

presents

The

BiZITALE

written by Adam Martin

directed by Melissa Petro

Welcome, and have a seat for this original comedy by resident Hunger Artist Adam Martin. It is a story about a boy and a girl. No, wait, it's a story about a writer trying to prove to the devil he can produce a compassionate scene. No, it's about waiting for Godzilla. Confused? Intrigued? Well this zany story with it's Saturday Night Live feel will keep you guessing and laughing in the aisles.

Opening Night reception February 23

FEBRUARY 23 - MARCH 18

Special Show on Monday, March 12

Friday and Saturdays at 8:30 pm and Sundays at 7:30 pm
$10 with reservation or $12 at the door

THE HUNGER ARTISTS THEATRE COMPANY

204 E. 4th Street, Suite 1 on the corner of 4th and Bush in the Santa Ana Artists Village

CALL (714) 547-9100 FOR TICKETS AND INFORMATION

HELP SUPPORT THE HUNGER ARTISTS!

Being a Hunger Artist Member is one of the most spectacular achievements that could happen to you! Not only do you achieve greatness by contributing $25 or more to The Hunger Artists Theatre Company, you also will be able to see the incredibly stellar and creative works that The Hunger Artists perform throughout the year. Your benefits will include, your free admission to our opening night gala (normally $5 extra a ticket!) and free tickets to our preview performances! Finally the icing on the proverbial cake is that your name will be listed in each program on the Membership Page. Choose one of our three levels! Our Bronze level of $25-$99 our Silver level of $100-$249, or our Golden level of $250 or more! To become a Hunger Artist Member please call 714-547-9100 for information or speak to one of our House Managers during a performance!

THANK YOU VERY MUCH AND ENJOY THE SHOW!

All contributions made to The Hunger Artists Theatre Company are tax-deductible.

204 E. 4th Street, Suite 1
Santa Ana, California 92701