

Nazi methods regarding forced vaccinations

Excerpt from the 786th Contact of Tuesday, 23 November 2021

Billy ... but it has to be said, because the people should know what is really fact, even if it is only in circles that are interested in it.

Quetzal But the interest should be more far-reaching. When I consider all the machinations that are being enacted as false decrees in various states by those in power, I see that they lack intellect and reason. This is because they are incapable of correctly assessing the Corona situation and thereby ordering the right thing to their people who are entrusted to them in terms of leadership. I must confess that this is far from my understanding.

Billy Yes, I can understand that. Ptaah already didn't want to talk about it anymore, but Bermunda told me that he was venting about it to you and was annoyed that the governing powers of Earth are so stupid and dumb that they don't see and don't understand what the right thing to do is. But I wonder how these idiots are supposed to do that if they don't read what he just said?

Quetzal But they are told some of it, as I know.

Billy Doesn't do any good, though, because it proves the government powers in Austria, who want all the country's inhabitants to have to be vaccinated with the unfit vaccines at least from February 2022. This is contrary to all warnings and incidents that there will be deaths and people with severe side effects, some of which will be detrimental to the lives of many people until the end of their lives. I am constantly receiving telephone calls from victims or e-mails from people complaining about how badly they have been feeling since they were vaccinated. Obviously, on the other hand, those who have been vaccinated and have no side effects have nothing but luck. But that's no wonder when I consider what Ptaah and Bermunda said, that sometimes only pure distilled water and saline solutions are used as 'vaccine', and a lot of money is 'earned' with it through fraud. As a result, there are many who think they are armed against infection by the Corona virus, but in reality they are not, because they have been injected uselessly with distilled water or saline solution. The false vaccination certificates and the millions of vaccination cards that are supposed to be so perfect according to Bermunda and Ptaah, and which are sold en masse that their falseness cannot be determined, do not make things any better.

Quetzal The state powers and the people who agree to everything have learned nothing from the NAZI methods of the last world war, because they are doing exactly the same as the NAZIs did. They are applying the same and very vicious and freedom-robbing coercive methods to the people as the NAZIs already did, namely that those people are punished who will not submit to the freedom-robbing coercive measures. It is strange, even the NAZI leader at the time, Adolf Hitler, came from Austria. Although he was born in Braunau am Inn on 20 April 1889, I know that he actually began his life in Vienna. In Germany, however, he then carried out his degenerate actions and behaviour and led earthly humanity into the catastrophe of the world war. He did this with the help of the people who cheered him on. He did this with the help of the people, who, believing in him, thoughtlessly went along with the whole disaster, which ultimately claimed millions of human lives. The non-self-thinking of the majority of the people, i.e. stupidity, was unfortunately as widespread as it still is today. And with regard to the announced compulsory vaccination, the same results that had led to the world war at that time and had ignored that minority that had actually thought for itself and consequently was against what the majority thoughtlessly and as stupid followers believed this Adolf Hitler as well as followed his henchmen.

Billy Yes, that was indeed the case, not only in Germany and Austria, but also among the NAZI supporters in Switzerland, because we had people in our country who agreed with Hitler, I experienced that myself in our neighbourhood, as I also saw pictures with swastikas hanging on the living walls when I was 6 years old. Even in the government we had traitors who flirted with Hitler. This, while other Swiss were shot as traitors by firing squads for allegedly stealing cameras. At Katzenssee, I myself saw an execution carried out by the army police, as I remember my godfather saying. And he really was a traitor, as I was told, which Spath later confirmed - Göbel or something like that was the man's name, which I can't remember exactly. My memory has been wavering for years, so I remember one thing and another. It's not just the years spent here on earth, but I remember very well that I had just turned 6 a good 3 months ago and was on holiday with my godfather, Aunt Marta and my cousin Walti in Regensdorf, where I also met Elsi Moser; it was spring 1943, I remember that very well. In rainy weather, my 'godfather' Alfred Flückiger and I, he was a prison warden in the Regensdorf penitentiary at the time - crept to the execution site at Katzenssee and were able to watch everything. My godfather, whom I had without baptism, so he was probably my godfather, but not my godfather, because I was never baptised, knew the time of the execution and wanted to watch it. He took me with him because he probably needed an excuse that we would go for a walk in the early morning if we were caught , at least that's what I think today. Everything was so badly secured by the military that the two of us were able to sneak up unseen and watch everything that happened in the small pit, just as the man was shot. Today, too, we have many people in Switzerland who, like the NAZI supporters back then, want to forcibly maltreat others, only this time it is to be compulsory vaccinations against the Corona plague. How those in power in Austria want to practise this is beyond me, but how there are similar elements in Germany and Switzerland as well as in other countries, who are already operating around with such ideas and threatening with compulsory vaccinations. And it is probably life-threatening to say this, because back in February 1942 I saw Sophie Scholl and her like-minded people executed on the scaffold for saying what they thought and saw, because that is how it can happen in Switzerland too , just in a different way. At least the authorities are not squeamish about hammering me, which was proven again months ago when the police came by to see that the American who lived here with us for 3 months was really gone because his visa had expired. Since then he has been trying in vain at the Swiss Embassy in the USA to get a residence permit for Switzerland. With all kinds of excuses, he is always turned away and put off until a later date, because they are supposedly so busy and therefore cannot cope with their work properly.

How everything went wrong in Germany and in the world at that time, precisely because of the World War, which Hitler and his ilk did not like, just as they did not like Sophie Scholl distributing leaflets against the NAZI regime and therefore getting caught up in the regime's mill, I think that the same thing could happen to me, only in a different way, because I am someone who says what he thinks. And that's why it's still the case today that various people who don't like the fact that I don't keep quiet, and who are also in contact with you, use NAZI methods against me. Furthermore, they are trying to get away with the same NAZI allusions with a compulsory people's vaccination with regard to the Corona pandemic, consequently they tend to enforce everything by force, as they did back then.

The so-called Second World War, which in reality was the Third World War, because the First World War had already been fought from 1914 to 1918, claimed many millions of lives. During the world war from 1939 to 1945, in addition to criminals, of which little or nothing has been made known to date, the NAZIs and the obedient German military mainly killed, murdered and massacred Jewish believers in concentration camps, innocent women, children and men. This, along with millions of other innocent people all over the world. The fact that many Jewish believers were also betrayed by private individuals and even killed themselves has been concealed until today and has never been known. I saw and observed this with my own eyes several times together with Sfath, as well as the shooting of people in open and deep ditches into which those who were shot fell into. It was really horrible, also that many of those who fell into the trenches were not dead and were then buried alive when the trenches were covered. I was able to observe all this from his spaceship together with Sfath, and what I saw I will never forget.

However, the NAZI methods are different now and are geared towards compulsory vaccination, although the vaccine has not been fully developed and has not been sufficiently tested or tried out, and therefore also claims human lives as well as long-term or lifelong health-related damage and disadvantages. If this were different, namely that the vaccines had actually been created in long-term and years-long tests and trials as a largely safe medicine, then the willingness to vaccinate among all peoples would also look different, and quite positive. Many, many of those who have been reacting negatively since 2020 would not refuse to be vaccinated, because if they could be largely certain that vaccination would not put their lives at risk or that they would not have to spend their lives as cripples or otherwise ill, then they would be vaccinated.

However, since the vaccines were simply thrown onto the market untested and unproven at the outbreak of the epidemic and, moreover, turned out to be dangerous and partly lethal as well as harmful vaccine products, the thinking part of the peoples quickly stirred up their resistance to vaccination. Thus, the new wave that is currently prevailing and will become even worse will not change anything about the coming Corona disaster, because, as I said earlier, everything will increase, whereby in northern Europe alone, precisely in Germany, the death toll will quickly rise far above 100,000. Switzerland and all the other countries in Europe will not be spared either, nor will they be spared from the new mutation that will occur in South Africa in the near future and spill over into Europe. However, many other countries around the world will now have to mourn many victims of the Corona epidemic, because due to the incompetence of those in power, who are not doing the right thing, everything will get much worse than it has been so far. But it is no use shouting warnings to the world, because those in power want to know everything better and do exactly the opposite of what should be done. So they blame the unvaccinated for their own failure all along the line for the new emergence and spread of the epidemic and unhesitatingly apply the old-fashioned NAZI methods, believing that in this way they can get on top of the epidemic, which will probably subside with time, but will continue to exist in the future. This, in addition to the complete failure of the rulers, who have always done the wrong thing since time immemorial, because the incompetent rulers are not clever enough, but only have a big mouth, many more earthlings will perish in the far future, not only through further epidemics, which will inevitably come as a result of the ever more rampant overpopulation, but also the wars, which are triggered by the incompetent and power-hungry rulers. This is in addition to the uncertainty about what the foreigners will do, whom the Pentagon in the USA wants to get under their skin again with a new 'task force', as Ptaah recently told me. The 'Bluebook' was only the beginning of the whole thing, in which Mr. Weaver, Waever or Wever, I don't remember his name exactly, was also involved, whom I met together with Semjase, who then also told us that he had to say exactly the opposite of what really corresponded to reality and truth. He was forbidden to speak and was not allowed to say what the real truth was.

Well, that's how it is, and now it has come to the point, as you say, that NAZI methods are to be applied as in the last world war, as they are - how could it be otherwise - howling their YES and AMEN loudly to the government demands by all the Yes-roarers and all the non-thinkers or the stupid, irresponsible, thoughtless and obviously also consciously benighted. And this is happening not only in Austria, but also in Germany, as well as in Switzerland, where a referendum on this issue has been launched on 28 November, which is being supported by all the stupid and government-slaves and even non-thinking elements. But the whole thing will spread in many other countries as well, which will not lead to a good end.

Quetzal All that is correct in this respect should be made known to the state powers and the majority of the peoples in bondage to them. Besides, the 24 attacks on you so far prove that certain people don't like you, which is why I ...

Billy Yes, that has been effective so far. But the stupidity of the rulers and the majority of the peoples is more powerful than that such a thing would happen, such as our conversations being leaked to the rulers and their blind and non-thinking followers. This is ...

Quetzal This requires courage, which is, however, inherent in only a few.

Billy Unfortunately - What we talk about only reaches those who read our internet pages.

Quetzal That is true, but in this case it is interested parties who could use their initiative in this way and send it to those in charge of the state powers.

Billy That's true, but whether they would then read the whole thing and really think, appeal to their intellect and reason and thereby act better and more sensibly, I would doubt it. In the end, everyone has to know for themselves what they want to do and what they want to afford.

But those in power and their stupid supporters are unable to do this because they are incapable of clear thinking. Unfortunately, there are only a few of the rulers and the peoples who are knitted in such a way that they are able to think clearly, because in truth they are of such a kind that they only believe that they would think. And the fact that I open my mouth and say what should be, that doesn't suit them at all, which is why they try to get rid of me.

That I advise the earthlings what they should do with regard to the decrees of the government, that is far from me, for I advise neither the one nor the other, however you hold it, but what is right or would be right can nevertheless be said, and that even if there is no advice behind it. I really keep myself free of this, as you also do, because each person alone must decide what he wants to do or not do, and what he finds right for himself or not. However, the whole thing should be such that one really and truly thinks about a matter and does not just faithfully do what others preach and spread as the right or wrong opinion, order, decree or compulsion, etc. There is simply nothing that makes this possible. There is simply nothing that replaces one's very own thinking, correct decision-making and the resulting valuable action and behaviour, especially not a belief in something that speaks against all logic, which can only be recognised and followed through understanding and reason. Therefore, I cannot give advice on what the individual should do for his or her own health and safety in the matter of the corona epidemic. I can only say what reason and rationality have to say about this, namely that every person must use his or her own thinking, decisions and actions to protect himself or herself and all fellow human beings and do the right thing. In the case of the Corona epidemic, this means that a suitable and high-quality FFP2 respiratory mask must be worn and that sufficient distance must be maintained when dealing with other people. This is and remains the only thing that is not to be understood as advice, but as a self-imposed duty to protect one's own health and that of fellow human beings.

Quetzal It is simply amazing how precisely and accurately you always know how to say and explain everything. In fact, I find that enviable.

Billy Excuse me, but this is nothing special, because I learned from Sfath that when you have something to say or explain, you should do it in such a way that it is understood by the person listening, so that he or she can also ask questions if something comes up that may not be properly understood or can be taken further. This requires patience, the right words and also the will and the ability to appreciate the fellow human being as such and to treat him in such a way and to answer him as he deserves.

Quetzal I understand that, but to really be able to do it, that's something completely different.

Billy That may be, but we are deviating from the subject, which is actually of a slightly different nature.

Quetzal Yes, you are right. If I want to go back to what we were talking about, then I understand the whole thing in the way that the state powers, in their inability to do the right thing in the case of the Corona epidemic, have behaved completely wrongly and effectively ordered the wrong thing to their peoples. They are now shifting the blame for their misconduct and their misguided decrees onto the unvaccinated part of the peoples by making them liable for the further spread of the epidemic, the reoccurrence of which was likely because the peoples followed the wrong thing ordered by the state leaders who were not up to the task of dealing with the epidemic.

So now the unvaccinated are to be forced to vaccinate by NAZI methods, to which the like-minded from the peoples agree with pro and hooray, as it was then when the NAZIs and their followers advocated the world war under the misguidance of Adolf Hitler. This is now happening again in a different way, in that the state powers are now shifting their responsibility onto their respective populations by striving for compulsory vaccination, namely with very questionable vaccines, which are half-baked, insufficiently tested and thus poorly tested, and therefore still need years before they can be used with a clear conscience as a vaccine against the Corona virus. But what is currently being done to earthly people with the administration of inadequate vaccines - if such vaccines are used at all and not simply distilled water or saline solution, is not only criminal but criminal. The fact that there is financial enrichment behind the whole thing obviously does not occur to those in power, just as they do not think about the fact that all their actions and their wrong thinking cause more damage to the trust of the people in their leaders than can be borne in the long run. For if the people lose their confidence in their leaders, then it can degenerate as badly as in the case when they are politically and leadership-wise misled, as has happened through the NAZIs, whose methods are now to be enforced by the state powers, in that a compulsory vaccination is to be exerted on that part of the population which is against the use of the vaccines which will still be inadequate for a long time. The fact that the stupid like-minded people of the nations are irresponsibly going along with the state powers and are even propagandising for it, makes everything even worse.

Billy Unfortunately, this is the case and cannot be changed, because the NAZI method, as you call it, has existed and worked since time immemorial. Even in very early times, the earthlings were persuaded - 'convinced' - from thinking for themselves and made believers. It did not matter whether a war, a civil war, a world war, a human massacre or any other evil was triggered. The fact that in this way, precisely through conviction, which in truth is nothing other than persuasion, i.e. convincing much unbelievable and immeasurable evil has befallen mankind on earth since time immemorial and has remained so to this day, is something that neither those in power think about, nor those from the nations who crawl up the backs of those in power, and that without them first having to drop their trousers and uncover their foul-smelling backside.

But while I am at it, pointing out the real machinations of those in power, I should not forget that there are also elements in the Swiss government who do not belong there. I am thinking of those who are involved in dumping down the tax money of the Swiss population by giving away cohesion billions to foreign governments so that 'good weather' or 'cohesion' can prevail between them and Switzerland. In this respect, Switzerland is to pay another cohesion billion to the EU dictatorship in order to make 'good weather' once again, because last year - or so - Switzerland, praising the EU, no longer allowed itself to be trampled on on the nose, but refrained from the EU demands. Now, however, Switzerland wants to negotiate with the EU again and create 'good weather for negotiations' by squandering taxpayers' money and giving the EU dictatorship a cohesion billion in order to be accepted by the dictatorship as a 'negotiating partner' again. But let that be, because these are things over which the ordinary citizen has no influence, because here too it is the case that the majority of those who go along with the governments and their false and deceitful promises and decisions have the say - without asking and thinking for themselves, but only accepting what is directed from above. And since this is indeed the case, the thinking person can do nothing against it, because the majority of the non-thinkers always wins, because the principle of the majority applies. A person who really thinks for himself is not one of them, so he never has a chance to put forward something really thoughtful or to put it to the vote, which would then also be analysed down to the last iota by the electorate through their own thoughts and found to be correct and affirmed by reason and reason.

Quetzal We wouldn't have that, because there the word of the individual Plejaren is important and in any case unmistakable.

Billy Yes, I know, because unlike us on earth, with you a person and his opinion is worth as much as the whole people. Well, then something else,.....
