

The Lyons Community Church Mid-Week Message

Thursday, September 28, 2017

Greetings Friends,

Joy ... according to Meriam-Webster ... is the emotion evoked by well-being, success, or good fortune (delight), the expression of such emotion (gaiety), or a state of happiness (bliss). Those three words in parenthesis alone can sum up joy for so many, myself included ... delight, gaiety, and bliss!

This Sunday we will conclude our Come to the Table series, with our focus for this final week being the Table of Joy. This table makes me think of family celebrations, tables full of food, surrounded by friends and family. Joy-filled tables are tables of laughter and friendship. I look forward to sharing in the joy-filled table of communion this week, and remembering the many tables and experiences in my life that have led to great joy!

This Sunday is also World Communion Sunday, which is a day we celebrate our common communion table with people all over the world. Through Jesus, we are all connected and no matter how we got there, believing in the host of this Table makes our JOY complete! In coming to this table, may we seek out ways to share our stories, our compassion, and our sympathy all the while sharing the love of Christ through the breaking of the bread!

I hope you are continuing to notice and snap pictures of the tables around you. We have received a number of pictures and I look forward to compiling even more pictures of the tables in our lives and throughout our communities. I send prayers of joy and grace and peace and love for each of you until we gather together again in worship on Sunday!

Blessings,

Pastor Emily

P.S. This Sunday, World Communion Sunday, we will join with United Methodist Churches around the globe and take a special offering that will aid in providing scholarships for U.S. racial- and ethnic-minority students and international students, on both undergraduate and graduate levels. Being curious. we are delaying our programs on Lyons Pioneers, to find out about Modou.
