WE MUST UNITE AND SUPPORT OUR FAITHFUL CATHOLIC BISHOPS

By Father Paul Kramer, B.Ph., S.T.B., M.Div., S.T.L. (Cand.)

The counterfeit Catholic Church, under the leadership of Jorge Bergoglio, its counterfeit pope, no longer teaches the moral law of Catholicism. No longer are such things as Christian life being preached and insisted upon as the way to salvation coming from the papacy, nor is there any longer the rule of law according to canonical tradition. Bergoglio's Vatican is creating a false church with a false religion — a religion that is entirely of this world, and worships a "god" who is not the Transcendent Supreme Being worshipped by Christians, and before the Christians, the God of the ancient patriarchs and prophets.

It is becoming a different religion, a religion of the United Nations Agenda 2030, and unless Bergoglio is rejected, all of the bishoprics of the faithful bishops of the Catholic Church are going to be usurped. You are going to have imposters in every Episcopal see of the Catholic Church — like you have the usurper who has intruded onto the throne of Peter in Rome.

What the Catholic Hierarchy needs to understand — and very quickly, is that, unless they reject Bergoglio entirely as a heretic, as a false pope, he will continue to wage this anti-Christian revolution. People cannot disregard him by just resisting him in their hearts and their individual lives. He simply must be rejected entirely and publicly, because what he has been doing for the last ten years is to replace faithful Catholic Cardinals and bishops who represent the true Catholic Faith and the authentic Christian spirit. They are being removed from office, relieved of responsibilities and replaced with blasphemers and heretics like himself. All in accordance with his diabolical plan to institute a different religion, a false church.

To give you an idea of what we are in for — recently, Bergoglio refused to accept the resignation "for reason of age" from Cardinal Rheinhard Marx. Marx is an infidel. He has no faith at all and is the most notorious Cardinal in all of Germany for his heresy. Yet, Bergoglio insists upon the heretic continuing in office. True Catholics need to organize an opposition to resist him. When Bergoglio tries to remove a bishop from office because he is upholding the Faith and he is resisting the apostasy that is coming from Rome, then the other like-minded bishops must support the faithful bishop when he says:

"I am not resigning. I am not giving up my see. It is my responsibility before God to remain Bishop of the Diocese. Bergoglio is not a legitimate pope. He has no power to remove me and I do not accept his decision."

These faithful bishops need the backing of all the like-minded faithful bishops. It has to be unanimous among them that they support the faithful bishops fully. There must be a united resistance against Bergoglio. That is the only thing that will work. When Cardinals and bishops are being removed, faithful Catholics have to stand up and say: "No! We don't accept Bergoglio's action because he is not a legitimate pope. We cannot stand for this any longer."

They have to stand united in rejecting Bergoglio's removal of faithful bishops and appointing an infidel like himself in their place. If Bergoglio should die, that is when those who are of the Catholic faith must reject the choice of the infidels. And if it comes down to it, they must even have a rival conclave. The infidels will have a conclave for their synodal, heretical and false church — but there is going to be a separate faithful Catholic conclave who will elect a faithful Catholic Pope who will reject the heretical group.

How will the faithful Catholic opposition be more organized and effective in taking the Church back? It will depend on various circumstances that will develop as to exactly how the opposition will come to the surface. It does exist now, but they are organizing behind the scenes. Now, more and more, there are different groups within the Vatican waging war on each other. The faithful Catholic opposition understand the nature of the beast that they are dealing with — how Bergoglio and his minions operate. Bergoglio's new "church" is unlike what was previously in the Catholic Church where, in the gospel, Jesus Christ said: "Let your speech be yes, yes: No, no: and that which is over and above these is of evil!" (Mat. 5:37) The new "synodal church" is a "church" of contradictions — of Orwellian doublethink, intended to confuse and deceive the faithful into thinking the new false religion is still Catholic.

While they still have the freedom to do so, faithful Catholics must network together, before it is too late — when they will not have the freedom to use mass communication, the social media or anything — they will be cut off. They must unite and inform other faithful Catholics that Bergoglio is not the Pope; that he has a different religion; that his church is a different church — not of the Catholic Church. As Catholics, we have the duty to have nothing to do with Bergoglio or his organization.

These are dark times, and we are being called upon now to take action and stand up for the true Faith and support our faithful Catholic brothers and sisters. Take heart — Our Lord tells us: "I...have the keys of death and of hell." (Rev. 1:18) It is the Lord Who holds the keys of death. No one lives forever — especially an 86 year old heretic who is provoking the wrath of God and calling the wrath of God down upon himself.

THE EVIL PLANS OF FREEMASONRY

DIRECTED AGAINST THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

PART III Official Guidelines issued from the Office of Masons in Italy March 1962 with commentary by Ellen Montgomery

• Destroy the Pope by destroying the Empire of Universities.

Separate Universities from the Pope by saying that the Government would then be glad to give them grants of money. Change the names of religious institutions to make them more ecumenical.

Attendance at my Alma Mater, Rosary Hill College, in 1968 was under the leadership of Sister Mary Angela OSF. Today it is called Daemen University and the President's cabinet, under the leadership of President Gary Olson, is entirely composed of lay members.

Many Catholic universities now operate with an explicit "Catholic in name only" or Cafeteralist disposition. Certain groups like the Cardinal Newman Society have attempted to combat this phenomenon by promoting only the most conservative universities as truly Catholic.

• Be bold, weaken the Pope's authority by setting up a Bishops' synod.

The Pope will then be a figurehead, as England is ruled by the House of Lords and the House of Commons with the King taking orders from them. Say that the Church is now Democratic. Praise the New collegiality.

2015 marked the 50th anniversary of the Synod of Bishops established during Vatican II. At a ceremony for the anniversary, Francis gave a speech that laid out his views on synodality. The word "synod," he reminded the audience, is about cooperation.

"A synodal Church is a Church which listens," he said, pointing out that mutual listening has been the goal of much of the church's renewal since Vatican II. "For the disciples of Jesus, yesterday, today and always, the only authority is the authority of service, the only power is the power of the cross," Francis declared.

Since then, Francis has taken steps to give the church examples and a concrete framework for a more "synodal church." In 2018, he issued new regulations that encourage much wider consultation with members and organizations of the church at all levels as part of the synod process.

Pope Francis has increased the authority of the Synod of Bishops, making it similar though not identical to a legislative parliamentary body that aims to strengthen the involvement of the "People of God" and "further promote dialogue and collaboration" between bishops, and between bishops and the Pope. Further changes include formally enshrining new methods of consulting the People of God with the use of questionnaires and pre-synod meetings with lay faithful and people of other religions.

In a new apostolic constitution entitled Episcopalis Communio (Episcopal Communion), the Pope explained how he wished to make the Synod of Bishops a "permanent central body" ... But in recent years, synods have been criticized for serving to introduce, sometimes using coercive methods, worldly ways of thinking at odds with the Church's perennial teaching, especially in the area of morality.

Francis, however, believes synods must continue to be receptive (some would argue subjected) to a changing world, and this change took place with the synods on the family, and the reason, many argue, is because of pressure from heterodox theologians to steer the debate, with some urgency, in a direction they wanted the Church to go.

To understand the comparative difference, one needs to know: what is orthodoxy? The Catholic encyclopedia defines it as signifying "right belief or purity of faith," and that "right belief" is "not merely subjective, as resting on personal knowledge and convictions, but is in accordance with the teaching and direction of an absolute extrinsic authority".

"This authority", the definition goes on to say, "is the Church founded by Christ, and guided by the Holy Ghost. He, therefore, is orthodox, whose faith coincides with the teachings of the Catholic Church." G. K. Chesterton defined orthodoxy as "not only (as is often argued) the only safe guardian of morality or order" but also the "only logical guardian of liberty, innovation and advance."

Heterodoxy, on the other hand, according to the Oxford dictionary, is "deviation from accepted or orthodox standards or beliefs," although it falls short of being heresy. It is a sort of "going along to get along with the world," rather than standing up for the Church's perennial teaching and Tradition at risk of opposition and persecution.

control Catholic education.<sup>[17]</sup> The Catholic blueprint was discarded [18] and replaced by another blueprint. Today the schools still have Catholic names, but they are New Age schools. Catholic graduates hardly differ from their secular counterparts because they are all molded from the same New Age blueprint.

The purpose of this article is to describe the Catholic blueprint; on comparing it with today's education, one is astounded to see how far off-track Catholics have strayed, and how wrong our thinking is today.

This Vatican II document might have made the religious teaching orders feel redundant.

Devotion to Mary

Necessary For Saints of Last Times

Each of us was created by God in His Image to become saints. It is our destiny, but only if we discipline our own will and follow the Will of God. St. Louis de Montfort guides us down that path to become great saints of the latter days. He emphasizes that we must truly consecrate ourselves to the Blessed Virgin Mary and make Her known and loved. It is through Mary that the salvation of the world was begun, and it is through Mary that it must be consummated.

Excerpts compiled by Coralie Graham from "True Devotion"

Mary alone gives to the miserable children of Eve, entry into the terrestrial paradise; that they may walk there agreeably with God, hide there securely against their enemies, feed themselves on the fruit of the tree of life and drink in long draughts, the Heavenly waters of that fair fountain which gushes forth there with abundance. She, Herself, is that terrestrial paradise, that virgin and blessed earth from which Adam and Eve, the sinners, have been driven. She gives no entry there except to those whom it is Her pleasure to make saints.

According to St. Bernard – all the rich among the people shall supplicate Her face from age to age, and particularly at the end of the world. That is to say, the greatest saints, the souls richest in graces and virtues, shall be the most assiduous in praying to Our Blessed Lady, and in having Her always present as their perfect model for imitation and their powerful aid for help.

The great soul, full of grace and zeal, shall be chosen to match themselves against the enemies of God, who shall range on all sides. They shall be singularly devout to Our Blessed Lady, illuminated by Her light, strengthened with Her nourishment, led by Her spirit, supported by Her arm and sheltered under Her protection, so that they shall fight with one hand and build with the other.

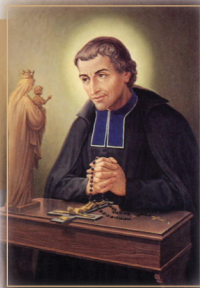

With the one hand they shall fight, overthrow and crush the heretics, the schismatics, the idolaters, and the sinners. With the other hand, they shall build the temple of the true Solomon and the Mystical City of God. By their words and their examples they shall draw the whole world to true devotion to Mary. This shall bring upon them many enemies, but shall also bring many victories and much glory for God alone.

God wishes to reveal and make known Mary in these latter times:

- Mary must shine forth more than ever in mercy, in might, and in grace in these latter times: In mercy - to bring back and lovingly receive the poor strayed sinners who shall be converted and shall return to the Catholic Church. In might - against the enemies of God, idolaters, schismatics, and souls hardened in impiety, who shall rise in terrible revolt against God to seduce all those who shall be contrary to them and to make them fall by promises and threats. She must shine forth in grace, in order to animate and sustain the valiant soldiers and faithful servants of Jesus Christ Who shall battle for His interest.
- Mary must be terrible to the devil and his crew as an army arranged in battle, principally in these latter times, because the devil, knowing that he has but little time, and now less than ever to destroy souls, will every day redouble his effort and his combats. He will presently raise up cruel persecution and will put terrible snares before the faithful servants and true children of Mary, whom it gives him more trouble to conquer than it does to conquer others.

It is principally of these last cruel persecutions of the devil - which shall increase daily till the reign of Antichrist - that we ought to understand that first and celebrated prediction and curse of God, pronounced in the terrestrial paradise against the serpent: "I will put enmities between thee and the Woman, and thy seed and Her seed; She shall crush thy head and thou shalt lie in wait for Her heel." (Gen. 3:15)

The power of Mary over all the devils will especially shine forth in the latter times, when satan will lay his snares against Her heel: that is to say, Her humble slaves and Her poor children whom She will raise up to make war against him. They shall be little and poor in the world's esteem, and abased before all, like the heel, trodden underfoot and persecuted. But in return for this, they shall be rich in the grace of God, which Mary shall distribute to them abundantly.

They shall be great and exalted before God in sanctity, superior to all other creatures by their lively zeal and so well sustained with God's assistance that: with the humility of thy heel, in union with Mary, they shall crush the head of the devil and cause Jesus Christ to triumph.

Who shall those servants, slaves and children of Mary be? They shall be the true apostles of the latter times, to whom the Lord of Hosts shall give the word and the might to work marvels and to carry off with glory the spoils of His enemies. Are we willing to be Her heel? Perhaps you and I are being called upon to truly be SERVANTS OF JESUS AND MARY.

WHAT IS CATHOLIC EDUCATION?

By Cornelia R. Ferreira, M.Sc.

The Catholic Blueprint

These poor misguided youths have been cheated of the salvation offered to them by God through the Catholic Church. They are the products of a Catholic school system criminally indifferent about their eternal happiness, as another survey indicates. The 1990 Blishen Report on Catholic Education in Ontario found that on a scale of 1 to 7, parents, teachers, and school trustees rated helping students to learn to pray at 3.5 (clergy gave it 4.4). Encouraging participation in church received a 3.8 from the first three groups, whilst clergy gave it a 4.8! That means no one involved in today's Catholic education (the survey's results can be extrapolated worldwide, as the demise in Catholic education is universal), including the clergy, knows what it means to be a practicing Catholic. The report found 64% of Grade 12 students, 51% of parents, 29% of teachers and 13% of school trustees did not attend Sunday Mass.<sup>[1]</sup>

A Grade 12 student recently complained in Toronto's archdiocesan newspaper <sup>[2]</sup>, "Catholic students who actively practice their faith are becoming a minority within Catholic schools." Students think there is something wrong with you if you go to the chapel to pray, he said. Religion is "regarded as a course teaching outdated and useless morality." However, some teachers blame parents for this state of affairs. Students "lack the fundamental foundation that should be established at home" <sup>[3]</sup> — this despite the fact that for decades schools have reacted hostilely towards parents who have criticized them for undermining the religious values taught at home!

Further, many parents — as well as teachers and clergy — educated in the last 35 years are themselves victims of deteriorating Catholic schools in which Catholicism has been gradually replaced with humanistic New Age or global education.<sup>[4]</sup> Teachers' associations and Ministries and Departments of Education have all been promulgating this anti-Christian education. The American National Catholic Education Association (NCEA) has, since 1972, worked to implement a New Age curriculum in the schools, and its conferences have featured New Agers, including occultists. <sup>[5]</sup> A forthcoming article by this writer will fully describe global education.

The growing number of home and parent-run schools indicates that at least some parents are very unhappy about the Catholicity of Catholic schools. Where home and parent-run schools are not options, they are using secular or fundamentalist Protestant schools, believing their children's faith is not being attacked in them and it can then be taught at home.

But, in general, most Catholic parents do not know just what is meant by Catholic education. That's because most do not know that there is a blueprint for Catholic education: Pope Pius XI's encyclical on the Christian Education of Youth, Divini Illius Magistri.<sup>[6]</sup> It was faithfully followed by the great religious teaching orders that ran the Catholic educational system. After Vatican II, when the orders abandoned teaching, relegating education to laymen, they played right into the hands of the Freemasons, who had long sought to

ST. ISAAC JOGUES MISSIONARY PROJECT

Servants of Jesus and Mary's aid to missionaries through the generosity of pledge donors is best shown in the emails received from one of our recipients of this aid. Father Roberto Mardones is a missionary priest in Mexico and below are his grateful comments.

Dear Servants of Jesus and Mary,

I want to express my gratitude for your collaboration and generous help that you send every month, it has been very useful in the assistance of the souls looking for Salvation. The aid that you send every month has allowed me to repair priest ornaments to always give the due honor in the divine cult. The Rosaries and Scapulars are given to people willing to pray with them and to those in articulo mortis. In addition, they help me implant the Devotion to the Holy Hour of Reparation each First Saturday of each month.

I hope I can continue to count on your support, which will allow the growth of this spiritual benefit and with the satisfaction of this economic need, it will lead to the salvation of souls.

Thank you beforehand for your generosity.

Always in my prayers,
Fr. Roberto Mardones

Dear Servants Jesus & Mary,

I've been serving my Pastoral Mission as normal, with the Grace of God during the reconstruction work in the Church.

I greatly appreciate your monthly Intentions and I am even more grateful now that you started asking for Gregorian Masses. It really means a lot. You're all present in my prayers and in the Masses I offer daily and with gratitude, for The Triumph of the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

Yours truly,
Fr. Roberto Mardones

To the Servants of Jesus and Mary,

I write to you with affection and wish you a prosperous 2023!

I am sad to hear about the severe snowstorms falling on the New York area and that they have claimed many lives. My prayers are with their souls.

I would like to give you my sincere gratitude for all the financial support you have provided to me this year, which has allowed me to maintain my priestly life here in Mexico and to bring economic help to people in need. During this year I have received many Mass intentions, Gregorian Masses, Novenaries and Mass Bouquets from your devoted members. I also received prayer petitions for different needs, both spiritual and material, every month. All this has allowed me to fulfill my priestly ministry and be of service to those in need.

May Our Blessed Mother guide us and protect us in this temporal life so we can arrive with full hands at Eternity's Gates.

Thank you for all the support!

In my prayers,
Fr. Roberto Mardones
