HE WAS TRANSFIGURED

Matthew 17:2

SE TRANSFIGURÓ

Mateo 17, 2

Dear Community of St. Augustine,

This Second Sunday of our Lenten journey, we go up the mountain with Jesus and His three disciples. St. Matthew tells us how the Lord transfigured in front of their eyes and how they heard the voice of the Father proclaiming that Jesus is His Beloved Son.

In every Eucharist Jesus transfigures Himself, He changes the bread and the wine to reveal to us and to give us His Body and His Blood, spiritual food that strengthens us. In every Eucharist we also hear the voice of Jesus, the Beloved Son, through the Gospel.

During Lent, we are called to transform our attitude and our sinful lives to become new creatures. Are we listening to Jesus? What must we change in our lives to be transfigured Christians?

This weekend “the elects” return. They continue their journey to prepare themselves to receive the Sacraments of Initiation at Easter. They are going through the phase of transforming their lives by spiritual preparation, reflection, and prayer. Let us continue to pray for them.

I extend a warm welcome to Mrs. Alicia Isabel De León-Real to the office personnel. Alicia holds an MBA from the Metropolitan University of Florida in Orlando and in Accounting from the University of Panamá and has an experience of over 20 years as Accountant and Operations Analyst. She will be replacing Ruth Griffin who is retiring.

As I informed you last week, we have progressed in our efforts to reach our goal for the Our Catholic Appeal Annual Campaign; BUT, we still are far from reaching it. I express my gratitude to those who already have responded and collaborated; and to those who have yet, I ask you to take one envelope in the pews and, please, join us so that we can reach our goal. I am sure we will be able to do it with God's help and the help of ALL of you.

May God bless you and multiply your generosity.

Fr. Tomás Hurtado

Querida Comunidad de San Agustín:

Este Segundo Domingo de nuestro camino cuaresmal, subimos a la montaña con Jesús y tres de sus discípulos. San Mateo nos relata cómo el Señor se transfiguró delante de ellos y cómo escucharon la voz del Padre afirmando que Jesús es Su Hijo Amado.

En cada Eucaristía Jesús se transfigura, Jesús cambia el pan y el vino para revelarnos y regalarnos Su Cuerpo y Su Sangre, alimento espiritual que nos fortalece. En cada Eucaristía también escuchamos la voz de Jesús, el Hijo Amado, por medio del Evangelio.

Durante la Cuaresma, somos llamados a transformar nuestra actitud y nuestra vida de pecado para poder ser criaturas nuevas. ¿Estamos escuchando a Jesús? ¿Qué tenemos que cambiar en nuestra vida para ser cristianos transfigurados?

Este fin de semana regresan a nuestra comunidad “los elegidos”. Ellos continúan su camino de preparación para recibir los Sacramentos de Iniciación Cristiana en la Pascua y están en la etapa de transformar su vida por medio de la preparación espiritual, la reflexión y la oración. Continuemos orando por ellos.

Le doy la bienvenida al equipo de trabajadores de la oficina a la Sra. Alicia Isabel De León-Real, quien será nuestra contable. Alicia recibió un título de MBA de la Universidad Metropolitana de la Florida en Orlando y una licenciatura en Contabilidad de la Universidad de Panamá, y cuenta con más de 20 años de experiencia, como contadora y analista de operaciones. Ella estará sustituyendo a Ruth Griffin quien se retira.

Como les informé la semana pasada, hemos avanzado en nuestro esfuerzo para alcanzar nuestra meta de la campaña anual de Nuestro Llamado Católico; PERO todavía nos falta llegar al total. Mi agradecimiento a todos los que ya han respondido y colaborado. Las familias que aún no se han comprometido, por favor, tomen uno de los sobres colocados en los bancos y únanse para que podamos alcanzar nuestra meta. Estoy seguro de que, con el favor de Dios y la ayuda de todos, lo vamos a lograr.

Que Dios los bendiga y multiplique su generosidad.
