

Writing Your Book in 30 Days:

5 Point Checklist

Create a Topic

- What do you want to talk about?
- What do you have to share that this generation needs to know?

Your topic becomes your draft title

Choose 8-10 Points to Cover

- What are the major points you want to discuss in your book?
- Choose 8-10 specific points.

Your outline becomes your table of content

Write Your 3W Statements

- Why are you doing this book?
- Who inspired you to write?
- What do you hope and want other to take from your teachings?

Your statements become the introduction to your book

Share

- Share your book idea with family, friends and your congregation.
- Share some of the points in the book and your why, who and what statements.

This will help hold you accountable now that you have told others that your book is coming.

Write for One-Hour a Day

- Writing one hour a day will yield you 2-3 pages per day
- On day 30, you will have a completed book. YES!!!

Now you are ready for the next step: Publishing!
