THE PAPACY IN THE SECRET OF FATIMA – PART VII THE ANTICHRURCH OF THE GREAT APOSTASY

From the desk of Father Paul Kramer B.Ph., S.T.B., M. Div., S.T.L. (Cand.)

As I wrote earlier: "Pope Benedict warned that the boat (of Peter), the Church: "the boat has taken on so much water as to be on the verge of capsizing."

Bergoglio is also on record of having stated, that he intends to bring about union between the Catholic Church and the Protestant sects. When that happens, it will not be the true & visible Catholic Church, which, remaining faithful to dogma, will refuse to unite with other religions and denominations, and which will remain faithful to the Law of Christ; but it will be the APOSTATE CHURCH -- the "Conciliar Church".

Archbishop Fulton Sheen wrote: "The False prophet will make a religion without a cross. A religion without a world to come. A religion to destroy religions. There will be a counterfeit Church.
Christ's Church the Catholic Church will be one; and the false Prophet will create the other.
The False Church will be worldly, ecumenical, and global. It will be a loose federation of churches and religions, forming some type of global association.

A world parliament of churches will be emptied of all Divine content, it will be the mystical Body of the anti-Christ. The Mystical Body on earth today will have its Judas Iscariot, and he will be the false prophet. Satan will recruit him from our Bishops.
The Antichrist will not be so called; otherwise he would have no followers. He will not wear red tights, nor vomit sulphur, nor carry a trident, nor wave an arrowed tail as Mephistopheles in Faust. This masquerade has helped the Devil convince men that he does not exist. When no man recognizes, the more power he exercises. God has defined Himself as "I am Who am," and the Devil as "I am who am not."

The pre-Communist Russian belief is that he will come disguised as the Great Humanitarian; he will talk peace, prosperity and plenty not as means to lead us to God, but as ends in themselves ...
The third temptation in which Satan asked Christ to adore him and all the kingdoms of the world would be His, will become the temptation to have a new religion without a Cross, a liturgy without a world to come, a religion to destroy a religion, or a politics which is a religion—one that renders unto Caesar even the things that are God's.

In the midst of all his seeming love for humanity and his glib talk of freedom and equality, he will have one great secret which he will tell to no one: he will not believe in God. Because his religion will be brotherhood without the fatherhood of God, he will deceive even the elect. He will set up a counterfeit church which will be the ape of the Church, because he, the Devil, is the ape of God. It will have all the notes and characteristics of the Church, but in reverse and emptied of its divine content. It will be a mystical body of the Antichrist that will in all externals resemble the mystical body of Christ [...]. But the twentieth century will join the counterfeit church because it claims to be infallible when its visible head speaks ex cathedra ...

Pope John Paul II stated that this struggle between the Church and the anti-church; the Gospel and the anti-gospel, is revealed in the Secret of Fatima. As I wrote elsewhere, "if it was so important 58 years ago that the Mother of God wanted the Secret revealed then, how much more urgent is it now, five years after the heretical intruder has hijacked the Vatican, and transformed it into the headquarters of his global Reformation, by which he intends to replace the true Catholic Church with a Masonic counterfeit church. This point of the Secret must be shouted from the rooftops."

This is pre-eminently the duty of the priests: The priest must be a guardian and watchman, who sounds the alarm when the enemy attacks. This is what God says on this point: "The word of the Lord came to me: 'Son of man, speak to your people and say to them: 'When I bring the sword against a land, and the people of the land choose one of their men and make him their watchman, and he sees the sword coming against the land and blows the trumpet to warn the people, then if anyone hears the trumpet but does not heed the warning and the sword comes and takes their life, their blood will be on their own head. Since they heard the trumpet but did not heed the warning, their blood will be on their own head. If they had heeded the warning, they would have saved themselves. But if the watchman sees the sword coming and does not blow the trumpet to warn the people and the sword comes and takes someone's life, that person's life will be taken because of their sin, but I will hold the watchman accountable for their blood.'" (Ezekiel 33)
Meanwhile, as the Anti-Church makes its move to take the place of the true Church founded by Christ; so many priests and bishops uphold the supposed legitimacy of the false "Conciliar Church" and its counterfeit "pope".

HELL

By Timothy Montgomery

Did Pope Francis say that there is no Hell? Not really, but yes he did, almost, nearly, ????. What is being reported by USA Today, Fox News, The Catholic News Agency, Catholic World Report, The American Conservative, the Washingtonpost.com, and a multitude of other agencies is information that came from an interview that Pope Francis had with Eugenio Scalfari (an atheist), the founder of La Repubblica. It must be noted that Scalfari does not record his interviews, USA Today reported. So therefore, were Pope Francis's words, taken out of context? The Vatican also reports it was not an interview, just a meeting?

Scalfari asked the Pope:

Where do bad souls go when someone dies? Scalfari reported the Pope said: "They are not punished, those who repent obtain the forgiveness of God and enter the rank of souls who contemplate him, but those who do not repent and cannot therefore be forgiven, disappear. There is no Hell, there is the disappearance of sinful souls."

Bothersome comments for someone who has been taught differently. All Catholics, as far as I know not only have been taught there is indeed a hell, it is most definitely a place we don't ever want to see. Our Lady showed what hell looked like to the three children of Fatima in 1917. These children were ready to be boiled in oil for what they saw and heard.

Does that sound like there is no hell?

I went online and researched some of Pope Francis' statements. A site, www.brainyquote.com, which had quotes of Pope Francis did not have any quotes from him mentioning hell, that I could find. Pope Benedict XVI said hell "really exists and is eternal, even if nobody talks about it anymore", as Fox News reported.

I feel that this is such a serious matter, that the Vatican need not respond to this dilemma, but Pope Francis himself must publicly address it. Anything short of that will only spawn conspiracies and rumors that the Catholic Church has truly lost its way.

CHINA'S CATHOLIC HISTORY AND PRESENT-DAY VATICAN/BEIJING AGREEMENT

Excerpts taken from The Devils Final Battle, and Catholic News Agency/EWTN articles by Courtney Grogan and Elise Harris

As the world moves past the events of the one-hundred-year anniversary of Our Lady's apparition at Fatima, Portugal an almost ominous pall has spread over the entire world. The events, now taking place in China are surely indicative of the failed attempts to obey heaven's plan for peace – the consecration of Russia to the Immaculate Heart of Mary by the Holy Father in union with the Catholic bishops of the world on the same day at the same time.

In March, Servants of Jesus and Mary began reporting on Cardinal Zen's plight to stem the tide of the Vatican's allowance of China's government to put schismatic or excommunicated bishops in the place of longstanding bishops of the "underground" Catholic Church who are validly recognized by the Vatican. The Chinese Patriotic Catholic Association, that is under the control of China's communist government, is presently moving quickly to unseat these "underground church" bishops.

Stepping back in time and recapping the history of China's troubled relationship with the Vatican, in 1951 Beijing severed ties with the Vatican and a systematic persecution began against parishioners, priests, and religious who refused government control and subsequently were imprisoned, harassed or persecuted. The 1950's also saw the formation of the Catholic Patriotic Association (CPA) to replace the Catholic Church after "Chairman Mao" declared the Catholic Church "illegal" in Red China. The CPA is thus a human organization created by a Communist government and set up as a "church" which Chinese Catholics must join. The CPA bishops and priests therefore, are all schismatics by definition.

Over 100 bishops have been consecrated illicitly by the CPA without a papal mandate, in direct violation of the Code of Canon Law; worse still, those illicitly consecrated bishops publicly declare their primary allegiance to the Communist regime of China while disavowing (in the CPA constitution) any allegiance or submission to the Pope. As a result, these illicit bishops and those who consecrated them, would be excommunicated (automatically). In 1994 the CPA bishops issued a so-called pastoral letter in which they endorsed China's population control policy, including forced abortions on all women who have one child already, calling upon Chinese Catholics to support this abomination.

In short, the CPA is a Communist-created, government-controlled, blatantly schismatic, blatantly heretical, pro-abortion organization, created by the devil himself, acting through Mao Tse-tung and his successor President Xi Jinping. And yet the Vatican has declared no schism, nor any extensive excommunication of the Communist-controlled, pro-abortion clergy.

As well, in September 2000 while Cardinal Etchegaray was in China for "a Symposium on Religions and Peace" an 82-year-old Catholic priest in the "underground" Catholic Church, which remains in union with Rome, was beaten into a coma and carried off to jail by "security" police. The Vatican issued no protest over the nearly fatal beating of this priest, nor any protest over the arrest, imprisonment and torture of loyal Catholic priests, bishops and laity by the Red Chinese regime.

Is it any wonder that Cardinal Joseph Zen, Archbishop Emeritus of Hong Kong, continues to speak out against a present-day Vatican/

China agreement? It is a continuation of his long vocal history of speaking out against human-rights abuses in China. In his recent travels to Rome he presented concerns over the removal of Bishop Peter Zhuang Jianlan of Shantou in southern Guangdong province and Bishop Joseph Guo Xilin from Mindong diocese of China's eastern Fujian province who were replaced with two bishops from the Chinese Patriotic Catholic Association.

On March 23, 2018, the communist Chinese government introduced tighter control on religious freedom. President Xi Jinping's restrictive goals to "Sinicize" the Chinese religions and infuse their religious theories with Chinese character. Thus, they would be supervised by the Chinese Communist Party's United Front Work Department (UFWWD). This spirit in government would result in an avowedly Marxist atheistic communist party overseeing religious affairs. All parties, including the "underground Catholic Church" would owe their first allegiance to the communist government and not to their religious faiths. It should be noted that no member of the Chinese Communist Party is open to follow or practice a religion. Soon the future of Catholicism in China, under the thumb of Xi Jinping, will result in a further loss of faith because the Vatican will not stand up and oppose evil with a righteous anger. Thus, the hope of queuing the Vatican-Beijing agreement seems doomed.

Can it be any clearer that Our Lady of Fatima's prophecies – that Russia would spread its errors throughout the world – is visibly alive and thriving in Communist China. Her message is not only for China to take heed, but the entire world that could suffer enslavement if Russia is not consecrated to Her Immaculate Heart.

THE ORIGIN OF "BUEN SUCCESO" OUR LADY OF GOOD SUCCESSES

By Father Luigi Villa and taken from his Chiesa Viva's Special Edition #413

"Mary of Good Success", "Virgin of Good Success", or "Our Lady of Good Success" was an invocation well known in Spain. The history of this invocation dates back to the time of wars of liberation from the Muslims. It is to the "Buen Suceso," that a magnificent altar was devoted by the victorious El Cid upon entering Triunphant into the city of Almerara. (El Cid was the most victorious of all the knights who fought in these wars against the infidels and he and his army were never defeated in battle.)

The meaning of the term "Buen Suceso" or "Good Success" is the miracle or supernatural intervention of the Mother of God in which She intercedes in favor of her children. It is the extraordinary event that converts an image of stone or wood, into a 'door' to God or 'gate of Heaven'.

Most importantly, however, the authoritative seal, placed on the invocation of Our Lady of Good Success which has been crucial to the success of the promotion of her devotion originated directly from the will of a Pope: Pope Paul V (1605 – 1621).

The first devotion to the Blessed Mother under this title officially approved by a Pope Paul V originated in Spain in the year 1606 when two Minim Brothers, Brother Gabriel de Fontanar and Guillermo de Figosa, discovered a beautiful statue of the Blessed Mother and the Infant Jesus on their way to get approval from the Pope for their new order. It was a truly miraculous discovery in a perilous storm in which these brothers felt for certain that they were going to die. Praying with resignation to God – imploring only for a safe haven to have a place to expire happily, they found their prayers answered when they saw a strange light coming from a cave high up a steep cliff. Hoping that this was an answer to their prayers, they climbed this steep mountainous path to reach the desolate place. Arriving there, what a surprise they had! For not only was this a place of safe haven but a magnificent shrine to the Mother of God; for in this forlorn place they discovered a beautiful statue of Mary and Baby Jesus and surrounding this shrine of natural wonders were flowers that exuded a perfume that was not of this world, illuminating this grotto was a light that reflected throughout as a thousand shimmering lights – Such a wonder to behold for these poor exhausted friars! Thus, through their prayers these religious found not only this place of shelter but they found their lives were spared and a beautiful statue in a place most unexpected.

Not only was this happening miraculous in its occurrence but as to how this statue arrived there For no one was known to have made the statue or the beautiful sanctuary where it was found. So, taking the statue, they carried it to Rome. These two brothers hoped that the Blessed Mother would assist them to get the much-needed approval for their order. When the time came for the brothers to plead their case before the Holy Roman Pontiff, Pope Paul V, they were extremely worried. They feared they would not get the consent they were seeking. However, to their great astonishment, on hearing the wonderful story of the discovery of the statue and realizing this was a supernatural occurrence, the Pope knelt before the statue and placed his pectoral cross around her neck. The Holy Father asked to embrace this statue. As he kissed her, he exclaimed:

"LOOK BROTHERS! SHE IS SMILING! WHAT GOOD SUCCESS YOU HAVE HAD ON THIS JOURNEY! THERE IS NO DOUBT THAT OUR LADY HAS DESIGNED TO PROTECT AND SUPPORT YOU IN YOUR WORK, THEREFORE, IT WILL NOT BE ME THAT WILL GO AGAINST HER, MAY ALL OF YOUR DESIRES HAVE GOOD SUCCESS!
He then blessed it and christened her "OUR LADY OF GOOD SUCCESSES". He commanded that devotion to her should be immediately propagated. Thus, the friars and the statue made their way back to Spain, where the statue was eventually taken to Madrid. At once the statue became renowned for its numerous miracles. Presently, the statue resides in the Church of Buen Suceso in Madrid, Spain.

OUR LADY OF LA SALETTE

~ La Salette, France 1846 ~

On September 19, 1846 Our Lady appeared to two children, Maximin Giraud - age 11, and Melanie Mathieu - age 14, in a small village in France called La Salette. The children were looking after cows and had only known each other a few days. Both children recited their story when returning to the village that evening. They spoke of the weeping woman, her beauty, her splendor, radiant glow and what she had said to them.

The children were horribly victimized, with threats, teasing bribes, and very mean tricks. But despite all this their stories remained exactly the same time and again. Finally, after a long and stringent examination of the facts, the Bishop formally recognized that Our Blessed Mother did appear to the children of La Salette. The apparition in La Salette was fully approved by the Holy See: November 16th, 1851.

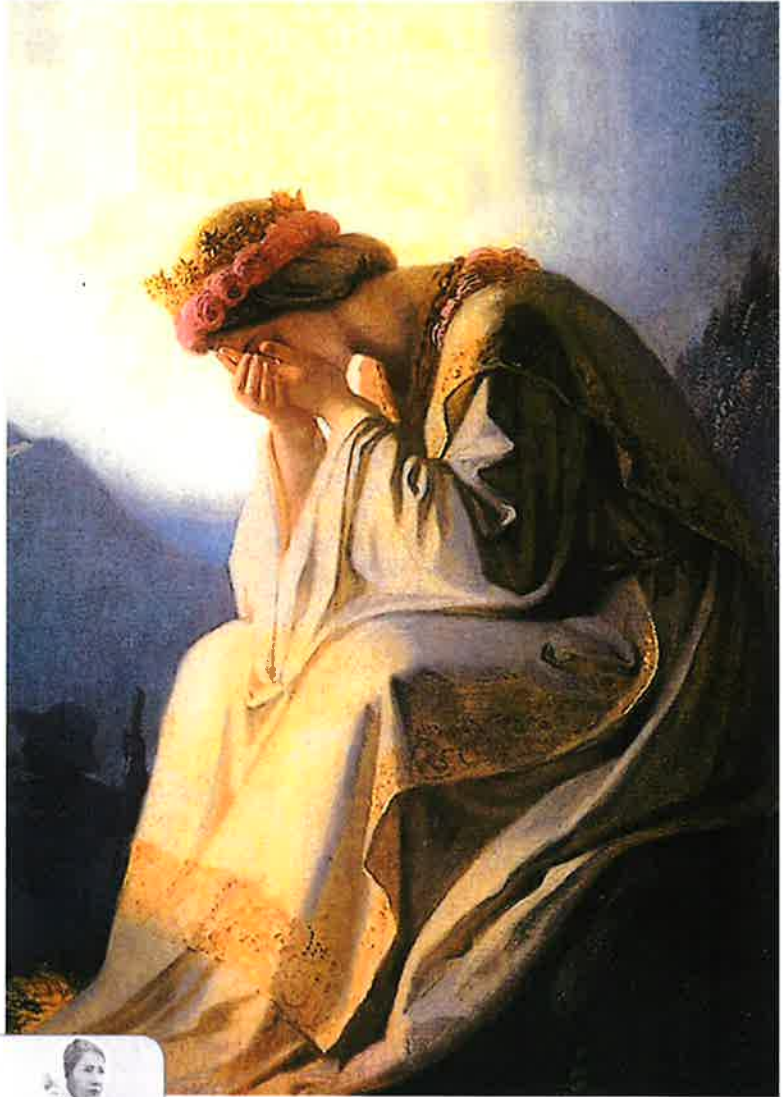

While researching this apparition one could only imagine that She would appear today as she appeared to the children then; Lady weeping, face buried in Her hands, Her elbows resting on Her knees, sitting upon a large rock - a Mother in distress as She warns of the wrath Her Son could reign upon unrepentant souls.

When She appeared to the children, She wore a long white dress, that appeared to glitter with small pearls of light, a translucent white headdress with a tall crown underneath, a shawl trimmed with roses across Her shoulders, and a large yellow apron tied around Her waist. A cross hung from a chain, around Her neck. Melanie's description included, "The sight of the Holy Virgin was itself a perfect paradise".

A small passage from one of Her Messages:

"The true faith of the Lord having been forgotten, they will abolish civil rights as well as ecclesiastical. All order and all justice will be trampled underfoot, and only homicides, hate, jealousy, lies, and dissension would be seen without love for country and family. All the civil governments will have one and the same plan - which will be to abolish and do away with every religious principle, to make way for materialism, atheism, spiritualism, and vice of all kinds."

She then gave a secret to each of the children individually. Both secrets appear to be events that would happen in the future. One part of Our Lady's secret told of the coming attempt to murder the Pope, but this attempt would not shorten his life. She had correctly prophesized the great famine in Europe and the decline of religion and morals in the world. She also accurately predicted the American Civil War and the "great war" (World War I) that would follow.

It's frightening how closely aligned Her message in 1846 mirrors the conditions of 2018. Are the leaders of countries supportive of a one-world government, with a one-world religion? Has faith been lost? As at La Salette, will Our Lady find Our Lord's hand too heavy to hold back for chastisement of the people?

The Church did not fulfill Her wishes in Fatima in 1917, do we believe we'll get another 100 years to comply. Our only hope is through PRAYERS!
