

Idaho Capital City Kennel Club Code of Ethics

As a member in good standing, I hereby subscribe to the rules and regulations of the American Kennel Club and will strive to attain the ideals of the Idaho Capital City Kennel Club as set forth in the following Code of Ethics:

1. I will be a responsible dog owner, behaving in such a manner that my conduct toward my dog, my neighbors, my community and my club will serve as a positive example to others.
2. When breeding my dog, I will hold myself to the highest ethical and professional standards for the betterment of my breed, my fellow breeders, my club and the current and future buyers of my puppies.
3. As an exhibitor in dog sports, I will always conduct myself in a sportsman-like manner, showing courtesy and respect for my dog, my fellow exhibitors, judges and host clubs.
4. I will treat all dogs in my care in a humane, caring manner and will not tolerate the inhumane, neglectful or abusive treatment of any dog nor will I hesitate to report such behavior to the appropriate authorities in my club and community.
