We are excited to announce that the 48th Annual North Carolina Indian Unity Conference will be held on March 9-11, 2023 at the North Raleigh Hilton Hotel in Raleigh, NC. Our theme this year is “Many Tribes, One People”.

We are delighted to host our first in-person conference since the pandemic, with the fellowship and information-sharing only possible as a gathering of Indigenous people representing our American Indian population of over 200,000 in all 100 North Carolina counties. We will discuss critical issues that impact our community, such as health, education, governance, tribal sovereignty, technology, careers, and economics. Over the past year, we have worked tirelessly to plan a gathering to address the critical need of advocacy and support in our Native communities across North Carolina and consider the critical value of this conference for North Carolina’s future generations.

United Tribes of NC is an American Indian non-profit 501(c)(3) representing all eight NC tribes and four Urban Indian Centers. By sponsoring our Unity Conference, you will be supporting such activities as our workshops, pow-wow, juried art show, and awards banquet. These events are vital to continue to showcase our culture as Indigenous people of NC. Details of sponsorship levels are below. Sponsorship is available either in the form of purchasing an advertisement in the Unity Conference brochure as detailed on the attached flyer, and/or in the form of donation.

We hope we can count on your partnership for the upcoming conference to support the critical work of the United Tribes’ 48th Annual North Carolina Indian Unity Conference.
