Today we have the two last parables told by Mark in this part of his gospel. They are both images of the Kingdom of God, of God's truth and love spreading among people all over the world. They are both taken from the world of agriculture, a world that would have been very familiar to Jesus' listeners.

In the first, God's work is compared to a farmer planting seed. As in the parable of the sower, the seed is the Kingdom. Night and day the process of growth continues without any human intervention. Whether the farmer is awake or asleep the process of growth continues. The seed sprouts and grows and he does not know how. The outcome is certain. Once the seed is ripe, it is for the farmer to bring in the harvest. And that is our task: to bring in the harvest which has been planted in the hearts of people. In the words of the other parables, to throw the light which helps people see the truth and love of God already in their deepest being.

In the second parable the Kingdom is compared to a mustard seed. Although one of the tiniest of seeds, it grows into a sizeable shrub in which even birds can build their nests.

Both of these parables are words of encouragement to a struggling Church, living in small, scattered communities and surrounded by hostile elements ready to destroy it. How amazed would the Christians of those days be if they could see how the seed has grown and spread to parts of the world of whose very existence they were totally unaware. We today still need to have their trust and confidence in the power of the Kingdom to survive and spread.

Mark says that Jesus spoke many parables, in fact, he only spoke in parables. But the full meaning of his teaching was explained to his inner circles of disciples. Those staying "outside" were not ready to take in the message. They are the ones who were not "hearing", as Jesus told his disciples to do.

How sensitive is my hearing?

Excerpt from the Sacred Space

Hoy tenemos las dos últimas parábolas contadas por Marcos en esta parte de su evangelio. Ambas son imágenes del Reino de Dios, de la verdad de Dios y del amor que se extiende entre las personas de todo el mundo. Ambas son tomadas del mundo de la agricultura, un mundo que hubiera sido muy familiar para los oyentes de Jesús.

En la primera parábola el trabajo de Dios se compara con un agricultor que planta semillas. Como en la parábola del sembrador, la semilla es el Reino. Día y noche el proceso de crecimiento continúa sin intervención humana. Si el agricultor está despierto o dormido, el proceso de crecimiento continúa. La semilla germina y crece y él no sabe cómo. El resultado es cierto. Una vez que la semilla está madura, corresponde al agricultor traer la cosecha. Y esa es nuestra tarea: traer la cosecha que se ha plantado en los corazones de las personas. En las palabras de las otras parábolas, arrojar la luz que ayuda a las personas a ver la verdad y el amor de Dios ya en su ser más profundo.

En la segunda parábola, el Reino se compara con una semilla de mostaza. Aunque es una de las semillas más pequeñas, crece hasta convertirse en el mayor de los arbustos en el que incluso las aves pueden construir sus nidos.

Ambas parábolas son palabras de aliento para una Iglesia en apuros, que vive en comunidades pequeñas y dispersas y está rodeada de elementos hostiles dispuestos a destruirla. Cuán asombrados estarían los cristianos de aquellos días si pudieran ver cómo la semilla ha crecido y se ha extendido a partes del mundo de cuya existencia ellos mismos no estaban enterados. Todavía hoy, necesitamos tener su confianza en el poder del Reino para sobrevivir y extenderse.

Marcos dice que Jesús habló muchas parábolas, de hecho, él sólo habló en parábolas. Pero el significado completo de su enseñanza fue explicado a sus círculos internos de discípulos. Los que se quedaron "afuera" no estaban listos para asimilar el mensaje. Ellos son los que no estaban "oyendo", como Jesús les dijo a sus discípulos que hicieran.

¿Cuán sensible es mi audición?

Faith Formation (Formación en la Fe)

WHAT IS A CATECHIST?

The word catechist comes from the Greek word "echo."
Catechists echo the Word of God to our parish children.
They come from all walks of life and all ages:
women, men, confirmed teenagers, parents,
grandparents, singles, and religious.
Catechists are not expert teachers or brilliant theologians.
They are ordinary people, just like you,
who generously volunteer their time to share our Catholic faith, values, and traditions with our youngest generation of Christians.
They are positive role models
who help children grow in faith and spirituality.
What an important ministry!
Their gift has tremendous value...
because through their words and actions,
the message of Christ continues to spread throughout the world.

¿QUÉ ES UN CATEQUISTA?

La palabra catequista proviene de la palabra griega "eco".
Los catequistas hacen eco de la Palabra de Dios a los niños de nuestra parroquia.
Vienen de todos los ámbitos de la vida y todas las edades:
mujeres, hombres, adolescentes confirmados, padres,
abuelos, solteros y religiosos.
Los catequistas no son maestros expertos o teólogos brillantes.
Son personas comunes, como tú,
que generosamente ofrecen voluntariamente su tiempo
para compartir nuestra fe, valores y tradiciones católicas con nuestra generación más joven de cristianos.
Son modelos positivos
que ayudan a los niños a crecer en fe y espiritualidad.
¡Qué ministerio tan importante!
Su regalo tiene un gran valor...
porque a través de sus palabras y acciones,
el mensaje de Cristo continúa extendiéndose alrededor del mundo.
