22) Buck Books <http://archangelink.com/70.html>

uck Books just started in May, 2014 and they've already sent several books to the WSJ bestseller list and to the Top #100 Paid spots in the Amazon Kindle store. I believe Buck Books is now the most powerful book promotion site for authors, and it's free to use. How To List Your Books Just click the links on the sites above and give them the information they need to post your book and promote it for you. Most often, you'll need the book title, link to the book on Amazon, ASIN (Amazon Sales Identification Number), a description, category and a few other items. It's pretty simple and should take less than 30 minutes to list a book on all 12 sites. Make sure you list your book on all these sites AT LEAST 1 week in advance so that they have time to post it for you.
