

Table of Contents

Section 1: Introduction to Serving as a Tutor or Instructional Aide	4
Introduction to Serving as a Tutor or Instructional Aide	5
Keys to Creating Positive Relationships	6
Dos and Don'ts	7
Motivate Students to Succeed	8
Qualities of Successful Tutors & Instructional Aides	9
Promote a Growth Mindset	10
Study Questions: Review & Apply What You Have Learned	11
Section 2: Instructional Strategies that Work	13
Provide Positive Feedback & Encouragement	14
99 Ways to Say "Very Good"	15
Make Study Skills Part of Each Session	16
Climb The Thinking Ladder (Critical Thinking & Problem Solving)	17
Group Activity: Ask Questions that Stimulate Learning	18
Strategies for Improving Reading & Comprehension	19
Strategies for Improving Writing	20
Strategies for Improving Spelling	21
Strategies for Improving Math	22
Keep Students On-Track/Improve Attention, Focus & Behavior	23
Study Questions: Review & Apply What You Have Learned	24
Section 3: Understanding Student Differences	26
Multiple Intelligences	27
Students with Special Needs & Learning Differences	29
"A Special Child"	30
Guidelines for Interacting with Students with Disabilities	31
Working with English Language Learners	33
Individualize Your Work with Students	34
Specific Strategies	35
Study Questions: Review & Apply What You Have Learned	36
Section 4: Code of Conduct &amp; Program Policies	38
Attendance, Confidentiality, Maintaining Appropriate Boundaries	39
Dress Code, Handling Emergency Situations	40
Study Questions: Review & Apply What You Have Learned	41
About the Author	43
Appendix	44
Tutor Code of Ethics & Commitment Form	45
Skills Inventory	46
Tutor/Aide Goal Sheet	47

This form may be copied and shared freely for noncommercial purposes. Please do not remove this statement when copying and cite the source of the material including the website when referencing it. Source: Building Student Success: A Training Workbook for Tutors & Instructional Aides by Dana Monaghan, M.S., CCC-SLP. Available at www.TeachTutors.com. Copyright ©2006, 2014, 2018.

