

Bio: Patty Mason

Short: Patty Mason is the founder of Liberty in Christ Ministries and has encouraged women worldwide through her books, live events, and media appearances, including American Family Radio, Moody Radio, and the 700 Club. She lives in Nashville with her husband. They have three children and four grandchildren.

Long: Patty Mason is a best-selling, award-winning author, and a passionate guide for women seeking a deeper connection with God in their everyday lives. With a heart that radiates compassion and authenticity, Patty brings hope to audiences by sharing her journey of overcoming an abusive childhood, depression, addiction, and insecurity.

As the founder of Liberty in Christ Ministries, Patty has spent decades empowering women to embrace God's love and purpose for their lives. Her books and Bible studies, including Getting to Know God's Heart, Finally Free, and Experiencing Joy, offer simple yet profound tools to grow closer to Jesus and discover His transformative power and love.

Patty's enthusiasm and relatable teaching have made her a sought-after speaker for conferences, retreats, and church events. Her media appearances include Faith Radio, American Family Radio, Moody Radio, and the 700 Club, where her story has touched lives worldwide.

Patty writes and lives in Nashville, Tennessee, with her husband. They have three children and four grandchildren. Whether she's speaking to a room of hundreds or engaging in one-on-one conversation, Patty's goal is to help women find hope, healing, and freedom in Christ.

You can learn more at www.LibertyinChristMinistries.com