“There are no strangers here, only friends we haven’t met.” That thought (reminiscent of Will Rogers) occurred to me as we say good-bye to summer, and the Lago Vista Women’s Club begins a new year of exciting luncheons. It’s always good to visit with friends at our luncheons, but I especially enjoy meeting new members and forming friendships with them. Beginning with our September luncheon, I challenge you to meet someone new. I was once a Girl Scout, and we sang a song, “Make new friends, but keep the old.” Whether you’ve been a long-time LVWC member or you’re brand-new, take the opportunity to become acquainted with the beautiful LVWC members.

You might recall that at last May’s luncheon we gave away a ton of money to high school seniors and non-profit community organizations. It is invigorating to see our fund-raising efforts touch so many lives within our community. Shouldn’t we do it again! You bet!

In fact, over the summer Ways and Means Vice President Vicki Perrin, along with her gala committee, have already begun working on next January’s gala. Of course, working on the gala is only one way that the LVWC raises funds. Members of our club work tirelessly to make money just so we can give it away, consequently fulfilling our mission and goals. If you would like to be more active in our club’s fund-raising endeavors or participate in other ways, be sure to sign the volunteer cards at the September luncheon.

Social Vice President Mindy Hensen has once again orchestrated some delightful menus for our monthly luncheons. Additionally, Programs Vice President Freth Carroll has planned some exciting and informative luncheon presentations you won’t want to miss. You will find the programs listed in your new 2018-19 Yearbook. Fostelene Halcom has created a superb yearbook; please be sure to pick up yours at the September luncheon.

This past January, the LVWC celebrated our 40th anniversary. What a milestone! With age, we only get better and stronger! As your club president, I look forward to having lunch with you on the second Tuesday of each month! It’s going to be another marvelous year!

Programs

I am sure that you will enjoy most of the programs slated for this 2018-2019 year. Of course we all have our own avenues of interest so hopefully I have something for everyone. Check our website for the full year's presentation of programs.

Why Am I Here? presented by Carol Burgeson

Carol Burgeson will kick off our new year with a glimpse at her life's journey. She lived in Lago Vista for a number of years.

Carol graduated from Westminster College, in Pennsylvania in 1954 with a Bachelor of Arts Degree. She worked as a case worker for the American Red Cross and taught special Education.

She married John Burgeson in 1958. They raised 8 children. All of them graduated from Georgetown HS. After John retired, they moved to Colorado in 1997. She became a Stephen Minister at First Presbyterian Church in Durango, Colorado.

Carol returned to school and graduated with a Masters of Divinity from Llif School of Theology in Denver in 2003. She was ordained as a Presbyterian Minister and served as pastor for Rico Community Church.

She retired and they moved back to Texas in 2010. Carol moved to Houston in June 2017 after John's death the year before. She currently works as director of Living Legacy Center in Houston, TX, working 20 hours a week. Living Legacy Center presently serves 27 persons who are veterans, elderly or persons with special needs. She is involved in the Cypress Chamber of Commerce and VBS at St Mary's Episcopal Church.

You will soon figure out that Carol is full of energy and not finished yet!

Monthly Surprise

Each month at the luncheon, a drawing is held for the monthly surprises. These are items such as gift cards, or gift baskets donated by our members. This year, Judy Eagle is the coordinator for these drawings. If you would like to contribute an item for the monthly surprise, please contact Judy at judyeagle2001@yahoo.com, or 512-775-7672 to let her know the month for which you would like to make your contribution."

And don't forget to get your tickets! $2 each or 3 for $5.

GOT WINE?

At each monthly luncheon, a small group of volunteers brings wine and serves it to luncheon attendees. Donations are taken for the wine and are generously given to the club for philanthropic endeavors. To continue this practice, volunteers are needed to help serve the wine at each luncheon. If you would like to be a part of this committee, please contact Janet Cason, 832-265-1470 or janet.carley@yahoo.com.

Happy Fall y'all!

Well, it is not quite Fall and it certainly doesn't feel like it by the temperature outside!

To get a jump on the new LVWC year, I have spent quite a bit of time making sure everyone's information is accurate in our computer systems so that you will receive your emails inviting you to make your luncheon reservation. Hopefully, I have corrected all of the errors, but if you are not receiving your luncheon reservation email and/or your newsletter email, please call or text me at 512-636-0423 or email me at mindyhensenvwc@yahoo.com.

If you have not paid your $25 dues for the year, you will not be able to make a reservation for the luncheons after the September luncheon. I sent an email in August to people who were members last year but had not yet renewed their membership for the new 2018-2019 year. Hopefully, by the time you read this, everyone will have re-upped. IF YOU STILL HAVEN'T PAID YOUR DUES, PLEASE MAKE SURE THAT YOU DO THAT BEFORE OR AT THE SEPTEMBER LUNCHEON.

If you are a person who receives a reminder call to make your reservation, you may have a new caller this year. We added 3 new callers and rearranged the callers' lists of people to call so that each caller was calling a similar number of people as the others.

IF YOU ARE WANTING A CALLER RATHER THAN REGISTERING FOR THE LUNCHEONS VIA EMAIL, PLEASE GIVE MINDY HENSEN A CALL AT 512-636-0423.

Welcome Back!

The Women's Club is once again off and running for another fabulous year.

As always we are looking forward to reconnecting with old friends and eager to meet new ones. Several new members have joined this past year, so please introduce yourselves if you see someone you do not know. Living is a small community, we are all like family. Be sure to pick up your personalized copy of the yearbook...our directory of members complete with a listing of Special Interest Groups, Programs, By Laws, the members of the Executive Committee and Standing Committees. Many of us find that there is no singular publication we refer to with more frequency than our Yearbook. Many thanks to Fostelene Halcom for her dedication over the summer to getting it ready for our September luncheon.

There is always room for one more! Invite friends, relatives, neighbors to join the Women's Club so they can be a part of the exciting philanthropic contributions we make to our community.

Thanks,

An Evening in Venice

2019 GALA

I am so excited to announce the theme for our 2019 Lago Vista Women's Club Gala! "An Evening in Venice" promises to bring back memories of this fascinating place to those of you who have visited there and to give a glimpse of its beauty to those of you who have not. The Gala will be held on January 26, 2019, and preparations have already begun to make this a memorable evening.

The evening will be filled with excitement -- dinner, dancing, socializing, and joining in the fun with the live and silent auctions. The Big Night Quintet will return this year for your listening and dancing pleasure. Renee Jones, a well-known national auctioneer, will take the lead to make our live auction an energetic and exciting one. A delicious and creative meal will once again be provided by Alfred's Catering.

Thanks to our members, our 2018 Gala was a big success and allowed us to proudly award many scholarships and grants to those in our community. Our 2019 Gala goal is to raise even more money to fund our philanthropic efforts. Every member of LVWC can be a part of making our Gala a success; all volunteers and donations to our live and silent auctions, wine pull, and other drawings are greatly appreciated. We still need volunteers for some of the committees, so please look at the clipboard on your luncheon table to see if there is an area of interest to you or visit our website www.lvwomensclub.com/gala and answer the survey found there. We want you all to share in the excitement of this wonderful event! If you would like information regarding the Gala, you may contact Vicki Perrin, Gala chair, 214-766-7441, vperrin@verizon.net, or Elyse Ernst, Auction chair, at 832-603-2051, ekernst@swbell.net.

So what is Cooking Pot? It is a group that is limited to 16 due to the restrictions of meeting at an individual's house (the hostess). The emphasis is usually on international cuisines. Each month, a few of the participants plan the 4 course meal, pick up the ingredients, make copies of the recipes and verify that all of the necessary pots, pans, etc. are available. We then meet the first Monday of the month, break into 4 teams and prepare the meal. As with most Women's Club activities this is accompanied by comradery and much laughter (along with very satisfied bellies). The 2018-19 season will kick off for the Cooking Pot with sign ups for the October and November festivities. We have the lead "chefs" signed up and hostesses for each month. Thanks to each one of you for taking these leadership roles. This year the menus will be a surprise to the participants. Warning: there is always a waiting list.

Christmas at Caswell House November 7, 2018

The Lago Vista Women's Club will take a break from the holiday hustle and bustle, enjoy a relaxing holiday luncheon and get a head start on our holiday shopping by attending a luncheon at the Caswell House on November 7 at the 11:00 am seating. Tickets will include a 3-course meal provided by Gumbo's North, including Wine/Beer & Soda/ water. You can start your Christmas shopping spree following the luncheon with a $5 ticket. LVWC members wishing to attend will need to sign up at Special Interest table at the luncheon. You will be given instructions on how to obtain tickets and all other details for the outing by email.

(cont.) Since 1983, the Austin Junior Forum has ushered in Austin's holiday season with Christmas at the Caswell House. This will be their 36th year, Winter Wonderland, November 1-8 and Dec. 2, 2018. Over the last 36 years, Christmas at Caswell has allowed the AJF to make significant impact on the community, distributing over $1.7 million in grants to non-profit organizations. Every year they look forward to opening the historic Daniel H. Caswell house to the community during this special time. Members spend hours preparing for and hosting this signature fundraiser where guests shop for beautiful ornaments, holiday decor, jewelry, clothing, affordable gifts and delicious gourmet foods.

The mission of the Hi! Tech! group is to unlock the mysteries of using a computer; email, digital photography, PDF's, software usage (limited to

(cont) Wilder from a major children's book award, over concerns about how the author portrayed African Americans and Native Americans, and that the board of the Association for Library Service to Children (ALSC) made the unanimous decision to change the name of the award at a meeting in New Orleans. So, the name of the prize was changed from the Laura Ingalls Wilder Medal to the Children's Literature Legacy Award. (Not sure what they were drinking down there in New Orleans but had to be something potent). ALSC said Wilder "includes expressions of stereotypical attitudes inconsistent with ALSC's core values". The award was given to Wilder in 1954. The ALSC said Wilder's work continued to be published (thank the good Lord) and read but her "legacy is complex" and not universally embraced".

After I picked my jaw up off the floor, I saw Melissa Francis in an interview on the TV about her new book Lessons From the Prairie. That's where I first learned the she was a child actress and played Cassandra Cooper Ingalls in the Little House on the Prairie television series. So, that's the background on my choice for a book review this month. Now and then, a gift just gets handed to you. The book is funny, serious, and inspiring with her insights into the world she entered when she was only 8 years old. I will review the book and give some information on the destruction of some really happy memories from many different childhoods. Hope many of you can come and remember with me all those stories that have been well loved down through the years. I will even try to be even-handed in talking of the reasons all this happened. See you in September!

(Cont) Requirements: Three checks are to be written and given to Ann Murrow at or before the LVWC luncheon on Tuesday, September 11th. First check will be for the deposit fee of $25. (This check will be cashed immediately and is non-refundable.) The 2nd check written out to Ann will be for a figure which reflects the room rate of your chosen room. If you become unable to participate in the weekend activities you may sell it to another person. A third check, also delivered to Ann but made out to the Gonzales Chamber of Commerce is for $20 to cover the cost of the Tour of Homes. The second and third checks will be cashed on October 31. All three checks are due to Ann on or before September 11, 2018.

If a credit is received due to the number of reservations, it will be used for toasting when gathered around the piano in the evening. We will be car-pooling! Three to four drivers are required. A donation is suggested for the driver for gas and toll road charges. If you can volunteer to drive for the 2 hour commute, please let Ann know.

So, who is invited to this fun-filled event? The man in your life and-or a girl-friend or two you know who love to fully enjoy life!

Reservations are accepted until the evening of Tuesday, September 11th, although checks will be kept, in case there is a cancellation. This event will be a grand weekend of celebrating Christmas and Friendship! Expect to gather around the piano, toasting friendships, while making memories, singing Christmas hymns and tunes.

This idea was sparked by Tami Flournoy! She has experienced the ambience! Twice!

About Our Website

A year ago, as part of our 40th Anniversary celebration, we undertook the redesign and reformatting of our website. We are thrilled with the new capabilities we have and the leap into the 21st century we achieved by adding tools for easy access to information, forms, applications and communication right at our keyboard fingertips.

For your convenience, here are some of the perks that are available to all our members:

BY-LAWS

Ever wonder about any of the rules and regulations that ordain the way we function as a club? They are in your directory, but in the event you don't have it at your fingertips, don't worry...go to our website. It's all there AND if there is an update or change during the year, the posted by-laws will be the most current.

MEMBERSHIP FORMS

Just met your new neighbor and she wants to join the club you rave about? Just visit our website. A link to the membership application is at the foot of EVERY PAGE and can be emailed RIGHT to the responsible person from the website.

LUNCHEON RESERVATIONS

Every month our dedicated Lunch Lady, Mindy Henson emails us all a link to reserve for the upcoming luncheon. But the link to the reservation is also on our website, ready for you at any time.

PROGRAMS

Want to know who the special guest speaker will be in April? Check the website! The full year of programs is available NOW.

SPECIAL INTEREST GROUPS

Not only can you check out the vast array of diverse groups we enjoy at the Lago Vista Women's Club but you can see what each group has planned for the current time period and who to call or email. To get more information. As a courtesy, no last names are used on the Website.

PAST ISSUES OF NEWSLETTERS

As soon as a new issue of the newsletter is ready for distribution it is promptly uploaded to the website.

PHOTO GALLERY

GALA

Forms, letters of acknowledgement and info about the exciting Gala are all available on the website, as well as links to send questions return completed forms. No longer any need to remember to bring forms to the luncheon. Want to know where to drop off the item you are donating to the auction? Find the info on our website!
