

Caring Hearts Caring Hands SUPPORT GROUP

Sponsored by Heart & Soul Hospice, the Caring Hearts, Caring Hands bereavement support group is a safe place to process grief, learn healthy coping skills and connect with others who are addressing grief issues. You do not have to be a recipient of Heart & Soul services to participate in Caring Hearts, Caring Hands. This group is open to the public.

Much like our eight bereavement mailings, our support group is designed to encourage and equip those grieving with tools necessary to move through the stages of shock and denial, pain and guilt, anger and bargaining, depression, reflection and loneliness, the upward turn, acceptance and hope, and reconstruction and working through grief.

The Caring Hearts, Caring Hands bereavement support group meets the second Monday of every month at 3:30 p.m. at the Heart & Soul office, 2414 N. Woodlawn Boulevard in Wichita. An RSVP is encouraged, but not required, and can be made by calling 316-652-6212 or emailing wichitahospice@pmma.org.

REV. GREG SCHMIDT, M.DIV., CHAPLAIN

Greg was named chaplain for Heart & Soul Hospice in August 2015. From 2007 to 2016, he served as chaplain at Wichita Presbyterian Manor. Greg received a Master of Divinity degree from Mennonite Brethren Biblical Seminary and has served as a pastor to Mennonite Brethren, American Baptist, and Independent and Presbyterian congregations in Newton, Hillsboro and Wichita. One of his passions is to walk alongside individuals and families through each step of life's journey in such a way as to enable and equip them to address life's greatest challenges.
