Today we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family. In the Gospel, we hear that Joseph and Mary took the baby Jesus to the temple for the purification. This is a family following the ordinary laws of their religion. This same act was performed by Jewish families all the time. In the first reading we hear that honoring one's parents brings blessings. It is these ordinary acts that help us to achieve holiness in our own family. In the case of Mary, she was conceived without sin. The rest of us are not. Holiness isn't something that we inherit, it is something we have to work at. We work at becoming holy every day in the way we live. We start by honoring our parents, by respecting our children and obeying our religion just as Joseph and Mary did. As parents we need to help our children grow in holiness – we bring them to Mass every Sunday, we enroll them in Faith Formation and we live our lives as examples of faith. Holiness is not beyond our reach, but is not just given to us. For the New Year, commit yourself and your family to grow more in holiness.

Hoy celebramos la Fiesta de la Sagrada Familia. En el Evangelio, escuchamos que José y María llevaron al bebé Jesús al templo para la purificación. Esta es una familia que sigue las leyes ordinarias de su religión. Este mismo acto fue realizado por familias judías todo el tiempo. En la primera lectura escuchamos que honrar a los padres trae bendiciones. Son estos actos ordinarios los que nos ayudan a alcanzar la santidad en nuestra propia familia. En el caso de María, ella fue concebida sin pecado. El resto de nosotros no. La santidad no es algo que heredamos, es algo en lo que tenemos que trabajar. Trabajamos para llegar a ser santos todos los días en la forma en que vivimos. Comenzamos honrando a nuestros padres, respetando a nuestros hijos y obedeciendo nuestra religión como lo hicieron José y María. Como padres necesitamos ayudar a nuestros hijos a crecer en santidad. Los llevamos a misa todos los domingos, los inscribimos en la Formación de Fe y vivimos nuestras vidas como ejemplos de fe. La santidad no está más allá de nuestro alcance, pero no se nos acaba de dar. Para el Año Nuevo, comprométase a usted mismo y a su familia a crecer más en santidad.
