

MODULE 2

Your Number One Priority!

Your Number One Priority!

Your self-esteem is probably pretty low and you suffer from serious doubts and fears.

Your Number One Priority!

The longer you put off the search, the more the feeling that something is missing will devour you. Your self-esteem will only decrease.

Your Number One Priority!

The best way to rebuild your fragile self and re-establish an inner sense of security is to make the search for your life mission your number one priority.

Fully dedicate yourself to it.

Your Number One Priority!

Why is this so important?

Because you can only find real joy in life by discovering and living according to the unique way of your personal evolution.

Your Number One Priority!

But, maybe you think, can't I just continue living life the way I have been all along?

Your Number One Priority!

My life may not be all that exciting and rosy, but it's still doable.

Can't I just try to hang in there and keep the status quo?

Your Number One Priority!

The answer is “yes”.

You can keep living your life in a monotonic, sad, senseless way. But don't expect any real satisfaction.

Your Number One Priority!

The need to feel useful is so fundamental that you cannot feel happy as long as you have no clue what you are here for.

Wake Up the Passion in Your Life Before It's Too Late !

“If you follow your bliss, you put yourself on a kind of track that has been there all the while, waiting for you, and the life that you ought to be living is the one that you are living. When you can see that, you begin to meet people who are in your field of bliss, and they open doors to you. I say, follow your bliss and don’t be afraid, and doors will open where you didn’t know they were going to be.” (Joseph Campbell)
