SECTION 2: SPECIAL EDUCATION RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES — IF APPLICABLE

Federal and state law authorize the individual who is acting in the role of the child's parent or who is appointed by the school or the court to be the "surrogate parent" for the child to exercise the rights and responsibilities as outlined by the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act and state law and rule. The individual is usually the foster parent or daily caregiver, but may be a Court Appointed Special Advocate or other individual with knowledge of the child. In some cases the biological parent may retain the right to make certain special education decisions.

The law does not allow a DFPS staff person, school district staff, or anyone employed to provide care or treatment for the child to act as the parent or surrogate for special education decision-making. A foster parent is not considered a person employed to provide care for the child.

At age 18, the rights of the parent to make education decisions are transferred to the child, except for the child with a disability who has been determined to be incapacitated under state law.

SECTION 3: EDUCATION DECISION-MAKER RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Unless otherwise indicated by provisions in this form, the Education Decision-Maker has the right and responsibility to:

- Enroll a child in the school chosen by DFPS, including providing identity or immunization information needed for enrollment.
- Determine, in conjunction with the child, if appropriate, course selection and participation in academic electives and activities.
- Determine whether the child should participate in special programs such as compensatory programs, bilingual education, Gifted and Talented, after-school tutoring, etc.
- Attend routine activities such as "Parent's Night," parent-teacher conferences, PTA meetings, and similar activities that involve parents.
- Approve child's participation in routine or non-routine school activities such as track and field, museum or field trips, etc.
- Be notified of injury or illness at a school activity on or off school grounds.
- Sign the Student Code of Conduct, and, if applicable, assist youth with understanding the Code of Conduct.
- Sign the annual directive to the school prohibiting the use of corporal punishment for the child and provide a copy to the caseworker for the child's case file.
- Receive report cards, permission slips, and other routine school correspondence including receiving homework assignments on behalf of the child if necessary.
- Have access to education records and the Education Portfolio.
- Be notified of and take action regarding disciplinary or attendance matters.
- Determine when a referral for a special education evaluation is necessary or make a referral for an evaluation.

The Education Decision-Maker has the following additional responsibilities:

- Meet with the child before making education decisions to ensure that the child's educational goals are appropriate and in the least restrictive environment.
- Review the child's Education Portfolio and pertinent educational records.
- Provide regular updates about the child's education to the DFPS caseworker, including copies of significant forms, records, and communication from the school.
- Inform the DFPS caseworker of any notification from the school regarding the child's disciplinary hearings, manifestation determination reviews, use of physical restraints and/or seclusion, truancy, suspension, expulsion, or removal to a Disciplinary Alternative Education Program (DAEP) or Juvenile Justice Alternative Education Program (JJAEP). Inform the caseworker of notices for all education-related activities which involve Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act or notices of special education Admission, Review, and Dismissal (ARD) committee meetings received.
- Ensure a copy of this Form 2085E has been provided to the child's school within five days of being named Education Decision-Maker.

Notes:

The Education Decision-Maker may be instructed by the caseworker to notify or consult with the caseworker or supervisor on any of these matters before communicating a decision to the school.

Unless otherwise indicated in Section 1 or Section 4, the daily caregiver with whom the child lives (foster parent, relative caregiver, or facility staff) may be involved in and notified regarding activities and decisions listed above which have a clear impact on the child's home life. For example, the caregiver is generally responsible for decisions about participation in extracurricular activities, sporting activities and events, dances, clubs, etc., regardless of whether the caregiver is also the child's designated Education Decision-Maker.

If school personnel have concerns about the decisions the Education Decision-Maker is making for the child, they should contact the DFPS caseworker or supervisor listed on page 4 of this form.

SECTION 4: BIOLOGICAL FAMILY RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES, IF APPLICABLE

A biological parent of a child in DFPS Managing Conservatorship retains only the educational decision-making rights expressly ordered by the court. For the child named in this form, the following rights have been retained by or granted to the biological parents:
