

K.ESS

K.ESS BAND BIO

K.ESS is a Melbourne singer and songwriter with a fresh and smooth R&B sound. She is a talented vocalist supported by her effervescent band. Together, they bring a vibrant array of thick experimental hip hop beats mixed with the sweet sounds of neo-soul. They are renowned for instantly capturing the audience with a blend of cool R&B and soulful tunes.

K.ESS also performs as an acoustic duo or trio, covering the hottest hits by Drake, Miguel, Rihanna (and many more). With her soothing voice, she is guaranteed to enrapture crowds and transport them to the highest state of consciousness.

Her silky-smooth tone has been described as a mix of Alessia Cara, Beyoncé, Mariah Carey and Alicia Keys. Without a doubt, crowds can expect K.ESS to fuse her soulful sounds with a touch of her urban swagger.

At just 22 years old, K.ESS released her debut single "Super girl", and received airplay on national radio. Her 2013 EP titled "Dear Diary (prelude)" was an open book to her personal life experiences. The material was raw, honest and relatable; and landed her a recording deal with music publishing with BMG.

Based on your event's requirements, K.ESS can incorporate her original music into her performance. She is well-known for mashing up the old with the new, giving it a salacious modern twist.

With past performances across Melbourne's live music venues, K.ESS has also performed live at a range of festivals and private events. Her performances have been flawless, showcasing her versatility and natural ability to sing from the heart.

Although she keeps it simple, K.ESS is an exciting and likeable artist to watch and listen! She humbly lets the music do all the talking.
