- You are encouraged to discuss the treatment techniques used or your progress at any point in time. Should you desire a second opinion, we will be glad to assist you in obtaining it. You are free to terminate treatment with us at any time.
- The information provided by you during therapy is legally confidential, except as required by law, if the therapist is a licensed marriage and family therapist, clinical social worker, professional counselor, psychologist, certified school psychologist, or unlicensed psychotherapist practicing under the supervision of a licensed psychotherapist. The exceptions to confidentiality include any threat of serious harm to self or others, or information pertaining to child abuse.
- Sexual contact in a professional relationship is not part of any recognized therapy or evaluation procedures. Sexual intimacy between client and therapist is illegal in Colorado and should be reported to the State Grievance Board.
- Any serious complaint about a licensed or unlicensed mental health practitioner should be reported to:

Mental Health Grievance Board

I have been informed of my therapist's degrees, credentials, and licenses. I have also read the preceding information and understand my rights as a patient.

Please note that both parents must consent to treatment of any child under the age of fifteen (15) unless a court of law has assigned all legal guardianship/decision making rights to one parent. In these cases, a court document attesting to this must be provided prior to your child(ren) receiving services.

I, (print name) _____ and (print name) _____, parent or legal guardian of (print name) _____, do hereby consent to the mental health treatment of my child by, _____, of Nicoletti-Flater Associates.
