Training Center Rules

General:

- A waiver must be signed before using the training center.
- All dogs must be kept on a leash while on the property (outside or inside) except when in the ring.
- Follow dog potty rules found on the web site and posted in the training center.
- Be quiet and considerate of any training in progress in the ring when entering or leaving the building.
- Monthly and hourly users: You are reserving the training ring, not the entire building. Please leave the ring and put away all equipment so the ring is empty by the end of the hour.
- You may enter the building a few minutes prior to your scheduled time for setup.
- Individual training only. No private teaching/coaching/instructing may be given during reserved training ring time, regardless of compensation or even no compensation.
- No personal crates or chairs may be left in the building. ICCKC has made available a small number of crates and chairs for anyone's use.
- Bitches in season are allowed if panties are worn.
- Keep ring and other areas clean of trash, food, hair and other debris. Trash and recycle containers are provided. Cleaning supplies and instructions for spills are available in the bathroom.
- Report any damage to equipment by emailing ICCKCtraining@gmail.com or leaving a note in the payment mailbox.

Scheduling and payment for monthly and hourly reservations:

To reserve a timeslot or ask a question: ICCKCtraining@gmail.com

You may see our calendar by going to the Calendar link. You can also see our calendar at ICCKC.org. This calendar will let you know what timeslots are available to reserve.

Please note, ICCKC classes and ICCKC organized group training sessions have priority.

Payments may be put in the locked mailbox inside the building next to the office:

- Cash: Please put it in an envelope with your name and date/time for which you are paying
- Checks: Payable to ICCKC. Please write on the memo line the date/time for which you are paying. No envelope is necessary.

Payments may also be mailed to: Ket Ayling, 1620 Kathy Street, Emmett, ID 83617. Payable to: ICCKC.

Monthly Reservations ($50 a month)

You are reserving the training ring, not the entire building. We will accept payment for only one month at a time. The monthly fee is due on the 1st of each month. Once payment is received, you will receive a code to unlock the door. You may reserve a one-hour timeslot up to twice a week. You may not reserve back-to-back timeslots. You may reserve the same timeslot for up to a month. Reservations open during the last 7 days of each month for the following month. You can invite others to share your time in the ring during your hour. If they are a monthly user, then there is no additional charge. If they are not a monthly user, they each owe $10 an hour. The monthly reservation price is for hourly private training only---it does not include any drop-in practice.

Hourly Reservations ($20 an hour):

You are reserving the training ring, not the entire building. You can pay in advance or during your practice time. Once you reserve a timeslot, you will receive a code to unlock the door. You may reserve a one-hour timeslot up to twice a week. You may not reserve back-to-back timeslots. You may reserve the same timeslot for up to a month. You can invite others to share your time in the ring during your hour. If they are a monthly user, then there is no additional charge. If they are not a monthly user, they each owe $10 an hour.
