Confidentiality Notice

The documents accompanying this facsimile transmission may contain confidential information, belonging to the sender, which is legally privileged. This information is intended only for the use of the individual or entity named above. The authorized recipient of this information is prohibited from disclosing this information to any other party and is required to destroy the information after its stated need has been fulfilled.

Disclosure of Psychiatric Records:
The confidentiality of this record is required under Chapter 899 of the Connecticut general statutes. This material shall not be transmitted to anyone without written consent or other authorization as proved in the aforementioned statutes.

Disclosure of Substance Use Records:
This information has been disclosed to you from records protected by federal and state confidentiality rules (42 CFR part 2). The federal rules prohibit you from making any further disclosure of this information unless further disclosure is expressly permitted by the written consent of the person to whom it pertains or as otherwise permitted by 42 CFR part 2. A general authorization for the release of medical or other information is NOT sufficient for this purpose. The federal rules restrict any use of this information to criminally investigate or prosecute any alcohol or drug abuse patient.

If you are not the intended recipient of this FAX, you are hereby notified that any disclosure, copying, distribution, or action taken in reliance on the contents of these documents is strictly prohibited. If you have received this facsimile in error, please notify the sender immediately to arrange for return of these documents.
