Salmo 138:1-2, 2-3, 6-7, 7-8
Colosenses 2:12-14
Lucas 11:1-13

Paul shocks us with the enormous scope of the good news. While we were still dead, still in sin, God gave us new life in the friendship of Jesus and pardoned our sins. It is very easy to twist the good news into the not so good news. We are tempted to distort the gospel to make it say that only if you turn from your sin will God pardon you. But this is not really good news. How is this different from the way the world runs? No, while we were still in sin, God reached out to us in Jesus and died for us, unworthy as we were and are. God has already reconciled all sinners past, present, and future. The gospel proclaims that this reconciliation has happened. Now in the light of what God has done, what is your response? God has already buried your sins in the grave with Christ. Will you not come and be part of the victory feast thrown in your honor? Do you want to go back and continue in your old ways? Let us come back to God irrespective of our shortcomings and enjoy his reconciliation.

Pablo nos sorprende con el enorme alcance de las buenas nuevas. Mientras aún estábamos muertos, aún en pecado, Dios nos dio nueva vida en la amistad de Jesús y perdonó nuestros pecados. Es muy fácil transformar las buenas nuevas en noticias no tan buenas. Estamos tentados a distorsionar el evangelio para que diga que solo si te apartas de tu pecado, Dios te perdonará. Pero esto no es realmente una buena noticia. ¿En qué se diferencia esto de la forma en que funciona el mundo? No, mientras aún estábamos en pecado, Dios se acercó a nosotros en Jesús y murió por nosotros, indignos como éramos y somos. Dios ya ha reconciliado a todos los pecadores pasados, presentes y futuros. El evangelio proclama que esta reconciliación ha sucedido. Ahora, a la luz de lo que Dios ha hecho, ¿cuál es tu respuesta? Dios ya ha sepultado tus pecados en la tumba con Cristo. ¿No vendrás y serás parte de la fiesta de la victoria en tu honor? ¿Quieres volver y continuar en tus viejos caminos? Volvamos a Dios independientemente de nuestras pequeñas venidas, Y disfrutar de su reconciliación.

Most of us need our current resources to meet our everyday living expenses. For many people, an estate plan is an essential way to make gifts of cash or assets to causes they supported during their lifetime. It is also a way to remember those you care about when you no longer need the money yourself.

A brochure has been placed on the bulletin board "What to tell your Attorney About your Plans" it explains how to communicate your wishes to your advisors.

Eucharistic Congress
Diocese of Charlotte
September 6 & 7

The theme for the 15th Eucharistic Congress of the Diocese of Charlotte has been announced by Bishop Peter Jugis: "Stay With Us, Lord."

The 2019 theme is taken from the Gospel book of Luke (24:29), telling of two dejected disciples leaving Jerusalem after Christ was crucified and died.

At www.goeucharist.com: Get information about the upcoming Eucharistic Congress, in English and Spanish

Last year we did well in the number of people who represented us. This year we hope more people will be there to join the Bishop and the Church in the Diocese of Charlotte to celebrate and pray adoring Jesus Christ physically present in the Eucharist.

CONGRESO EUCARÍSTICO 2019

El tema para el XV Congreso Eucarístico de la Diócesis de Charlotte ha sido anunciado por el Obispo Peter Jugis: "Quédate con nosotros, Señor". El tema de 2019 está tomado del libro del Evangelio de Lucas (24:29), que habla de dos discípulos abatidos que abandonaron Jerusalén después de que Cristo fue crucificado y murió. En www.goeucharist.com: Obtenga información sobre el próximo Congreso Eucarístico, en inglés y español.

El año pasado lo hicimos bien en el número de personas que nos representaron. Este año esperamos que haya más personas que se unan al Obispo y a la Iglesia en la Diócesis de Charlotte para celebrar y orar a adorando a Jesucristo, físicamente presente en la Eucaristía.

He who welcomes strangers will one day welcome angels like Abraham did. (Gen.18:1-10). Therefore by virtue of the church's Oneness and Universality in nature she is open to all, cutting across race and boundaries and by law and charity welcomes all, especially anyone who has made him/herself part of the worshipping community and involves them to participate fully in the pastoral affairs of the local church. The vision here therefore, is to promote the universal character of Holy Mother Church, her openness to all in participation and upholding the cultural/worshipping fineness of the Black Americans for whom this particular church was opened, yet accommodating other cultures that come in thereby, maintaining the universality and oneness of the church promoting cultural diversity giving color and strength to Holy Mother church in our geographical circumscription and the world at large. Hence, we welcome all to participate in her pastoral mission and go out to the neighborhood sharing Christ with the people. In this way we make the church grow in her mission and all participating fully in her material and spiritual well being. The adage 'many hands do light work', and 'unity is strength' becomes fulfilled in our community.

La Iglesia

El que recibe a los extraños un día, recibirá a los ángeles como lo hizo Abraham. (Gen.18: 1-10). Por lo tanto, en virtud de la Unicidad y Universalidad de la iglesia en la naturaleza, está abierta a todos, traspasando la raza y los límites y, por ley y caridad, da la bienvenida a todos, especialmente a cualquiera que se haya hecho parte de la comunidad de culto y los involucre para que participen plenamente. Los asuntos pastorales de la iglesia local. La visión aquí, por lo tanto, es promover el carácter universal de la Santa Madre Iglesia, su apertura a todos en la participación y la defensa de la fineza cultural / de adoración de los negros estadounidenses para quienes esta iglesia en particular se abrió, pero albergando otras culturas que vienen de ese modo, mantener la universalidad y la unidad de la iglesia promoviendo la diversidad cultural dando color y fuerza a la Iglesia de la Santa Madre en nuestra circunscripción geográfica y en el mundo en general. Por lo tanto, invitamos a todos a participar en su misión pastoral y salir al vecindario compartiendo a Cristo con la gente. De esta manera, hacemos que la iglesia crezca en su misión y que todos participen plenamente en su bienestar material y espiritual. El adagio "muchas manos hacen trabajo liviano" y "unidad es fuerza" se cumple en nuestra comunidad.
