

Jim Linzey Biography

Media Appearances

Media appearances include ABC News, CBS News, CNN News, FOX news, NBC News, TBN, Daystar, GLC, Pat Robertson's CBN and "Glenn Beck" on FOX as shown during National Bible Week 2010, and other networks. Jim hosted Operation Freedom television and radio programs and co-produced "The Holy Spirit Today" television and radio programs, hosted by Verna Linzey.

Recording, Singing and Songwriting

Jim's albums include Who Am I, You Were Always There, Narrow Road, and participated in When the World Turns To God, which is a compilation CD that was in the final running for the 1996 Dove Awards. It included Jim's recording of "A Heart of Love," which he co-wrote. He is a co-arranger of the album Oh Blessed Jesus by Singer, recording artist and songwriter Verna Linzey, and he sang on two songs on the album.

Jim had his own shows at Alamo Village, sang for the 1994 Mayoral Inauguration in San Bernardino, California, Battle of Midway Commemoration 1996, Military Chaplains Awards in Washington, DC, Crystal Cathedral, military chapels, churches, conventions, and theaters, television, radio. He sang on tour as part of the Jericho Road Quartet and the Vanguards. He has opened for Ray Price, Jimmie Rodgers, the 5th Dimension, Billy Preston, Dave Boyer, Chuck Girard, and Andrew Culverwell.

Professional Acting and Movies

A professionally trained actor, Jim regularly performed in westerns at Alamo Village in 1996 in Brackettville, Texas. He recently was given a role as a military chaplain in the major feature movie called Iniquity. He walked the Red Carpet with his mother Verna Linzey who also had a role in the movie as the lead juror. Their duet of "The Rose" was included in the soundtrack.

Travels

Jim has sung in United States, Canada, United Kingdom, and Mexico.

Honors

Jim is listed in Who's Who in America and Who's Who in the World.

Contact Information:

Address: Jim Linzey, P.O. Box 300366, Escondido, CA 92030

Cell Phone: (760) 855-3905

Email: vlinzey@aol.com

Website: JimLinzeyMusic.com