Today's Gospel is from St. Mark 3:20-35. The truth of the saying "pride goeth before destruction" (Prov. 16:18) is clearly demonstrated in the first and third readings today. Pride indeed induced the First Parents to disobey God. They wished to be independent of him, in fact, they hoped to be his equals. The evil results of their folly are still among us. It was their sinful pride, their sense of superiority, their utter contempt for all who did not conform to their standard of observance, that led the Scribes and Pharisees to oppose Jesus. Blinded as they were by this deep-rooted pride, they could see nothing good in him.

We are living today in what is politely called the permissive age—the age when God's laws are shamelessly flouted and despised; the age when men and women, old as well as young, do what they like regardless of whether or not their actions offend God and neighbor. This is a false philosophy, not of life, but of death; this is a philosophy or whim which has the ripe seeds of destruction of human society breaking through its crust. How long can we go on living together on earth, if each one claims the right to do as he pleases?

He who does the will of God is the brother and kinsman of Christ and only his true brothers will get to heaven. We must keep the commandments of God. Not only are they the guides that will keep us on the road to heaven, but they are our only guarantee of survival during our short sojourn here on earth.

Excerpted from The Sunday Readings, Cycle B, Fr. Kevin O'Sullivan, O.F.M.

El Evangelio de hoy es de San Marcos 3: 20-35. La verdad del dicho "antes de la catástrofe está el orgullo" (Proverbios 16:18) se demuestra claramente en la primera y la tercera lecturas de hoy. El orgullo indujo a Adán y a Eva a desobedecer a Dios. Deseaban ser independientes de Él, de hecho, esperaban ser sus iguales. Los malos resultados de su locura todavía están entre nosotros. Fue su orgullo pecaminoso, su sentido de superioridad, su absoluto desprecio por todos los que no se ajustaban a su estándar de observancia, lo que llevó a los escribas y fariseos a oponerse a Jesús. Cegados como estaban por este orgullo profundamente enraizado, no podían ver nada bueno en Él.

Estamos viviendo hoy en lo que cortésmente se llama la edad permisiva, la edad en que las leyes de Dios son descaradamente despreciadas y menospreciadas; la edad en que los hombres y las mujeres, tanto viejos como jóvenes, hacen lo que les gusta, independientemente si sus acciones ofenden a Dios y al prójimo. Esta es una filosofía falsa, no de la vida, sino de la muerte; esta es una filosofía o capricho el cual tiene las semillas maduras de la destrucción de la sociedad humana rompiendo su corteza. ¿Cuánto tiempo podremos seguir viviendo juntos en la tierra, si cada uno reclama el derecho de hacer lo que le plazca?

El que hace la voluntad de Dios es hermano y pariente de Cristo y sólo sus verdaderos hermanos llegarán al cielo. Debemos guardar los mandamientos de Dios. No sólo son los guías que nos mantendrán en el camino al cielo, sino que son nuestra única garantía de supervivencia durante nuestra breve estadía aquí en la tierra.
