“If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all.”

Mark 9:35

Dear Community of St. Augustine,

This weekend, in the reading of the Gospel we can hear Jesus talking again with His disciples about His passion, death and resurrection, and again the disciples failed to understand His words. It seems as if they are focused on their own lives, on their personal expectation since they begin to discuss who among them is the most important. Jesus is quite clear about this issue; to be the first one, one must serve everyone. The Lord gave us the best example.

When we are concerned about ourselves, about our lives, we failed to see others' needs, we don't pay attention to Jesus' words. When we get carried away by ambition, greed, ill passions, rivalry and envy arise among us, as James, the apostle, tells us in his letter.

As a Christian community, to achieve our motto, “One soul and one heart in God”, we must seek His wisdom as well as being peace lovers, understanding, docile, full of mercy and good fruits, impartial and sincere.

Do we serve others selflessly and kindly or are we seeking to be recognized, to be first? What are we contributing to our community? What are we doing to serve or what are we thinking we could do to serve others?

Our Youth Group wants to serve our community and next weekend they will be washing our cars for just $10. At the same time, their objective is to raise funds to participate in the Alive in You Summer Camp. Let us give them our support to reach their goal and be able to better understand that God created us to serve.

May God bless you abundantly always!

Fr. Tomás Hurtado

“Si alguno quiere ser el primero, que sea el último de todos y el servidor de todos”

Marcos 9:35

Querida Comunidad de San Agustín,

En el Evangelio de este fin de semana, Jesús les anuncia nuevamente a Sus discípulos Su pasión, Su muerte y Su resurrección. Una vez más, los discípulos no entendieron las palabras de Jesús. Parece ser que estaban más centrados en su propia vida y en sus aspiraciones, porque se ponen a discutir quién de ellos es el más importante. Jesús es bien claro, para ser el primero, hay que servir a todos. El mejor ejemplo nos lo dio el Señor.

Cuando nos preocupamos más por nosotros mismos y por nuestra vida nos olvidamos de ver las necesidades de los demás y no prestamos atención a lo que nos dice Jesús. Cuando nos dejamos llevar por la ambición, la codicia y las malas pasiones surgen las rivalidades y las envidias entre nosotros, como nos dice la carta del apóstol Santiago.

Como comunidad cristiana, para llegar a tener “Una sola alma y un sólo corazón hacia Dios” tenemos que buscar Su sabiduría. También tenemos que ser amantes de la paz, comprensivos, dóciles, estar llenos de misericordia y buenos frutos, ser imparciales y sinceros.

¿Servimos a los demás desinteresada y generosamente o estamos buscando reconocimiento y los primeros lugares? ¿Qué estamos aportando a la comunidad? ¿Qué servicio estamos haciendo o creemos que podemos hacer?

Nuestro Grupo de Jóvenes quiere servir a la comunidad, y el próximo fin de semana estarán lavando nuestros coches por el módico precio de diez dólares. Al mismo tiempo, su objetivo es recaudar fondos para participar en el campamento de verano “Alive in You” (Vivo en Ti). Apoyémoslos para que alcancen su meta y puedan entender mejor que el Señor nos creó para servir.

¡Que Dios los bendiga siempre abundantemente!

Generous Stewardship

Today's second reading warns that a heart consumed with avarice and envy leads to jealousy, strife, conflicts and disputes. A giving heart, in contrast, can sing instead with the Psalmist, "Freely will I offer you sacrifice; I will praise your name, O Lord, for its goodness."
