Amazing Love

True Stories of the Power of Forgiveness

Corrie ten Boom | January 2018

Paperback ISBN: 978-1-61958-288-0
Price: $11.99 | 122 pages

E-Book ISBN: 978-1-61958-289-7
Price: $9.99

“May many who read these living chapters see Him [Christ] again, in the simplicity of faith, as our all-sufficiency and be stirred, as I have been, to a bolder faith.”

—Norman Grubb
Author of C.T. Studd

Following her miraculous release from a Nazi concentration camp, Corrie ten Boom refused to give in to the weakness of anger, claiming, “Forgiveness requires more strength than hatred.” Sharing incredible stories of encounters with people from all walks of life, Corrie illustrates how a childlike faith in the wisdom and love of God pushes us to forgive the seemingly impossible.

It is hard to overestimate the impact of the life of Corrie ten Boom. As a result of hiding Jews in her Holland home in the midst of World War II, Corrie ended up in a Nazi concentration camp where she continued to speak the love of Christ. A miraculous release gave Corrie the chance to begin an international ministry of writing and speaking, sharing Christ and counseling the hurting as a self-titled “tramp for the Lord.” Corrie died in 1983, on her ninety-first birthday.

Why Church Music Sounds Better, Fewer Are Singing, and What to Do About It

Price: $13.99 | 194 pages

E-Book ISBN: 978-1-61958-291-0

“My hope is that this book will awaken our identity as worshippers, corporately as well as individually, and enlighten us to the truth of who we are: a privileged, powerful people who will not settle for passivity, but with passion exercise participation in all our God-ordained activities, the first of which is worship.”

—Danny Byram,
Wallpaper Worship

In Wallpaper Worship, Danny Byram makes the comparison between today’s church worship and wallpaper—meant to emphasize the design of its surroundings, but not meant to be engaged with. Through an examination of personal worship experiences, the history of worship, and examples of biblical worship, Byram unpacks this analogy. He shares how to awaken our identities as corporate and individual worshippers, and passionately participate in the God-ordained activity of worship.

Danny Byram is an independent Christian recording artist and worship leader who has performed on five continents. Known by US military chaplains as “The Combat Musician,” Danny has given outreach concerts for the United States military community on over one hundred installations since 1987. He also produced and directed the Promise Keepers stadium events and the FamilyLife marriage arena events. With his breadth of experience in worship, performing arts, and leadership, he lectures and conducts workshops on worship in colleges, churches, and military chapels throughout the world.

“Of special value, this book provides some inspiring, heartwarming illustrations of persons moving beyond tragedy to allowing God to take control of their lives in total dependence.”

—Dr. Bernie Spooner
Associate Dean/Professor
Dallas Baptist University

John Stanley's Surrender encourages readers in the call upon every Christian's life to daily die to self and surrender—in salvation and in every single circumstance. Expertly weaving together Scripture, personal anecdotes, and a white-water rafting story, John explores what a truly surrendered life can look like, and how that provides a new outlook on what it means to live a satisfied, joyful life.

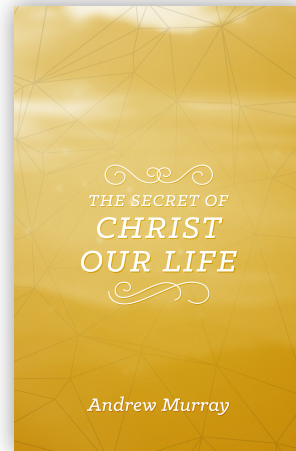

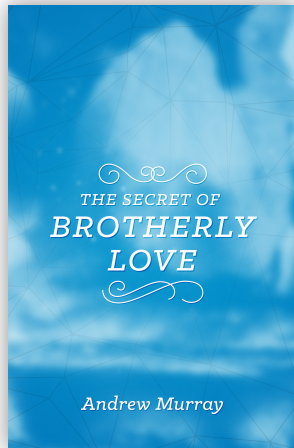

John Stanley serves as a pastor on staff in the worship ministry at Second Baptist Church in Houston, Texas. An internationally recognized composer, arranger, music producer, percussionist, and drummer, he has been part of the professional music scene for over a decade and has worked with multiple award-winning artists, producers, and songwriters. “There are tough ways to break out of spiritual patterns we’ve developed over decades. It takes effort. Yet, there is a way to find joy in your spiritual life. There is a way to find life again. The secret is in the blood.”

—John Brandon,
Lifeblood

Lifeblood is what flows through us when we first find Christ; but as time goes on, we start to grow stale in our spiritual life. Not simply a how-to book, Lifeblood is about getting back to the basics of Christianity and making life-altering communion with Jesus possible every minute of the day. Tapping in to your lifeblood starts with you; but it will flow to your friendships, marriage and family, church, work, and even your community.

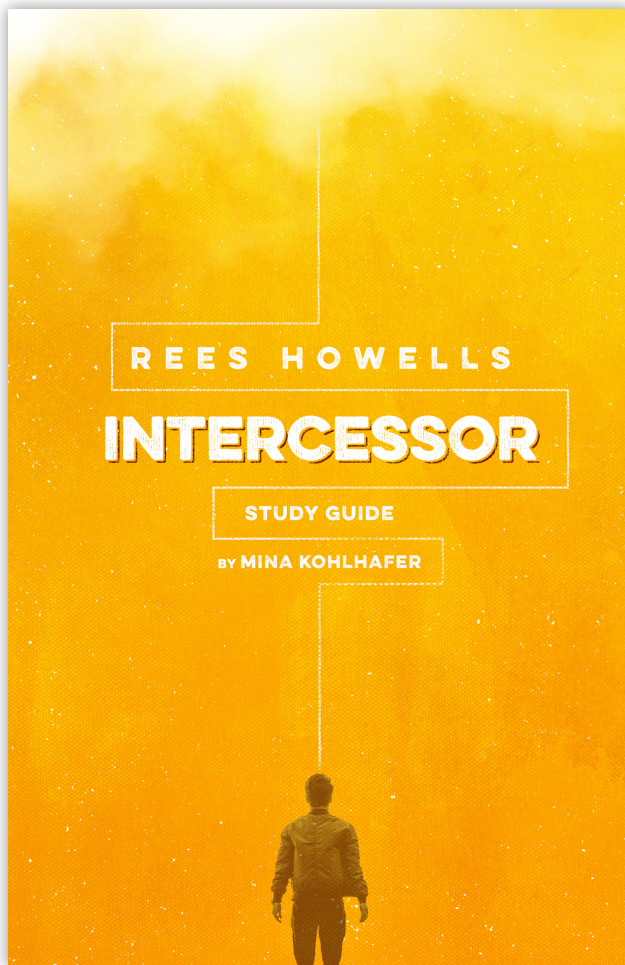

John Brandon is a well-known reporter and columnist for Inc. magazine, Fox News Network, Christianity Today, Relevant magazine, and many others. For ten years, he worked as a corporate manager in the Information Technology field. After 9/11, John's employer (who became nervous about the world economy) fired him. At the advice of his wife, he became a writer and has since published over twelve thousand articles in seventeen years. Over ten million people have read his thought-pieces on leadership, productivity, mentoring, and technology for Inc. com. He lives in Minnesota with his wife, Rebecca, and has four children, two sons-in-law, and three grandchildren. This is his first book.

WATCHMAN NEE

Watchman Nee (1903–1972) was a noted Chinese Bible teacher and Christian leader. He began his preaching ministry while still a university student. From 1923 to 1950 Nee founded two hundred churches. Starting as small groups meeting in rented houses, these self-supporting congregations became strong spiritually and grew rapidly, continuing to develop after China's Cultural Revolution. Nee was arrested on false charges in 1952 and found guilty; he was imprisoned until his death in 1972.
