WHO ARE YOU, MARTHA OR MARY?

Dear Community of St. Augustine,

The Gospels of these Sundays in Ordinary Time invite us to reflect on our discipleship. We Christians should love God above all things and neighbor as ourselves.

This Sunday we meditate on the well-known story of Martha and Mary (Lk 10:38-42). Many times, this biblical passage is interpreted and explained as two opposed attitudes. Martha would portray action, the eagerness to do the immediate and, perhaps, earthy tasks, while Mary portrays the contemplative attitude, the dedication to spiritual things. And Jesus seems to reprimand Martha and to praise Mary.

St. Augustine tells us, "How could Jesus reprimand Martha, who is happy to welcome such an excellent guest? If so, there would not be anyone to take care of the needy. Everybody would choose the best part and say, 'let us dedicate all our time to listening to the Word of God'. But then there would not be anyone to tend to the stranger in the city, to the one in need of food or clothes, to free the captive, to visit the sick or to bury the dead."

Then, is the Lord talking about two kinds of lifestyle, one "better" than the other? It does not seem that He is doing that. Rather, He is showing two dimensions that are part of the life of every person. Jesus is showing to us the solid foundation upon which to build our life to keep focused, and not to fall into the hustle and bustle of life or into the excessive preoccupation for material things. He must be the center of our lives; everything else will fall in place. Then, my dear brothers and sisters let us ask ourselves: Who am I, "Martha" or "Mary"? I think the answer is clear, we must be both.

Today I want to express our gratitude to a worker who reflects both attitudes. Like Mary, she is a faithful woman centered in the Lord and, in Him she finds her strength to be like Martha, a woman of action. She is our accountant, Ruth Griffin. Ruth has decided that this is the moment to retire. THANK YOU, RUTH, for all the years of service in our community! We ask God to continue to bless you always. Generously, Ruth will continue to work in the office until we find a suitable person to fill this position. Please pray for this process to find the right person.

May God bless you abundantly!

Fr. Tomas Hurtado

¿QUIÉN ERES, MARTA O MARÍA?

Querida Comunidad de San Agustín,

Los Evangelios de estos domingos del Tiempo Ordinario nos invitan a reflexionar en el discipulado. El cristiano debe amar a Dios sobre todas las cosas y al prójimo como a sí mismo.

Este domingo meditamos sobre la conocida historia de Marta y María (Lc 10:38-42). Muchas veces se interpreta y se explica este pasaje evangélico como dos actitudes opuestas. Marta representaría la actividad, el afán por las cosas inmediatas y, quizás, terrenas; María sería la personificación de la contemplación, de la dedicación a las cosas del espíritu. Jesús parece reprender a Marta y alabar a María.

San Agustín nos dice, «¿Cómo podría Jesús dirigir un reproche a Marta, contenta por recibir a tan excelente huésped? Si eso fuera un reproche, no habría nadie para cuidar de los necesitados. Todos escogerían la mejor parte para decir: «empleemos todo nuestro tiempo en escuchar la Palabra de Dios». Pero si esto ocurriera, no habría nadie para atender al forastero en la ciudad, al necesitado de alimento o vestido, nadie para visitar a los enfermos, nadie para liberar a los cautivos, nadie para enterrar a los muertos».

Entonces, ¿el Señor nos habla de dos tipos de vida donde uno es «mejor» que el otro? No parece que esté haciendo algo así. Más bien, nos muestra dos dimensiones que forman parte de la vida de toda persona. Jesús nos enseña cuál debe ser el fundamento sólido sobre el que se tiene que construir la existencia para que no nos descentremos, para que no caigamos en la agitación y la ansiedad del hacer por el hacer, o en la excesiva preocupación de las cosas materiales. El debe ser el centro de nuestra vida, todo lo demás viene por añadidura. Entonces, queridos hermanos, preguntémonos: ¿Quién soy, "Marta" o "María"? Creo que la respuesta es clara, tenemos que ser las dos.

Hoy quiero darle las gracias a una trabajadora que es fiel reflejo de estas dos actitudes. Ella es María, una mujer de fe centrada en el Señor y en Él encuentra su fortaleza para ser Marta, una mujer de acción. Ella es nuestra contadora, Ruth Griffin. Ruth ha decidido que éste es el momento de jubilarse. ¡GRACIAS, RUTH, por todos los años de servicio en nuestra comunidad! Le pedimos al Señor que continúe bendiciéndola. Ella, generosamente, estará trabajando en la oficina hasta que encontremos a alguien para ocupar esta posición. Por favor, les pido que recen para que este proceso sea rápido y encontremos a la persona indicada para este puesto.

¡Que Dios los bendiga abundantemente!

FIVE WAYS TO “GET MORE” OUT OF MASS

YOUR BAPTISMAL RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

By TeamRCIA.com

Continuation from last week's bulletin

2) BRING MORE THAN YOURSELF TO MASS

If you want to get more out of Mass, you have to bring more than yourself to it.

- In your mind and heart, bring the names of those people who have asked you to pray for them;
- those you love who are hurting this week;
- those people and places in the news that are suffering.
- Bring your joys, things you are grateful for this week;
- and your sorrows, your burdens, regrets, and worries this week.
- Bring money...no kidding.

Giving money at Mass is really not optional. Our Christian sacrifice is not some vague theoretical idea. We have to give something of ourselves that is a real sacrifice—something we'd rather not give up. For most of us today, that's money. The collection at Mass isn't just a way the church pays its bills. It's primarily the way we bring ourselves—“the work of human hands” along with the “fruit of the earth”—to the altar. The money we put in the basket helps the church do the mission of Christ—yes, by keeping the lights on, but also by funding the activities and people of the church who help the poor, teach the faith, prepare the liturgy, visit the sick.

Giving money at Mass is also a way we express our trust in God. Remember the widow in the gospel who gave just two pennies to the Temple while others gave much more (Mk 12:41-44; Lk 21:1-4)? Jesus said she gave the most because she gave out of her lack while the others gave from their surplus. So don't worry if you can't give a lot of money. Give what you can, then think about giving just a few dollars more.

Lastly, bring your voice. Like putting money in the collection, singing is not optional. If you think you have an awful voice, make it part of your sacrifice to give back to God what God gave you! If you can't bring yourself to do even that, then at least pick up the songbook and pretend to sing. Part of your responsibility is to encourage others to take their responsibility seriously too. Others will feel more comfortable singing if the people around them are singing or at least look like they're singing too. So don't hinder someone else's singing by keeping silent when it's time for everyone to sing.

(To be continued on next weekend's bulletin)

Currently, how do you decide how much money to give at Mass? Do you need to reassess how much you give each week?

..... CINCO MANERAS DE "APROVECHAR MÁS" LA MISA

SUS DERECHOS Y RESPONSABILIDADES

BAUTISMALES

Por TeamRCIA.com

Continuación de la semana pasada.

2) TRAER A MISA MÁS QUE A TI MISMO

Si quieres sacar más provecho de la Misa, tienes que aportar más que ti.

- Trae tus alegrías, cosas por las que estás agradecido esta semana;
- En tu mente y corazón, trae los nombres de aquellas personas que te han pedido que ores por ellos;
- aquellos a quienes amas y que están sufriendo esta semana;
- esas personas y lugares en las noticias que están en dificultad;
- y tus tristezas, tus cargas, lamentos y preocupaciones de esta semana.
- Trae dinero... no es broma.

Dar dinero en la Misa realmente no es opcional. Nuestro sacrificio cristiano no es una vaga idea teórica. Tenemos que dar algo de nosotros mismos que es un verdadero sacrificio, algo que preferiríamos no dejar. Para la mayoría de nosotros hoy, eso es dinero. La colecta en la Misa no es sólo una forma en que la iglesia paga sus cuentas. Es principalmente la forma en que nos entregamos - "el trabajo de nuestras manos" junto con el "fruto de la tierra". El dinero que ponemos en la canasta ayuda a la iglesia a cumplir la misión de Cristo: sí, manteniendo las luces encendidas, pero también financiando las actividades y las personas de la iglesia que ayudan a los pobres, enseñan la fe, preparan la liturgia, visitan a los enfermos.

Dar dinero en la Misa también es una forma de expresar nuestra confianza en Dios. ¿Recuerda a la viuda en el evangelio que le dio sólo dos centavos al Templo mientras que otros dieron mucho más (Mc 12: 41-44; Lk 21: 1-4)? Jesús dijo que ella daba más porque ella daba de lo que no tenía, mientras que las otras personas daban de lo que les sobraba. Así que no te preocupes si no puedes dar mucho dinero. Da lo que puedas, luego piensa en dar unos pocos dólares más.

Por último, trae tu voz. Al igual que poner dinero en la colecta, el canto no es opcional. Si crees que tienes una voz horrible, haz que sea parte de tu sacrificio devolver a Dios lo que Dios te dio. Si no puedes hacer siquiera eso, al menos toma el libro de canciones y finge cantar. Parte de su responsabilidad es alentar a otros a que también se tomen en serio su responsabilidad. Otros se sentirán más cómodos cantando si las personas a su alrededor están cantando o, al menos, parecen estar cantando también. Así que no obstaculices el canto de otra persona guardando silencio cuando sea el momento de que todos canten.

(Continuará en el boletín del próximo fin de semana)

Actualmente, ¿cómo decides cuánto dinero dar en la Misa? ¿Necesitas reevaluar cuánto das cada semana?

Generous Stewardship

Today's readings speak of hospitality. Abraham, who cheerfully did for his guests all that desert hospitality required, was rewarded with his heart's desire—a son. Martha also busied herself with all the details of hospitality, but grudgingly and with complaint. Am I a cheerful or a grudging giver?
