From the first reading of Sunday's Gospel we hear King David's desire to provide a magnificent dwelling place for the Lord. Then God replies through the prophet Nathan that it was He who took care of David. The implication is that if God can do all those marvelous things for King David, He can certainly take care of His own house. What we realize from this is God does not want to dwell in a magnificent building, He wants to live in our hearts. Over the last year we have witnessed how all of you have been struggling in faithfulness, prayerfulness, helpfulness, generosity and the way you are building up the community of Saint Benedict & Good Shepherd. May we continue to make our hearts a true dwelling place worthy of God Himself. May your Christmas be filled with joy and may you be blessed beyond your dreams in the New Year.

Father Basile
Deacon David

Desde la primera lectura del Evangelio del domingo, escuchamos el deseo del Rey David de proporcionar una magnífica morada para el Señor. Entonces Dios responde a través del profeta Nathan que fue El quien se ocupó de David. La implicación es que si Dios puede hacer todas esas cosas maravillosas para el Rey David, ciertamente puede cuidar de su propia casa. Lo que nos damos cuenta de esto es que Dios no quiere vivir en un magnífico edificio, quiere vivir en nuestros corazones. Durante el último año hemos sido testigos de cómo todos ustedes han luchado en la fidelidad, la oración, la ayuda, la generosidad y la forma en que están construyendo la comunidad de San Benito y Buen Pastor. Que podamos continuar haciendo de nuestros corazones un verdadero lugar de habitación digno de Dios mismo. Que tu Navidad se llene de alegría y que seas bendecido más allá de tus sueños en el Año Nuevo.

Díacono David
