and to society, and to propose adequate diocesan responses to racism and other social injustices.

Predominantly black parishes in the Diocese of Charlotte

Our diocese has four parishes with an African-American Catholic heritage:

- Our Lady of Consolation Church, Charlotte (1955, combining the former St. Mary and Our Lady of Perpetual Help parishes)
- St. Mary's Church, Greensboro (1928)
- St. Benedict the Moor Church, Winston-Salem (1940)
- St. Helen Mission, Spencer Mountain (early 1900s)

St. Benedict and Good Shepherd Christmas Outreach Project!

Brothers and Sisters, as explained in the bulletin of September 10th 2017, we have not yet completed our project of sending the barrels of donated items to Cameroon - there were several problems that arose and only a few of the barrels have arrived. Father Basile will be traveling to Cameroon by the end of December, precisely on his birthday, December 28th and will also join in the celebration of the Silver Jubilee of his bishop, Bishop Immanuel Bushu. He hopes therefore, to deliver the items in person to the far village of Bekora and to other orphanages where such simple items are absolutely necessary.

Our help is needed! There is a need of an additional $4000.00 to get the remaining items out of the seaport to the rural areas of Cameroon. We will hold a second collection each weekend until December 17th in hopes of meeting this goal. In this time of Thanksgiving and Christmas, let's thank God for all the blessings he has bestowed on us and share with those in need - both close to home and across the sea! Let's make Father Basile's birthday and Christmas wishes come to fruition to bring our gifts to our brothers and sisters in Christ!

Please make check's payable to the parish but in the memo note 'for Father Basile.' Both cash and checks will be accepted. Your generosity is so appreciated!

Hermanos y hermanas, como se explica en el boletín del 10 de septiembre de 2017, aún no hemos completado nuestro proyecto de enviar los barriles de artículos donados a Camerún; surgieron varios problemas y solo llegaron algunos de los barriles. El padre Basile viajará a Camerún a fines de diciembre, precisamente en su cumpleaños, el 28 de diciembre, y también se unirá a la celebración del jubileo de plata de su obispo, el obispo Immanuel Bushu. Espera, por lo tanto, entregar los artículos en persona en la lejana aldea de Bekora y en otros orfanatos donde tales elementos simples son absolutamente necesarios. ¡Nuestra ayuda es necesaria! Hay una necesidad de $ 4000.00 adicionales para sacar los artículos restantes del puerto hacia las áreas rurales de Camerún. Tendremos una segunda colección cada fin de semana hasta el 17 de diciembre con la esperanza de cumplir con este objetivo. En este tiempo de Acción de Gracias y Navidad, agradezcamos a Dios por todas las bendiciones que nos ha otorgado y compartido con aquellos que lo necesitan, ¡tanto cerca de casa como al otro lado del mar! ¡Hagamos que el cumpleaños del padre Basile y los deseos de Navidad lleguen a buen término para llevar nuestros regalos a nuestros hermanos y hermanas en Cristo! Haga un cheque a nombre de la parroquia, pero en la nota "para el padre Basile". Se aceptarán efectivo y cheques. ¡Su generosidad es muy apreciada!
