The class location is the Stevens-Henager College in Boise, ID. - the address is 1444 S. Entertainment Way, near the Edwards Theater Complex. The tuition is $579, which includes textbooks and materials. If you would like to register for the February 2020 class, please click HERE.

You may also want to check out the general Idaho real estate licensing information @ the Idaho Real Estate Commission's website, which is www.irec.idaho.gov. As a requirement for an Idaho real estate license, you will need to be fingerprinted. Although you don't need to have them prior to taking the class, this step is required to apply for your real estate license once you finish class, and since sometimes takes up to 2-3 weeks to receive them back, you may choose to plan ahead.

We are often asked about our pass/fail rate for the state & national licensing exams – we are proud to say that we have an 87-90% pass rate the first time you take the exam because we are committed to helping you understand the material, as well as assisting you in knowing the areas in which to focus your study efforts.

Thanks much, looking forward to seeing you in class!

Janis
