

FUNDRAISING IDEAS FOR ADULTS

PLEDGE-BY-PIN

Are you a good bowler? Ask your donors to pledge money based on your average bowling score on February 25th or 26th! Gather your donor's information on a pledge sheet and we'll help you log your score at the bowling alley.

JUST FOR FUN

HOST A TOURNAMENT: Just ask for an entry fee! Poker, trivia night, board games, billiards, or bowling!

HOST A SALE (EBAY, AMAZON, OR A GARAGE SALE): Declutter for a cause! Try selling original artwork, books, electronics, or clothing.

DONATION SLIPS/JARS: Ask your favorite businesses to hang BFKS donation slips or collection cans/jars.

DINE AND DONATE: Ask a restaurant to donate a percentage of their sales to your team.

HAIRCUTS FOR CHARITY: Ask your hairstylist to donate $3 from each haircut for one day.

WHITE ELEPHANT RAFFLE: Instead of a gift exchange, auction your unwanted valuables to friends & co-workers.

BENEFIT CONCERT: Raise awareness and money through a cover charge.

MOVIE NIGHT: Host a movie night and charge $5 for entry.

FOOD & DRINK

BAKE SALE: Partner with a local business to sell to their customers.

SNACK STALL - WINE, CHEESE, AND BEER AUCTION: Breweries might donate for your auction!

GIVE UP A MEAL: Ask 20 of your friends to donate the equivalent of a meal to your fundraising efforts! COVER CHARGE: Ask if a bar you frequently visit will donate a portion of their cover to your cause.

HOST A DINNER PARTY: Cook a delicious meal for a group of your family and friends and ask for "tips" in the form of a donation.

IN THE OFFICE

PENNY WARS: Challenge others in your office! Look to the internet for a point system.	DRESS-DOWN DAYS: Have coworkers donate $1 to participate in casual Fridays.
ICE CREAM OR COFFEE DAY: In exchange for a donation, ask your work to allocate 15 minutes to an employee break for a yummy treat!	SILENT AUCTIONS: Ask co-workers to donate items that they've purchased or made to use in a workplace silent auction.
MATCHING GIFT: Check with your employer to see if they match donations.
