About This Catalog

All prices in this catalog are in U.S. dollars. All prices, discounts and product availability are subject to change without notice. Due to volatile prices of materials, the cost to produce many products has risen significantly. - Scripture component for each session
- Stories and activities to engage each member of the group will assist you when you aren't sure how to pray (Romans 8:26).

God for your loved one with real joy in your heart. Thank Him for each one He has allowed you to have (Philippians 1:3-4).
think about anything concerning the one for whom you are praying, lifting by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be known to God (Philippians 4:6).
Pray without ceasing (1 Thessalonians 5:17).
Your prayers for those you love have great power as they are working (James 5:16).
Prayer should be our passion. We cannot control others. They will not always listen to our counsel and advice. They may wisdom. If ever, write or call or visit, but God has orchestrated our relationship with them. They belong to us. May we never stop praying for them (1 Samuel 12:23).

Re-creating Christmas NEW
A DIY Outreach for Churches of Any Size

What do churches do to redeem the season within their communities?

We create Christmas by offering an outreach where we plop our neighbors right in the middle of first century Bethlehem. This book places in your hand the opportunity to dream, pray, and create a Christmas outreach for neighbors and an entire community, no matter the size of your church or budget. We provide the thinking, outline, ideas, online assistance, and encouragement. All you need are some volunteers, a creative budget, and a DIY attitude. Lost in Logistics
A Step-by-step guide to transform your board and get your ministry moving

Many churches are governing on old, out-dated bylaws, and old ways of doing business. As church membership/attendance declines, there are fewer people to do the work of the church—discipleship. This book offers a solution, a remedy—perhaps even a cure—for the inner workings of churches, allowing ministry to again take center stage. When a church board is "of one mind" in the Lord and guiding the church to minister to its community and the world, the whole congregation will be spiritually changed.

Heirlooms NEW

Passing Faith Stories to Your Grandchildren

by Tina Houser

OVERVIEW

Stories matter because they draw out emotions. Our hearts break for what someone went through. We laugh at an absurd decision and the consequences. We shake our heads in disgust. We feel a surge of envy or jealousy. We wish we could have been an eyewitness. Stories break through our outer crust and touch our emotions.

Stories matter because we relate to stories. They provide us with common ground. They connect us. Stories take people from thinking they have nothing in common to realizing they have plenty to share.

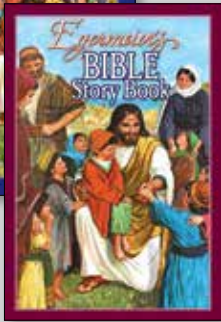

Stories matter because they help answer questions. When did that happen? Why did they move? Where were you when that took place? How old were they? Is that why...? How did you react? How did you get through that? What happened next?

Stories matter because children LOVE stories! Grandchildren want to hear their grandparents' stories. They are fascinated to hear how God has worked or is working in the lives of people they know and love.

This book guides grandparents in sharing their stories of faith with their grandchildren. By including key scriptures, thought starters for sharing life stories, and a series of relevant activities, Heirlooms is the perfect guide for grandparents passing on their heirlooms of faith to the next generation and beyond.

NEW Born to Roar

Devotions for Kids

by Diane Cory

FEATURESChew on This—Learn a Bible Verse

The lions' teeth are like swords they use to fight their enemies. Like their teeth shred the meat they eat, God wants us to tear into His Word daily and devour it. Ephesians 6:17 tells us that the Word of God is like a sword we can use in fighting any battles going on around us.

Under the Tree—Read a Devotional Story

Lions live in families, and they rest and sleep under a tree. The big canopy of the tree is like a den for them. We, too, need to sit in the shade of God each day, read His Word, and learn from Him.

Pondering Paws—Write or Draw in Journaling Time

A lion's paws are equipped with soft pads to make its movements quiet. God wants us to learn how to be still and think about Him. We need to know how to quiet our hearts to listen to His voice as we read His Word.

My Roar—Do an Activity and Watch Your Faith Grow!

The roar of a lion is its way to talk to other lions. Sometimes they roar to warn or alert other lions. It is their way of letting the world know they have something to say. We also have a voice to speak the things God tells us. We have a roar in what we do and say.

Head of Christ

Inspired by religious instructors who spoke of Jesus as a rugged and strong man, this Sallman painting depicts the Master as a man of strength, compassion, love and faith. This beloved depiction of Christ is by far Sallman's most popular work and the cornerstone of his ministry as a Christian artist.

ABOUT THE ARTIST

Warner E. Sallman was born in Chicago, Illinois, April 30, 1892. He said, "My talent for painting and illustrating developed in me from early youth, and by divine direction I was led step-by-step toward a ministry of Christian art." Sallman attempted his first oil painting at the age of ten in the attic studio used by his father, also an artist. It was not until 1941, however, that Sallman's charcoal sketch, Head of Christ, gained enough recognition to be painted as an oil and was published by Kriebel & Bates, Inc.

Warner Press is proud to be the owner and exclusive distributor of the most recognized images of Christ worldwide. When Giants Fall

Overcoming Failure to Lead a Life of Integrity

In When Giants Fall, you will discover how God used David, a shepherd boy turned king, at his best and his worst. In spite of his failures, David was quick to repent and seek after God, earning him the title of “a man after God’s own heart.” David’s experience proves that God can still use weak, sinful human beings like us to do His work. Though heartache and remorse may color our lives, God can accomplish great things through us—things worth remembering for centuries to come.

CHRISTIAN LIVING

In God We Trust?

A Challenge to American Evangelicals

Even Evangelical Christians, who profess to follow Scripture faithfully, hold three “gods” to be sacred: Religious Freedom, Radical Individualism, and Materialism. This often leads them into moral compromise and strikingly unbiblical behavior. What lies ahead for Evangelicalism and American Christianity as a whole? A young Christian leader challenges us to reexamine what we believe and practice, and calls for a life of radical faith in the years ahead.

Bind Up Your Broken Heart

When Others Fail Us, We Can Find Healing with the Lord

Do you sometimes feel trapped or wounded by painful relationships? You are not alone. The Bible tells the stories of men and women who learned to trust God when they suffered pain at the hands of people they loved. Even Jesus himself was ridiculed by his own brothers, who scoffed at the idea that he was the Savior of the world.

CHRISTIAN LIVING

Senseless

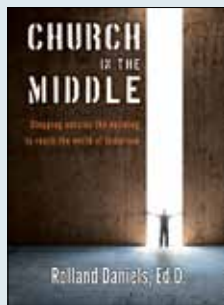

Surviving Life's Tragedies

Everyone is vulnerable. A godly person may contract a terminal illness, see a spouse killed in a bizarre accident, or watch a child die as the result of a birth defect. Why does God allow such things to happen? Doesn’t God care?

Senseless confronts us with the fact that we live in a world where everyone is vulnerable, even those who serve God. Yet God cares for us in the midst of our suffering.

Gentle Hugs for Grieving Hearts Study Guide

Gentle Hugs for Grieving Hearts offers readers the opportunity to open their weeping hearts to God, who has come alongside His grieving children throughout history. This book takes readers on a journey through the Scriptures, focusing on individuals who grieved and received God’s comfort. Grieving hearts, according to Julie, don’t need another guilt trip or another buck-up and deal-with-it teaching. Instead, they need to feel, to experience, and to uncover the truth of God’s faithfulness for themselves.
