Today's Readings

Ezekiel 34:11-12,15-17; Psalm 23:1-2,3,5-6; 1 Corinthians 15:20-26,28;
Matthew 25:31-46

Lectura, as de Hoy
Ezequiel 34:11-12,15-17; Salmo 23:1-2,2-3,5-6; 1 Corintios 15:20-26,28;
Mateo 22:31-46

The title 'King' is not very popular today, yet in its very basic consideration; it means a ruler, or a leader, whatever title we use for this. Most of the elected kings in the Bible disappointed God. In the First Reading today, from the Book of Ezekiel, [Ezek. 34:11-12, 15-17] we heard of God's promise that He Himself would come as the Shepherd of His sheep "I will seek the lost, and I will bring back the strayed, and I will bind up the injured, and I will strengthen the weak..." [Ezek. 34:16] Here, we see the justice of the Eternal King who had yet to be proclaimed as the King of kings.

This is the image of Christ; a comforter and a conqueror. Yet he is going to judge us at the end of time, depending on how we care for the needy and the underprivileged as explained in the Gospel. As God care for us, so also we must care for each other, especially those in genuine need.

El título 'Rey' no es muy popular hoy en día, sin embargo, en su consideración básica; significa un gobernante, o un líder, cualquiera que sea el título que usemos para esto. La mayoría de los reyes elegidos en la Biblia decepcionaron a Dios. En la Primera lectura de hoy, del Libro de Ezequiel, [Eze. 34: 11-12, 15-17] oímos de la promesa de Dios de que Él mismo vendría como el Pastor de sus ovejas "Buscaré al perdido, y traeré al desviado, y ataré al herido, y Fortaleceré a los débiles ..." [Ezek. 34:16] Aquí vemos la justicia del Rey Eterno que aún no había sido proclamado como el Rey de reyes.

Esta es la imagen de Cristo; un consolador y un conquistador. Sin embargo, él nos juzgará al final de los tiempos, dependiendo de cómo nos preocupemos por los necesitados y los desfavorecidos, como se explica en el Evangelio. Como Dios se preocupa por nosotros, también debemos cuidarnos unos a otros, especialmente a aquellos que realmente lo necesitan.

What is Black Catholic History Month?

On July 24, 1990, the National Black Catholic Clergy Caucus of the United States designated November as Black Catholic History Month to celebrate the history and heritage of black Catholics. November is significant because two important black saints are commemorated within the month: St. Martin de Porres' feast day (Nov. 3) and St. Augustine's birthday (Nov. 13). With All Saints and All Souls' Day, we also remember the saints and souls of Africa and the African Diaspora.

What is the diocese's African-American Affairs Ministry?

On May 17, 1985, a group of 10 people calling themselves the Committee for Concerned Black Catholics met to discuss issues and concerns that were particular to black Catholics in the diocese. They urged then Bishop John Donoghue to coordinate efforts of black Catholics in the diocese.

In July 1985, the ministry was officially begun as the Diocesan Committee on Black Catholic Ministry and Evangelization, and was a part of the diocesan Ministry for Justice and Peace. In 1989 it became a separate office to address and serve the needs and concerns of black Catholics in the diocese.

Since then, the African-American Affairs Ministry has grown. Its main goal is make visible the work, contributions, traditions and culture of black Catholics to the Church and to society, and to propose adequate diocesan responses to racism and other social injustices.

Predominantly black parishes in the Diocese of CharlotteOur diocese has four parishes with an African-American Catholic heritage:

- Our Lady of Consolation Church, Charlotte (1955, combining the former St. Mary and Our Lady of Perpetual Help parishes)
- St. Mary's Church, Greensboro (1928)
- St. Benedict the Moor Church, Winston-Salem (1940)
- St. Helen Mission, Spencer Mountain (early 1900s)

St. Benedict and Good Shepherd Christmas Outreach Project!

Brothers and Sisters, as explained in the bulletin of September 10th 2017, we have not yet completed our project of sending the barrels of donated items to Cameroon - there were several problems that arose and only a few of the barrels have arrived. Father Basile will be traveling to Cameroon by the end of December, precisely on his birthday, December 28th and will also join in the celebration of the Silver Jubilee of his bishop, Bishop Immanuel Bushu. He hopes therefore, to deliver the items in person to the far village of Bekora and to other orphanages where such simple items are absolutely necessary.

Our help is needed! There is a need of an additional $4000.00 to get the remaining items out of the seaport to the rural areas of Cameroon. We will hold a second collection each weekend until December 17th in hopes of meeting this goal. In this time of Thanksgiving and Christmas, let's thank God for all the blessings he has bestowed on us and share with those in need - both close to home and across the sea! Let's make Father Basile's birthday and Christmas wishes come to fruition to bring our gifts to our brothers and sisters in Christ!

Please make check's payable to the parish but in the memo note 'for Father Basile.' Both cash and checks will be accepted. Your generosity is so appreciated!

Hermanos y hermanas, como se explica en el boletín del 10 de septiembre de 2017, aún no hemos completado nuestro proyecto de enviar los barriles de artículos donados a Camerún; surgieron varios problemas y solo llegaron algunos de los barriles. El padre Basile viajará a Camerún a fines de diciembre, precisamente en su cumpleaños, el 28 de diciembre, y también se unirá a la celebración del jubileo de plata de su obispo, el obispo Immanuel Bushu. Espera, por lo tanto, entregar los artículos en persona en la lejana aldea de Bekora y en otros orfanatos donde tales elementos simples son absolutamente necesarios. ¡Nuestra ayuda es necesaria! Hay una necesidad de $ 4000.00 adicionales para sacar los artículos restantes del puerto hacia las áreas rurales de Camerún. Tendremos una segunda colección cada fin de semana hasta el 17 de diciembre con la esperanza de cumplir con este objetivo. En este tiempo de Acción de Gracias y Navidad, agradezcamos a Dios por todas las bendiciones que nos ha otorgado y compartido con aquellos que lo necesitan, ¡tanto cerca de casa como al otro lado del mar! ¡Hagamos que el cumpleaños del padre Basile y los deseos de Navidad lleguen a buen término para llevar nuestros regalos a nuestros hermanos y hermanas en Cristo! Haga un cheque a nombre de la parroquia, pero en la nota "para el padre Basile". Se aceptarán efectivo y cheques. ¡Su generosidad es muy apreciada!
