CRITERIA FOR JUDGING FORM:

Category	Rating and description
Presentation and delivery (for oral)/Presentation (for poster)	1. Presentation difficult to follow and understand, slides unclear 2. Presentation and delivery moderate 3. Presentation and delivery good 4. Clear, well structured and well delivered presentation, with clear slides 5. Exceptionally clear, engaging, well delivered presentation with clear key messages
Novel contribution to field (new findings that advance field/under-standing)	1. No (apparent) novel contribution to the field 2. Some novel contribution 3. Moderate novel contribution 4. Very novel contribution 5. Exceptionally novel contribution
Use of appropriate methodology/analyses	1. Poor or inappropriate use of methods/analyses 2. Limited use of appropriate methods/analyses 3. Some use of appropriate methods/analyses 4. Good use of appropriate methods/analyses 5. Strong use of appropriate methods/analyses
Strength of conclusion	1. No clear conclusion 2. Conclusions in the presentation but not clearly articulated 3. Presentation includes conclusions but they are not strongly made or supported by the presentation 4. Good conclusion that includes all the main points 5. Exceptionally strong conclusion that ties all the threads together