

FRANK LLOYD WRIGHT'S WISCONSIN

Five days exploring an architect's life and legacy

Wisconsin is the birthplace of Frank Lloyd Wright, arguably America's greatest architect. On this ultimate architectural pilgrimage, travelers visit eight key Wright sites to gain insight on his life, legacy, and greatest creations while also enjoying a taste of the Dairy State's famous Midwest hospitality.

"I meant to live if I could an unconventional life. I turned to this hill in the Valley as my grandfather before me had turned to America—as a hope and haven."

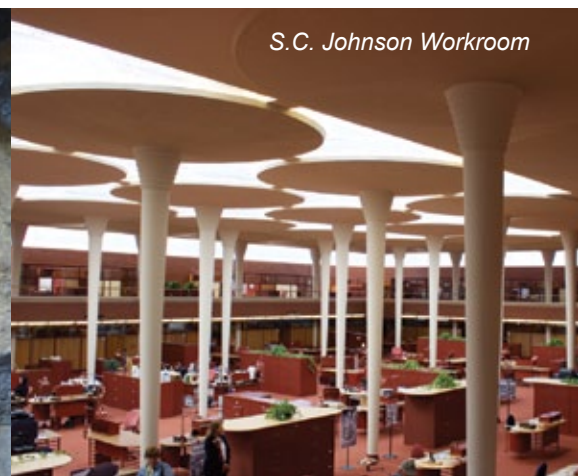

—Frank Lloyd Wright on Taliesin

Taliesin

Wingspread

S.C. Johnson Workroom

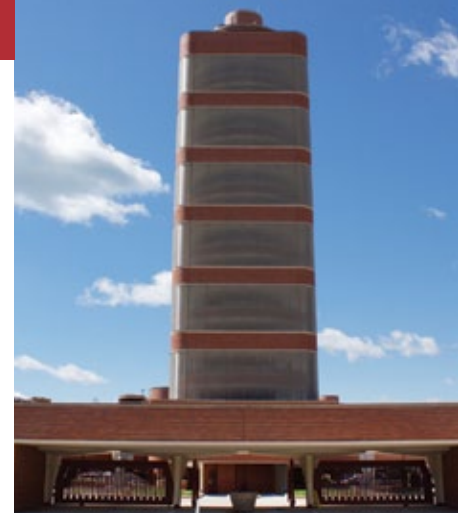

highlights & options

S.C. Johnson Research Tower

Monona Terrace

- A.D. German Warehouse tour
- Taliesin Hillside Studio & Theater, and House Tour
- Monona Terrace tour
- Unitarian Meeting House tour
- Annunciation Greek Orthodox Church tour
- American System-Built Homes tour
- S.C. Johnson campus tour
- Wingspread tour
- Madison Eats culinary and Capitol tour
- Olbrich Botanical Gardens visit
- Traditional Wisconsin supper club dinners
- Farm dinners showcasing farm-to-table bounty
- Hotel with breakfast

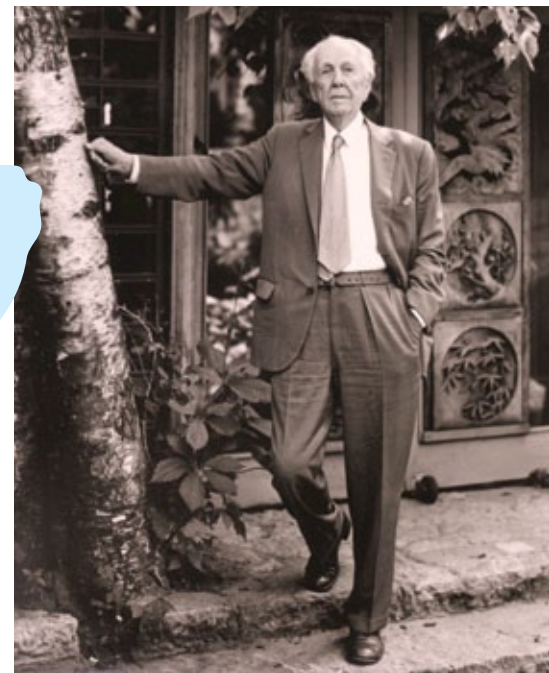

Wright was recognized in 1991 by the American Institute of Architects as “THE GREATEST AMERICAN ARCHITECT OF ALL TIME.”

WRIGHT'S DESIGNS RESULTED IN 532 works:

Houses	Libraries
Offices	Bridges
Churches	Museums
Schools	Golf course

Madison to Milwaukee 78 miles
Milwaukee to Racine 26 miles
Chicago to Madison 146 miles

The Frank Lloyd Wright Foundation Archives (The Museum of Modern Art Avery Architectural & Fine Arts Library, Columbia University, New York)

The Frank Lloyd Wright's Wisconsin tour is customizable and designed for art and architecture buffs, Frank Lloyd Wright fans, curious neophytes, and foodies.

To book your tour today, contact Cory Mace at (608) 770-4675 or cory@dairystatetours.com.

P.O. Box 170564, Milwaukee, WI 53217

