

Hope for the Future

---

“Wisdom is sweet to your soul; if you find it, there is a future hope for you, and your hope will not be cut off” (Proverbs 24:14).

Why should we not worry about the future? What has God promised?
Proverbs 23:18; Jeremiah 29:11

When thinking about the future, why is it important to know God and have a revelation of who He is?
Psalms 24:1-2, 7-10; 47:7-8; Lamentations 5:19; Revelation 11:15b; 19:16

No matter what we face here on earth, what is God’s guarantee?
Isaiah 41:10; 43:2, 5; Jeremiah 1:8, 19; Romans 8:35; 37-39; Hebrews 13:5b-6

What is the wonderful future hope God has promised?
Romans 8:18-30; Colossians 1:3-5, 12-14; 1 Peter 1:3-5

How does the Bible describe our future glory and life? What is the rich and glorious inheritance we look forward to?
Isaiah 60:18; Jeremiah 31:10-14; Zephaniah 3:20; Revelation 19:4-9; 22:1-5

How does trusting in God's boundless and endless power give you hope for the future, or whatever you may face in the days ahead?

Exodus 15:6; Psalms 20:6; 147:5; Matthew 19:26

No matter what happens, God holds the future in His hands—our future days and our future glory. He knows the plans He has for us, and nothing will thwart His promises. As we wait in hope for the promises of God and our future with Him, where can we set our expectancy and find the strength to endure?

Psalm 130: 3-7:

Psalm 147:11:

Pen a prayer and ask God to give you a Spirit of wisdom and revelation so that you may know Him better—His goodness, charter, sovereignty, His love and incredible power. Ask Him to flood your heart with light so you may know the hope to which He calls you, so you may find the strength to endure the days ahead and find hope in the future glory to come.
