ICCKC TRAINING CENTER RULES

Monthly Members:

You are renting the training ring, not the entire building. We will accept payment for only one month at a time. The monthly fee is due on the 1st of each month. Once payment is received, you will receive a code to unlock the door. You may reserve a one-hour timeslot up to twice a week. You may not reserve back-to-back timeslots. You may reserve the same timeslot for up to a month. You can invite others to share your time in the ring during your hour. If they are a monthly renter, then there is no additional charge. If they are not a monthly renter, they each owe $10 a hour. The monthly renter price is for hourly private training only---it does not include any drop in practice or group practice.

Hourly Renters:

You are renting the training ring, not the entire building. You can pay in advance or during your practice time. Once you reserve a timeslot, you will receive a code to unlock the door. You may reserve a one-hour timeslot up to twice a week. You may not reserve back-to-back timeslots. You may reserve the same timeslot for up to a month. You can invite others to share your time in the ring during your hour. If they are a monthly renter, then there is no additional charge. If they are not a monthly renter, they each owe $10 a hour.

To reserve a timeslot or ask a question: ICCKCtraining@gmail.com

You may see our calendar by going the Calendar link. You can also see our calendar at ICCKC.org. This calendar will let you know what timeslots are available to reserve.

Please note, ICCKC classes and ICCKC organized group training sessions have priority.

At the end of your hour, please put away all equipment so the ring is empty.

A locked mailbox is provided for depositing payments. If paying with cash, please put it in an envelope with your name and date/time for which you are paying. Checks payable to ICCKC may be mailed to Ket Ayling, 1620 Kathy Street, Emmett, ID 83617

Bitches in season are allowed as long as panties are worn.

Individual training only. No private lessons for profit may be given during your time.

A waiver must be signed before using the training center.

No personal crates or chairs may be left in the building. ICCKC has made available a small number of crates and chairs for anyone's use.
