If needed, the Police Chief may verify the peddler's employment or authority to represent the company or venture and may conduct a criminal background check of the peddler and/ or the company or venture represented.

Peddling and canvassing is prohibited on any privately owned premises that is posted with a sign or other notice stating "no trespassing," "no visitors," "no soliciting," "no solicitors," "do not disturb," or similar notification making apparent the desires of the owner or occupant of the premises. Peddling is prohibited on any privately owned premises that are posted with a sign or other notice stating "no peddling."

No peddler or canvasser shall remain on any premises or return to any premises after being asked or directed to leave by the owner, occupant or person in charge of such premises.

Any person, firm, corporation, or other entity who violates any term or provision of this Ordinance is responsible for a municipal civil infraction and shall be punished by a civil fine of $50 for a first violation, $100 for a second violation, and $150 for a third or subsequent violation and shall be liable for the payment of costs in an amount of not less than $9.00 and not more than $500. Each sale, attempted sale, and each act of entering upon a premises or remaining on any premises in violation of this section shall be a separate offense.

Any person cited or apprehended for violating the provisions of this section applicable only to peddlers may raise as an affirmative defense the claim that he or she is a canvasser as defined in this section. Any person making that defense shall have the burden of proof.

I understand and will abide by the conditions set forth in the above agreement.
