Attention Parishioners

Please do not place your offertory envelopes in the votive stands of the church or chapel. If you can't make it to Mass or if you forget to put your offertory in the collection basket, please bring your offertory envelope to the parish office or mail it. We appreciate your understanding and collaboration.

Por favor no coloque sus sobres de ofertorio en las alcancías de los velas devocionales de la iglesia ni de la capilla. Si no puede asistir a Misa o si olvida poner su sobre ofertorio en la canasta de la colecta, entonces traiga su sobre a la oficina parroquial o envíelo por correo. Agradecemos su comprensión y colaboración.

You cannot serve both God and mammon.

Luke / Lucas 16: 13

En resumen, no pueden ustedes servir a Dios y al dinero.

Dear Community of St. Augustine;

Today, the parable of the Dishonest Steward (Luke 16:1–13), invites us to reflect on the virtue of FIDELITY, which is the firmness and constancy on affections, ideas and obligations and on the fulfilling of the commitments we have established.

Once again, Jesus uses money, which is the sign of material things, for us to see that worldly things are fleeting and that we are the heirs of something much better that He calls “true wealth.” Jesus is very clear when He says, “You cannot serve both God and mammon”.

But, why is Jesus’ phrase regarding riches so radical? Because to be attached to material things reflects a lack of trust in God, who has promised to watch for us; and, on the other hand, because of the excessive preoccupation about ourselves, seeking security exclusively regarding what is material and fleeting. This obsession frequently leads to a lack of generosity and to greed; and, ultimately, away from God.

How do we administer our God given gifts of time, talent, and treasure? Are we detached from material things or do we recognize that we are greedy? Are we faithful to the Lord?

It is clear, a faithful steward is the one who recognizes that EVERYTHING comes from God and that should return to Him EVERYTHING he gives us; and who discovers that the world and its riches are nothing in comparison to what God has prepared for us. St. Augustine had discovered it when he said, “You have made us for yourself, O Lord, and our hearts are restless until they rest in you.”

May God bless you abundantly!

Querida comunidad de San Agustín:

Hoy la parábola del Administrador Deshonesto (Lucas 16: 1-13), nos invita a reflexionar en la virtud de la FIDELIDAD que es la firmeza y la constancia en los afectos, las ideas y las obligaciones, y en el cumplimiento de los compromisos establecidos.

Jesús utiliza una vez más el dinero, que es el signo por excelencia de las cosas materiales, para hacernos ver que las cosas de este mundo son pasajeras y que somos herederos de algo mucho mejor, Jesús lo llama, “bienes verdaderos”. Jesús es claro cuando nos dice: “En resumen, no pueden ustedes servir a Dios y al dinero”.

Pero ¿por qué es tan radical la frase de Jesús ante las riquezas? Porque el apego a los bienes materiales refleja una falta de confianza en Dios, que ha prometido velar por nosotros; y, por otra parte, porque una excesiva preocupación por nosotros mismos, buscando la seguridad exclusivamente en lo material y en lo pasajero con frecuencia nos lleva a la falta de generosidad y a la avaricia, y finalmente nos aleja de Dios.

¿Cómo administramos los dones de tiempo, talento y tesoro que Dios nos da? ¿Somos desprendidos con las cosas materiales o reconocemos que somos avariciosos? ¿Somos fieles al Señor?

Está claro, el administrador fiel es el que reconoce que TODO proviene de Dios y que debemos devolverle a Él TODO lo que nos da. El administrador fiel descubre que el mundo y sus riquezas son basura comparados con lo que Dios nos tiene reservado. San Agustín descubrió esto cuando dijo: “Nos hiciste, Señor, para ti, y nuestro corazón está inquieto hasta que descanse en ti”.

¡Que Dios los bendiga abundantemente!
