Pastor's Notes...

Greetings My Brothers and Sisters In Christ

I hope that your summer was a good one. The Lord truly blessed us with some good weather. The revivals are over and we are now going into the last quarter of the year. In case you haven't noticed time is really winding up for all of us.. There are floods, fires, earthquakes, hurricanes, tsunamis, wars and rumors of wars, which means that it's praying time. It's time for all of us to get in a hurry and be about our Father's business. That means spending time with Him and forsaking not to assemble ourselves in His sanctuary. It means trying to live the best life we can and love our neighbors and enemies. We here at Jackson Spring Hill are enjoying the fruit of the Spirit and we are looking forward to the holidays. We are still praising the Lord and believing that His words are still true. We thank God for all of our loving members and supporters of the our ministry. We continue to pray that God showers down His blessings on each and everyone of you.

SERVING THE JACKSON SPRINGHILL COMMUNITY

For 39 years, Thelma challenged and educated great minds of many children (the first 8 years in Chandler, Texas and the last 31 years in Terrell, Texas). During her career and in retirement, her life exemplified a model of excellence and became a testimony that helped others to grow as human beings. Painting became her therapeutic hobby. She worked late into the night, after a long hard day in the classroom, to create her visions of art. Although creating excellence on canvas, she released only one of over 100 creations. Her endless philanthropic gift of time, talent, money and love made her special in the hearts of all who knew her. She always willingly served to promote others and the gospel.

Preceding her in death are her parents: Alto Jackson & Carrie Lee Jackson; husband, John Milton Wallace; three sisters, Bettie Mae Lemons, Marjorie Jackson, Velma Runnels; six brothers, Bennie C Jackson, Earlie Jackson, Horace Jackson, Esther Jackson, Winifred Jackson, Ruth Junior Jackson; two grandchildren, Joshuanna and Paul Wallace.

She leaves to cherish her memories son, Milton Wallace (Gwen); one brother, Obie Jackson (Lillian) Chandler; Special niece, Michelle Robinson and her family, Irving, Texas; Brother and Sister In-Laws, Jim and Alice Breedlove, Duncanville, Texas; Grant and Charlie Barrett, Duncanville; Waylan and Pearlie Wallace, Dallas, Texas; Abraham Devereaux, Tyler; Grace Jackson, Chandler and Earnestine Phelps, Arlington, Texas; God daughters, Lisa Daniels Sims and Alisa Sterrett. A host of loving nieces, nephews, cousins, church family and friends.
