Am I a football player who happens to be a Christian?

No, I'm a Christian who happens to be a football player. That's my calling. That's my defining characteristic. Once I realized that, everything else fell into place. I became a better football player and a better person.”

Trust Beyond What You Can See

BY CASE KEENUM WITH ANDREW PERLOFF
 FOREWORD BY TONY DUNGY

Case Keenum has traveled one of the most unique paths in the NFL. Recruited by just one college, undrafted, and released three times, Case has overcome every obstacle to become a successful starting quarterback. In 2017, Keenum captured America's imagination by leading the Minnesota Vikings to a 13-3 record and an NFC North title. His game-winning touchdown in the final seconds of their divisional playoff game against the Saints, the "Minneapolis Miracle," made Case part of NFL history.

Keenum shares stories from every stage of his life, starting out as a ball boy for his father's college team in West Texas, going on to win a state title in high school, and rewriting the NCAA record book at the University of Houston. A devastating knee injury almost derailed his football career, but helped him get closer to the woman who would soon become his wife.

Throughout his story, Case explains how being a Christian helped him navigate the winding paths of both his successes and struggles. No matter what obstacle has been placed in front of him, Case believes God has a plan for him. That's why he plays football and that's why he's writing this book: To glorify God and to help others who face adversity in their everyday life.

He was Conference USA Freshman of the year in 2007, Conference USA Offensive Player of the Year in 2008, and Conference USA Most Valuable Player in 2009 and 2011. He is one of only two quarterbacks to win the Sammy Baugh Award for the nation's outstanding passer twice (2009 and 2011). JIM and ELISABETH ELLIOT

Jim Elliot was killed as he entered an unreached village in Ecuador to share God's good news with them. Just months later, Elisabeth and her then three-year-old Valerie moved into that same village to live the most extraordinarily faithful life.

After Elisabeth died in 2015, Valerie found the letters between Jim and Elisabeth that were thought to be lost in her father's old trunk in the attic. These letters about faith, love, and a call to serve point us to a life of extraordinary faith.

The Personal Letters and Love Story of Jim and Elisabeth Elliot

BY VALERIE ELLIOT SHEPARD

Many know the heroic story of Jim Elliot's violent death in 1956, killed along with four other missionaries by a primitive Ecuadorian tribe they were seeking to reach with the gospel. Many also know the prolific legacy of Elisabeth Elliot, whose inspiring influence on generations of believers through print, broadcast, and personal testimony continues to resonate, even after her own death in 2015.

What many don't know is the remarkable story of how these two stalwart personalities—single-mindedly devoted to pursuing God's will for their young lives, certain their future callings would require them to sacrifice forever the blessings of marriage—found their hearts intertwined. Their paths to God's purpose led them together.

Now, for the first time, their only child—daughter Valerie Elliot Shepard—unseals never-before-published letters and private journals that capture in first-person intimacy the attraction, struggle, drama, and devotion that became a most unlikely love story.

Riveting for old and young alike, this uniquely detailed, moving account of their personal lives shines as a gold mine of lived-out truth, hard-fought purity, and an insider's view on two beloved Christian figures.

Valerie graduated from Wheaton College in 1976, and has written a children's book (Pilipinto's Happiness) containing memories of her Amazon upbringing. She and her husband, Walt, a minister whose parents were missionaries in the Congo, have eight grown children. Their home is in the small coastal town of Southport, North Carolina, near Wilmington.

Suffering Is Never for Nothing

BY ELISABETH ELLIOT

Elisabeth Elliot (1926–2015) was a Christian author and speaker. She, having lived through great loss, taught on God's grace in the midst of hardship, as well as teaching wives and mothers to fulfill the high calling of Titus 2.

In her final book, Elisabeth Elliot describes how it is often through the deepest suffering that God teaches us the deepest lessons. As we trust Him through our trials, we come to a greater assurance of His love and sovereignty—even as He works all things together for the good of those who love Him.

Sick of Me

From Transparency to Transformation

BY WHITNEY CAPPS

Perhaps you're friends with "that" girl. You know her—"the perfect one" whose kids never get in trouble and whose house is totally Pinterest worthy. Do encounters like that mess with you and bring up all the feelings? Insecurity. Frustration. Maybe even shame and guilt?

Despite living in an age where filters are at our fingertips and Christians have been criticized for being "holier than thou," we've come to value transparency and vulnerability. And rightly so. We should be getting real with each other about our junk.

But should we stop there? Should we simply gather to confess and commiserate about our current version of "me"? Is community about more than just confession and feeling understood by one another in our shortcomings, struggles, or sin? Or does God have actual change in store for us on the other side? Is there something more than just brokenness? The answer is yes. Growing in our faith means we are honest and holy.

In Sick of Me, Whitney Capps praises the virtues of vulnerability, accessibility, honesty, and humility that are so desperately needed for faith-building communities. But she also fights for more. She helps us see that we shouldn't swing so far against legalism or hypocrisy that our faith becomes the feel good fad of the day. For Whitney, finding your "authentic self" is valuable, but has never been the call of the gospel. Instead, it's a call to come and die. Yes, we can come to Jesus just as we are. But we cannot stay that way. The gospel is a change-agent. Whitney calls us to live a sanctifying life that moves from confession to change because though transparency can be easy and trendy, true transformation is hard.

WHITNEY CAPPS is a national speaker for Proverbs 31 Ministries and a writer for the new Bible app, First 5, reaching more than 1,000,000 people daily. As a Bible study geek, Whitney's delight is to dig into God's Word for profound yet practical truth. A communicator at heart, Whitney comes alive by sharing those truths with any gal who will give her even a few minutes. In her former life she served as a talent acquisitions professional at Chick-fil-A's corporate office, which gave her a deep love for helping women connect their passion with their purpose for the glory of God.

A girly-girl living with all boys, Whitney and her husband Chad are raising their four sons, Cooper, Dylan, Ryder, and Tate just outside Atlanta, Georgia. Her house is wild, loud, and littered with Legos. Whitney is addicted to shoes, jewelry, and ice crunching. Additionally, Whitney served her community as her local Bible Study Fellowship Teaching Leader.

 Discipleship

Disciple Her

Using the Word, Work, & Wonder of God to Invest In Women

BY KANDI GALLATY

What does true, biblical discipleship look like? How can women, no matter what stage of life they are in, practice it? How can we find time to invest ourselves into others when it feels like our schedules are already full? What is our place in carrying out the Great Commission?

In this practical book, Kandi Gallaty outlines a process for developing an effective disciple-making strategy in your life and the lives of others. Disciple Her is filled with personal stories and more than a decade's worth of discipleship experiences. Most important, it is saturated with her love for the Word of God.

Helping women see their own life experiences as lessons to pass on is a constant theme of the book. Disciple Her will be a point of reference that can be picked up and referred to time and time again in the years to come as women intentionally obey Jesus' command to invest their lives into others.

Here and Now

Thriving in the Kingdom of Heaven Today

BY ROBBY GALLATY

The Christian life is so much more than just a one-time decision to secure a place in heaven.

What if you could experience heaven on earth today? Not flying angels singing on clouds, but the fulfilled, abundant life Jesus promised in the Bible—a life that, regardless of your circumstances or your present context, experiences joy, happiness, and peace that is difficult to encapsulate in human terms. What if heaven was available to us today? Pastor and author Robby Gallaty thinks it is.

We have been taught that salvation is getting man out of earth to live in heaven when the Bible teaches that God desires to bring heaven to earth through man. In Here and Now, readers will journey together to uncover the nucleus of Jesus' messages, which says the opposite. Jesus spoke about the kingdom of heaven and the kingdom of God (both are synonymous as we will see) more than any other topic. No other concept is even close.

God is the great Hero, but he also calls men out to be heroic under His tutelage. He calls them out to taste their glory as men. That's how He gets glory.”

Heroic

BY BILL DELVAUX

It's in the movies we see. It's in the news we hear. It's in the stories we tell. Every man is stirred by the heroic.

From boyhood, we search for heroes, starting with our fathers. But somewhere along the way, all our heroes disappoint us. And our attempts to be a hero fair no better, leaving us confused and unsure. Yet the heroic longing never leaves us.

We want to be that heroic man, but we do not know how. Jesus does.

He is the great Hero of all time, and He calls men to follow Him. As we follow, we will quickly realize that the path is surprising. He first leads us into a place of fear and trembling. He leads us into death. It is our initiation as men into the new life of the heroic. But the death will be followed by a stunning resurrection. We will find out our true names before Him and be given a heroic quest for His kingdom. And most important, we will discover the secret of true greatness, letting our lives go to serve others.

In the end, we become most heroic in the silence of His presence. Here we will feel His love, as he remakes us into His heroic image, uniting us to Himself.

Vulnerable

Rethinking Human Trafficking

BY RALEIGH SADLER

There are more than forty million enslaved people in the world today.

This is overwhelming. A number so large leaves us asking, What could I even do to help?

In his book Vulnerable: Rethinking Human Trafficking, Raleigh Sadler, president and founder of Let My People Go, makes the case that anyone can fight human trafficking by focusing on those who are most often targeted. This book invites the reader to understand their role in the problem of human trafficking, but more important, their role in the solution.

Human trafficking can be defined as the exploitation of vulnerability for commercial gain. Using the power of story and candid interviews, Sadler seeks to discover how ordinary people can fight human trafficking by recognizing vulnerability and entering in. As vulnerable people, we can empower other vulnerable people, because Christ was made vulnerable for us.

BY VICKI COURTNEY

From the cradle to college, tell your sons the truth about life before they believe the culture's lies.

For parents with boys newborn to eighteen, 5 Conversations You Must Have with Your Son will be as much a part of the boyhood journey as those Legos you're still finding under the sofa cushions and the garage full of sports equipment. Award-winning youth culture commentator Vicki Courtney helps moms and dads pinpoint and prepare the discussions that should be ongoing in a boy's formative years.

Fully addressing the dynamic social and spiritual issues and other influencers at hand, several chapters are written for each of the conversations, which are:

1. Don't define manhood by the culture's wimpy standards; it's okay to be a man
2. What you don't learn to conquer may become your master
3. Not everyone's doing it! (And other naked truths about sex you won't hear in the locker room)
4. Boyhood is only for a season. P.S. It's time to grow up
5. Godly men are in short supply—dare to become one

The book also offers invaluable tips on having these conversations across the various stages of development: five and under, six to eleven, and twelve and up.

God Our Anchor

Held Fast through a Loved One's Addiction: A 30-Day Devotional

BY DEBORAH BAILEY

Do you have friend, family member, or loved one in the throes of addiction? Do you feel tossed by the storm of their struggle, wondering how to stay anchored in truth and hope as you walk beside them?

Deborah Bailey has been there. Having lost her precious daughter to the darkness of addiction, she knows what it's like to run to God in prayer and Scripture, asking the hard questions and dealing with great loss head-on. In God Our Anchor, Deborah has crafted thirty devotionals for those who face a similar journey. Each thoughtful entry helps the reader navigate the storm of a loved one's addiction and hold fast to our great anchor, the Lord.

Whether you have lost loved ones to addiction, or still walk beside them even now in their struggle, Deborah's devotionals are a safe harbor for you to meet the Lord, letting Him hold you fast in some of the roughest waters a person can brave.

buying audience

- Christians who are struggling with or supporting someone struggling with addiction
- Christians looking for encouragement

DEBORAH BAILEY is a physical therapist, a teacher and advocate for intercessory prayer, and a mother who daily braves the loss of her daughter to drug addiction. Desperate for relief from the turmoil that the storm of addiction hailed at her daughter, Ashlynn, Deborah clung to God's Word and fervent prayer at depths she had never plumbed before. While supporting her daughter through multiple drug rehabilitation programs, Christian counseling, and sessions with various experts in psychology and psychiatry, Deborah felt the presence of the Lord and knew He had a plan to share her experiences with others who faced the same turmoil. She and her husband, Mike, now have a teaching and speaking ministry that seeks to end addiction and increase public awareness about the current addiction crisis. Deborah is the cofounder alongside her husband of The Ashlynn Bailey Foundation, an initiative dedicated to restore the lives of reformed addicts, provide hope for families in the midst of an addiction crisis, and pave a way for justice to reign in this broken world of drugs. More information about their foundation may be found at ashlynnbaileyfoundation.com.

Leading Small Groups

How to Gather, Launch, Lead, and Multiply Your Small Group

BY CHRIS SURRATT

Leading a small group can literally change the world.

We have been commissioned to make disciples who make disciples, and Jesus showed us that the best way to carry that out is through small groups of believers. Just like the first-century church, small groups form the foundation to take the gospel to the ends of the earth.

Chris Surratt, Discipleship and Small Groups Specialist for LifeWay Christian Resources, and author of Small Groups for the Rest of Us, wants to help you get from here to there.

Regardless of whether you have never led a small group or have been leading one for years, all of us want to know how to create environments where spiritual growth takes place and communities are changed. Leading Small Groups walks the reader through the stages of gathering, launching, leading, and multiplying a gospel-centered small group. There are also follow-up questions for discussion and reflection at the end of each section, and practical resources that can be implemented immediately by the small group leader.

Jesus left His followers with a task—the Great Commission. This book will help small group leaders and churches in their obedience to this task.

Spurgeon's Sermons for Today

The Love of Christ

BY CHARLES SPURGEON

By the time of Spurgeon's death in 1892, his sermons had been translated into more than forty languages and circulated throughout the world. His sermons were found in the hands of Christians in China, pastors in Norway, fishermen in the Mediterranean, and even Roman Catholics on pilgrimage through Europe.

In the first installment, readers are presented with Spurgeon's top sermons on the love of Christ, modernized for today's readers, and designed for an easy read, with plenty of room for notes.

Gospel-Centered Kids Ministry

BY BRIAN DEMBOWCZYK

The story of Jesus interacting with the Emmaus disciples after His resurrection provides an outline for what a gospel-centered kids ministry looks like: gospel-centered teaching that points to Jesus in every session, gospel-centered transformation that positions the gospel to change a child's heart and then his or her behavior, and gospel-centered mission where kids join in on the big story of Jesus that continues to unfold.

Seven out of ten kids will walk away from church after they turn eighteen. About five will return when they have families of their own. But two will never return. Clearly, something isn't connecting with our kids. As kids ministry leaders, we need to take a hard look at what we are missing in our kids ministries and provide kids the one thing that will satisfy them and keep them connected to the church—the gospel.

GraceFull

Growing a Heart That Cares for Our Neighbors

BY DORENA WILLIAMSON

Hope and Anna love seeing each other at church. When a Sunday grace offering is collected to help lift up Anna's homeless family, Hope begins to ask questions and has a unique opportunity to learn what grace looks like, both for her and for Anna's immigrant family. This touching story teaches children that God showers grace that is meant to be shared—allowing us all to be GraceFull!

In this follow up to her first two books, ColorFull and ThoughtFull, Dorena Williamson opens a dialogue on the tough subjects of poverty and homelessness and offers children encouragement to show God's grace and love to others whose home life might look very different than their own.

Easter Is Coming!

BY TAMA FORTNER

Mommy and her little ones are settling in for story time, and this time it's the biblical story of Easter that she's telling. As the youngsters hear God's tale unfold with its sometimes somber notes about sin and death, they are softly and continually reminded, "But Easter is coming!" By the end of the book, the anticipation has built and the children can celebrate the ending and the glory of Easter Sunday.

In a time when children's Easter excitement often focuses on only egg hunts and candy, this book offers a different—and true—reason for joy and expectancy. It's designed to be read and reread on the days leading up to Easter, telling the greatest story and building a sense of anticipation and celebration in little hearts.

Empowered

How God Shaped 11 Women's Lives (And Can Shape Yours Too)

BY CATHERINE PARKS

Empowered takes the popular idea of what it means to be a strong girl and flips it on its head, using the stories of twelve faithful women to show that real power comes from our loving Father through His Son. In the pages of this book, girls will encounter women they may never have heard of. They will learn some of the character traits that go along with the Christian walk, but they will also encounter a God who is faithful to complete the work He has begun in them. They don't have to do the things these women have done to live a life of purpose; by making a direct connection to their daily lives, readers will have a bigger and a more personal view of their Father and His love for them.

The stories in Empowered are about faithful women, but even more about a steadfast God. The same God who was faithful to give Corrie ten Boom the love she needed in order to forgive her prison guard can help girls love the unlovable bullies at school. The love for Jesus that compelled Sophie Scholl to sacrifice her life for a higher cause can empower a young girl who sees injustice in the world around her. In a culture where kids see value in terms of Instagram likes and viral videos, the life of Pandita Ramabai will show the value of humble worship.

Through the inspiring stories of twelve faithful women, Empowered will show girls that God is the true source of their power, strength, and purpose in life, removing the pressure girls may feel to conquer the world on their own.

PENTATEUCH

Genesis

ON THE TIMELINE:

Authorship of the Torah (the first five books of the Old Testament) has consistently been attributed to Moses, an influential Israelite leader from the fifteenth century BC. Though Genesis is technically anonymous, both the Old and New Testaments recognize Moses as the Torah's author. Genesis was likely written during the 40 years when the Israelites wandered in the desert (1446 BC-1406 BC). The events in Genesis begin at Creation and conclude about 1800 BC with the circumstances leading up to the Israelites' time in the land of Egypt.

A LITTLE BACKGROUND:

The Torah (also a Hebrew term for law) was seen as one unit until at least the second century BC. Some time before Christ was born, it was divided into five separate books and was referred to as the Pentateuch. Genesis can be divided into two sections: the "primeval history," or the general history found in chapters 1-11, and the "patriarchal history," or the history focusing on God's covenant with Abraham and his descendants, found in chapters 12-50.

MESSAGE AND PURPOSE:

Genesis is a book of new beginnings. It reveals the beginning of the heavens and the earth, of humanity and marriage, of sin and nations and languages, and the beginning of our need for a Savior. In Genesis we see that all God's creation was, in the beginning, thoroughly good; and in Genesis we see mankind's first sin and the consequences of that sin. All of our brokenness begins here, in the first book of the Bible, as does God's covenant to redeem His people. Genesis provides both the universal history of humankind and the patriarchal history of the nation of Israel. It unfolds God's plan to bless and redeem humanity through Abraham's descendants, remaining faithful to His people despite their unfaithfulness to Him.

GIVE THANKS FOR THE BOOK OF GENESIS:

Genesis lays the groundwork for everything else we read and experience in Scripture. Through Genesis we understand where we came from, how we fell, and the beginnings of God's gracious work on our behalf. Genesis establishes our foundational understanding of God's covenant with Israel through the giving of the Law. Without an understanding of the Law, we are unable to see our desperate need for our Savior, Jesus Christ.

Lifespans in Genesis

One curiosity about the opening chapters of the Bible is the length of time people lived compared to the average lifespan today. For example, Methuselah lived for 969 years, making him the oldest person listed in the Old Testament. Here are some of the more notable lifespans listed in Genesis.

ARTICLE

GENESIS 1

ARE THE DAYS OF GENESIS TO BE INTERPRETED LITERALLY?

by Ted Cabal

This question has stoked controversy among conservative Christians in recent times, but it has proved to be of little interest to theistic evolutionists (those who accept evolution as God's mechanism in creation) and those rejecting Genesis as God's inerrant Word. The debate has been primarily between young- and old-earth creationists, who believe that God literally created the various kinds of living things (as opposed to the common descent of Darwinism). Both sides hold that humans have not descended from other species, and both reject the atheism and macroevolutionary theory of neo-Darwinism.

The two creationist camps, however, differ in interpreting the creation days of Genesis. If the days were consecutive 24-hour periods, and if the earth was created on the first day, then calculations based on biblical genealogies reveal that the earth was created only thousands of years ago. If the days were either of indeterminate length or nonconsecutive, then the Bible does not reveal when the earth was created. Interestingly, both sides agree that the genealogies reveal that Adam and Eve were specially created only thousands of years ago.

Young earth creationists (YECs) interpret the days as 24-hour, consecutive periods for reasons such as the following: (1) The days in Gn 1 are consecutively numbered and comprised of an "evening and morning." (2) Exodus 20:8-11 commands a literal week of six days of work and one day of rest based on God's original creation/rest week. The two weeks would seem, then, to be of equal duration. (3) According to Rm 5:12, "sin entered the world through one man, and death through sin," but old-earth creationism would have animal death entering the world before the sin of Adam and Eve.

Old earth creationists (OECs) argue against 24-hour creation days for reasons such as these: (1) The Hebrew word for "day" (yom) is used in different ways in the creation account. For instance, Gn 1:5 refers yom only to daytime (daylight), not nighttime. Also, Gn 2:4, literally translated, speaks of "the yom that the Lord God made the earth and the heavens." (2) God's rest on the seventh "day" has no evening and morning (Gn 2:2-3), and Heb 4:3:1 portrays this same Sabbath as continuing to the present time. (3) Adam could not have named all the birds and animals in 24 hours according to Gn 2.

Both sides believe they have strong arguments favoring their interpretation and rebutting the other side. And historically, debate regarding biblical interpretation has often led to a clearer understanding of God's Word. But it is also highly debatable whether this issue merits the rancor and division often attending it. Some YECs accuse OECs of compromising the Bible with evolutionary science. Some OECs charge YECs with undermining biblical credibility by generating a false conflict between science and the Scriptures.

Happily, one thing is not debatable among those who believe the Bible: even if the correct interpretation of the creation days is not readily apparent in the present generation, the Bible can be trusted in every way. Debates about biblical interpretations should not be interpreted as the failure of Holy Scripture.

TWISTED SCRIPTURE Genesis 1:26-27

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, also known as the Mormons, believe these verses teach the physical nature of God, that he exists in a physical form. Historically, the Christian church has believed God to be a spiritual being, not a physical one. Genesis 1:26-27 are commonly interpreted by biblical scholars and theologians as God giving human beings reasoning ability, emotions, communication skills, relational ability, etc. Texts like John 4:24 clearly teach God is a spiritual being.

THE FIFTH DAY

26 ¶ And God said, Let the waters bring forth abundantly the moving creature that hath life, and fowl that may fly above the earth in the open firmament of heaven.

27 And God created great whales, and every living creature that moveth, which the waters brought forth abundantly, after their kind, and every winged fowl after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

28 And God blessed them, saying, Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let fowl multiply in the earth.

29 And the evening and the morning were the fifth day.

THE SIXTH DAY

24 ¶ And God said, Let the earth bring forth the living creature after his kind, cattle, and creeping thing, and beast of the earth after his kind: and it was so.

25 And God made the beast of the earth after his kind, and cattle after their kind, and every thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

26 ¶ And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

27 So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them.

28 And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and

replenish the earth, and subdue it: and

replenish the earth, and subdue it: and

THE CREATION OF MAN

26 ¶ And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

27 So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them.

TWISTED SCRIPTURE Genesis 2:7

According to modern-day psychics, this "breath of life" enables humans to exhibit supernatural abilities. Most people, however, do not know how to tap into this power. Such a bizarre conclusion cannot be derived from the text. A better interpretation is that the "breath of life" is simply the animating force of the body.

28 And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and

replenish the earth, and subdue it: and

NKJV EDITION

the third river is Hiddekel;⁴ it is the one which goes toward the east of Assyria. The fourth river is the Euphrates.

¹⁵Then the LORD God took the man and put him in the garden of Eden to tend and keep it. ¹⁶And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, "Of every tree of the garden you may freely eat; ¹⁷but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you shall surely die."

¹⁸And the LORD God said, "It is not good that man should be alone; I will make him a helper comparable to him." ¹⁹Out of the ground the LORD God formed every beast of the field and every bird of the air, and brought them to Adam to see what he would call them. And whatever Adam called each living creature, that was its name. ²⁰So Adam gave names to all cattle, to the birds of the air, and to every beast of the field. But for Adam there was not found a helper comparable to him.

²¹And the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall on Adam, and he slept; and He took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh in its place. ²²Then the rib which the LORD God had taken from man He made into a woman, and He brought her to the man.

²³And Adam said:

"This is now bone of my bones
And flesh of my flesh;
She shall be called Woman,
Because she was taken out of Man."

²⁴Therefore a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and they shall become one flesh.

²⁵And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and were not ashamed.

^{2:14} Or Tigris

Day 2: Beautiful House or House Beautiful? | Genesis 2:1-15

"The Loko God planted a garden eastward in Eden, and there He put the man whom He had formed" (v. 8).

The garden of Eden has become a euphemism for perfection of dwelling and lifestyle. Unfortunately, for most women, home is a dream dwelling with a prestigious location, picturesque structure, exquisite furnishings, helpful neighbors, and a loving family. What happens to the "beautiful house?"

The Creator's plan begins with a clear statement that He—"the Loko God"—plants you where He wants you to be geographically, which often is not where you want to be. This divinely appointed "garden" (Hb gan, "a place hedged around" or "protected") is a wonderful metaphor for what the Creator designed as home. Gardens are particular spaces set apart; they suggest beauty—whether flowers or fruit trees or just a touch of green and some natural stones; some produce food and sustenance; they often create a sense of peace and quiet rest, providing a perfect setting for conversation and building relationships (2:9-10, 16, 21-23).

How fitting that God decided to name this garden "Eden" (a Persian loan word meaning "delight"). Here then is the challenge: Can you create a home of "delight" for those whom you love the most and for the strangers who pass your way? I truly have happy memories from all the dwellings in which I have lived—some more than others, several that demanded far less creativity and energy to pull together, none that I was privileged to design or even decorate exactly as I wanted. But I am grateful that this challenge to create "delight" in my home found me early in my journey! Understanding the Creator's plan and opening my heart to dream of "house beautiful," a place of delight for me and my family, I have found the Lord faithful to provide creativity and energy in the journey.

How can you make your house beautiful? Regardless of the neighborhood in which you are living, whatever the age or size of your home, despite the quality of your furnishings and accessories—you can create "house beautiful" using your own creative energies and developing an attitude of faithful service to those whom you love the most.

PRAYER: Ask the Lord to give to you a sense of contentment with where He has placed you. Make your petitions to Him for ways you envision making your home Eden, a place of "Delight." Then consider the words of Amy Carmichael: "Wait and see" what He will do!

Genesis 3

THE TEMPTATION AND FALL OF MAN

³Now the serpent was more cunning than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said to the woman, "Has God indeed said, 'You shall not eat of every tree of the garden?'"

²And the woman said to the serpent, "We may eat the fruit of the trees of the garden; ³but of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God has said, 'You shall not eat it, nor shall you touch it, lest you die.'"

⁴Then the serpent said to the woman, "You will not surely die. ⁵For God knows that in the day you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil."

⁶So when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree desirable to make one wise, she took of its fruit and ate. She also gave to her husband with her, and he ate. ⁷Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together and made themselves coverings.

⁸And they heard the sound of the LORD God walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and Adam and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God among the trees of the garden.

⁹Then the LORD God called to Adam and said to him, "Where are you?"

¹⁰So he said, "I heard Your voice in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked; and I hid myself."

¹¹And He said, "Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree of which I commanded you that you should not eat?"

¹²Then the man said, "The woman whom You gave to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I ate."

¹³And the LORD God said to the woman, "What is this you have done?"

The woman said, "The serpent deceived me, and I ate."

Day 3: A Helper I Will Be | Genesis 2:16-20

"And the Loko God said, 'It is not good that man should be alone; I will make him a helper comparable to him'" (v. 18).

My young children and I did chores together. At first the tasks were harder and more time-intensive when I included them in the work; but as they gained experience, I shared my burdens with their youthful energies and profited from their working alongside me. The heart of helping is not merely the fellowship of working together, as delightful as that can be. Rather, greater productivity and sometimes even more efficiency are also in play.

In the work God has given me to do as First Lady at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, I am blessed with "helpers." I have no technology skills, but a college student can rescue me and get me back on track. The size of the president's home and the extent of its hospitality are beyond what I am physically able to do. Students with far less experience can contribute creativity and fresh energies to help me serve our guests. Their new ideas sometimes surpass my old ways of doing the task.

In God's economy, a helper is one who provides what is lacking, doing what another cannot do alone. Yet every effective helper must be sensitive to the one she is helping. The recipient of help has a certain authority over the helper. So "helper" (Hb ezer) does not suggest a servile role. Rather the helper may be better trained and equipped than the one she is helping in certain tasks.

For example, someone driving me to a church engagement is better at directions than I am. My husband says that even the dogs have a better guidance system than I do! God describes Himself as a ready "helper" for His children (Ex. 18:4; Deut. 33:7; Ps. 20:2); yet He is not beneath us or of less value. When we call upon the Lord, He brings something more to enable us to do the task.

So clearly God gives to me as a wife the role of being a "helper." Yet this phrase in Genesis includes another part—"his complement" (Hb kenegdo) or one corresponding to what is in front of him. Here then is God's creative purpose for the woman wrapped up in a poignant and precious phrase that includes our common equality (like or corresponding to the man) as well as our unique function (helping or assisting him in the great work God has given to both the man and the woman!)

PRAYER: Ask the Lord to give you a vision of how this dynamic relationship—of equal status before God while embracing God-given differences in function—should work in your life and marriage. Rest in the equality you share before the Father, but rejoice in the unique role He has given to you.

CSB Day-by-Day Chronological Bible

GUIDED BY DR. GEORGE GUTHRIE

Many people are unfamiliar with the stories of the Bible and how they fit together into the grand narrative of God’s Word. God gave us the Bible to reveal great truth about himself and about our lives, and he wants to draw us into the ongoing story of what he is doing in the world. The CSB Day-by-Day Chronological Bible features a clear narrative approach to the Bible, arranging the complete text into a fresh chronological reading plan with daily readings guided by Dr. George Guthrie.

In this plan, the books, chapters, and verses of the Bible are thoughtfully arranged so readers can track the story of Scripture, day-by-day, from beginning to end, understanding the flow of events and how the grand narrative of Scripture applies to everyday life. Unlike other chronological Bibles, this arrangement is not date specific (e.g., “January 1”), so the reading plan can begin at any point in the calendar year.

Exalting Jesus in Jeremiah, Lamentations

Christ-Centered Exposition Commentary

BY STEVEN SMITH

Exalting Jesus in Jeremiah, Lamentations is part of the Christ-Centered Exposition Commentary series. Edited by David Platt, Daniel L. Akin, and Tony Merida, this new commentary series, projected to be forty-eight volumes, takes a Christ-centered approach to expositing each book of the Bible. Rather than a verse-by-verse approach, the authors have crafted chapters that explain and apply key passages in their assigned Bible books.

Readers will learn to see Christ in all aspects of Scripture, and they will be encouraged by the devotional nature of each exposition presented as sermons and divided into chapters that conclude with a "Reflect & Discuss" section, making this series ideal for small group study, personal devotion, and even sermon preparation. It's not academic but rather presents an easy reading, practical and friendly commentary.

A TREASURY OF BAPTIST THEOLOGY

Pleading on Christ's Behalf

Recovering Exhortation in Preaching

BY JOSH SMITH; GENERAL EDITORS PAIGE PATTERSON AND JASON G. DUESING

Those who preach have been called to deliver the truth, and must do so with a conviction that every truth demands a response.

In this fourth installment of the "A Treasury of Baptist Theology" series, author Josh Smith aims to start a conversation about the role of exhortation in preaching. With emphasis on the biblical and theological foundation for exhortation, and attention to how exhortation is used in both Old and New Testaments, Smith makes a compelling argument that preaching must include both explanation and exhortation. Pleading on Christ's Behalf also provides practical steps to implement effective exhortation in preaching, and offers a variety of biblical models of exhortation to equip the reader to deliver the message of Christ with authority. Text-driven preaching demands text-driven exhortation.

buying audience

- Adults 18+
- Pastors and seminary students

marketing highlights

- Emphasizes the role of exhortation in preaching, and urges pastors to deliver God's message with authority
- Presents a biblical and theological foundation for exhortation

American History Volume 1

1492-1877

BY THOMAS S. KIDD

American History volume 1 surveys the broad sweep of American history from the first Native American societies to the end of the Reconstruction period, following the Civil War. Drawing on a deep range of research and years of classroom teaching experience, Thomas S. Kidd offers students an engaging overview of the first half of American history. The volume features illuminating stories of people from well-known presidents and generals, to lesser-known men and women who struggled under slavery and other forms of oppression to make their place in American life. The role of Christianity in America is central in this book. Americans' faith sometimes inspired awakenings and the search for an equitable society, but at other times it justified violence and inequality. Students will come away from American History volume 1 better prepared to grapple with the challenges presented by the history of America's founding, the problem of slavery, and our nation's political tradition.

American History Volume 2

1877-Present

BY THOMAS S. KIDD

American History volume 2 gives a wide overview of America's history from the end of the Civil War era, to the political and cultural struggles of contemporary times. Thomas S. Kidd employs lessons learned from his own scholarly expertise and history classes to weave together a compelling narrative of the defeats and triumphs that have defined the American national experience. Unlike many textbooks of modern American history, religion and faith remain central aspects of the book's coverage, through present-day America. It gives detailed treatment of episodes such as America's military conflicts, the Civil Rights movement, and the culture wars of the past half-century. Professor Kidd also considers the development of America's obsession with entertainment, from the rise of the first movies, to the social media age. American History volume 2 will help students wrestle with the political and cultural changes that have dramatically transformed contemporary American life.

Sexo en un mundo quebrantado

Como Cristo redime lo que el pecado distorciona

SEX IN A BROKEN WORLD
 PAUL DAVID TRIPP

La sexualidad es una parte fundamental de lo que significa ser humano, parte del hermoso diseño de Dios cuando creó todas las cosas. Y sin embargo, todos estamos afectados por el quebrantamiento sexual de una manera u otra debido a nuestra propia naturaleza pecaminosa y la pecaminosidad de nuestro mundo caído. En este libro, honesto y lleno de vida, el autor de best sellers Paul David Tripp nos ayuda a ver la gracia transformadora de Jesucristo que se ha puesto a disposición de todas las personas, dándonos una visión clara del diseño original de Dios para el sexo y ofreciéndonos una visión de la sexualidad humana que honra a Dios y restaura nuestra dignidad plena. Veremos que solo la gracia de Jesucristo brinda la esperanza de una vida de libertad, pureza y alegría como Dios la diseñó.

Sexuality is a fundamental part of what it means to be human, part of God's beautiful design when he created all things. And yet, we're all affected by sexual brokenness in some way or another due to our own sinful nature and the sinfulness of our fallen world. In this honest and life-giving book, bestselling author Paul David Tripp helps us see the transforming grace of Jesus Christ that has been made available to all people—giving us a clear view of God's original design for sex and offering us a vision of human sexuality that both honors God and restores our full dignity. We will see that only the grace of Jesus Christ provides hope for a life of freedom, purity, and joy as God intended.

De pastores y predicadores

FROM PASTORS AND PREACHERS
MIGUEL NÚÑEZ

Muchos han abrazado el ministerio pastoral sin tener una idea clara de cuán extraordinario es este llamado y sin ser debidamente conscientes de cuán alto es el privilegio de enseñar y pastorear ovejas compradas a un precio de sangre. De pastores y predicadores, el nuevo libro del pastor Miguel Núñez, fue escrito con la intención de contribuir a dar forma a las mentes y corazones de aquellos a quienes Dios ha llamado para dirigir y nutrir a Su rebaño.

Many have embraced the pastoral ministry without having a clear idea of how extraordinary is this call and without being duly aware of how high is the privilege to teach and shepherd sheep bought at the price of blood. This book, From Pastors and Preachers, has been written with the intention of contributing to the formation of the mind and heart of those whom God has called to guide and feed His flock.

La verdadera historia

Cómo comenzó el mundo, cómo terminará y todo lo importante que sucede en medio

THE STORY OF REALITY
 GREGORY KOUKL

El cristianismo bíblico es más que solamente otra visión religiosa, una relación con Dios o una fuente de enseñanzas morales. El cristianismo es una fotografía de la realidad; explica por qué el mundo es como es. Cuando las piezas del rompecabezas son ensambladas correctamente, podemos ver claramente la fotografía completa. El cristianismo es la verdadera historia de cómo comenzó el mundo, por qué el mundo es como es, cuál es el rol que las personas tienen en medio del drama y cómo todas las tramas de la historia se resuelven. En La verdadera historia el autor de bestsellers y conductor del programa "Stand to reason" Gregory Koukl, explica las cinco palabras que forman la columna vertebral narrativa de la historia cristiana.

Biblical Christianity is more than just another private religious view. It's more than just a personal relationship with God or a source of moral teaching. Christianity is a picture of reality. It explains why the world is the way it is. When the pieces of this puzzle are properly assembled, we see the big picture clearly. Christianity is a true story of how the world began, why the world is the way it is, what role humans play in the drama, and how all the plotlines of the story are resolved in the end. In The Story of Reality, bestselling author and host of Stand to Reason, Gregory Koukl, explains the five words that form the narrative backbone of the Christian story.

Israel Importa

Por qué los cristianos debemos pensar de manera distinta sobre el pueblo de Israel y su tierra

ISRAEL MATTERS
 GERALD R. MCDERMOTT

Israel Importa aborda el tema profundamente importante de la relación entre el cristianismo y la gente y la tierra de Israel, ofreciendo una “tercera vía” única y convincente entre los enfoques típicos, y corrigiendo malentendidos comunes que se han presentado a lo largo del camino. Este libro desafía la extendida suposición cristiana de que desde que Jesús vino a la tierra, los judíos ya no son especiales para Dios como pueblo, y la tierra de Israel ya no es teológicamente significativa. El libro presenta el viaje del autor de pensar esas cosas al descubrimiento de que los autores del Nuevo Testamento creían lo contrario de ambos. También muestra que, contrariamente a lo que muchos cristianos creen, la Iglesia no es el nuevo Israel, y tanto la gente como la tierra de Israel son importantes para Dios y para el futuro de la redención.

Israel Matters addresses the perennially important issue of the relationship between Christianity and the people and land of Israel, offering a unique and compelling “third way” between typical approaches and correcting common misunderstandings along the way. This book challenges the widespread Christian assumption that since Jesus came to earth, Jews are no longer special to God as a people, and the land of Israel is no longer theologically significant. It traces the author’s journey from thinking those things to discovering that the New Testament authors believed the opposite of both. It also shows that contrary to what many Christians believe, the church is not the new Israel, and both the people and the land of Israel are important to God and the future of redemption.

lost or damaged product

B&H Publishing Group cannot be responsible for products lost or damaged in shipment. In the event you receive damaged products or find a carton shortage, please follow the following procedure.

freight shipments

Sign the delivery receipt and state the exact number of cartons received and any visible damage. If damage is discovered after delivery, notify carrier for inspection within 15 days of delivery. Retain all packing material including boxes from the shipping company. Notify B&H Customer Service, and we will file a claim for you with the carrier and enter a replacement order.

bups/fedex ground shipments

Notify UPS/FedEx within 15 days in case of damage or B&H Publishing Group Customer Service in case of shortage. UPS/FedEx will inspect, pick up, and return damaged products to B&H. We will file a claim for damage and trace the shortage.

handling your order

When you order, include the product ISBN of each product ordered. Please specify order need-by date (as appropriate) to ensure receipt according to your needs. Orders without a need-by date or noted "Send best way" will be shipped the least expensive way. Orders requested to be shipped by motor freight will be shipped by the line which we believe will give you the best service if you have not asked for a specific carrier. Orders for "one" of a product packaged and cataloged in certain quantities will be interpreted to mean "one packaged unit." Orders weighing less than 250 pounds are usually shipped UPS. Orders weighing more than 250 pounds are usually shipped by motor freight. (You may have a preference entered on your permanent customer file.)
