WHAT EVERY CHRISTIAN NEEDS TO KNOW ABOUT JUDAISM: EXPLORING THE EVER-CONNECTED WORLD OF CHRISTIANS AND JEWS

ACADEMIC

Explore the wisdom and traditions of the Jewish faith and examine what they mean for Christians.

When Christians learn about Jewish tradition and history, they see the Bible and the life of Jesus with a new and enriched perspective. Knowing more about Judaism brings them closer to Jesus because Jesus lived and died as a Jew and consistently quoted the Jewish scripture and stories.

In this book Evan Moffic, popular rabbi, author, and guide to Jewish wisdom for people of all faiths, continues the What Every Christian Needs to Know About series with an exploration of the wisdom and traditions of Judaism. Rabbi Moffic provides answers to hundreds of questions he receives about Judaism to provide a deeper understanding of the roots shared by Christians and Jews.

Through this book’s explorations, readers will learn insights of the great Jewish sages to live a richer and more meaningful life, soak up the wisdom and traditions of Judaism, and a develop closer relationship with God.

Rabbi Evan Moffic is a guide to Jewish wisdom for people of all faiths. A graduate of Stanford University, he is the spiritual leader of Congregation Solel on the North Shore of Chicago. He has been featured in the Chicago Tribune, The Washington Post, The Forward, and Christianity Today, and appears regularly as a religious commentator on Fox News and CNN. He is an active blogger/vlogger who has contributed to sites such as Beliefnet. com, Hu ngtonpost.com, and MichaelHyatt.com. Through his speaking events, he brings new understanding of the Jewish heritage to churches of varied denominations and beliefs. Moffic is the author of several books including What Every Christian Needs to Know About the Jewishness of Jesus, What Every Christian Needs to Know About Passover, First the Jews, and Shalom for the Heart. You can learn more and see dozens of videos unpacking biblical texts and Jewish insight at www.rabbi.me.

HOLY IMAGINATION: A LITERARY AND THEOLOGICAL INTRODUCTION TO THE WHOLE BIBLE

ACADEMIC

Holy Imagination can serve as the primary text for an introductory course on the whole Bible. For instructors who prefer an historical-critical structure, this book could be an appreciated supplementary text that gives new Bible readers the larger picture of the wider biblical literature.

Most literary works have one primary voice, a discourse that expresses an author’s dominant culture and ideology. The whole Bible, however, should be read by allowing numerous voices or discourses during a thousand years of literary imagination to emerge and interact. This dialogic reading process introduces theological insights that are larger than the individual parts of the Bible.

Many books about the Bible introduce students to this sacred literature through a critical tour of the historical events and cultures that were present when the authors were at work. Holy Imagination, however, groups sections of the Bible by genre, to include the whole canon. This “reader’s introduction” is informed by literary theory and theological synthesis. For example, the first section will describe the primordial history in Genesis 1-11 as literary myth. How do we use the term myth when it is applied to the beginning of Genesis? The next section, the ancestral narratives in Genesis 12–50 is described as “formational narratives of identity.” How do the stories use sibling rivalry to shape national identity then and now?

Each section in the introduction will identify and describe the genre (myth, historiography, poetry, apocalyptic literature, and so on) and then move into a discussion about its literary characteristics. Once the range of materials within a genre is evaluated, the introduction will deploy literary tools useful in reading a particular genre. The application of these tools will be guided by a set of “literary rules.”

1. Reading is always an act of interpretation.
2. The Bible is a theological text.
3. The Bible is a literary text in that it is written and uses literary devices.
4. Scripture comes to us in a variety of forms/genres and knowing the genre helps the reader in the task of reading.
5. Scripture comes from multiple sources, representing a variety of perspectives over time.
6. These different sources form a dialogue from which greater meaning can be achieved.
7. This dialogue is ongoing and never-ending (always making new meanings).

SPIRITUAL WARFARE IN THE STORYLINE OF SCRIPTURE

ACADEMIC

In Spiritual Warfare in the Storyline of Scripture, authors Bill Cook and Chuck Lawless provide a comprehensive study of a topic that is of key importance in the life of every believer.

Surveying and analyzing incidents of spiritual warfare from Genesis through Revelation, the authors create a biblical framework for understanding the reality of Satan’s on-going assault on humankind.

Building on that framework, Spiritual Warfare in the Storyline of Scripture also offers practical insights into some of Satan’s most common attacks on believers, and strategies for how we might stand against his onslaught.

Readers of this book will gain a more complete understanding of what the Bible teaches about spiritual warfare in order to live in victory, confident that Satan is an enemy who has already been defeated.

William F. Cook, III is professor of New Testament interpretation at The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary and lead pastor of Ninth and O Baptist Church in Louisville, KY.

Chuck Lawless is professor of evangelism and missions, dean of doctoral studies, and vice president for spiritual formation and ministry centers at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. He also serves as team leader for theological education strategists for the International Mission Board.

RECOVERED: HOW AN ACCIDENT, ALCOHOL, & ADDICTION LED ME TO GOD

AUTO-BIOGRAPHY/BIOGRAPHY

Robby Gallaty is most known for being the Senior Pastor of Long Hollow Baptist Church, founder of the discipleship ministry Replicate, a nationally sought-after speaker and the author of seven books. However, author and pastor Robby Gallaty is not who you think he is.

In Recovered, Robby Gallaty tells the story of how God radically saved him from his addictions and called him into a life of discipleship.

Robby grew up in a very religious Catholic family who attended church every Sunday and confession on Saturday if needed. You can imagine how devastated they were when Robby stole $15,000 from them to fuel his drug addiction. Two years earlier, he was rear-ended on his way home from work by an 18-wheeler. Two herniated discs in his neck and back forced him to rely on pharmaceutical drugs to cope with the pain. Within three months, he transitioned to street drugs, heroine, and cocaine, after blowing through his thirty-day prescription in two weeks. Robbing his parents was the only option to prolong his drug habit.

Shortly thereafter, Robby hit rock bottom. But God wasn’t done with him. After a trip to rehab followed by a relapse and a second rehab visit, Robby surrendered his life to Christ, and nothing has ever been the same.

This story—a story of salvation and new life— is for any reader who:

- Wonders if God is done with them
- Has messed up time and time again
- Is battling drug or alcohol addiction or other destructive behaviors
- Has a loved one in the throes of addiction
- Needs to be reminded of the miraculous salvation found in the gospel

For more information, visit recoveredbook.org

Robby Gallaty is the senior pastor of Long Hollow Baptist Church in Hendersonville, Tennessee. He was radically saved out of a life of drug addiction on November 12, 2002. In 2008, he began Replicate Ministries to equip and train men and women to be disciples who make disciples. He is also the author of Growing Up (2013), Firmly Planted (2015), Rediscovering Discipleship (2015), MARCS of a Disciple (2016), The Forgotten Jesus (2017), Preaching for the Rest of Us (2018), and Here and Now (2019).

WESLEY ONE VOLUME COMMENTARY

BIBLE REFERENCE

This one volume commentary on the entire Bible was written by more than 40 scholars from the broad range of Wesleyan denominations, including The United Methodist Church, The Church of the Nazarene, The Church of God (Anderson), The Church of God (Cleveland), The Wesleyan Church, The Free Methodist Church, and The Salvation Army.

It is the only specifically Wesleyan Bible commentary available and assists pastors in sermon preparation, small group leaders in lesson preparation, and laypeople in Bible study. Joel B. Green, Professor of New Testament Interpretation at Fuller Seminary, called this commentary, "The Wesley Study Bible +++." The commentary form will allow for a much greater exploration of Wesleyan themes and theology than a Study Bible ever could.

Fully explores the Wesleyan interpretation of Scripture, but does not include the actual scriptures.

Kenneth J. Collins is Professor of Historical Theology and Wesley Studies at Asbury Theological Seminary in Wilmore Kentucky, and an elder in the Kentucky Conference of The United Methodist Church. He also teaches at the Baltic Methodist Theological Seminary in Estonia, and is a member of the Wesleyan Theological Society, Wesley Historical Society, and Society for the Study of Christian Spirituality. He is the author of A Real Christian: The Life of John Wesley, The Scripture Way of Salvation: The Heart of John Wesley's Theology, co-editor of Conversion in the Wesleyan Tradition, and John Wesley: A Theological Journey.

Robert W. Wall is the Paul T. Walls Professor of Scripture and Wesleyan Studies at Seattle Pacific University in Seattle, Washington.

ROSE BIBLE OVERVIEW (COMPACT EDITION)

BIBLE REFERENCE

Packed with short summaries, quick-reference charts & diagrams, full-color maps, and illustrations, Rose's Bible Overview is the perfect solution to cover over 2,000 years of Bible history, people, and events at a glance!

The Bible is made up of 66 books, written over 1600 years, by about 40 writers. And Bible Overview will give you a grasp of each book quickly in this full-color handbook. It includes a fantastic 2-to-6 page overview of each book of the Bible, and includes:

- ✓ Purpose - Author - Date written
- ✓ Key themes - Key verses
- ✓ Over 150 photos, maps and time lines
- ✓ Summary of the key teachings
- ✓ Outline of the stories in the book
- ✓ What it tells us about Jesus
- ✓ What we can learn from it today

Enjoy having one book that includes not only quick overviews—but also hundreds of fascinating facts, such as:

- The name Genesis comes from the Greek word gignesthai, which means "to be born."
- The Cyrus Cylinder found in ancient Babylon dates back to around 539 B.C. and confirms the accuracy of the events in the books of Ezra and Nehemiah.
- Roman Emperor Nero was so cruel that his contemporaries called him the "beast." Tradition says that both Peter and Paul were martyred under the persecution of him.

This resource is perfect for personal study, church libraries, discipleship classes, and group Bible studies.

ROSE CHRONOLOGICAL GUIDE TO THE BIBLE

BIBLE REFERENCE

Did you know that the Bible has more than 1,100 chapters and 30,000 verses? It can be easy to get lost in all the people, places, and stories of the Bible. The Rose Chronology Guide to the Bible is designed to help you see how all the pieces of the Bible fit together—and see God's big story from creation to the end times.

Look at the Bible in a fresh new way by viewing Bible events in the order they happened. See all sixty-six books of the Bible, from Genesis to Revelation, arranged chronologically. You'll learn how the stories of key Bible characters—like Abraham, David, Ruth, and Paul—fit into the larger story of God's unfolding plan of salvation through his Son Jesus Christ.

This one-of-a-kind resource is packed with full-color charts, maps, and illustrations to help you explore bible history. It includes:

- Three 24-inch chronology foldouts showing the Bible at a glance, the life of Jesus, and the kings and prophets of the Old Testament.
- Chronology charts on popular Bible topics such as the Genesis flood, the temple in Jerusalem, the ark of the covenant, and more.
- A harmony of the four Gospels—Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John—side by side.
- Maps showing the journeys of the patriarchs, the exodus route, where Jesus walked, Paul's missionary trips, and more.
- Quick summaries of all sixty-six books of the Bible and when they happened.

This resource is an excellent way to enhance your Sunday school, homeschool, and small group or individual Bible studies.

THE GRACE OF LES MISÉRABLES

BIBLE STUDY

This Lent ponder the themes of justice, poverty, freedom, and love.

The hit Broadway Musical, Les Misérables, based on Victor Hugo’s 1862 novel, is one of the longest running musicals in the world. This profound story of Jean Valjean’s quest for redemption and a changed life has inspired audiences to ponder themes of justice, poverty, freedom, and love.

In keeping with his previous works, Matt Rawle brings us to the intersection of Church and Pop Culture by drawing parallels between the popular story and the life of Jesus, another revolutionary who shared a Gospel of justice for those on the margins of life, and in turn, a sacrificial life with the least of us all.

Sessions include:

- Grace—Jean Valjean
- Poverty—Fantine
- Revolution—Les Amis (The Friends)
- Sacrifice—Eponine
- Justice—Javert
- Hope—Conclusion

Additional components for a six-week Lenten study include a DVD featuring Matt Rawle, a comprehensive leader guide, a youth resource, and Worship Resources Flash Drive.

Matt Rawle is Lead Pastor at Asbury United Methodist Church in Bossier City, Louisiana. Matt is an international speaker who loves to tell an old story in a new way, especially at the intersection of pop culture and the church. He is the author of a new series of books titled The Pop in Culture Series. The series includes The Faith of a Mockingbird, Hollywood Jesus, The Salvation of Doctor Who, The Redemption of Scrooge, What Makes a Hero?, and The Gift of the Nutcracker.

FOLLOWING GOD: LOVING ONE ANOTHER: COMMUNITY GOD WANTS US TO BE

BIBLE STUDY

Over the course of this Bible study we will look at every “One Another” command in the Bible, and hopefully move closer to being the community God desires and Christ is praying for us to be.

The Bible makes it clear that our faith is not an individual sport. In our modern age of isolation, the timeless message of Scripture calls us back to being the “body of Christ” - an interconnected amalgamation of diverse individuals living in community with each other.

There are 59 “one another” statements in the New Testament that are direct commands. Together, they define God’s desire for His people - how He wants us to interact in relationship with each other. The centerpiece of these “one another” exhortations is the repeated call to “love one another.” In fact, one could say that it is not possible to rightly live out the other “one anothers” without loving one another first.

- ✓ Lesson 1: Community Matters
- ✓ Lesson 2: Loving One Another
- ✓ Lesson 3: Ministering to One Another
- ✓ Lesson 4: Praying for One Another
- ✓ Lesson 5: Forgiving One Another
- ✓ Lesson 6: Encouraging One Another

THE WALK: FIVE ESSENTIAL PRACTICES OF THE CHRISTIAN LIFE

CHRISTIAN LIFE

How do we walk with Christ—daily follow him, grow in him, and faithfully serve him? In the Gospels, Jesus modeled for us the Christian spiritual life. The apostles taught it in their writings. And the Church has, through the last 2,000 years, sought to pursue this Christian spiritual life.

In The Walk, Adam Hamilton focuses on five essential spiritual practices that are rooted in Jesus’ own walk with God and taught throughout the New Testament. Each of these practices is intended as part of our daily walk with Christ while also being an essential part of growing together in the church.

In each chapter, Hamilton explores one of these practices, its New Testament foundation, and what it looks like to pursue this practice daily in our personal life and together in the life of the church. Deepen your walk with Christ as we explore the five essential practices of worship, study, serving, giving, and bearing witness to our faith.

Additional components for a six-week adult study include a comprehensive Leader Guide and a DVD featuring the engaging teachings of author and pastor Adam Hamilton. Also available are resources for children and youth.

Adam Hamilton is senior pastor of The United Methodist Church of the Resurrection in Leawood, Kansas, one of the fastest growing, most highly visible churches in the country. The Church Report named Hamilton's congregation the most influential mainline church in America, and he preached at the National Prayer Service as part of the presidential inauguration festivities in 2013. Hamilton is the best-selling and award-winning author of Creed, Half Truths, The Call, The Journey, The Way, 24 Hours That Changed the World, John, Revival, Not a Silent Night, Enough, When Christians Get It Wrong, and Seeing Gray in a World of Black and White, all published by Abingdon Press. (in)COURAGE: FOR ALL WHO WANDER: WHY KNOWING GOD IS BETTER THAN KNOWING IT ALL

Many women deal with doubt, but don't know what to do with it.

“Lord, I believe. Help my unbelief!” (Mark 9:24)

Robin Dance's circumstances might not have been as dramatic as the father begging Jesus for a miracle, but she felt just as desperate in her faith. Feeling lost in a spiritual season of wandering, this was the most honest prayer she could offer. Can you relate to struggling in your faith but longing to believe?

Perhaps life isn't turning out like you thought it would. Heartbreak and challenges stir doubt. Sunday school answers fall short. God seems distant.

Inviting you to find hope and healing in your own story within the pages of hers, in For All Who Wander, Robin Dance will help you:

- Abandon the guilt and shame attached to your questions or doubts
- Broaden your understanding of God's grace and faithfulness
- Release hostage-holding lies to enable you to embrace your identity, hope, and value in Christ
- Reframe your view of difficulties and disappointments as you understand their redemptive and transformative value
- Trust that God is working in your wandering to restore and strengthen your faith

As you walk through Robin's story with her, you'll find out for yourself that sometimes wandering is the path that leads you back to God.

Robin Dance is a writer, speaker, and contributor to the (in)courage community and The Art of Simple. She's traveled to India as a blogger and child sponsorship advocate for Compassion International, and her writing has been featured in ten book compilations as well as HomeLife and Mature Living magazines. She and her husband, Tad, are enjoying newfound freedom as empty nesters, but they keep their fingers crossed and the back door open for their three adult children. A HOLY PURSUIT: HOW THE GOSPEL FREES US TO FOLLOW AND LAY DOWN OUR DREAMS

CHRISTIAN LIFE

“Chase your dreams and follow your heart, no matter the cost” is the call of the world today. The opposite extreme, often advised by the church, is to lay down all of our dreams and passions, avoiding all self-interest. This book helps you look upward and see your faith as the foundation of your dreams.

One narrative says to follow a passion, and the other says to lay it down. Both offer happiness and purpose on the other side. But what does the Bible say about dreams, goals, and passions?

With compelling illustrations from Dianne Jago's unexpected journey in creating Deeply Rooted Magazine, along with thoughtful scriptural examples, Dianne shares an honest account of how God changed her plans and aligned them with His.

As you read this book, you will be challenged to look upward instead of inward, seeing the God-given purpose of every Christian as the foundation of your “dreams.” Scripture shapes a believer's pursuits and the gospel speaks to our passions. Instead of the one-size-fits- all formula for dream-chasing, A Holy Pursuit will help you identify whether it's time to pursue, pause, or surrender a dream you hold.

Dianne Jago is the founder and chief editor of Deeply Rooted Magazine, where she works with her team to encourage, inspire, and equip women to be deeply rooted in Christ alone. She is a military wife and homeschooling mother of three from central Pennsylvania.

IGNITE: CARRYING THE FLAME FROM THE UPPER ROOM TO THE NATIONS

CHRISTIAN LIFE

The remaining unreached people on earth will not be reached by a lukewarm church – it will take a prayer-filled and Christ-filled church.

“My partnership with Fred Hartley and the College of Prayer is currently bringing revival within the small indigenous church in Southeast Asia. The upper room prayer encounter is not a couch of comfort but a powerful launching pad, taking the power of the Gospel and the transforming power of the Holy Spirit to every nook and corner of the world. The material in this book has transformed my perspective on prayer; I’m confident that it will change yours as well.”

—Samuel Stephens, President, India Gospel League, India

We are faced today with hundreds of choices from the miniscule to the massive but perhaps none are so important as the choice to IGNITE and move from lukewarm to on-fire. Fred Hartley believes the answer lies in the Upper Room, where Jesus sent His Holy Spirit to His church as preparation to go to all the nations. Ignite is brimming with kingdom-building prayer principles that have stood the test of time. Explore the five Upper Room miracles that are the marks of every healthy church, and learn field-tested strategies to mobilize missional prayer in your church, your family, and your own life.

This is an important book for anyone who desires to revolutionize their private and corporate prayer life, as well as leaders who want to see their church on fire in prayer for world evangelism.

- ✓ Brimming with kingdom-building prayer principles that have stood the test of time
- ✓ Focuses on field-tested strategies to mobilize missional prayer in church
- ✓ Includes group guide specifically designed for group study

Fred A. Hartley, III is a Lead Pastor in Atlanta, Georgia, and President of the College of Prayer International. He has written twenty books including Prayer on Fire and God on Fire. Leading people to an encounter with the manifest presence of Christ is his life’s passion. He also enjoys running, golf, and playing with his grandchildren.

LIFE IN THE SPIRIT: PRINCIPLES OF SPIRITUAL WARFARE FROM THE BOOK OF EPHESIANS

CHRISTIAN LIFE

To quote the author, Mrs. Penn-Lewis, “Christians do not understand ‘spiritual conflict’ in the Lord’s service, because they do not know how to live in the Spirit.”

In this book, author Jessie Penn-Lewis seeks to give readers a better understanding of how to live in the Spirit, and what that means, to obtain victory in life, as well as exposing some of the methods of the enemy.

In this classic re-release, author Jessie Penn-Lewis seeks to give readers a better understanding of how to live in the Spirit, and what that means, to obtain victory in life, as well as exposing some of the methods of the enemy.

Chapters include: "Overcoming the Accuser" and "Believe Not Every Spirit."

Mrs. Jesse Penn-Lewis was a Welsh evangelical speaker and author whose ministry took her to Russia, Scandinavia, Canada, the U.S. and India. Physically frail but spiritually robust, she had a dynamic message which stressed the centrality of the cross of Christ in the life and experience of the Christian. Her own spiritual journey was influenced by the works of Andrew Murray, and she frequently quoted him in her own writings. Penn-Lewis was present during the Welsh Revival of 1904–1905, and later in her ministry she spoke on the platform of the Keswick Convention. Her writings include more than twenty books which have blessed readers for decades.

JOYOUS FAITH: THE KEY TO AGING WITH RESILIENCE

CHRISTIAN LIFE

Beloved author Michele Howe's newest resource for Christian women offers practical advice and spiritual encouragement to Christian women who are passing through the middle of life.

During the midlife season, women may find themselves feeling unmoored or untethered; and often unsure of what this season of life (and the next) will be like for them. How does one maintain a passion for life? How can you adventurously navigate the unique challenges that only middle-aged women face?

Joyous Faith is all about learning to navigate this uncertain season between midlife and old age with a robust faith, a sure hope, and a passion for life (even as bodies weaken and emotional, mental, and spiritual challenges continue to arise).

Thirty chapters written in true "Michele" style contain encouraging Bible passages and relatable real-life accounts, as well as practical guidance, sample prayers, a "take-away action thought," and suggestions for stepping out in faith.

Michele Howe is the author of over twenty books and has published over three thousand articles and reviews on parenting, women's issues, and the empty nest. She has been on Focus on the Family and is featured on CareLeader.org regularly (DivorceCare/GriefShare/Single Parenting resource group). Michele Howe is a reviewer for Publishers Weekly, FaithfulReader.com, Christian Market, TeenReads.com, KidReads.com, among many others national and international publications. She has published over 3000 reviews/articles and has been featured on numerous radio shows across the country speaking on topics such as parenting and a diverse range of women's health issues. She has published 23 books, including Strength for All Seasons, Empty Nest, What's Next?, Navigating the Friendship Maze, and Living Bravely: Super Incredible Faith Devotional for Kids 6-9. PURSUING PRAYER: BEING EFFECTIVE IN A BUSY WORLD

CHRISTIAN LIFE

"I know prayer is important, but I just don't have time!" Have you ever uttered those words? Or maybe you have felt guilty because you started praying but fell asleep or rushed through your prayer time?

This is not a how-to book or a collection of prayers to recite. PURSUING PRAYER is your invitation to chase the kingdom of God here on earth as you understand more deeply the need for daily prayer in your life and what happens when you don't pray.

Pursuing Prayer offers practical tips, but more importantly it offers the motivation and direction you need to incorporate prayer in your busy life. Written by a certified biblical life coach, author Penny Cooke uses the familiar Lord's Prayer passage to coach you in six key areas as you follow the simple acrostic:

- Proactively Pursue Prayer
- Remember His Righteous Deeds
- Acknowledge Sin and Forgive Others
- Yield to His Will
- Enjoy His Daily Bread
- Rest in Him

Keeping your busy schedule in mind, each week has four concise lessons with practical tips on how to incorporate that aspect of prayer into your prayer time. Each day's lesson is intended to spark self-discovery, motivate you to prayer, and open the door for a closeness with God so that you are drawn back to Him more and more.

Penny Cooke is a Certified Biblical Life Coach, writer, and avid pray-er. She has been a leader in women's ministry for more than thirty years and has taught numerous Bible studies. Whether coaching, teaching, or writing, Penny seeks to encourage and equip believers with the Word of God and see them empowered by His Spirit for this battle we call life.

I AM A FIELD: BECOMING A PLACE WHERE GOD GROWS GREAT THINGS

CHRISTIAN LIFE

God wants to grow great things in the lives of His people. Because we don't always understand who we are and who He is, I Am a Field shows us not only who we are but also who God is and how to recognize His work in our lives.

I Am a Field uses the powerful metaphor of God as the farmer and our lives as the field to illustrate the way God is shaping us for His purposes.

Interweaving Scripture with engaging stories, as well as some humor, catch a fresh glimpse of God in your life. Move from religious activity to a renewed desire to live the best life you were created to live.

Just like a field, though, the harvest may include more than your life as your excitement for more of God impacts the world around you.

Editor's comment: "He writes in order to make you think, but not in an intimidating way. His writing style is similar to John Eldredge."

Jeff Davenport has spent his life helping others understand who they are, who God is, and what God is doing inside them. As a mentor, college pastor, preacher, screenwriter, speaker coach, husband, and father, he wants people to know what Jesus' love is like and how they can live better lives. He lives in Colorado with his wife and young daughters.

FREEFALL: HOLDING ONTO FAITH WHEN THE UNTHINKABLE STRIKES

CHRISTIAN LIFE

"He died at the scene."
"It's malignant."
"I want a divorce."

We all know life can change in an instant. But what happens when that life is ours?

Certain words, whether whispered or shouted, once uttered, transform into a knife that severs us from the life we once knew. Such words can send us into a spiritual free fall. We find ourselves descending into a world we never wanted to enter.

Words meant to comfort, on the other hand, may feel empty, while hope seems out of our reach. FreeFall reminds us the God we serve gave us the tools for our survival, even in our darkest hour. It equips us to hold onto our faith by laying out a clear course of action to regain purpose and meaning within a life we can't imagine living.

The author writes with authenticity from her own tragic experiences of losing her 13-year-old son in a car accident and her husband's debilitating illness.

Rhonda Robinson is a mother of nine who carefully built her life nurturing her family, gardens, and writing parenting columns. Rhonda saw her world shatter with the words, "Dan died at the scene." Through life-altering events, disabling illnesses, and devastating loss, Rhonda learned to break down and rebuild her life. She became a witness to the undeniable, unseen hand of God.

LAST WORDS: SEVEN SAYINGS FROM THE HEART OF CHRIST ON THE CROSS

CHRISTIAN LIFE

Jesus's words in Scripture capture who he was and what he was about. His last words on the cross, over two thousand years ago, offer gospel hope for our spiritual journeys today.

In this powerful, moving book, author Rob Nash explores a fresh perspective on a familiar event, guiding readers into the forgiveness, hope, comfort, and compassion of Christ's words in his final moments on earth.

While pivoting history, Jesus graciously offers encouragement for Christians today and hope for seekers looking for significance in his death. In this glimpse into the heart of Jesus, Nash helps men and women find historical truths about Jesus's love for the church in his death and resurrection.

Last Words includes a discussion guide for small groups and a devotional prayer at the end of each chapter to help readers relate to God. For easy reference, there is a Scripture index in the back of the book.

Come and ponder the wisdom of Christ and see for yourself a new view of the cross.

Rob Nash graduated from Wheaton College in 2000, Rob Nash went on to receive a master of divinity from Bethel Seminary. He currently serves as a pastor at Sawyer Highlands Church in Southwest Michigan. He is married with six kids and enjoys teaching, reading, running, and travel with his family.

SAFE AND SOUND: STANDING FIRM IN SPIRITUAL BATTLES

CHRISTIAN LIFE

Best-selling author David Powlison, guides readers to see the normality of their struggles with themselves, the world around them, and the powers of darkness.

By carefully unpacking Ephesians 6 with vivid case studies and biblical wisdom, Powlison helps readers humanize those struggles and bear the relevance of the love of God in Christ for those struggles.

In this helpful guide, Powlison addresses many questions with gospel answers regarding the reality of spiritual warfare, including "What is spiritual warfare?" and "How does Ephesians disciple us in spiritual warfare?"

Safe and Sound presents Ephesians as a book about our conflict with darkness—within ourselves, with other people, and with the spiritual forces of evil. By carefully unpacking Ephesians 6 with vivid case studies and biblical wisdom, Powlison helps readers humanize those struggles and bear the relevance of the love of God in Christ for those struggles. He demonstrates how the message of Christ's triumph over all that is evil, dark, and deadly rings true, and how spiritual warfare is our participation in the Lord's cosmic war with darkness.

To stand up against evil, Powlison encourages readers to pray pointedly and listen to Scripture intently, standing with other brothers and sisters in Christ and relying on the strength God himself gives.

Part 1: What Is Spiritual Warfare?

- Chapter 1 – The Reality of Spiritual Warfare
- Chapter 2 – How Paul Envisions Spiritual Warfare
- Chapter 3 – God's Weapons and God's Call

Part 2: Counseling in the Reality of Spiritual Warfare

FOR THE JOY, 21 MISSIONARY MOTHER STORIES OF REAL LIFE AND FAITH

CHRISTIAN LIFE

Every child is different, but mothers are very much the same around the world—the same worries and fears, guilt and joys.

Dive in to For the Joy and laugh and cry with 21 Australian missionary mothers as they share stories of raising kids in both remote far-flung places and some of the most populated cities in the world.

These inspiring stories will resonate in the heart of the reader as fear, faith, and figuring it out come together in page-turning reality.

Stories include:

- Includes the story of Graham Staines, which inspired the film THE LEAST OF THESE
- home-schooling while living in a bus
- navigating the toddler years as a “third culture mum”
- raising a child with special needs
- recovering from anxiety on the field
- giving birth in a foreign hospital
- the grief of losing your family to persecution ... and more!

Honestly written, raw in emotion, sad and joyful in equal measure, this collection of stories offers insight into the complexities of parenting children while serving God no matter where you call home.

Miriam Chan is a returned missionary mother and remains passionate about missions and being a mother to her two elementary-aged children. Since returning to Sydney, Australia, she has worked with a mission agency in preparing others to serve cross-culturally. She enjoys wearing multiple hats during the week as a university counsellor, ministry wife, cavoodle-lover, and Sunday School teacher.

Sophia Russell has been helping other people tell their stories, both personally and professionally, for most of her adult life. Living in Sydney with her husband and two children, she works as a freelance content writer and journalist. She loves books, good coffee, great conversations, and serving with her local church.

THE ONLY ONE: LIVING FULLY IN, BY, AND FOR GOD

CHRISTIAN LIFE

THE MOVEMENT STARTS WITH YOU...

Do you doubt you can actually make a difference in the world? Do you struggle with knowing how to express your faith in the daily routines of life?

The Only One: Living Fully In, By, and For God shares simple approaches to grow as a follower of Jesus. Dive into the concepts and tools to find the connection between “being” and “doing” with God.

"In today's me-centered and ego-driven culture, we desperately need this message. Written by my close friend Curtis Sargeant, The Only One brilliantly explains the purpose and power of God-centered thinking and the path to living a God-centered life. Read this book slowly and prayerfully...This book is transformational."

—Rick Warren, Author of The Purpose-Driven Life and Founding Pastor of Saddleback Church

Designed to be read, processed, shared, and used to equip others, The Only One is a tool to not only grow as a disciple, but also to make and multiply disciples. This is about living into a greater impact on the world and the purpose for which God designed you. It's time to experience life with Him, and others, as a joyful and exciting adventure—read this book and get started!

Dr. Curtis Sargeant served with the International Mission Board (IMB) as a pioneer church-planting missionary among an unreached people group in China. Later Curtis transitioned to a ministry of training others to do the same sort of ministry. In that role, he intensively trained hundreds of people from a wide range of nations, denominations, and agencies, who have collectively catalyzed movements that have planted millions of house churches. A few years later, Curtis began to interface with the major house-church networks of China as a trainer and consultant. Later, he served as the IMB's vice president for global strategy, where he oversaw the research department while continuing to fulfill a training role as well. From there, Curtis went to Saddleback Church as the director of church planting. While at Saddleback, he helped to develop an online training system for missions and led some extremely large-scale church-planting projects, especially in India. During that period, he was also instrumental in initiating church-planting ministry among nearly a hundred previously unengaged people groups. Curtis then served as international vice president of e3 Partners for three years. Curtis currently operates MetaCamp, a disciple-making and missions training center located in Dadeville, Alabama. He also works in leadership with Zúme and 24:14.

CARING: SIX STEPS FOR EFFECTIVE PASTORAL CONVERSATIONS

CHRISTIAN MINISTRY

This book is designed to help ministers and pastoral care givers solve one of their most significant problems. They are called upon to “fix” all manner of human problems, and this expectation often leaves them feeling overwhelmed, highly stressed, or woefully unprepared.

Help is available! Author Denise Massey will teach readers how to coach people to access their own spiritual and personal resources, invoking both God’s help and the person’s own deep inner wisdom.

The six steps of the CARING process can transform ministry conversations from floundering and uncertain to powerful and effective. These steps of facilitating powerful problem-solving conversation are ones that the minister and the person receiving care take together. The acronym CARING will help the minister remember both the steps and the ultimate purpose of the conversation.

- C: Connect to God, self, and others.
- A: Attend to the person’s journey and assess the type of help that is needed.
- R: Reach agreement about the focus and goal for this conversation.
- I: Invite help from God, the person’s higher self, and other people.
- N: Notice, release, and navigate around resistance or obstacles.
- G: Generate a loving, specific action plan to reach the goal.

Denise Massey is the Associate Professor of Pastoral Care and Counseling at McAfee School of Theology of Mercer University. She received an MDiv in Pastoral Care, a ThM in Pastoral Care and a PhD in Psychology of Religion and Pastoral Care from The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville Kentucky. Prior to coming to McAfee, Dr. Massey was the Director of Pastoral Care and Clinical Pastoral Education at Kindred Hospital in Louisville where she led the hospital to be accredited as a teaching site with the Association of Clinical Pastoral Education. At McAfee, Dr. Massey advises students who are interested in chaplaincy and pastoral counseling, in addition to teaching courses in Spiritual Care, Emotional Intelligence for Ministry & Leadership, Dreams as a Resource for Spiritual Care, Spiritual Care with Addicted Persons, Spiritual Care through Coaching, and Spiritual Formation. Massey is a Certified Supervisor with the Association of Clinical Pastoral Education. She is also a Life Coach, a member of the International Coaching Federation, and a member of the Society for Pastoral Theology and Spiritual Directors International.

BEYOND THE TYRANNY OF THE TEXT: PREACHING IN FRONT OF THE BIBLE TO CREATE A NEW WORLD

CHRISTIAN MINISTRY

A new, transformative approach to corrective, creative, and prophetic preaching.

Beyond the Tyranny of the Text develops a five-part method for preaching that stretches from preparation to proclamation, and demonstrates how this method for interpretational creativity emerges from fidelity to the text. Harris demonstrates his method with sermonic exegesis of the Book of Jonah. With this new process of reading, rereading, un-reading, writing, and un-writing the text, the author offers wisdom and tools for reflection and illumination.

At its core, this book challenges the field of homiletics and all preachers to un-write like Jesus Christ: to get in front of the text, to understand preparation and preaching as a creative and transformative enterprise.

Preachers and students of preaching need help communicating hope! They want their sermons to communicate the promises of scripture, so that people can envision a new world in which their lives will be transformed. Preachers want to experience a new sense of freedom in their preaching, and to extend liberation based on their reading and interpretation of the scripture.

James Henry Harris introduces interpretation theory and continental philosophy as a resource for preachers to resist and overcome interpretive oppression, and lays out a new theory of scriptural interpretation. He analyzes philosopher Paul Ricoeur’s hermeneutics as a helpful guide for modern preachers, and incorporates in his analysis of the lived experience of the Black church. Harris highlights the preaching of several 19th and 20th century Black women, including Jarena Lee, Maria Stewart, and Mary Evans.

James Henry Harris is the Distinguished Professor and Chair of Homiletics and Practical Theology and Research Scholar in Religion at the School of Theology, Virginia Union University and pastor of Second Baptist Church (West End), both in Richmond, VA. He has a passion for teaching, preaching, and helping the poor and the oppressed. He earned the Master of Arts in philosophical theology from the University of Virginia, the Master of Arts in English and African-American Literature from Virginia Commonwealth University, and the Master of Arts in philosophy from Old Dominion University where he also received the Ph.D. in Urban-Studies. He earned the Doctor of Ministry degree in Preaching and African-American Church Studies from United Theological Seminary in Dayton, OH as a Samuel DeWitt Proctor/Charles Booth Fellow. He has been a visiting professor of Homiletics at Princeton Theological Seminary, Princeton, NJ, Luther Seminary in St. Paul, MN, and currently teaches in the ACTS Doctor of Ministry in Preaching Program at McCormick Theological Seminary in Chicago, IL.

FLOW: THE ANCIENT WAY TO DO CONTEMPORARY WORSHIP

CHRISTIAN MINISTRY

Many think contemporary worship is contrary to traditional/ancient methods. This is a practical, how-to book to implement passionate worship in a biblical manner and way that honors traditions.

Is there a way to do the prescribed or suggested orders of worship from denominational worship resources—such as the United Methodist Book of Worship, Evangelical Lutheran Book of Worship, the Book of Common Worship of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), or the Book of Common Prayer—in a way that feels legitimately and authentically contemporary?

This practical, how-to book will help churches plan and implement passionate and invigorating worship. Step by step, Flow will break down the process of re-thinking what the official or recommended order of worship is truly suggesting, so pastors and worship leaders can plan and lead a service of Word and Table that feels genuinely relevant and attuned to the congregation’s culture.

With this goal, Flow casts a new, but classic, understanding of traditional worship as well as spurs a reconsideration of how contemporary worship can be done by honoring the traditions of denominational congregations.

Lester Ruth is the Research Professor of Christian Worship at Duke Divinity School. Ruth holds degrees from Notre Dame, Candler School of Theology of Emory University, and Asbury Theological Seminary. He was a student of James F. FROM & BEFORE GOD: A PRACTICAL INTRODUCTION TO EXPOSITORY PREACHING

CHRISTIAN MINISTRY

Imagine this scene. You are standing in the pulpit of your church preaching on a Sunday morning. Without your knowledge, the Lord Jesus himself is sitting in the last row, listening attentively to what you’re saying. How would this reality impact your preaching?

Foreword by Mark Dever

The truth is that this is no mere illustration: the Lord is present in His churches every Sunday, listening to the preaching of His Word.

The apostle Paul wrote in 2 Corinthians 2:17 that ministers are to preach “as from God and before God.” Those who preach God’s Word are commissioned by God to preach, and they do their preaching before God, for an audience of one.

This, according to Sugel Michelén, is the biblical foundation for expository preaching—preaching that draws out what is in the Word of God. In this work, Michelén, regarded as one of the best preachers in the Spanish-speaking church, makes a biblical case for expository preaching and models for readers how to prepare and preach as from and before God.

This title was originally published in Spanish by B&H Espanol. It is the recipient of two SEPA awards and now available in English. Translation rights for other languages are available.

Sugel Michelén (MTS) is senior pastor of Iglesia Biblica del Señor Jesucristo in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, and a council member of The Gospel Coalition. He is regarded as one of the best preachers in Latin America, and has authored several books. Sugel and his wife, Gloria, have three children.

INTENTIONAL PREACHING, A FEW FROM THE PEW

CHRISTIAN MINISTRY

Intentional Preaching is the handy guide that every preacher needs!

In preparing and delivering their sermons, preachers make dozens of decisions, some intentionally, many perhaps less so. Why not make thoughtful decisions for everything that goes into preaching a good sermon?

From first words to hand gestures, choosing a text, masterful use of exegesis, captivating illustrations, titles, approaches to reading Scripture, use of voice, PowerPoint, applications that stick, and scores of other aspects of sermon preparation and delivery, this book explores the panoply of elements in good preaching.

Targeted at preachers, the book consists of 117 squiblets ranging from a sentence to three or four pages, each on a particular aspect of preaching. Some are quite short, offering practical wisdom, some provide specific advice and tools, and some contain vignettes from the field. In this delightful and sage book, there is something for every preacher to improve his or her preaching.

Key points and features:

- ✓ Explores the panoply of elements in good preaching, from hand gestures, to use of voice, to captivating illustrations
- ✓ Easily readable (and incredibly humorous) short chapters for busy pastors
- ✓ A handy guidebook in a small trim size, packed with snippets of sage advice

THE GREATEST MISSIONARY GENERATION: INSPIRING STORIES FROM AROUND THE WORLD

CHRISTIAN MINISTRY

Larry Sharp establishes the characteristics, challenges, successes, and uniqueness of an incredible generation of missionaries. It is of no small significance that the missionaries of the second half of the twentieth century prepared the way for God's people of the twenty-first century.

We need to inspire a new generation of missionaries through these stories.

Post-World War II purveyors of the gospel had incredible opportunities and open doors, and they used them for the glory of God.

Through the retelling of personal stories of the missionaries in New Guinea, Brazil, Mexico, and more, lesser known details of missionary activity in the 1950s and 1960s are revealed, including the courage, personal calling, sacrifice, and excellence of these brave Christians.

Their incredible journeys prove that their legacy is worth celebrating and remembering. It is of utmost importance for future generations to understand and appreciate the previous generation's struggles and triumphs. The Greatest Missionary Generation will mobilize hearts to love and serve the Lord.

Includes photos.

Larry W. Sharp is a missionary executive, educator, and business as mission consultant. He has lived cross-culturally for twenty-one years and traveled extensively in his role as a consultant. He has served as a VP at Crossworld and as president of a Brazilian mission. He is founder of the consulting group, IBEC Ventures. He has degrees in Bible, education and business, with a PhD in Educational Administration from the University of Calgary. He teaches as an adjunct professor at Multnomah University in Portland and speaks in churches and college conferences.

ENGAGE: TOOLS FOR CONTEMPORARY EVANGELISM

CHRISTIAN MINISTRY

It's time to engage in evangelism.

The emerging generation in today's culture believes evangelism is wrong according to recent studies. Yet Scripture is clear: "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations" (Matthew 28:19 ESV). So how do we lead people to Jesus in a church with members who think evangelism is wrong? And how do we connect people with Jesus in an ever- changing culture? How do we share Jesus in a multicultural world?

Engage is a thorough guide to the daily ministry of sharing Christ with those in the world around you.

This compilation handbook contains more than 30 chapters and covers effective evangelism to the elderly, children, and families while encouraging the church to become multicultural. Research and recommendations cover evangelism in various settings such as Sunday School, missions, and social justice situations to name a few.

Become equipped to remind fellow believers of the New Testament context of evangelism, how morality can be engaged in evangelistic efforts, and lead others to understand the importance of prayer. This handbook covers these topics and so much more. Specifically, Engage offers you access to the research and tools you need to be equipped as you understand the:

- Theology behind evangelism
- Context of evangelism
- Role of the pastor and individual as evangelist
- Effective ways to reach children, the elderly, families and those marginalized by the church
- Elements of effective public invitations

If leading people to Jesus is your heart's desire, Engage is the resource you need. Be the leader and instrument God uses to change the world.

New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary Staff | Wm. Craig Price, General Editor—The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries. Since 1917, New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary (NOBTS) has equipped leaders to answer God's call. NOBTS offers an academic environment that utilizes innovative delivery systems, preparing students for ministry. Whether God is calling someone as a pastor, missionary, counselor, youth minister, educator, worship leader, apologist, or something else entirely, NOBTS has a ministry training option available. Most of all, this community will equip believers to follow God wherever He leads.

PROMISES IN THE DARK: WALKING WITH THOSE IN NEED WITHOUT LOSING HEART

CHRISTIAN MINISTRY

Promises in the Dark by Dr. Eric McLaughlin strengthens the hearts of readers to persevere in God's calling to walk with those in need.

As a missionary doctor in Africa, McLaughlin knows how walking closely with those who suffer and bearing others' burdens can easily lead to burnout or cynicism—unless we find the path to perseverance that the Lord provides.

This resource explores how to find both calling and hope, living in the tension between a difficult present and God's promises of renewal, how to cope with despair and futility, the importance of the suffering God for those who suffer, and how the manifestations of God bring life into a dying world.

McLaughlin explores how to endure in such a yet-to-be-redeemed world as ours, which is full of tragedy and heartache, pointing to God's promises.

Eric McLaughlin, MD, is a medical missionary with Serge in Burundi. He and his wife, Rachel, live at Kibuye Hope Hospital, where they care for patients while training national doctors as professors for Hope Africa University, a Christian Burundian University. They have the distinction of having three children born on three continents.

EXTRAORDINARY MINISTRY IN ORDINARY TIME: AN INVITATION TO RENEWAL FOR PASTORS

CHRISTIAN MINISTRY

Spiritual practices for sustaining a thriving pastoral ministry.

What energizes someone for the long haul of pastoral ministry? Holy days like Christmas, Easter, and Pentecost are the exception. Ordinary Time, the longest season of the Christian year, is where pastors spend most of their ministry.

James Harnish invites pastors and other ministers to see Ordinary Time as a metaphor for the ordinary days of ministry. “Whether we thrive or merely survive depends on what we do with the ordinary days,” he writes.

Harnish encourages ministers to develop spiritual disciplines and personal relationships to nourish their souls for long-term ministry. He highlights the importance of reflection on scripture, spiritual reading, journaling, prayer, and spiritual conversation with trusted friends.

This 6-week study focuses on themes Harnish found crucial in over four decades of ministry: power, people, places, proclamation, perseverance, and promise. Daily readings help readers develop their own customized practices of spiritual formation to sustain and strengthen their life and ministry.

James A. Harnish is a retired United Methodist pastor, writer, and teacher. He served in pastoral ministry for 43 years in Florida, including 22 years as senior pastor of Hyde Park United Methodist Church in Tampa. Harnish was founding pastor of St. Luke’s UMC in Orlando. He and his wife, Martha, live in Longwood, Florida.

MERCY FOR TODAY: A DAILY PRAYER FROM PSALM 51

DEVOTIONAL

You cannot make it without God’s mercy.

Do we just need God’s grace in dark and shameful moments? Are prayers for mercy only for those times when we really mess up?

Jonathan Parnell says we need God’s mercy all the time. In fact, contrary to many church cultures, Parnell shows that asking God for mercy should be as regular as asking God for our daily bread.

There’s no doubt that David was in a terrible predicament when he first prayed the words of Psalm 51. It was a dark and shameful moment in the Bible, one so dark and shameful it seldom feels relevant to us today.

But David’s most desperate prayer is really a prayer for all of us—and not just for our worst moments, but for our every moment. In these pages, you’ll discover:

- ✓ How to pray a daily, memorable prayer derived from Psalm 51
- ✓ How to practice daily repentance and soul care
- ✓ How to pursue God and experience his joy in the Christian life

This is God’s mercy, and it’s Mercy for Today.

Jonathan Parnell is the lead pastor of Cities Church in Minneapolis-St.Paul, a church he and his team planted in 2015. He is a church-planting trainer with the Send Network and the author of Never Settle for Normal: The Proven Path to Significance and Happiness (2017). LIFE-GIVING CHOICES: 60 DAYS TO WHAT MATTERS MOST

There are myriad ways we can choose to spend our lives, the reality is only a few essentials truly matter. Life-Giving Choices helps us in our quest to find that which brings life, joy, and meaning in a world of endless opportunities.

This sixty-day devotional helps women identify their personal challenges, find freedom, learn truths, and choose their daily steps. Steps that empower us to make a choice for love, authenticity, self-care, celebration, and more.

From the author..."Someone once told me, 'Don't settle for the good when you can choose the best'. And so began my lifelong quest for that which brings life, joy, and meaning. And the courage to choose it. Of course, I have both stumbled and soared in the process. Discovering that while there are myriad ways we can choose to spend our lives, only a few essentials truly matter."

Life-Giving Choices will help you:

- ✓ Be empowered to simplify and focus on the essentials.
- ✓ Identify challenges you face in juggling responsibilities.
- ✓ Find freedom to release the pressure of striving to do it all.
- ✓ Learn scriptural truths reinforcing your identity as God’s beloved.
- ✓ Begin daily steps to pursue specific action.
- ✓ And more!

Will you invest the next sixty days in pursuing changes that will last? Join me in becoming that wise woman who embraces a full life with both serenity and strength.

A 90-DAY DEVOTIONAL
to help you align your heart with God's,
seeing the role sacrifice plays in the life of every follower of Jesus Christ.

INSANITY OF SACRIFICE: A 90-DAY DEVOTIONAL

God's ways are unusual. They are unexpected. Many of us know that and have experienced it. We certainly have read about it in the Bible. Still, we are often startled when we experience God's unusual ways firsthand. The methods God uses to accomplish His purposes are often difficult for us to understand.

Nowhere do we see that more clearly than in the role sacrifice plays in the activity of God.

In this ninety-day devotional, Nik Ripken leads readers to consider the centrality of sacrifice in God's plan. We see this supremely in the sacrifice of Jesus on the cross for the sins of the world. But readers will also come to see the centrality of sacrifice in their response to the Gospel.

Nik Ripken is the world's leading expert on the persecuted church in Muslim contexts. He is a missions veteran of thirty years, having served primarily in North Africa and the Middle East. He is the bestselling author of The Insanity of God and The Insanity of Obedience. He and his wife have conducted extensive research on the persecuted church, and on Muslim background believers in approximately seventy-two countries. Learn more at <https://www.nikripken.com/>

A BEGINNER'S GUIDE TO PRACTICING SCRIPTURAL IMAGINATION

Enter the divine story and see the world through scripture.

What is scriptural imagination? The word imagination does not mean the Bible is fantasy or untrue. A scriptural imagination allows us to look at the world through the stories and images of the Bible. As we view our world with scriptural imagination, we enter a continuous process of becoming more Christlike.

Kenneth Carter focuses on four scripture passages to give readers an easy entry into the practice of scriptural imagination. It allows us to look at the world through the stories and images of the Bible and enter the story for a different perspective.

Carter says that almost every situation and problem we face can be addressed by men and women sitting with biblical texts, listening for what God might be saying through those passages. Equally important is taking time to listen attentively to people who are marginalized. As readers practice the spiritual exercises in this book, they will grow as disciples of Jesus who can then transform their world.

An in-depth reflection guide.

Kenneth H. Carter Jr. is resident bishop of the Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church. Carter came to the Florida Conference in 2012 after serving for 29 years as a local church pastor in western North Carolina. STILL PRAYING AFTER ALL THESE YEARS: MEDITATIONS FOR LATER LIFE

Reassurance of God's presence in the later years.

People in the later years of life face many changes, many that are not of their own choosing. Still Praying After All These Years offers 52 reassuring meditations that encourage readers to realize that their lives still have meaning and that aging holds opportunities for spiritual growth.

Each meditation begins with a concern, question, or insight expressed in the author's conversations with people ages 75–100. In the "perspectives" section, the author provides psychological and theological insights, welcoming doubt, mystery, and the many emotions that accompany aging. Next, she invites readers to practice their faith by reflecting on some aspect of their life or undertaking an action. A brief prayer ends each meditation, opening readers to a deeper relationship with God.

This book will help older readers feel heartened and less alone as they hear about others who have walked a similar path. Readers who are caregivers will be moved to empathize with the spiritual, emotional, and other challenges their loved one faces. For readers who minister with the elderly, this resource will increase their capacity to extend empathy and compassion to individuals and groups of frail elderly people.

As they ponder these meditations, readers of any age will be encouraged to savor the life God has given them in a fresh, new way.

Susan Carol Scott is self-employed in private practice as a spiritual director, retreat leader, and supply preacher. She holds a Master of Divinity from Princeton Theological Seminary. HEART OF THE CAREGIVER STUDY SERIES: PEACEFUL CAREGIVER (BOOK #2)

FAMILY & RELATIONSHIPS

As a primary caregiver, you face incredible stress: financial, emotional, and physical.

Yet in the midst of all that, God gently calls you to come to Him for rest and refreshment. Come, so you can feel the power of His peace sweep over you. Come, breathe in a peace that will carry you through difficult moments. Come, so you can discover the deep soul-satisfying purpose in your loving work.

In The Peaceful Caregiver you'll discover peace is possible, regardless of your circumstance. You can get from stressed to blessed. Diving into Scripture that is relevant to all caregiving situations, fellow caregiver Mary Tutterow shares personal insights and Scripture passages that will help transform your perspective about your purpose. As you move through the emotions associated with caring for loved ones, discover how God wants to care for you. His peace is waiting for you.

The Peaceful Caregiver is the second study in a ministry resource series dedicated to supporting caregivers by addressing issues specific to their spiritual needs. In addition to meeting the spiritual needs of caregivers, The Heart of the Caregiver study series aims to equip local churches with quality resources as they minister to families caring for those with chronic illness, disability, mental illness, or age-related issues.

Mary Tutterow is a former anchorwoman and marketing executive. Mary now writes, speaks and leads online and in-person small groups for caregivers. Mary and her husband Winn have two adult children and live in Charleston, South Carolina. Their daughter, Mary Addison, has cognitive and physical challenges and an active seizure disorder. They also cared for Winn's mother through cancer and dementia.

WITH THESE WORDS: FIVE COMMUNICATION TOOLS FOR MARRIAGE AND LIFE

FAMILY & RELATIONSHIPS

Every couple knows they need to talk with each other. Every couple knows they need to pay attention to how they can communicate better.

This practical marriage resource by pastor and author Rob Flood not only explores why couples should grow in communication, but it addresses the “how” of communication.

With These Words offers in-depth, theologically rich tools that will also help flourish relationships outside of your marriage—your relationship with your kids, your friendships, and your coworkers.

In this Scripture-based marriage book, you will learn that God is for you and on your side as you press toward helpful, biblical communication. In the face of many emotions and obstacles, there is a clear purpose and a clear method for words.

But in the midst of this shift toward communication and biblical change, Flood shares how you can retain your unique personality, remaining as God made you while honoring him with your words.

Rob Flood serves as the pastor responsible for small groups and the marriage ministry of the church. Additionally, Rob carries responsibility for leadership training, women’s ministry, and shares in the counseling of the church. He has a bachelor’s of music in vocal performance and music education with a minor in choral conducting from Rowan University. He also has masters of art in religion from Cairn University and is a graduate of the Sovereign Grace Pastors College. Rob has an interest in a wide array of music and film. DEADLY SECRETS: DEADLY COMMITMENT

FICTION

The Deadly Secrets is a new fiction series with southern charm and big-city twists. Set in the author’s hometown of Nashville, Tennessee, it is filled not only with intrigue and suspense but subtle glimpses into how God is at work in the lives of ordinary people doing ordinary jobs . . . or maybe they aren’t so ordinary after all.

The truth is . . . she doesn’t know the truth.

As Danielle Kemp walks out of her downtown Nashville condominium, she gets the eerie feeling someone is watching her. As days go by, she becomes convinced the homeless man outside her building is stalking her. But after learning the real identity of the intimidating stranger, she faces something even more threatening—the truth about her fiancé.

Beside a great romantic suspense read, this book will help you look at people differently. Things are not always as they seem.

7 DAYS OF CHRISTMAS: THE SEASON OF GENEROSITY

GIFT

Inspired by and adapted from her breakout book 7: An Experimental Mutiny Against Excess, this gift book takes Hatmaker's social experiments in seven key areas—food, clothes, spending, media, possessions, waste, stress—and turns them into thoughtful and practical generosity that captures the true spirit of Christmas.

This beautiful book covers 7 days during the Christmas season to practice both generosity and restraint in the areas related to the book. It will contain snippets of Jen's journey throughout to offer insight, humor, ideas, facts, and encouragement for the reader to consider while embracing this change, if only for 24 hours.

We'll see the reasons why each area is important to Jen and also applicable to most families. We'll also see how that particular area of excess impacts the family unit, the community, and the world at large—complete with ideas on how to reduce thoughtless consumption and consider other practices that lead to less stuff but more joy.

Jen Hatmaker, sought-after speaker, Big Sister Emeritus, and Chief BFF, is the beloved author of eleven Bible studies and books, including New York Times Bestsellers For the Love and Of Mess and Moxie. Jen hosts the award-winning For The Love Podcast and leads a tightly knit online community where she reaches millions of people each week in addition to speaking at events all around the country. Jen and her hubby, Brandon, are founders of Legacy Collective, a giving community that grants millions of dollars around the world. The couple lives on the outskirts of Austin with their 5 kids: Gavin, Sydney, Caleb, Ben, and Remy, in a 1910-era farmhouse that they overhauled as stars of the HGTV series My Big Family Renovation. A PLACE AT THE TABLE: FRESH RECIPES FOR MEANINGFUL GATHERINGS

GIFT

Bestselling LifeWay Bible study author Kelly Minter is known not only for her passion for God's Word, but for her ability to foster community over an inviting, delicious, and nourishing meal. Her own lifelong love for cooking and gardening paired with her many travels to the Amazon with chef Regina Pinto has resulted in rich spiritual and culinary experiences that will inspire your cooking and gatherings.

More than an ordinary cookbook, A Place at the Table offers readers a chance to not only approach mealtimes with accessible recipes from a renowned chef, but also hear heartwarming, personal stories from Kelly herself and enjoy some spiritual encouragement too.

For Kelly, meals should be more than just ingredients and décor, though these enhance the experience. Food has historically gathered people together, and in this cookbook, Kelly points readers to just that—opening their tables so others can have a place to experience the love of God and fellowship of his people.

This cookbook offers a delicious, unfussy selection of both well-known and novel dishes, and it also includes personal favorites from Kelly and Regina. Featuring fresh, whole, or homegrown components, Kelly prioritizes the value of flavors that can only come with seasonal ingredients. As a bonus, there is supplemental material throughout, where the reader can hear more from Kelly and Regina about broths, seasonal drinks, canning, décor, growing herbs, and more.

In these pages, Kelly's humor and warmth shine through in each story, and the stunning photography inspires all readers to put their hand to the joy of cooking, offering others not just a meal, but a place to belong.

The co-author, Regina Pinto, is Portuguese and some Brazilian food is featured. Go to <https://www.bhpublishinggroup.com/products/a-place-at-the-table/> to watch cooking videos that feature recipes and wisdom from the book!

Kelly Minter is passionate about teaching the Bible. When she's not singing, writing, or speaking, you can find her picking homegrown vegetables, enjoying her six nieces and nephews, or riding a boat along the Amazon river with Justice & Mercy International. A Southern transplant, she delights in college football, long walks, and a diner mug of coffee with her closest friends.

Regina Pinto is a self-taught chef who learned the basics of cooking from her grandmother and mother in Brazil, Regina has traveled through the US and UK, merging the flavors of her childhood with each new destination. She is a chocolatier and pastry chef, and the former owner of the Blushing Berry in Tennessee, where she created truffles and desserts for some of Nashville's most famous brands, including Arrington Vineyards, Belle Meade, and the Hermitage Hotel. She thinks of cooking as a way to express her love for others and finds the greatest joy in seeing people delight in her dishes, especially her family, as she is the mother of two and grandmother of three. Regina is a member of Rolling Hills Community Church in Franklin, Tennessee, and is active with Justice and Mercy International in the Amazon.

These short devotions draw a clear connection between the basics of interior design and scripture to encourage spiritual growth. The devotions in both books include a scripture, reflective writing, a prayer, and a design or lifestyle tip accompanied by a gorgeous photograph or a designed space.

In Heart & Home: Design Basics for Your Home and Living Space, Victoria writes 90 devotionals about topics such as unity and harmony, focal points, balance, and negative space. In Heart & Home for Christmas: Celebrating Joy in Your Living Space, she understands that all the tasks and stress of the holiday season make it easy to forget true joy.

In these 100 devotionals, she connects easy decorating tips with spiritual thoughts for reflecting the true spirit of Christmas in your home and actions.

"As I read Heart & Home, I was captivated not only by the beauty and elegance on every page and in every word, but more importantly I was inspired to see how spaces can transform lives. Creating a home is a sacred undertaking. Building a home that inspires, comforts, engages, and transforms hearts leads to healthy individuals, families, and communities. I was challenged to think about how our homes can be used to focus us on God; how every color, design, and object can strengthen our soul. I hope that Victoria's book will also inspire you and refresh your heart and home."

THE GREAT ADVENTURE KIDS BIBLE TIMELINE™ CHART and THE GREAT ADVENTURE KIDS BIBLE TIMELINE™ PUZZLE, DISCOVERING THE STORY OF SALVATION, PIECE BY PIECE

JUVENILE

Learn the Bible with this hands-on experience!

The Great Adventure Kids Bible Timeline Chart is a color-coded, accordion-style folding chart that details the 12 periods of Bible history. With its vibrant colors and kid-friendly illustrations, this unique resource shows children the chronology of the Bible in a way they're sure to remember. This double-sided resource includes important maps, prayers, an explanation of the six historical covenants between God and man, and a section called "How You Fit into the Story", a summary of the sacraments of initiation and life in Christ.

The Great Adventure Bible Timeline™ Puzzle teaches children about the Bible and the story of salvation in a fun, memorable way. With its colorful graphics and priceless information, The Great Adventure Bible Timeline™ Puzzle will add hours of fun to any group, family, or individual's day. This puzzle is part of The Great Adventure Bible Timeline™ Learning System which helps kids (and adults!) to read and understand the Catholic Bible, piece by piece. The complexity of the Bible is made simple by telling the story of salvation history in a colorful, narrative way, and revealing the loving plan God has for each of us.

THE PROMISES OF GOD STORYBOOK BIBLE: THE STORY OF GOD'S UNSTOPPABLE LOVE

JUVENILE

The Promises of God Storybook Bible lets your child hear their favorite stories with new ears, repeatedly assuring them that each word was placed there to show them God's unstoppable love and unbreakable promises.

Ask us for a PDF to see the beautiful artwork, or go to <https://www.bhpublishinggroup.com/the-promises-of-god-storybook-bible/> to view interior pages.

God's love is unstoppable. And that's a promise.

In this unique Bible storybook, young readers will not only find conversational retellings of fifty key Bible stories, but they will also uncover the thread of God's promises throughout Scripture. Starting with God's first promise in the garden and coming full circle with His promise of the new heavens and earth, each story focuses on the heart component, and then uses follow-up questions and tools to connect young readers to the message.

Noah's ark. Joseph's dreams. Jesus's miracles. The Bible is rich with stories for our children to hear and enjoy, but when those stories uncover the thread of God's promises, our children learn much more than individual Bible stories. They discover how God has demonstrated His love for us, from the first promise in the garden to the promise of the new heavens and earth.

A conversational, whimsical, biblically faithful retelling of more than fifty key Bible stories, that lets your child hear favorite stories with new ears, repeatedly assuring them that each word is proof of God's unstoppable love and unbreakable promises to His people.

Jennifer Lyell has taught hundreds of children the Bible over the course of many years and finds her joy in those end-of-the-year Sunday school classes when the children teach it back to her. Granted, teaching kiddos might be her passion, but it's not her day job. For that she serves as Director of Book Publishing and Merchandising at LifeWay Christian Resources. The hundreds of titles that the books business team has acquired, developed, or managed under Jennifer's leadership include more than a dozen New York Times bestsellers, as well as multiple Christianity Today Book of the Year winners. Jennifer is an often off-the-path hiker who is happiest when adventuring (just like a child!).

WHERE IS WISDOM?
A TREASURE HUNT THROUGH GOD’S WONDROUS WORLD,
INSPIRED BY JOB 28

JUVENILE

Where can we find wisdom? Down in the deep caverns? At the bottom of the ocean floor? This visual tour through the poetry of Job 28 parallels Scripture and leads readers on a treasure hunt through the wonders of God’s creation.

Among all the dazzling treasures this world has to offer, we learn of an even greater treasure—wisdom—and of the mighty God who alone can lead us to it.

Beautifully illustrated, Where Is Wisdom? is a unique celebration of the words and imagery of Job, one that guides young readers high and low to marvel ultimately at the true end of wisdom, Jesus Christ. It explores Job’s wisdom and positive elements instead of the depressing parts of the story.

This is a sophisticated children’s fiction book. This is a large format book with a more modern art style.

Scott James is an author of books for children and families, including The Expected One (B&H, 2014), the family worship book Mission Accomplished (2015), and illustrated children’s book The Littlest Watchman (2017). THE ULTIMATE BIBLE CHARACTER GUIDE

JUVENILE

The Bible is filled with incredible and interesting characters—from Jesus to Eglon, Gabriel to Legion. This unique encyclopedia brings 150 of them to life with comic-book style illustrations and hundreds of facts for kids to explore.

Young readers will be captivated to read about both well-known characters of the Bible and some they're yet to discover. They'll learn what characters' names meant, what strengths God gave them, who they considered enemies, and what battles they fought. Which one was possessed by demons? Who wrestled an angel? Who never died? It's all here, the good and the evil, the famous and the infamous.

In true encyclopedia form, characters will be arranged alphabetically and indexed so that favorites can be found easily. Contemporaries will be marked as such, and a timeline will help kids understand and place each story. Spreads will include full-length illustrations of each character, list of facts, descriptions, and background info.

SCARLETT'S SPECTACLES: A CHEERFUL CHOICE FOR A HAPPY HEART

JUVENILE

This colorful and spunky board book is a great resource for tackling grumbly attitudes and encouraging more grateful hearts among children. And like Scarlett, they may just chuck those grumbly glasses away for good!

A board book for children ages 4 to 8.

In a world where every person faces a daily choice between two pairs of glasses, young Scarlett grumbles through day after day, seeing only the dreary aspects of the circumstances around her through her "grumbly glasses."

Her loving mother, tired of Scarlett making a spectacle of herself with her grumbly attitude, encourages Scarlett to give her "glad glasses" a try, even though the change may be difficult at first. Scarlett soon realizes that making the choice to see with gratitude not only makes God happy, it fills her own heart with joy as well.

Which pair will you wear?

Janet Surette is mother to Taylor the Strong, Avery the Good, and Scarlett the Loud. Janet combines the skills of being a Christian speaker, author, and blogger with the wisdom of motherhood to produce winsome messages that engage parents and children alike through rhyme, compelling imagery, and a bit of spunk that crafts timeless messages into memorable resources that instruct and delight. Janet divided her formative years between the United States and Canada, and though she loves living in Barrie, Ontario, she is comfortable on both sides of the border. ONE BIG STORY: SEEK-AND-CIRCLE BIBLE JOURNEYS: SEEK, CIRCLE, AND LEARN!

JUVENILE

Seek, circle and learn about Paul's missionary journeys!

Maybe you've heard about the Israelites' exodus from Egypt and of Jonah's trip to Nineveh, but what about Paul's missionary journeys? Inside this book you'll see six of the major journeys from the Bible filled with fun items to find.

Each journey has something to tell us about God's plan for His people through His Son, Jesus Christ, who is our only way to eternal life with God.

Journeys include:

- Jacob's Journey to Bethel (Genesis 28:10–22)
- The Exodus (Exodus 13:17–14:31)
- Jonah's Journey to Nineveh (Jonah)
- Jesus' Journey Through Samaria (John 4:1–42)
- The Triumphant Entry (Matthew 21:1–11; Mark 11:1–11; Luke 19:28–44; John 12:12–19)
- Paul's Second Journey to the Nations (Acts 16:11–40)

For an added challenge, look for the source of light as you explore each journey.

Use a wipe-on, wipe-off marker to seek and circle over and over again!

This B&H Kids book includes a Parent Connection, an easy tool to help moms and dads (or anyone else who loves kids) discuss the book's message with their child. We're all about connecting parents and kids to each other and to God's Word.

LITTLE WORDS MATTER™ : WHICH SHAPE SHOULD I BE?

JUVENILE

God knows the perfect shape for everything to be!

A circle, a square—each shape everywhere . . . Can you choose which shape each picture should be? In this delightful concept board book, toddlers will giggle at the silliness of a square egg or a round star, all while learning to recognize nine shapes. And they'll learn that God made each of us the perfect shape too!

In the Little Words Matter™ board books, it only takes a few words to tell a big story. Crafted especially for toddlers, these books make biblical truths easily understandable and enjoyable for little ones and their parents too.

SLUGS & BUGS: THE SOCIETY OF EXTRAORDINARY RACCOON SOCIETY ON BOASTING

JUVENILE

Slugs & Bugs wants families to sing together, laugh together, read together, and think deeply together about the meaning of life and the nature of God. We believe those shared experiences will translate into stronger relationships in the family and a deeper understanding of their relationship with Jesus.

Welcome to a tour of the Society of Extraordinary Raccoon Society’s (SOERS) secretive society, where sneaky, lock-picking raccoons have learned to change their ways. Now they happily give their things to others, singing and feasting along the way, as they follow the wisdom of 2 Corinthians 9:6–7 on how to be a cheerful giver.

Young Maggie and Morty are the newest recruits to the SOERS, and they’ve given up their previous thieving ways. But when Maggie starts boasting that her newfound generosity is better than Morty’s, the young raccoons must learn a lesson about bragging from Matthew 6:2–3 and learn to give quietly instead.

Endorsement of Slugs & Bugs music:

“Randall Goodgame, one of the best lyricists out there, has done something astonishing—he’s made a catchy, heartfelt, beautiful record that feels entirely original, and yet he’s using ancient words composed by the best writer there ever was. I can’t think of another collection of songs this joyful that has also made me cry in the car. Just like Narnia, “Sing the Bible” is at least as much for the grownups as it is for the kids.”

—Andrew Peterson

Randall Goodgame is a singer/songwriter and the creative force behind the family music brand Slugs & Bugs. He has recorded eight solo albums and contributed to numerous others. He has written songs for VeggieTales, Caedmon’s Call, Andrew Peterson, Jason Gray, Jill Phillips, and Eric Peters. Randall and his family call Nashville home, but he also began touring in 2010 to bring Slugs & Bugs to families nationwide.

RIVERS OVERSEAS

JUVENILE

Colorful illustrations make this a must-read for young children who are just forming their understanding of love in action and different cultures.

- ✓ 5 Stars on GoodReads.com!
- ✓ HGTV star and New York Times Bestselling Author Chip Gaines has this to say, “If you take one thing away from this story, it should be that big things happen when we step outside of our comfort zones. I’m pulling for Sarah and her family, and after you read this book, you will be too!”

Take an incredible journey with the loveable and adorable puppy Rivers as he travels overseas with his adoptive dad. Rivers, through his own journey, experiences the world through God's eyes and finds joy in God's faithfulness as he experiences new people, places, and things.

A delightful story of adventure and learning, based on a real-life story.

Sarah Nunnally and her husband felt led to sell everything they owned and move across the world. With luggage in hand, and a happy golden retriever trotting behind, they jumped cultures and continents to a new home in southern Asia. Despite all they sacrificed, the journey proved to be full of purpose. Sarah still resides in Asia with her husband and their dog Rivers.

GOOD NEWS FOR LITTLE HEARTS: TORI COMES OUT OF HER SHELL: WHEN YOU ARE LONELY

JUVENILE

A series of hardback, illustrated children’s books for three-to eight-year-olds—each centered on an animal family—bring gospel help and biblical counsel to families. The animal characters, colorful illustrations, and the real-life issues each animal family face will captivate children. The first three books address anxiety, anger, and failure, bringing biblical help and hope to issues every child faces.

This series is published in partnership with CCEF (Christian Counseling and Education Foundation). Learn more at <https://newgrowthpress.com/good-news-for-little-hearts/>

Tori the turtle feels all alone. She has just moved to a new pond and a new school with her family and it seems like everyone has a friend except her. Her teacher notices she feels alone and helps her remember Jesus is always her friend and then along the way she makes some new friends. The last page contains information for parents on how God, in his Word, helps us turn to Jesus when we are lonely.

Together children and parents will be guided into meaningful conversations about living by faith in the details of everyday life. Also included is a tear-out page of “Back Pocket Bible Verses” that will give children a practical way to remember God’s words when they feel all alone.

Jayne V. Clark, MAR, is the Chief of Staff at the Christian Counseling & Educational Foundation (CCEF). She is also a counselor with over eighteen years of experience, a frequent retreat and conference speaker, and the author of the minibooks Single and Lonely: Finding the Intimacy You Desire and Healing Broken Relationships: What to Do When You’ve Been Hurt and many counseling articles.

Joe Hox, the illustrator, was raised on a farm in southern Iowa where he doodled whenever he wasn’t spading thistles or feeding pigs. Everyone knew by his crooked hay rows that he would choose art over farming. Joe earned his BA in Art and Education from Dordt College, and his MA from the University of Nebraska. Today he lives with his wife and four children in Pella, Iowa, where he illustrates and teaches art. Joe has illustrated all of the Good News for Little Hearts Series.

WHY DO WE SAY GOOD NIGHT?

JUVENILE

Going to bed and turning out the light can be a hard time for many children. Award-winning author Champ Thornton wrote this beautifully designed and illustrated book to help parents comfort their children with three truths about God.

As a mother and her little daughter talk, they remember together that God made the night, he sees in the dark, and he watches over them just like a shepherd protects his sheep. Children and parents will want to start a new nighttime tradition of reading together about why we can say that the night is good.

In this important, engaging children’s book, parents can bring comfort and encouragement to their children, reminding them Jesus is near.

Delightfully illustrated by an artist from the Dominican Republic.

Champ Thornton is associate pastor at Ogletown Baptist Church in Newark, Delaware. He has pastored in South Carolina and served as director of SOMA, a ministry training school in Columbus, Ohio. He is the author of several books, including The Radical Book for Kids, and Pass It On: A Proverbs Journal for the Next Generation. Champ and his wife, Robben, have been married since 1996 and have three children. Visit www.champthornton.org for more about Champ.

Rommel Ruiz Born and raised in the Dominican Republic, Rommel moved to sunny Southern California to pursue his passion for creative expression and storytelling. An accomplished designer and illustrator, he incorporates influences from theater, film, animation, and mid-century design. His work includes animated visuals for Cartoon Network and the award-winning Luther documentary, as well as illustrations for books including Golly’s Folly, The Gospel in Color, and more. BORN TO ROAR

JUVENILE

God wants you to be like a lion—courageous, strong, and fearless! In this book, you will find 90 daily devotionals to help you learn about how God made you unique, how to be prepared—not scared, and how to follow God every day. You were created by God for a purpose!

The roar of a lion is its way to talk to other lions. Sometimes they roar to warn or alert other lions. It is their way of letting the world know they have something to say. We also have a voice to speak the things God tells us. We have a roar in what we do and say.

- ✓ Chew on This—Learn a Bible Verse
The lions' teeth are like swords they use to fight their enemies. Like their teeth shred the meat they eat, God wants us to tear into His Word daily and devour it. Ephesians 6:17 tells us that the Word of God is like a sword we can use in fighting any battles going on around us.
- ✓ Under the Tree—Read a Devotional Story
Lions live in families, and they rest and sleep under a tree. The big canopy of the tree is like a den for them. We, too, need to sit in the shade of God each day, read His Word, and learn from Him.
- ✓ Pondering Paws—Write or Draw in Journaling Time
A lion's paws are equipped with soft pads to make its movements quiet. God wants us to learn how to be still and think about Him. We need to know how to quiet our hearts to listen to His voice as we read His Word.
- ✓ My Roar—Do an Activity and Watch Your Faith Grow!

Diane Cory carries a message that imparts a lifestyle of encouragement that comes through intimacy with God. She is a prophetic voice in her city and an itinerate teacher at Kingdom College of America. Recently, she founded the "Mid-West Prophetic Network," a ministry inviting the heartland to hear and release the voice of God. She has also launched a new ministry under MPN called "Naioth House"—a place for emerging and New Covenant prophets to fellowship and receive counsel and coaching. Diane has a bachelor's degree in elementary education and a master's and endorsement in early childhood education. Previous best-selling titles include God and Me Devotional, Vol. 1 & 2 and Gotta Have God, Vol. 1 & 2.

ADORNING THE DARK: THOUGHTS ON COMMUNITY, CALLING, AND THE MYSTERY OF MAKING

PERSONAL GROWTH

Making something beautiful in a broken world can be harrowing work, and it can’t be done alone.

This book is both a memoir of Andrew’s journey and a handbook for artists, written in the hope that his story will provide encouragement to others stumbling along in pursuit of a calling to adorn the dark with the light of Christ.

Over the last twenty years, Andrew Peterson has performed thousands of concerts, published four novels, released ten albums, taught college and seminary classes on writing, founded a nonprofit ministry for Christians in the arts, and executive-produced a film—all in a belief that God calls us to proclaim the gospel and the coming kingdom using whatever gifts are at our disposal. He’s stumbled along the way, made mistake after mistake, and yet has continually encountered the grace of God through an encouraging family, a Christ-centered community of artists in the church, and the power of truth, beauty, and goodness in Scripture and the arts.

In Adorning the Dark, Andrew describes six principles for the writing life: serving the work, serving the audience, selectivity, discernment, discipline, and community. Through stories from his own journey, Andrew shows how these principles are not merely helpful for writers and artists, but for anyone interested in imitating way the Creator interacts with his creation.

Andrew Peterson is an award-winning singer- songwriter and author. The second book in his Wingfeather Saga, North! Or Be Eaten (2009) won the Christy Award for Young Adult Fiction, and the fourth, The Warden and the Wolf King (2014) won World Magazine’s Children’s Book of the Year in 2015. In 2008, driven by a desire to cultivate a strong Christian arts community, Andrew founded a ministry called The Rabbit Room, which led to a yearly conference, countless concerts and symposiums, and Rabbit Room Press, which has published thirty books to date. He’s been married for 24 years to his wife Jamie, with whom they have three children. In his spare time Andrew keeps bees, builds dry stack stone walls, gardens, draws, and sleeps.

THE COMPLICATED HEART: LOVING EVEN WHEN IT HURTS

PERSONAL GROWTH

How do you forgive someone who wounded you so deeply, who carelessly brushed aside your pain, who caused such destruction? How do you forgive them when your wounds are still open, they show no remorse, and you're so tangled up with them you're not sure how to get untangled?

These are the questions Sarah Mae has wrestled with since she was fourteen years old—the year she moved in with her mother. People always ask Sarah how she forgave her alcoholic mother. How do any of us forgive?

The Complicated Heart takes readers on a journey where they will experience Sarah's story with her. Readers will be able to peek behind the curtain into the heart of her mom as well, through journal entries and letters. The story of Sarah and her mom is the story of how light finds a way in, even in the deepest darkness. It is a story that shows victory, hope, and redemption in the midst of trauma and pain.

Specifically, The Complicated Heart will help you:

- ✓ Learn how to forgive when your wound is still open
- ✓ Heal even when circumstances don't change
- ✓ Get out of the cycle of dysfunction that you seem trapped in
- ✓ Love when it feels impossible
- ✓ Persevere in hope even when you think it's a waste of time
- ✓ Support a friend who is dealing with a broken or painful relationship

Sarah Mae is the coauthor of the bestselling book, Desperate: Hope for the Mom Who Needs to Breathe, the founder of several events including the first national Christian women's blogging conference, Allume (retired in 2015), and A Night to Breathe, an event for exhausted but vision-focused moms of little ones. She has been featured on Focus on the Family radio, Life Today with James Robison, and in Life: Beautiful Magazine as one of fifty most inspiring Christian women of 2016. Sarah makes her home in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, with her woodworker husband and three spunky kiddos. Learn more and be encouraged in the tough stuff of life at sarahmae.com.

WORKING IN THE PRESENCE OF GOD: SPIRITUAL PRACTICES FOR EVERYDAY WORK

PERSONAL GROWTH

How do we invite God into our everyday lives? Working in the Presence of God discusses the incorporation of spiritual disciplines into the ordinary rhythms of everyday experience.

God is already present and active, so by becoming aware of workday rhythms and focusing on where various spiritual practices might be implemented in our jobs, we can be transformed into Christ's likeness through our work.

We often think of spiritual practices as preparation for our regular lives; in comfortable spaces and ideal settings, we set aside time to hear from God. But what if we can engage in these practices in the midst of our regular lives, and particularly at work? This transformation takes place when we surrender our working lives to God, begin to hear his voice, accept his pleasure, and allow his guidance at work.

The spiritual practices outlined in the book include:

- The Liturgy of Commute
- Workplace as Holy Ground
- Surrendering the Calendar
- Reading Scripture in Your Workspace
- Affirmation of Calling
- Gratitude for God's Blessing
- Celebrating Success at Work
- Confession at Work
- Lamenting Work
- Solitude: Working in God's Presence
- Prayer of Examen for Work
- Sabbath: Ceasing from Work

Denise Daniels is a professor of management at Seattle Pacific University. She earned her BA in psychology and economics at Wheaton College and her PhD in organizational behavior at the University of Washington. Denise regularly consults and provides executive coaching services and leadership development training. She is an active participant in the faith at work movement, speaking about meaningful work, Sabbath, leadership, gender, and motivation, and she also conducts an empirical study of the faith and work intersection of thirteen thousand people in the United States. Denise and her husband, Craig, have four adolescent and young adult children. They attend Bethany Presbyterian Church in Seattle.

Shannon Vandewaker is passionate about helping people find God in their everyday lives. This passion was fueled during her years of study as she earned her BA in biblical studies from Azusa Pacific University and a master of divinity from Bethel Seminary. She worked in Fuller Seminary's Cascade Fellows program, designing theological studies and practical exercises to help disciples explore the integration of their ordinary working life with their discipleship. Shannon writes on the theology of an ordinary life on her blog www.shannonvandewaker.com. She lives in San Diego, California, with her two young sons and husband, Dan, who is a pastor.

THE SERVICEMASTER STORY: NAVIGATING TENSION BETWEEN PEOPLE AND PROFIT

PERSONAL GROWTH

The ServiceMaster Story, written by faith and business expert Albert M. Erisman, examines how the first five leaders of ServiceMaster (a cleaning and restoration service company) managed to develop and give deeper purpose to their employees, while also growing into a financially successful organization.

An inspirational story that studies the balance between honoring God, serving people, and growing financially, for those interested in the dynamics of work and faith in the workplace.

From 1929 to 2001, ServiceMaster grew from a few people making their living in Chicago to a publicly traded company with revenues of $6 billion, in forty countries with five different leaders. Each leader built on the work of the previous leader, focusing on helping workers to develop as people. Their number one goal was to honor God in all they did. ServiceMaster was considered by employees at all levels as a great place to work and was selected by Fortune magazine as the most admired service company in the world, both in the 1980s and 1990s.

How did ServiceMaster manage to develop and give deeper purpose to employees doing menial jobs like cleaning floors and toilets and at the same time grow financially? This book explores the way the five early leaders collaborated, complemented each other, and adapted to changing economic and cultural environments, while creating value for workers, shareholders, and customers alike.

This work also includes photos and charts.

Albert (Al) Erisman, PhD, joined the Theology of Work Project in 2006 and is currently co-chair of the board. Previously he was a research mathematician at The Boeing Company. In his last decade there he led an R&D group doing applied research in technology and mathematics before retiring in 2001. He taught business and technology at Seattle Pacific University from 2001-2017. He cofounded Ethix Magazine in 1998, exploring the intersection of business, technology, and ethics. He is the author of The Accidental Executive, Lessons on Business, Faith and Calling from the Life of Joseph and coauthor of Direct Methods for Sparse Matrices. He is co-editor of The Purpose of Business.

FIVE KEYS TO HEALTH AND HEALING, HOPE FOR BODY, MIND AND SPIRIT

PERSONAL GROWTH

In 2016, Rose/Aspire released four small-books by noted Christian Psychologist Dr. Gregory Jantz. The series now continues with the focus on health and healing.

Is there an area of your life you want healing in? Do you find yourself struggling to stay positive? Everyone struggles with a challenge that can lead to hopelessness. Chances are there is an obstacle in your life you desperately want to overcome and you are tired of it weighing you down and holding you back. But how can you move forward? How can you heal?

Instead of solely addressing the healing of emotions or spiritual life, Dr. Gregory Jantz's proven and effective method encourages the focus on healing the whole person with 5 keys:

1. Harness Your Thoughts
2. Heal Your Emotions
3. Nurture Your Relationships
4. Nourish Your Body
5. Deepen Your Spirit

His biblically based advice will give you courage and tenacity as you take the first steps on the path toward wholeness and wellbeing, sustained and strengthened by a foundation of hope.

Dr. Gregory Jantz knows hopefulness is not wishful thinking, unfounded optimism, or pie-in-the-sky idealism. It is a choice we make to believe in our own capacity to overcome any challenge and, more so, to believe in a loving God who watches over us and always wants the best for us. Discover:

- ✓ 7 stress-management strategies to practice
- ✓ 8 ways to experience inner peace
- ✓ 10 traits of healthy relationships
- ✓ 6 ways to strengthen your relationships
- ✓ 9 strategies for eating to enrich your body and lift your mood
- ✓ 6 steps toward a better lifestyle
- ✓ And much more!

Dr. Gregory L. Jantz is a best-selling author of 39 books. He is a go-to media source expert for a range of behavioral-based afflictions, as well as drug and alcohol addictions. Dr. Jantz has appeared on CNN, FOX, ABC, CBS, and has been interviewed for the New York Post, Associated Press, Family Circle, and Women's Day. He is also a regular contributor to The Huffington Post and Psychology Today blogs. Pioneering whole-person care nearly 30 years ago, Dr. Jantz has dedicated his life's work to creating possibilities for others, and helping people change their lives for good. <https://www.drgregoryjantz.com/>

BE LOVED

YOUTH & YOUNG ADULT

Emma Mae Jenkins, a young writer, has inspired many with the freedom she has to be herself—a dearly loved child of God. In her first book, BE LOVED, she invites readers to join her on a journey of life-changing faith and the freedom that comes from knowing the love of God.

Foreword by Sadie Robertson

The author chronicles her own high school journey through starting a new school, navigating the typical pressures of school work and sports, going to prom, and even homecoming. Emma Mae faced each new challenge with the confidence that God was with her and was going to make her uniquely useful in the place he had prepared for her.

For Emma Mae, it all starts with her relationship with Jesus. Because she knows she is loved by him, she is free to be herself and to live out her faith no matter what the cost. As a young, passionate, and intimate lover of Jesus, Emma Mae’s love for her Savior overflows unashamedly into her unconditional, fierce love for people.

Readers will experience the chain-breaking liberty of knowing the Lord’s presence and the freedom to be unique. This full-color, hardback book includes pictures from Emma Mae’s life, along with key Bible verses that God used to strengthen and guide her through the ups and downs of her high school years. Readers will learn to face the challenges of their student years with faith, courage, hope, and life-giving love for others.

Emma Mae Jenkins is a social media influencer, writer, speaker, and YouTuber with the sole purpose of leading others into a relationship with Jesus, sharing this chain-breaking freedom, and being a vessel of God’s Word. Emma Mae chronicled her journey through high school on social media and has inspired thousands of young people to live their faith freely and with courage. You can find her on Instagram at 1corinthians13_love.
