Conversation between Florena and Bermunda from the Plejaren Federation and 'Billy' Eduard Albert Meier, BEAM
Seven hundred and seventy-second contact Friday, July 30, 2021, 9:52 p.m.

Billy So these are the newspaper articles that Achim sent me for publication, and these probably speak an open language about what is being concealed from the public with regard to the vaccination against the Corona disease. Vaccinations, whose substance is only secretly tested on the world population, but who have no knowledge of the fact that the stuff is only being tested and is only in a new test phase and is therefore worthless or partially worthless.

1. Many human beings fall victim to it again and again, and 2. vaccinated people suffer from long-term health damages, which can last a lifetime. And 3. impulse deposits are given, which can lead again and again to illnesses and to any health-damaging and besides to life-dangerous reactions. And the fact that with this plague such kind of impulse deposits take place is completely unknown to the earthly virologists and the whole science, because they never had to deal with such kinds of effects with a virus. Then it is to be mentioned 4. That the inoculations and/or their materials are useless against it, because despite the inoculation the persons remain infectious and can infect thus the next. Then 5. it is to be said that the antibodies, which result from the vaccination, evaporate already after 3 to 4 months at the latest however 8 to 10 months later, consequently a next vaccination, and then again and again and again a vaccination is necessary, as already Sfath 1947 explained. He explained at that time and this was also confirmed by Ptaah that this disease, which was artificially created in China namely in the middle of the 1970 years by the aspiration of a hateful American has the property to set off impulses in the human organism, which on the one hand are capable that the disease remains contagious in spite of a vaccination and thus can spread further at least for a certain time. This was already explained by Sfath, which was also confirmed by Ptaah.

Florena We are aware of this.

Bermunda Yes, we know that. But it is also known to us that unreasonably and dictatorially among the many earthly state leaders are diverse ones who demand that rights of freedom of movement be curtailed for those who are willing to be vaccinated, and that they be granted fewer freedoms compared to vaccinated and 'recovered' people. Something that is totally of the injustice and interferes with the free will of human beings and their basic rights of free opinion. This after from the beginning of the epidemic the right and necessary things were not done by the leaders of the state, which they should have done to nip the epidemic in the bud.

Florena Yes, the earthly state leaders are really incapable of their office, and they want to convert this now against vaccination opponents into the opposite, by wanting to punish the vaccination unwilling with special measures. This in such a way, as Ptaah explained who is working up the annals of Sfath from the year 1947, which contain your predictions, which you should bring in and write down, and which you wrote as a 10 year old and which were controlled and corrected by your teachers and by the priest that these no longer find access in certain places, as for example in guest houses, stadiums and in other public venues. And furthermore, in the future, human beings are to pay for Corona tests and otherwise be discriminated against. This is an unprecedented injustice and proves the incompetence of the state leaders. It will even be claimed that there will be a pandemic of the opponents of vaccination and that they will endanger themselves and their fellow men, but this is not true, it is the opposite case, because the vaccinated and the previously infected with the disease represent a danger of infection for the still healthy, because such vaccinated persons remain infectious and infect those not yet infected by the Corona disease by their still existing possibility of infection with the pathogen of the disease. Added to this is the fact that tens of thousands of sham vaccinations have been carried out, as we have noted, which were merely for enrichment and were completely useless, but which lulled the 'vaccinated' into a false sense of security.

Basically, according to the inadequacy and the still appearing side effects of the vaccine which can lead to life endangering in case of an injection it must be specifically said that we Plejaren do not want to or cannot be in any way advisory for a FOR or an AGAINST regarding a vaccination with one of the vaccines. This is because, according to our directives, we are not allowed to interfere in any way in earthly affairs, neither with advice nor with action.

As Ptaah explained as a specialist he is one of our specialists and scholars on virology, in addition to everything else for which he can be called a luminary in other fields of activity that it is so far on earth for the first time that impulses of a plague are set off, since he deals with these things on this planet. These together with the unproven vaccine develop in the long run the characteristic to release other diseases, which can be life threatening under certain circumstances. From this all human beings are and will be affected, who become ill from the plague and who are carriers of the impulse despite a vaccination with the untested vaccine and the possibility cannot be excluded that they infect other human beings with the plague virus. The possibility of infection of other persons therefore remains and does not spare them at all from an infection. The fact that a person undergoes a vaccination in this respect, does not protect him at all from the fact that the health-damaging effect by the deposited impulses which cannot be recognized and elicited by the earthly virologists and physicians, however reveals itself only in years by further illnesses. This will prove only in the future, if not already earlier after the vaccination health complaints and even death consequences occur.

What will be propagated by those responsible for the state, that it is in the own responsibility of the individual person to protect himself and others from the plague by vaccination, simply corresponds to a lie and fantasy, which will be opposed by the sensible ones. But this in turn leads to the deflection, to the dissent and to the denial of the truth of the Corona epidemic, which unfortunately will be the consequence and will spread far and wide, in terms of an emerging indifference, because, on the one hand, very inadequate and, on the other hand, false information is passed on to the populations by the state leaders as well as by the authoritative disease institutions.

It is to be said that it is completely irresponsible of the manufacturers of the so-called vaccines to bring these to the application, how these also on the majority of the earth humanity to test. This process, which usually takes 8 to 15 years and more, is therefore far from being completed, and it will take a long time before a vaccine without major and abnormal side effects will finally be ready. The irresponsibility of the state leaders, who did not act correctly at the beginning of the arising of the Corona epidemic and did not completely block everything, as it would have been necessary, is to be considered as very bad. At that time, the catastrophe of the many deaths could have been avoided if they had acted thoughtfully. At that time the majority of mankind was still willing to carry out a complete lockdown and the necessary measures, while only a small part refused to do so because they wanted to make themselves big and were unreasonable. By the correct and rigorous enforcement which must be absolutely enforced in such situations the epidemic would have been nipped in the bud before it could begin to spread. All necessary measures of catering and all necessities should have been taken and enforced from the very beginning by the state officials, but this was not done. Also, the wearing of respirators and the necessary keeping of distance were not rigorously and responsibly observed, like many other things that would have led to the prevention of the pandemic. Truly I must say, as Ptaah formulated: "The state leaders of the earthly peoples are unworthy of their office and incapable, because they do not know in their stupidity and their megalomania about what to do in emergencies. And they do not know how to lead a people, for they are obsessed with power, and their intellect as well as their reason are just sufficient to govern their own ..."

Billy I don't write that when I call up the conversation. But you Plejaren have tried an exception with the non-interference in earthly affairs, namely at that time when Lee Elders should convey your offer to the American government. And because of the bogus vaccinations I did not want to say anything, because it is denied anyway, although it should be actually known to certain rulers and the people should be informed about this fraud. But until today, nothing has been said about it by any government. As for whether or not to be vaccinated, we at FIGU do not give advice, because each human being must know and decide for himself how to behave and what he wants or needs to do. So we take note of everything you say and explain, and after that everyone decides for himself what he wants to do or not do. So we as individuals do not even know from our neighbor whether he has had himself vaccinated or not. Private matters simply remain private matters, and that is nobody else's business but the person in question's own.

Florena That is also correct so, and besides it makes the association FIGU all honor, because it calls itself "FREIE Interessengemeinschaft", and only if each member is really free in each decision and in the action, can be spoken of FREI and FREIE. And this is really the case with you. But the other thing I have said is really also true. And that you do not want to speak about it, I understand that, however, it is not right, because the only apparently vaccinated lull themselves falsely in security before the epidemic which will fetch further far its victims. As far as our offer to the USA at that time is concerned, I was also partially oriented about that, as well as that everything was to be extended with the Soviet Union. What was with the attempt of that time, where Lee Elders was the man who should arrange everything, there I have probably some knowledge, but the whole connections are not familiar to me. So I have received knowledge of it and I know that it remained a senseless attempt which should never have a continuation again. We had to recognize that the earth people except for very few persons are still so far away from the consciousness like adulthood that it is useless to address them on understanding and reason. This is proved alone by the inadequacies of the leaders of the state by their wrong decisions and ways of acting, which they impose on the peoples, always wanting to be more knowledgeable than the true knowledge itself. Also, they are very emotional and agitated instead of calm and thoughtful, thus they make and carry out their decisions and orders according to the emotionality that arises in them. So truly, even though they ponder over it for a long time, make rash decisions and act hastily, the results are always wrong. In their uncontrolled emotionality they cause enormous damage, wage wars against other peoples and states, impose sanctions against other peoples and states, which never hit those who should be considered as the real culprits, namely the state leaders. In any case, the sufferers are the peoples who have to endure all the effects of the sanctions, but never those who provide all the cause for the pathologically stupid sanctions, namely the state leaders from the lowest to the highest ranks. Stupid and careless also act those non-adult state responsible persons who dare to 'invent' the sanctions which can be called idiotic and to order them against understanding and reason. Equally stupidly behave the state responsible persons and the military leaderships as well as the air traffic companies of all states etc. which try to negate and to ridicule all reports which deal with observations as well as the experiences of and with the strangers, thus with their flying objects, the so-called UFOs, and the other occurrences with these. Moreover, things are kept secret, which should be made known to the public in this respect, but which by the secrecy let the peoples run into the unknown, consequently they are not more and not less than gegängelt (?) at the fool's rope, as you once said. Besides, it must be said that we ourselves keep away from these strangers we call them so, although we know about their origin so far that they can never locate us and could not do it so far, and never can do it. For this we are concerned and will also remain it for all time, consequently we will also never announce our dimension, as also not, in which universe our home is.

Billy I know that, but the whole thing that you ...

Florena This is not a problem for us, because we know very well that you are silent about it and that you will never mention it. You can also call up this passage of our conversation and write it down. What I have explained, from it the strangers can take nothing, consequently the knowledge about our existence will remain as hazy to them as before. They will not be able to ascertain anything from us, as it has been the case since time immemorial and will remain so. But if I think further, then all the earthly female and male decisions are to be recognized for me further, which are completely wrongly conceived and converted regarding ideas, advances, inventions of new regulations, guidelines, decrees, laws, prohibitions and taxes, which are thought up by newly in the state leaders appearing as mighty giants. Proposals and demands etc., which are to set them a monument and to perpetuate themselves in the round of the regulations and law-bringers, and with which the books of the laws, regulations and rules etc. are to fill and to force the human being for all times to adhere to these iron and to make him the obedient citizen who does not dare to raise his word against the wrong-thinking and wrong-acting authority any more, if I may use once your expression. What is still to be objected to refers to the leaders of the state in the respective own country, and this in the way that 1. The so-called leaders of the state are no persons who deserve this designation of right, and 2. Because they are actually ignorant of state leadership, who overestimate their ability to lead a people and are by no means capable of doing what they would have to do as leaders of the state only in thoughtful-superior ability, decisions and actions. According to exact knowledge we do not know of any earthly state which would be led flawlessly and without any state-responsible mis-decisions and maltreatments in such a way that not any law-given or by from case to case to be decided, as well as wrong and serious injustices would come to light. Even courts, from which justice should be expected from the ground up, make and defend doubtful judgments, which are so recognizable of injustice that even minors must recognize that not of justice, but according to favor, according to money, according to the form of lies and slander or according to the manner of the plaintiff or the defendant, but not according to justice, is decided. Thus, financial misconduct, slander, murder and other violence are not punished uniformly, but according to the circumstances, not according to the law, which demands a certain punishment for a punishable act, no matter what circumstances have led to it. Equally wrong is acted politically, only in a different way, e.g. by imposing sanctions against a state for any reason, which, however, do not affect the wrongdoers, namely the state officials, but the usually innocent people. All this and much more injustice often happens in the 'name of the Lord', in the name of the non-existent God, whose name is good enough for every outrage to humiliate and unjustly punish human beings or to punish wrongdoers, malefactors or otherwise punishable persons not according to the law, but according to the circumstances and not according to the existing law.

Bermunda That is indeed so, with which I address the truth that Florena has said, and there is no dispute about it. All the posturing of the state officials on earth, no matter whether they are lower or higher officials, or whether they are the highest exercisers of state power personally or their comrades-in-arms or advisors, they are all alike in their sentiments. As you once said, "They are all pulling the same rope."

Billy Again the thing with Lee Elders, because

Florena That is not so important, because it was only an attempt which failed, which was surely quite good so. The earthly state responsible persons are still immature, and they believe nevertheless to be adult. If they were that, however, then they would understand to use their intellect and their reason what is not possible for them, however, because they are still immature in their intellect and reason ability and decide and act consistently wrongly. However, this leads to the fact that despite the general technical and the electronic progress etc., and the earth hopping journeys, as you call these, the intelligentsia of the state leaders is still very deficient and childish. This finally leads to the fact that almost throughout wrong decisions and wrong actions are made and dissatisfaction, quarrels and finally in some form hatred arise from it, which is then felt as injustice and from it retaliation, revenge, reprimand or even murder or war arises, which is as a rule still completely mixed with religion and belief in God and injustice. This is because finally and fundamentally everything is fed with religious slogans, which also unconsciously act as a cumulative religious sense of justice and want to be lived out.

Billy Of course, it must be really like that, because if I had to describe the thing, then I would explain this in similar way, because it cannot be different than in such a way as you elaborate it. If I think over the whole thing, then revenge and retaliation lie since human memory in religion-conditioned origin, approximately after the sense "like you me, so I you", freely interpreted after that that the imaginary God blesses yes vengefully the warriors, who should fight and murder for him.

But now once apart from what was said just now, I assume that those doubters who will read our conversation reports as contact reports in the end, will assume and will claim that not you and not Ptaah, or any other one of you has spoken what I call up and write down, that just not you, not Bermunda, not Ptaah or any other one of you has really said that, but that they are my words which I would have fantasized.

If you, Florena, now declare that our rulers are not adults, such doubting people think that I invented and said all that, which in truth are your words. Indeed, I think in the same way, because ...

Florena Sorry, but you can't speak in my words.

Billy But I can say that the rulers really decide and act like underage children, and moreover emotionally, which should never be the case with rulers and popular leaders. So just said, as you say it.

Florena Of course, you can, but you say that I said it.

Billy Of course, I want to remain correct in the matter. So it goes on in the same style: This proves also by idiotic sanctions, which are imposed against a country, which hit the people and let suffer, not however the governing ones, who squat at the helm and let it go well. They do not care about sanctions, but let the people suffer because of them. It is the same with the fact that the rulers decide that nuclear weapons dominate the fear of the world, while the peoples - except for the crazy ones - want to get rid of them, because the presence of nuclear weapons always keeps the danger that they will be used by madmen and power-hungry people. And it is an indisputable fact that as long as there are nuclear weapons, they will maintain the danger that the ignorance and the unreasonableness of the immature people in power, the rulers, will lead to a nuclear war. If I think further, then also the destruction of the climate comes to my mind, to which the governing ones have paid no attention from time immemorial and do not do it also today in completely wrong way. The fact that this is so is proven by the fact that those responsible do not even perceive how rapidly nature works, how it, for example, reacted very quickly when air traffic and car traffic were drastically reduced. Those who had eyes in their head saw how quickly the sky changed its color and radiated a better, more beautiful and deeper blue, but within a few days this lost itself again and changed back into a dirty gray-blue, when again more airplanes flew through the plagued skies. Also that the air was better to breathe, when the whole air traffic and car traffic etc. was strongly limited, and the breathing became more cumbersome again, when the air pollution started anew, because the air traffic and car traffic was allowed again and started anew, has passed by the responsible rulers and the whole bulk of mankind without a trace and without realization and counteracting consequences. So, without thinking more about the present and the future, at least in this respect, but only about continuing in the old style as soon as possible, and without a thought of losses. Because of the little Greta Thunberg from Sweden, the rulers inevitably agreed that the air pollution was caused by the CO₂ alone, and that this alone is to blame for the climate change, for the melting of the glaciers, the poles and the air pollution, but the real reason is kept silent, namely the blatant overpopulation. The overpopulation is to blame for everything, with its machinations regarding its needs, the urge for luxury, the vacation in foreign countries and the desires of various kinds, which various specialized companies, corporations and private people fulfill by robbing the earth, by overexploiting it, by harassing nature and its fauna and flora, all ecosystems, the atmosphere and by destroying the climate. Therefore now as I know from Ptaah the world climate council consults and will come to the result that actually a climate change is given and this is the human being's only fault. But the real reason will not be recognized, namely the overpopulation and its machinations, which it lets others carry out, who, greedy for money and profit, still like to destroy the world and its life of all kinds, if only their cash box fills up. So the CO₂ emission alone will be assigned the origin of the premature climate catastrophe, because the responsible persons of the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change are only earthlings, who make themselves important, but have only useless straw in their brains and think that the brat Greta Thunberg would have hit the nail on the head, namely with the humanly triggered climate warming by the CO₂, which is on everybody's lips since her childish appearance. The WHO will also decide what will be and what should be done, but nothing will come out of it to change the climate disaster. The whole thing that will be found out by the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change alone will be the fact that the CO₂ misery or the emission of the gas is to blame for all climate change and therefore to be limited, namely by the fact that only electric cars should be produced and driven. However, it is not taken into account that this will require much more electricity generation plants that can never be built not even by solar energy. The climate change alone makes this impossible, not to mention the necessary space, which is getting smaller and smaller due to the growth of mankind resp. the overpopulation, which needs more and more space to be able to live - what is still called life, which more and more resembles being rotten. This is because people only hunt for profit and pleasure, just as luxury and vacation in distant countries haunt people's minds, but not nature and its fauna and flora, the ecosystems in general and the planet, which is thoughtlessly as a whole be done, which is entirely on the cap of the machinations of the overpopulation. However, these machinations are carried out as already mentioned with the help of others, who make their profitable business with it and enrich themselves with it. This alone is the true evil that is destroying everything, driving the climate to change, and increasingly challenging all life, slowly but surely wiping it out and bringing it to a standstill. Now there are already over 9.16 billion human beings who are harassing this world, the earth. And it will be in the year 2030 already 10 billion, contrary to the assertions of the 'scientists' who reckon with this number in the year 2050. Just clever 'scientists' who want to know everything better anyway.

But back to the beginning of the Corona epidemic: So it is to be understood that the governing have quite failed, because if I have understood your words correctly, then the disaster of the many dead worldwide would have been prevented if the governing had acted correctly. In the beginning, people were willing to comply with government orders, the lockdown, the wearing of respirators and the distance from one human being to another, as well as all other necessary safety measures. But this has changed over time because there has been too lax a crackdown and listening to the complainers and those who negated everything without holding them accountable. The indifference has very quickly taken possession of many, consequently the mind, the caution and the fear have also subsided. The government circles will even go so far, as I still know from the time of Sfath, that they will lift the mask-wearing and the spacer rules in various countries and let the human beings lead their normal lives without precautionary measures.

Due to the wrong and lax actions of the governments, the disaster has befallen mankind and has caused millions of deaths. Thus, since time immemorial, nothing has been learned about epidemics and their containment, not even by ricocheters and other know-it-alls who themselves have not been affected by the epidemic - but may yet be. So the time limit has passed uselessly, in which the epidemic could be contained and brought to the dissolution, consequently it was brought to the rampant, which has cost the lives of millions of human beings until now and will still cost. This, because the social behavior of the earth people continues in the old style and nobody makes thoughts about the further future of the earth, let alone about mankind itself, as about all other life forms, without which on the earth no life is possible, which are exterminated however from greed for money and from lack of understanding of weak-minded earthlings without hesitation.

Bermunda That is all true, but we should turn to the other things that are still coming up and that fall outside of what we have talked about so far and that should be talked about privately.

Florena That's right, so let's turn to the private, which is equally important to discuss. So if I want to start with that ...
