

TEMP-TO-PERM

Are you an employer looking to create the best team without making a rapid decision to hire an employee? DyrekFit Staffing can help. We'll take the responsibility of employing temporary employees to give our clients sufficient time to make a solid decision regarding a permanent offer of employment. Meanwhile, this allows our clients an opportunity to observe an employee's personality, performance, teamwork and time management skills.

Let's Face Facts!

“Resumes and Interviews” can be deceiving. Employers have no way to predict who an individual really is without investing time, money and continuous observation. Unfortunately, time and observation can become costly to an employer. DyrekFit Staffing can provide a large pool of applicants who have exhibited professional work for previous clients. We're proud and comfortable exposing our employees to fulfill our client needs. We're aware candidates can be highly skilled and experienced but still isn't ideal for your work environment. Employees have to work together to achieve common goals for your business and DyrekFit Staffing will ensure those employees are capable of working in a way that is amicable, collaborative, and harmonious within the company. Temp-to-Perm staffing allows flexibility without commitment.

Ever hear the saying one bad apple ruins the bunch? With temp-to-perm employment opportunities, you can evaluate how your new hires work within your existing team. DyrekFit Staffing will continue to make replacements until our client finds the right fit for their company. Employers! No need to worry, DyrekFit Staffing will also handle payroll, taxes, benefits, timekeeping and much more. Just relax and leave it up to us.
