CORE BIBLICAL STUDIES: ECCLESIOLOGY IN THE NEW TESTAMENT

How the New Testament writers talk about the church.

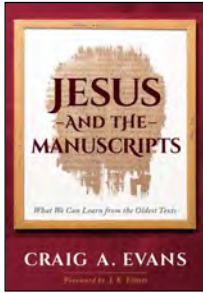

The earliest Christians thought of themselves in communal terms. They did not simply make individual commitments to Jesus as God’s messiah; they constituted themselves as communities shaped by the in-breaking of God’s realm. They likely learned to do so from Jesus himself. When he summoned an inner circle of his followers and numbered them twelve, he signaled that his ministry had the character of a reform movement within Israel.

In his work of preaching, healing, exorcism, and prophetic sign actions, Jesus shaped his followers into what would eventually become the church. By transgressing contemporary religious and social boundaries in his ministry, he planted the seeds of the church’s later inclusion of non-Jews.

This book will investigate New Testament texts about the church from a comparative standpoint. That is, the various authors adopt different metaphors for their communities-family, assembly, nation, priesthood, and so on to make varying claims about how they ought to live together and how they ought to live among their neighbors. In their descriptions of themselves as the church, Christians implicitly and explicitly describe their theology but also the Roman empire, the Jerusalem temple, the synagogue, popular philosophical circles, and first-century domestic order.

E. Elizabeth Johnson is J. Davison Philips Professor of New Testament at Columbia Theological Seminary in Decatur, Georgia. Her Ph.D. is from Princeton Theological Seminary. Johnson is interested in the ways the church uses the Bible to think about faith and life. She is drawn to exploring how the Pauline letters invite us to reflect about who God is and what Jesus’ death and resurrection mean for human life and society. She has also published a number of articles on the New Testament related to families and family values.

JESUS AND THE MANUSCRIPTS: WHAT WE CAN LEARN FROM THE OLDEST TEXTS

ACADEMIC

Introduces readers to the diversity and complexity of the ancient literature that records the words and deeds of Jesus.

This book is a follow up to the author's previous title, Jesus and The Remains of His Day.

Forward by J.K. Elliott (Professor in Leeds, England).

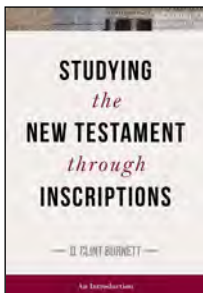

This diverse literature includes the familiar Gospels of the New Testament, the much less familiar literature of the Rabbis and of the Qur'an, and the extracanonical narratives and brief snippets of material found in fragments and inscriptions. This book critically analyzes important texts and quotations in their original languages and engages the current scholarly discussion. Evans argues that the Gospel of Thomas is not early or independent of the New Testament Gospels but that it should be dated to the late second century. He also argues that Secret Mark, like the recently published Gospel of Jesus' Wife, is probably a modern forgery. Of special interest is the question of how long the autographs of New Testament writings remained in circulation. Evans argues that the evidence suggests that most of these autographs remained available for copying and study for more than one hundred years and thus stabilized the text.

Key points and features:

- Written by popular author and Bible scholar Craig A. Evans
- Includes 20+ pages of high-quality color photos
- Walks readers through the various works of ancient literature, both biblical and non-biblical, that mention Jesus
- Critically analyzes important texts and quotations in their original languages and engages the current scholarly discussion

Craig A. Evans, PhD, DHabil, is the John Bisagno Distinguished Professor of Christian Origins at Houston Baptist University in Texas. He is a frequent contributor to scholarly journals and the author or editor of over eighty books, including Jesus and The Remains of His Day and A Handbook on the Jewish Roots of the Christian Faith.

STUDYING THE NEW TESTAMENT THROUGH INSCRIPTIONS, AN INTRODUCTION

ACADEMIC

Studying the New Testament through Inscriptions is an intuitive introduction to inscriptions from the Greco-Roman world. Inscriptions can help contextualize certain events associated with the New Testament in a way that many widely circulated literary texts do not.

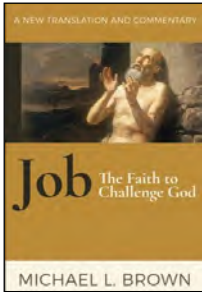

This book both introduces inscriptions and demonstrates sound methodological use of them in the study of the New Testament. Through five case studies, it highlights the largely unrecognized ability of inscriptions to shed light on early Christian history, practice, and the leadership structure of early Christian churches, as well as to solve certain New Testament exegetical impasses.

Key points and features:

- No other book like this on the market—this is the first of its kind!
- A practical and much-needed tool for graduate students, seminarians, and pastors
- Showcases five detailed case studies, designed to show students exactly how to use inscriptions
- Includes 20+ black and white photos
- Three appendices provide additional information for those who want to learn more

D. Clint Burnett (PhD, Boston College) is a lecturer of New Testament at Johnson University (Knoxville, TN). His research focuses on interpreting early Christianity in light of the material culture of the cities in which it was established. He blogs at www.clintburnett.com and has a website dedicated to a podcast called Biblepigraphy about inscriptions and the New Testament: <https://biblepigraphy.com>.

FOLLOWING GOD: LOVING ONE ANOTHER: COMMUNITY GOD WANTS US TO BE

BIBLE STUDY

The Bible makes it clear that our faith is not an individual sport. In our modern age of isolation, the timeless message of Scripture calls us back to being the "body of Christ" - an interconnected amalgamation of diverse individuals living in community with each other.

Check out the other 60 Following God Bible Studies from AMG!

This Bible study will look at every "One Another" command in the Bible, and hopefully move closer to being the community God desires and Christ is praying for us to be.

There are 59 "one another" statements in the New Testament that are direct commands. Together, they define God's desire for His people - how He wants us to interact in relationship with each other. The centerpiece of these "one another" exhortations is the repeated call to "love one another." In fact, one could say that it is not possible to rightly live out the other "one anothers" without loving one another first. The Bible makes it clear that our faith is not an individual sport. In our modern age of isolation, the timeless message of Scripture calls us back to being the "body of Christ" - an interconnected amalgamation of diverse individuals living in community with each other. Over the course of this Bible study we will look at every "One Another" command in the Bible, and hopefully move closer to being the community God desires and Christ is praying for us to be.

- Lesson 1: Community Matters
- Lesson 2: Loving One Another
- Lesson 3: Ministering to One Another
- Lesson 4: Praying for One Another
- Lesson 5: Forgiving One Another
- Lesson 6: Encouraging One Another

FOR HIS GLORY: LIVING AS GOD'S MASTERPIECE

BIBLE STUDY

When you hear the word masterpiece, you think of art or other objects...not yourself. You are a new creation and a masterpiece!

This 6-week, verse-by-verse study of Ephesians helps you understand your identity in Christ.

What comes to mind when you hear the word masterpiece? Perhaps you think of a beautiful painting, a spectacular home renovation, or a captivating sunset. But few of us would describe ourselves with that word. We tend to listen instead to the lies that define us as rejected, unwanted, less than, ugly, stupid, or a failure. Sometimes we can feel more like worthless junk than a valuable masterpiece. Yet that is exactly what God's Word says that we are!

In For His Glory, Marian Jordan Ellis leads us in an in-depth study of Ephesians to help us dismantle the lies we've believed about ourselves and replace them with a new identity built on God's Word. The truths in this beloved epistle speak to the core beliefs we carry about ourselves, revealing to us our part in God's magnificent design to redeem a people for Himself who reflect His glory to the world.

Drawing on her own journey of transformation and her passion to equip women to overcome shame, insecurity, inferiority, and condemnation, Marian invites us on a journey to discover our true worth in Christ, our status as beloved children of God, and our glorious calling as His masterpiece.

Marian Jordan Ellis is passionate about Jesus and helping women of all ages and stages to experience the victorious Christian life. Having a Master's degree in biblical studies, she hosts a monthly community Bible study for hundreds of women at Mission City Church in San Antonio, where she serves as the Director of Women's Ministry. The founder of Redeemed Girl Ministries, Marian speaks at women's conferences and events both domestically and internationally and regularly shares her writings and Bible teachings through her blog, website (Redeemedgirl.org), the Redeemed Girl App, and YouTube channel. She is the author of Stand: Rising Up Against Darkness, Temptation, and Persecution, and numerous other titles.

SURRENDERED: LETTING GO AND LIVING LIKE JESUS

Learn how to surrender like Jesus.

Are you facing a problem in life that you just can't fix, no matter what you do? Perhaps you've heard the phrase "Let go and let God." But it's easier said than done. Is it possible that giving up on what you can't change is God's path to peace for your life?

In this study of Jesus in the wilderness, Barb explores Jesus' time of testing and contrasts it with the Israelites' failures in the wilderness. Instead of a band-aid approach, Roose looks at Jesus in the wilderness to face situations beyond our control.

As you learn from Jesus' example, you'll discover six principles that will equip you to let God lead you to victory despite your circumstances as you deal with the problems and pain you are facing:

- Recognize You Can't Handle It
- Stop Following Your Feelings
- Give Up Control and Reach for God
- Embrace God's Better Blessing
- Let Go of Fear
- Experience the Blessings of a Surrendered Life

If you're tired of following your feelings or being disappointed by unchanging circumstances, learn how to surrender like Jesus and experience God's power and peace in your life as never before.

Watch for the companion book to release in September 2020!

Barb Roose is a popular speaker and author who is passionate about connecting women to one another and to God, helping them apply the truths of God's Word to the practical realities and challenges they face as women in today's culture. Barb enjoys teaching and encouraging women at conferences and events across the country, as well as internationally. BRICK BY BRICK: BUILDING A STRONG FAMILY THAT WON'T LOSE THEIR FAITH IN A SECULAR CULTURE

CATHOLIC

Far too many Catholic families today experience the heart-wrenching pain of their grown children abandoning the practice of the faith. Parents pray and hope that their children will, at the very least, go to Mass as adults only to see the faith tradition and beauty of the Church lost among the next generation.

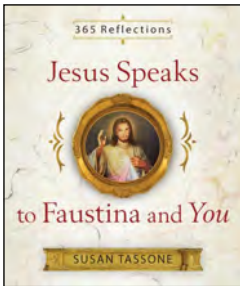

With real life stories, tons of humor, and practical advice, this three-generation family illustrates seven key principles of discipleship parenting that bore them great fruit. Grow in your understanding of God’s purpose for the family, and be moved in your parenting and family life to create a future of missionary disciples.

The Regnier parents, whose five adult children don’t merely continue to go to Mass but have all even become Catholic missionaries, are often asked, “How did you do it? How did you raise children who are so active in sharing and living their Faith?” Here you’ll hear the answer from each member of the family, parents and children. From their many voices, real-life stories, and often amusing anecdotes emerge many wise principles and sure methods you can adapt to your own circumstances: family-proven best practices for raising children strong in the Faith.

Concerned parents will learn from these remarkable pages how they, too, can raise their children to have a similar personal relationship with Jesus, live their Faith dynamically, and have evangelistic hearts—even while remaining ordinary, well-rounded, approachable people passionate about life in all its aspects.

André and Angèle Regnier cofounded Catholic Christian Outreach (CCO) in 1988 at their alma mater, the University of Saskatchewan. For thirty years, CCO has ministered to students on campuses across Canada. In 2015, André and Angèle were awarded the Pro Ecclesia et Pontifice Medal for distinguished service to the Church, the highest medal that can be awarded to laymen by the pope. They have five children and two grandchildren and currently live in Ottawa.

LORD, TEACH US TO PRAY: A FULTON SHEEN ANTHOLOGY

CATHOLIC

Over the course of Archbishop Fulton Sheen’s storied career, thousands approached him with a simple request: “Teach us to pray.” Archbishop Sheen proclaimed this surefire pathway to sanctity and intimacy with God.

Now, for the first time ever, his wise teachings on prayer have been collected into a single volume to help you perfect your prayers and make them what they must become: a daily, holy habit.

First come Bishop Sheen’s insightful reflections on the Our Father and its indispensable connection to the Seven Last Words of Christ. Then Bishop Sheen unveils smoldering, oft-overlooked riches in other everyday Catholic prayers, transforming them from rote recitations into powerful moments of communion with God.

With his help, you’ll then journey through the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, learning how to bring peace to your soul and grow more receptive to God’s grace. You’ll also discover how to make your Holy Hours more efficacious and master a variety of other techniques that Bishop Sheen employed in his own fruitful quest for holiness. Best of all, you’ll immerse yourself in an incomparable collection of Fulton Sheen’s reflections on the Mass, meditations for Holy Hours, and dozens of prayers he recommends for most occasions in the Christian life.

Prayer, meditation, Holy Hours, the Mass, and even a bit of philosophy: it’s all here in this delightful anthology of the works of the saintly archbishop Fulton J. Sheen!

Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen (1895-1979) spent almost forty years evangelizing Catholics and non-Catholics alike through his voluminous writings and his thousands of nationwide radio and television broadcasts. Along the way, he served the Church as auxiliary bishop of New York and bishop of Rochester. On July 5, 2019, Pope Francis approved a miracle that occurred through Sheen’s intercession, clearing the way for his beatification. Al Smith is the founder and director of the Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen Mission Society of Canada and editor of the best-selling book The Cries of the Jesus from the Cross: A Fulton Sheen Anthology. He has served the Church for many years as a Catholic evangelist, radio host, writer, Internet broadcaster, and retreat director and has served on the board of directors of the Archbishop Fulton John Sheen Foundation in Peoria, Illinois, promoting the cause of Sheen’s canonization.

PRIESTS WE NEED TO SAVE THE CHURCH

CATHOLIC

While dissolute bishops and priests around the world grab headlines for their untoward words and deeds, too many other unfruitful priests minister as little more than glad-handing bachelors doing social service work. Top and bottom, is this the Church that Christ intended? Are these the priests we need?

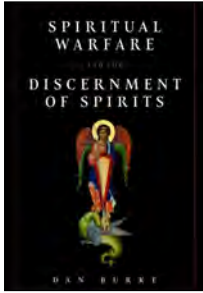

“No!” cries author Kevin Wells in these compelling pages that showcase how heroic priests can faithfully tread the narrow path of holy self-sacrifice first blazed by the apostles themselves. From scores of insightful interviews with modern priests, exorcists, seminary formators, and even disillusioned laity, Wells here draws forth a blueprint for priestly holiness that can once again fill our Church with priests abounding with sincere, supernatural faith, on fire with God’s love, and moved by the irresistible impulse to save souls, no matter the cost to themselves.

Reading this book will deepen your own faith and help you understand what all priests, by their vocation, are consecrated and called to be. Giving a copy to your parish priest will help him – and encourage him – as he strives to become a member of the small but growing contingent of holy priests we need.

"This book is a salutary challenge to what can become an all-too-comfortable life. Kevin Wells, and the lives of the exemplary priests he describes, set out to identify and heal the ills of the modern priesthood and set us back on the path to sanctity."
—Msgr. Stephen J. Rossetti, PhD, DMin,
Research Associate Professor, Catholic University of America

Kevin Wells is a former sports reporter with the Tampa Tribune, where he covered Major League Baseball and other sports. He is the author of Burst, A Story of God’s Grace When Life Falls Apart. He is a freelance writer and evangelist, addressing various Catholic topics. Wells is President of the Monsignor Thomas Wells Society for Vocations, which financially and prayerfully commits itself to the promotion of strong priests, seminarians, and practicing the fullness of the Catholic Faith. His work with youth earned him the James Cardinal Hickey National Figure Award from the Archdiocese of Washington. In 2009, he survived a close brush with death after a malformed line of vessels in his brain hemorrhaged. The day after invasive brain surgery failed to control the flow of blood that was compressing his brain, Kevin was anointed by Fr. James Stack — the longtime best friend of his murdered uncle, Msgr. Thomas Wells. To this day, witnesses in the dark neuro-ICU room still tell of the miracle that unfolded at his bedside.

SPIRITUAL WARFARE AND THE DISCERNMENT OF SPIRITS

CATHOLIC

Satan is always at work breeding sadness and anxiety while providing obstacles that prevent souls from making spiritual progress. In this concise yet powerful book, author Dan Burke presents the venerable, time-tested wisdom of Catholic mystics to help you understand the influence of the Enemy on your mind and heart, and the tactics you need to combat him.

"I recommend this book for anyone ready to grow in holiness."
—Cardinal Gerhard Ludwig Müller, Former Prefect of the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith

With St. Ignatius as his guide, Burke presents here an indispensable, authoritative manual for engaging in daily battle with the Adversary—combat that is both inevitable and winnable. Burke will help you recognize the ebbs and flows of consolation and desolation, and distinguish between the voices of God and of Satan. Best of all, you'll come to see the spiritual life not as a science to be learned, but as an intuitive art to be practiced as you move with increasing success from habitual sin to sanctity.

The battle for our souls is unavoidable. The saints won theirs by learning how to be spiritual warriors and by recognizing that we become stronger through battle and grow weaker from avoidance. With this book as your guide, you'll grow in strength and contentment as you learn:

- How to take captive every negative thought and make it obedient to Christ
- St. Ignatius's revelations exposing how the Devil seeks to influence us
- The Paradigm of Ascent and the Five Steps to Sanctity
- The three ways you can discern "Good Spirits" from "Bad Spirits"
- The three principal causes of desolation—and what you must do when it afflicts your soul
- Proven methods for moving away from sin and toward self-giving love of God and neighbor

Dan Burke is an award-winning author, writer, and speaker on Catholic spirituality. He is the Executive Director and writer for EWTN's National Catholic Register.

THE CATHOLIC FAITH EXPLAINED

CATHOLIC

What is the point of faith, and, in particular, of the Catholic Faith?

"Michel Therrien's The Catholic Faith Explained is clearly, concisely, and even beautifully written. Even more, it gives us something desperately needed in the Church: a book that paints the "big picture" of what Catholicism is all about. If you know someone—a family member, a friend, a co-worker—who has left the Catholic Church, or who just has serious questions about the Catholic faith, this is the book for them."
—Brant Pitre, Author of "Jesus and the Jewish Roots of the Eucharist"

Written in a welcoming style, this straightforward book provides a clear, compelling answer to that question. As such, it's meant for non-Catholics who are curious about the Catholic Faith, for cradle Catholics who may never have really understood the Faith, and for longtime Catholics who've begun to question the Faith and may even be thinking of leaving it.

Here, free of controversies and polemics, you'll encounter the principal beliefs that form the framework of Christianity, and, in particular, a thorough explanation of what the Church teaches about Jesus. To accomplish this faithfully, author Michel Therrien relies on just two sources—the Bible and the Catechism of the Catholic Church—to provide an authoritative overview of what the Faith teaches about God and why believing in Him is important.

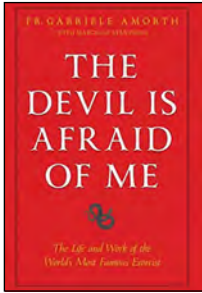

In twenty short, easy-to-digest chapters, Therrien presents you with Christianity as the Catholic Church understands it.

Among scores of other fundamentals of the Faith, this book will teach you:

- How we come to know God
- How God reveals Himself to us
- Who God is, as Scripture reveals Him
- Jesus Christ's loving plan for humanity
- How to live as a disciple of Jesus Christ
- How Catholicism will bring you happiness

Michel Therrien is the CEO of Praeambula Network, a lay apostolate that provides discipleship formation and strategies to individuals and organizations for the work of the new evangelization. He has taught at St. Vincent Seminary and the Augustine Institute and served as president of the Institute for Pastoral Leadership in the Diocese of Pittsburgh. He holds a B.A. in theology from Gonzaga University in Spokane, Washington; an M.A. in theology and Christian ministry from Franciscan University of Steubenville; a licentiate in sacred theology from the International Theological Institute in Gaming, Austria; and a doctorate in fundamental moral theology from the University of Fribourg in Switzerland.

THE DEVIL IS AFRAID OF ME: THE LIFE AND WORK OF THE WORLD'S MOST FAMOUS EXORCIST

"We can do nothing against you because you are too protected!"

So declared a frustrated host of devils to Father Gabriele Amorth, the priest exorcist in Rome who spent thirty years battling the Devil and his minions by performing more than a hundred thousand exorcisms. At the same time, he deftly used modern media to awaken our disbelieving modern culture – and even the Church – to the reality of the Devil and his nefarious actions at all times and everywhere.

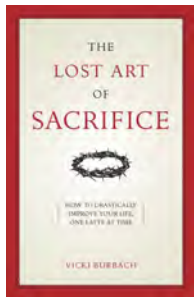

In these eye-opening pages, angelologist Father Marcello Stanzione tells the story of the life of Father Amorth, and includes, as well, not merely many anecdotes about his exciting life but also long excerpts from various interviews Father gave to the media, religious and secular. By means of those interviews, you'll learn firsthand from Father Amorth many forgotten truths about the Devil and his ways, and in particular the devious methods he has adopted in recent years to corrupt believers and unbelievers alike. It's simple to spot them, argues Father Amorth, and simple even to resist them.

"We can do nothing against you because you are too protected!" said the devils that Father Amorth battled. Let Father Amorth teach you in these pages how you can be protected too!

Fr. Gabriele Amorth (1925-2016), a priest of the Congregation of San Paolo, was internationally recognized as the world's greatest exorcist. His mission of expelling the devil through incessant dedication has earned the gratitude of thousands of believers and the esteem of the most important authorities of the Catholic Church. He has written various successful works and had a very popular radio program on Radio Maria in Rome.

Fr. Marcello Stanzione (b. 1963), one of the top Italian experts on angels, is a priest of the Archdiocese of Salerno, Italy. He is the author of more than forty books in Italian, many of which have been translated into other languages.

THE LOST ART OF SACRIFICE

CATHOLIC

Jesus taught that if we are to call ourselves Christians, we must deny ourselves, pick up our cross, and follow him. But what does denying ourselves look like? How exactly must we carry our cross? And what does He mean when He says we must lose my life in order to save it?

Burbach explains that while Christ's words are challenging, he isn't asking us to pick up our cross because he is vindictive or twisted, nor because He wants to see us suffer. It's because sacrifice is the greatest manifestation of love, and He created our souls in order to love and be loved.

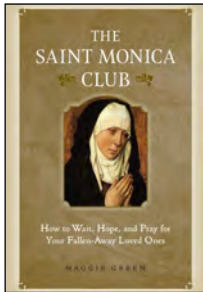

In these powerful pages, she contrasts – as Jesus did – our selfish worldly culture with the way Christians are called to live, illuminating the essential role that sacrifice must play in every worthy human life. Not content with explaining the importance of sacrifice and singing its praises, Burbach ends each chapter with practical, down-to-earth suggestions to help readers cultivate the art of sacrifice in their lives, so that each may find a way to follow Christ as He commands us.

In our materialistic and secular world, we have lost the art of sacrifice - an art that connects us with the very root of our souls. That's why this book is so vitally important today.

Best of all, she shows that not only is it critical that we each undertake ever more sacrifices, large and small, as we go about our daily lives but that doing so is the path to joy: great joy today and immeasurably greater joy hereafter.

Vicki Burbach relishes the calm inspiration of spiritual reading amidst the roller coaster of life. A passionate convert to the Faith, Vicki is an avid reader who moderates an international book club at SpiritualDirection.com. She feels blessed to journey with thousands of like-minded pilgrims through some of the greatest Catholic books ever written. Her writing has been featured online at National Catholic Register, Big Pulpit, and Catholic Exchange. You can also find her at PelicansBreast.com.

THE SAINT MONICA CLUB: HOW TO WAIT, HOPE, AND PRAY FOR YOUR FALLEN ONES

CATHOLIC

In the fourth century, a young man named Augustine turned his back on the Church, plunging into a frenzied life of lust and dissipation. His renunciation left Monica, his pious Catholic mother, weeping and praying for his salvation . . . for more than a decade!

Like so many Catholics today – even perhaps like you – Monica wrestled daily with the pain of having a loved one fall away from the Faith. Like us, she often feared that her prayers and tears were of little worth, empty, futile.

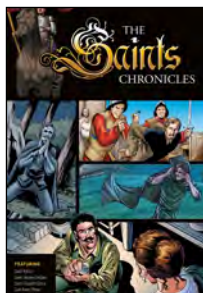

After nearly two decades, Augustine returned to the Faith, and in a big way. Revered today as Saint Augustine, he joined in holiness his mother, Monica – now Saint Monica – whose sacrifices, prayers, and pain finally won for both of them the crown of sanctity.

In these pages, author Maggie Green provides wise, compassionate guidance for members of what she calls “The Saint Monica Club”: good Catholics suffering like Monica the rejection of the Faith by persons they love dearly. Herself a longtime and long-suffering member of the club, Green shows how persevering as Monica did in devoted love for straying souls – loving them as God does – will not only quiet the lingering, aching cry of our hearts, but will also draw our lost loved ones back to the Faith and into the arms of Jesus again. Yes, the nonconfrontational Way of Saint Monica is hard. But it is the only way. These pages demonstrate that, with the souls of our loved ones at stake, it is worth the effort . . . and worth the wait.

- St. Jerome Emiliani, the bold soldier who became a Christian while imprisoned in a dark dungeon, escaping to join the priesthood and lead a life in service to the poor and suffering.
- St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, the wealthy New York widow who made vows of poverty and chastity, creating the very first Catholic schools in the United States and becoming America's first saint.

BIBLE BASICS STORYBOOK

CHILDREN'S

Building a better world through God's Story.

With a focus on Bible stories and biblical literacy, this storybook helps kids realize that the bible is more than history and it's relevant to their lives. Each of the story included was chosen because it teaches a basic theological lesson.

What makes this Bible storybook unique? This Bible storybook has been specifically organized in a way that will help your child learn how to read and use a Bible. There are no combined stories from different books of the Bible. The Bible is not written that way. Each Gospel book has been allowed to stand on it's own. Some stories are repeated or out of typical order, especially in the New Testament. For example there are three accounts of Palm Sunday to show the different ways Matthew, Mark, and Luke taught the story in their books. It helps children see that the Bible isn't a chronological story with one account, but a library of stories that teach us about God's love for all.

Other features:

- ✓ 149 core stories from both the Old and New Testaments.
- ✓ Each testament of the Bible has an introduction page that invites children into the Word. There
- ✓ Beautiful colorful illustrations.
- ✓ Includes prayers to start the day, to say at bedtime, and to share before meals, which will help you provide a solid faith foundation for the dear children in your life.

THE QUIET CRAZY EASTER DAY

CHILDREN'S

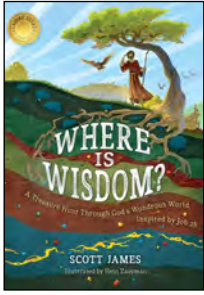

You might think of the first Easter as a quiet, peaceful morning. But with all creation celebrating the risen Lord of Lords, it may not have been so quiet!

The Quiet Crazy Easter Day imagines the crazy celebration that might have occurred when Jesus arose . . . a festive day filled with chirps and croaks, shouts and coos and loop-de-does.

Join the rejoicing as we follow along with the Easter story and learn how we too can shout and sing and spread the news that Jesus is alive.

Jill Roman Lord is an award-winning author of seventeen Christian children’s books. She loves celebrating Jesus and drawing others closer to Him in her writing. Jill’s creative writing teacher pulled her out of her ninth-grade class to give her a blank journal and told her to keep writing; she did. She enjoys traveling with her husband, Bill, visiting their kids who have flown the coop, and running with her golden retriever.

WHERE IS WISDOM? A TREASURE HUNT THROUGH GOD'S WONDROUS WORLD, INSPIRED BY JOB 28

Where can we find wisdom? Down in the deep caverns? At the bottom of the ocean floor? This visual tour through the poetry of Job 28 parallels Scripture and leads readers on a treasure hunt through the wonders of God's creation.

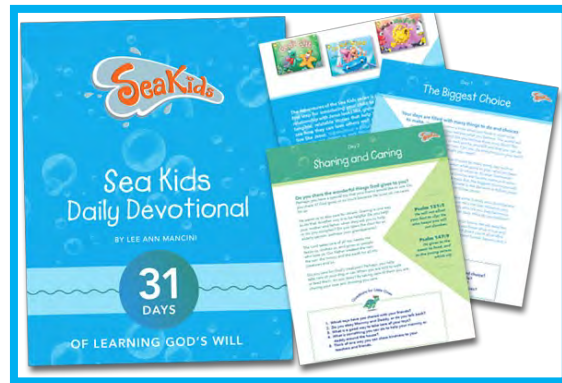

Among all the dazzling treasures this world has to offer, we learn of an even greater treasure—wisdom—and of the mighty God who alone can lead us to it.

Beautifully illustrated, Where Is Wisdom? is a unique celebration of the words and imagery of Job, one that guides young readers high and low to marvel ultimately at the true end of wisdom, Jesus Christ. The author was inspired by Job 28. It explores Job's wisdom and positive elements instead of the depressing parts of the story. Kids learn about the true treasure and wisdom.

This is a sophisticated children's fiction book. This is a large format book with a more modern art style.

Scott James is an author of books for children and families, including The Expected One (B&H, 2014), the family worship book Mission Accomplished (2015), and illustrated children's book The Littlest Watchman (2017). A HOLY PURSUIT:
HOW THE GOSPEL FREES US TO FOLLOW AND LAY DOWN OUR DREAMS

CHRISTIAN LIFE

“Chase your dreams and follow your heart, no matter the cost” is the call of the world today.

The opposite extreme, often advised by the church, is to lay down all of our dreams and passions, avoiding all self-interest. This book helps you look upward and see your faith as the foundation of your dreams.

One narrative says to follow a passion, and the other says to lay it down. Both offer happiness and purpose on the other side. But what does the Bible say about dreams, goals, and passions?

With compelling illustrations from Dianne Jago’s unexpected journey in creating Deeply Rooted Magazine, along with thoughtful scriptural examples, Dianne shares an honest account of how God changed her plans and aligned them with His.

As you read this book, you will be challenged to look upward instead of inward, seeing the God-given purpose of every Christian as the foundation of your “dreams.” Scripture shapes a believer’s pursuits and the gospel speaks to our passions. Instead of the one-size-fits- all formula for dream-chasing, A Holy Pursuit will help you identify whether it’s time to pursue, pause, or surrender a dream you hold.

Dianne Jago is the founder and chief editor of Deeply Rooted Magazine, where she works with her team to encourage, inspire, and equip women to be deeply rooted in Christ alone. She is a military wife and homeschooling mother of three from central Pennsylvania.

DON'T LOOK DOWN:
ANSWERING JESUS' CALL TO WALK ON WATER

CHRISTIAN LIFE

This book is for followers of Jesus who may find themselves stuck in a rut spiritually, at a decision point but too afraid to make a move or wondering why they aren't living a more fulfilled, purposeful life.

This book features practical application for turning faith into Kingdom work and discipleship in our faith communities. It also features fresh, encouraging, and imitable stories of people (church planters and entrepreneurs) who have heard Jesus say to them, "Come," and who have walked with Jesus in remarkable and instructive ways.

Many believers today want to see their faith in action. They want to know where Jesus is going to use them for his glory in the world. Yet, many are stuck not knowing how to turn the ignition on their faith. They may not expect to hear from God or may not have the courage to answer God's call. This book will be a spark to help people out of their "boats" and onto whatever water Jesus has called them.

It is an ideal resource for church planters, church planting teams and teaching pastors, couples, college students, ministry leaders, and anyone hoping to put their faith into motion.

FREEFALL: HOLDING ONTO FAITH WHEN THE UNTHINKABLE STRIKES

CHRISTIAN LIFE

“He died at the scene.”
“I want a divorce.”

We all know life can change in an instant. But what happens when that life is ours?

Certain words, whether whispered or shouted, once uttered, transform into a knife that severs us from the life we once knew. Such words can send us into a spiritual free fall. We find ourselves descending into a world we never wanted to enter.

Words meant to comfort, on the other hand, may feel empty, while hope seems out of our reach. FreeFall reminds us the God we serve gave us the tools for our survival, even in our darkest hour. It equips us to hold onto our faith by laying out a clear course of action to regain purpose and meaning within a life we can’t imagine living.

The author writes with authenticity from her own tragic experiences of losing her 13-year-old son in a car accident and her husband's debilitating illness.

Rhonda Robinson is a mother of nine who carefully built her life nurturing her family, gardens, and writing parenting columns. Rhonda saw her world shatter with the words, “Dan died at the scene.” Through life-altering events, disabling illnesses, and devastating loss, Rhonda learned to break down and rebuild her life. She became a witness to the undeniable, unseen hand of God.

GIVING THANKS FOR A PERFECTLY IMPERFECT LIFE

CHRISTIAN LIFE

Dispel the worldly lies that perfection is (1) attainable or (2) desirable.

This book will help Christian readers see through the untruths of striving for perfection and find true contentment, rest, and peace by learning to love the imperfect in life as we watch God restore, redeem, and remake our lives according to his purpose and plan.

As a recovering perfectionist, Michele Howe can speak from personal experience how damaging and paralyzing spending one's life in pursuit of perfection on any plane is to us spiritually, mentally, emotionally, and physically. Perfectionists believe they can control their relationships, lives, environments, as well as the people around them, when the Bible teaches us that only God is in control. True safety and inner peace come from submitting ourselves to the loving and sovereign control of God; not from our attempts to manipulate, maneuver, or massage circumstances to our liking.

Giving Thanks for a Perfectly Imperfect Life will address the most common life scenarios that perfectionists attempt to control. This resource will include twenty-five chapters composed of a Bible passage, a quotation, a real-life account, an essay focusing on the specific chapter topic, a take-away action thought, a prayer, and several suggestions for practical steps to offer thanks for our imperfect lives.

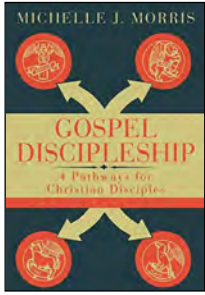

It is a practical book that will help readers find true contentment, rest, and peace in God.

GOSPEL DISCIPLESHIP: 4 PATHWAYS FOR CHRISTIAN DISCIPLES

CHRISTIAN LIFE

Live and walk on the unique path Jesus is calling you to follow as a disciple.

There was a time when discipleship was taken for granted. It was assumed that people could be persuaded to believe and that each person would step into the path that took them to Jesus. That assumption is no longer valid. As early as the Gospels, Jesus and his biographers recognize that each person brings experience to the journey, which travels through different times and places.

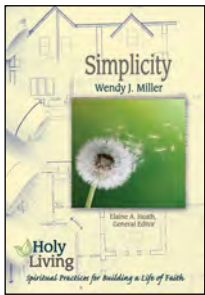

By understanding what type of disciple you are, you can clarify the path they need to walk. Some people love to go on mission trips; some people really thrive learning from a great teacher; some people connect to God through painting and music; and some people just want to have a cup of coffee and talk about life and eventually get around to talking about Jesus.

Readers of Gospel Discipleship can be set free from the guilt of not feeling like a “real” disciple because they don’t feel called to experience the journey the same way as everyone else. Instead, participants can become the disciple Jesus wants them to be. They can spend their valuable time and energy living and walking on the path where Jesus is calling them to follow.

For group study, a congregation guide is also available for leaders to guide participant’s through the process as well as evaluate the entire congregations strengths.

HOLY LIVING SERIES: SPIRITUAL PRACTICES FOR BUILDING A LIFE OF FAITH: SIMPLICITY

CHRISTIAN LIFE

Developing the spiritual practice of simplicity is key to a healthy, vibrant relationship with God and others. This book helps us know how to begin and implement this practice.

The Holy Living series brings a fresh perspective on the spiritual disciplines, enabling us to apply their practices to our current lives. Practicing these spiritual disciplines opens us to God’s transforming love. Other disciplines studied: Celebration, Confession, Discernment, Neighboring, Study, and Worship.

At its core, the spiritual practice of simplicity enables us to eliminate from our lives all the things—both material possessions and thoughts, habits, and attitudes—that distract us from God so that God has complete freedom to work in and through us. Simplicity brings freedom, balance, and perspective to our lives and enables us to align our priorities with the priorities of God. It reorients us and allows us to be open to the present moment.

This is one of series of eight books that introduces a spiritual practice, suggests way of living the practice daily, and provides opportunities to grow personally and in a faith community with others who engage with the practice. Each book consists of an introduction and four chapters and includes questions for personal reflection and group discussion.

Elaine A. Heath is a theologian whose work is interdisciplinary, integrating pastoral, biblical, and spiritual theology in ways that bridge the gap between academy, church, and world. Heath is the author of numerous books and articles, the most recent of which is Healing the Wounds of Sexual Abuse: Reading the Bible with Survivors (2019), a republication with updates of a previous volume: We Were the Least of These: Reading the Bible with Survivors of Sexual Abuse (2011). She also recently served as general editor of the Holy Living series, eight volumes each of which focuses on a particular spiritual practice. Within that series, she authored Holy Living: Celebration. Her other publications include Five Means of Grace: Experience God’s Love the Wesleyan Way (2017), The Mystic Way of Evangelism, Revised and Updated 2nd Edition (2017), God Unbound: Wisdom from Galatians for the Anxious Church (2016), *Missional. Heath’s vocational journey includes having served as Dean of the Divinity School at Duke University, and the McCreless Professor of Evangelism at Perkins School of Theology, Southern Methodist University. SOUL ANATOMY: FINDING PEACE, HOPE, AND REST IN THE PSALMS

CHRISTIAN LIFE

How do you worship when you're depressed? Where do you find words to express inexpressible joy? What do you pray when you need to rest?

Soul Anatomy is a biblical guide for working through emotional turmoil in a gospel-centered way. By working through the Psalms from beginning to end, men and women will find a God-authored script by which to express every category of the human experience.

The Bible's inspired hymnbook guides believers through the highest summits and lowest troughs of life and invites the not-yet believer to a Redeemer who ultimately experienced all of the emotions of these prayers in his incarnation.

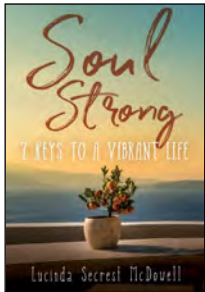

Author George Robertson enables readers to find a sympathetic Savior in the Psalms who experienced every human emotion, and he helps men and women see the God-inspired vocabulary for expressing every feeling to the Father.

Soul Anatomy helps men and women respond to the love of God in all the ways the psalmists do: spiritually, vocationally, physically, and volitionally. As divinely inspired prayers, God offers the vocabulary he welcomes from us when we do not know how to pray.

Discover the heart of Jesus through the prayers of Jesus, the High Priest who can sympathize with us.

George Robertson received his baccalaureate degree from Covenant College; master in divinity and master in theology from Covenant Theological Seminary; and doctor of philosophy degree in historical and theological studies from Westminster Theological Seminary, Philadelphia. Currently he is the senior pastor at Second Presbyterian Church in Memphis, TN, and a council member for The Gospel Coalition. CARING FOR THE SOULS OF CHILDREN: A BIBLICAL COUNSELOR'S MANUAL

CHRISTIAN MINISTRY

Coming alongside struggling children can feel like an uphill battle. Counselors and parents mistakenly believe children somehow need different answers to life's problems than adults need but Jesus Christ is always the way.

Children struggle with the same desires adults struggle with, are lured by the same lies adults fall prey to, and can find hope in the same source adults can find hope in our Lord and Savior.

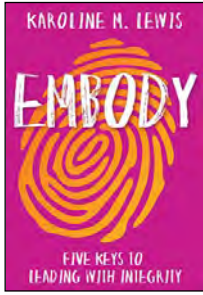

In this manual for biblical counselors, men and women will learn how to help struggling children with the hope found in our Redeemer as presented in the Word of God. Caring for the Souls of Children equips counselors, parents, pastors, and anyone else who wants to love children with the hope of Jesus to boldly trust in the sufficiency of Christian scripture.

Rather than relying on different methods to reach children, this manual helps counselors share the truth of Christ the way, the truth, and the life all while tailoring interactions and teachings to the understanding of children.

Edited by counseling professional and author Amy Baker, this in-depth resource offers the biblical wisdom and practical insights of contributing authors who are experienced in biblical counseling for children.

Amy Baker, PhD, is the ministry resource director at Faith Church (Lafayette, IN); director of counseling for Vision of Hope, a faith-based residential treatment program; instructor and counselor at Faith Biblical Counseling Ministries; a council member of the Biblical Counseling Coalition; and the author of Getting to the Heart of Friendships and Picture Perfect: When Life Doesn't Line Up as well as several counseling mini-books. EMBODY: FIVE KEYS TO LEADING WITH INTEGRITY

CHRISTIAN MINISTRY

Embody your Christian beliefs in every decision, every act of ministry leadership.

Pastors and other leaders feel trapped in systems and institutions where actions and decisions often seem to have little to do with the scripture they read or the theology they profess. They are swept into leadership norms that resemble business models more than mission. They see in others and (sometimes) recognize in themselves the disconnect between their own theology and their leadership. They feel unable to fully integrate their beliefs with their behavior.

Many leaders—younger ones, especially—are frustrated and disillusioned by this disconnect. They see hypocrisy all around them, and in themselves. They see that our culture is at a critical juncture, which gives ministry a greater sense of urgency. But they want to do things differently, to be what they believe. They want to embody their Christian beliefs in every decision, every act of ministry leadership.

The functional authority of scripture must be evident in the way church leaders lead, both within the congregation and in the public square. The way we church leaders lead proves the bible does—or does not—matter. In Embody, Karoline Lewis shows how to frame leadership in the church and public square theologically, and from the perspective of incarnation. She shows how leadership can be a direct line between what you believe and what you do. She incorporates examples of Jesus' leadership and the Paraclete in the Gospel of John, showing how leadership was achieved by walking beside.

Embody offers practical things for the reader to consider and do, instruction and guidance for how to make the 'integration steps' necessary in order to become an embodied leader, and exploration of core components of embodied leadership.

Karoline M. Lewis, holds the Marbury Anderson Chair in Biblical Preaching at Luther Seminary in St. Paul, MN. She is a regularly featured presenter and preacher at the Festival of Homiletics and a frequent contributor for numerous Christian journals and online resources, including the popular website WorkingPreacher.org where she also co-hosts the site's weekly podcast, "Sermon Brainwave," and authors the site's weekly column, "Dear Working Preacher." Karoline holds a Ph.D. from Emory University. She lives in St. Paul, Minnesota.

EXTRAORDINARY MINISTRY IN ORDINARY TIME: AN INVITATION TO RENEWAL FOR PASTORS

CHRISTIAN MINISTRY

Spiritual practices for sustaining a thriving pastoral ministry.

What energizes someone for the long haul of pastoral ministry? Holy days like Christmas, Easter, and Pentecost are the exception. "Ordinary Time", the longest season of the Christian year, is where pastors spend most of their ministry.

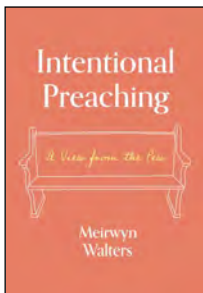

James Harnish invites pastors and other ministers to see "Ordinary Time" as a metaphor for the ordinary days of ministry. "Whether we thrive or merely survive depends on what we do with the ordinary days," he writes.

Harnish encourages ministers to develop spiritual disciplines and personal relationships to nourish their souls for long-term ministry. He highlights the importance of reflection on scripture, spiritual reading, journaling, prayer, and spiritual conversation with trusted friends.

This 6-week study focuses on themes Harnish found crucial in over four decades of ministry: power, people, places, proclamation, perseverance, and promise. Daily readings help readers develop their own customized practices of spiritual formation to sustain and strengthen their life and ministry.

James A. Harnish is a retired United Methodist pastor, writer, and teacher. He served in pastoral ministry for 43 years in Florida, including 22 years as senior pastor of Hyde Park United Methodist Church in Tampa. Harnish was founding pastor of St. Luke's UMC in Orlando. He and his wife, Martha, live in Longwood, Florida.

RESUSCITATING EVANGELISM

CHRISTIAN MINISTRY

When was the last time you shared your faith? If we're being honest, it's an awkward, challenging conversation.

In February 2020, this title was a #1 NEW RELEASE on Amazon.com for Christian Church Growth!

Christians know that we're supposed to be sharing the gospel with the lost. Jesus gave us the Great Commission before he left, telling us to go and make disciples of all nations. But we still just . . . don't do it. Why?

Is evangelism dead?

Here's the good news: Evangelism is the means by which Jesus promised to build His church, and Jesus will make good on His promises. In Resuscitating Evangelism father-son duo Jordan and Ernest Easley—both pastors and evangelists—share a biblical strategy for obeying Jesus and bringing new life to evangelism. As we bring new life to evangelism, we'll see God bring new life to the lost all around us.

Jordan Easley is the senior pastor of First Baptist Church in Cleveland, Tennessee. He holds degrees from Dallas Baptist University in Dallas, Texas, and Union University in Jackson, Tennessee, and also attended Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth, Texas. Jordan is the author of Life Change: Finding a New Way to Hope, Think, and Live. He and his wife, Audra, live in Cleveland, Tennessee, and are the proud parents of their two children, Jailee and Asher.

Ernest Easley is the teaching pastor over evangelism at First Baptist Church in Cleveland, Tennessee. He served as a lead pastor for over thirty-one years in Texas and Georgia and professor of evangelism for three years at Union University in Jackson, Tennessee. He studied at Baylor University, Dallas Baptist University, Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, and Luther Rice Seminary. Ernest is the author of Through the Valleys and contributor on sermonsearch.com and preaching.com. He and his wife, Julie, have three children and seven grandchildren.

SIMPLIFY THE MESSAGE: MULTIPLY THE IMPACT

CHRISTIAN MINISTRY

Deliver sermons with clarity, passion, and boldness.

Simplify the Message: Multiply the Impact is designed to help preachers break through the noise of culture and the cauldron of church to deliver sermons with clarity, passion, and boldness.

Paul told the Corinthians: "When I came to you, brothers and sisters, I didn't come preaching God's secrets to you like I was an expert in speech or wisdom. I had made up my mind not to think about anything while I was with you except Jesus Christ, and to preach him as crucified." (1 Corinthians 2:1-2, CEB)

Author Talbot Davis shares the insights and habits that will empower the reader's preaching and teaching to be:

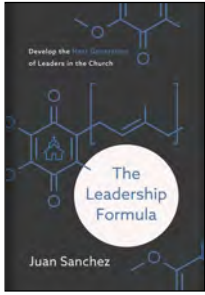

- Both creative and disciplined
- Both carefully prepared and thoroughly spontaneous
- Both rooted in history and connected to modernity

Simple is the opposite of simplistic. Sermons with clear & un-mistakable focus are best able to plumb the depths not only of Gospel beauty but of the hearers' lives.

This book meets the needs of both young preachers developing their skills who need structure, a process, and hope, and more seasoned preachers who may have "settled", needing tools to invigorate their preparation and inspire their delivery.

Talbot Davis is the pastor of Good Shepherd United Methodist Church in Charlotte, North Carolina, a congregation known for its ethnic diversity, outreach ministry, and innovative approach to worship. He has been repeatedly recognized for his excellence in congregational development. During his 10-year term as pastor at Mt. Carmel United Methodist Church prior to serving Good Shepherd, that congregation doubled in size and received the conference's "church of excellence" award six times. Talbot has also received the conference's Harry Denman Award for Excellence in Evangelism. Since Talbot began serving at Good Shepherd in 1999, average worship attendance has quadrupled, growing from 500 to 2000 each Sunday. Talbot holds a Bachelor of Arts in English from Princeton University and a Master of Divinity from Asbury Theological Seminary. THE LEADERSHIP FORMULA:
DEVELOP THE NEXT GENERATION OF LEADERS IN THE CHURCH

CHRISTIAN MINISTRY

We have a leadership problem, and we all know it.

When we look at our churches, we see two glaring problems: a lack of qualified leaders, and a general mistrust of leadership as a response to sinful leadership. But churches need leaders. What do we do? The answer is in The Leadership Formula.

T4G

Author is a speaker at the April 2020 TG4 (Together for the Gospel) conference.

In the New Testament, qualified leaders are identified by:

1. Character
2. Conviction
3. Care
4. Competency

When these four qualities are observed over time, the result is credibility.

Pastor and author Juan Sanchez helps readers know what to look for in leaders, how to identify them, and how to commission them in the church, for the sake of the world.

This book was originally published in Spanish by B&H Espanol.

Juan Sanchez has served as senior pastor of High Pointe Baptist Church in Austin, Texas, since 2005. He is a graduate of the University of Florida (B.M.Ed) and the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary (M.Div., Th.M., Ph.D.). Juan also serves as a council member of The Gospel Coalition, co-founder and president of Coalición, assistant professor of Christian theology at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, and president of the Southern Baptists of Texas Convention. Juan is the author of 1 Peter for You and Seven Dangers Facing Your Church.

WONDERING ABOUT THE BIBLE WITH CHILDREN: ENGAGING A CHILD'S CURIOSITY ABOUT THE BIBLE

CHRISTIAN MINISTRY

Help the Bible become a life-long companion for faith and spiritual growth for the children in your church.

Wondering about the Bible with Children encourages natural curiosity and wonder as biblical faith stories are read. This book addresses the following questions:

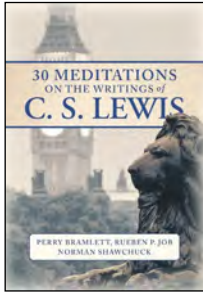

- How do we talk about miracle stories, healing stories, and the creation stories? What about violence?
- What's the reader's role in helping children learn about the Bible and feel comfortable asking questions about what they read?
- When kids ask about the relevancy of the Bible for today, what do we say?

How we read and interpret the Bible with children may mean the difference between whether or not it will continue to be an important source for their faith development as they become young adults. We want to teach them in ways that they don't have to unlearn later.

Written by an expert in children's ministry as a guide for anyone helping with the Celebrate Wonder Sunday school curriculum; however, it is relevant for all adults who want to explore ways to help children read, engage, wrestle, and grow into deeper understanding of the Bible. A great resource for those who come to the Bible with souls open to be fed and who want their children to seek faith and wisdom.

Elizabeth Caldwell teaches as Adjunct Faculty in Religious Education at Vanderbilt Divinity School in Nashville, TN. She recently retired as Harold Blake Walker Professor of Pastoral Theology and Associate Dean of Students and Academics at McCormick Theological Seminary in Chicago. She is ordained as Minister of Word and Sacrament by the Presbytery of Chicago. She was also the Common English Bible Readability Editor and wrote the "Life Preserver Notes" in the Deep Blue Kids Bible.

90 DAYS WITH THE GOD WHO SPEAKS

DEVOTIONAL

A devotional for men and women of all ages. It is your chance to take a chronological, Christ-centered journey through the story line of Scripture.

You will encounter God's plan of redemption in Scripture through the study of Bible narrative, the essential doctrines of the faith, and the call to join in God's mission locally and around the world.

Learn about the importance of God's communication, and the different ways in which He has chosen to communicate with us. God reveals Himself both through His creation and through His Word. However, we view God's Word with suspicion and doubt, even though it is perfectly true, trustworthy, and authoritative—just like its Author. Because of our response, Jesus became like us to take our place so we could share in His.

How will the gospel of Jesus Christ transform you over the next 90 days?

STRENGTH OF A WOMAN DEVOTIONAL: 30 DAYS TO CELEBRATING YOUR PLACE IN PROVERBS 31

DEVOTIONAL

You are stronger than you think.

Take a 31-day journey through a familiar passage and enjoy the power and dignity that God offers in His words over you.

As women we carry not only our own incredible loads and challenges but those of our loved ones as well. We are the ones who are expected to hold it all together. Sometimes shame and doubt take root, and we can lose sight of God's plan for us. But we are women. Women Scripture says are warriors and leaders.

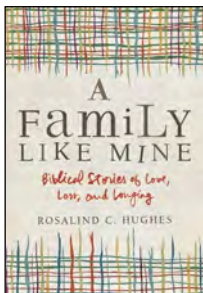

The poem known as Proverbs 31 details how we can yoke ourselves to Christ so we do not carry our burdens alone. Our legacy is not defined by the world. Your legacy is defined by God and is held deep within this familiar heroic hymn that God sings over you.

Based on the imagery of the Hebrew alphabet, these daily devotions will help you celebrate your God-given strength in the midst of a crazy, mixed up life. Enjoy the power and dignity within God's words over you!

Note: This devotional also has a companion book Strength of a Woman, Why you are Proverbs 31, which is on page 28.

Lauren Crews earned her master of divinity from New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary. An experienced leader in women's ministry, speaking and writing Bible studies, she is also a full-time schoolteacher and a part-time adjunct professor equipped to break down difficult concepts into easy-to-understand truths. A FAMILY LIKE MINE: BIBLICAL STORIES OF LOVE, LOSS, AND LONGING

FAMILY & RELATIONSHIPS

A comforting reminder that there's a place for everyone in God's family.

Families are complicated, and they always have been. A Family Like Mine explores the surprising variety of family stories and relationships reflected in the Bible, emphasizing God's grace, reconciliation, and renewal. The book tells the family stories of our spiritual ancestors in ways that resonate with our own family stories.

Author Rosalind Hughes weaves accounts of familiar and less well-known biblical characters with stories of family formation, estrangement, adoption, and more. She imaginatively retells biblical stories, inviting the reader to dig deeper into the motivations, disappointments, faith, and fulfillment we hold in common with our biblical ancestors.

Story-based and biblically informed, A Family Like Mine combines spiritual autobiography with Bible study to provide a gentle but probing look at the many "mansions" of God's household, where Jesus has prepared a place for all God's children. Reflection questions encourage readers to examine and compare their own family history and spiritual journey with the stories of families found in the Bible.

Great for:

- People who hunger to find their place in God's family
- Those who have moved away from the understanding of faith and family in which they were raised
- Study Groups

FAMILY & RELATIONSHIPS

Help! My husband's addicted to porn!

If these words are familiar to you or someone you know, you've found the right book. Fight For Love is a biblical battle plan for wives seeking to take their marriage back from porn.

Pornography is a billion-dollar industry, a national epidemic, seeping into our homes, and taking marriages captive. With God's help and a battle plan in hand, wives and their husbands can face the darkness and emerge victorious, taking back their marriages and families.

In these pages you'll discover:

- The science behind why your husband struggles to stop watching porn
- Why the wrong marital advice will only make things worse
- How to help your husband get free and stay free from porn
- How to best protect your kids and yourself from porn
- What fighting against porn will do for you, your marriage, your family, and your faith

While many wonderful and needed books address healing from the aftermath of porn, this compelling book empowers wives who want to stay and fight right now—for their marriage, for their family, and for love. Are you ready to step into the light and fight?

Rosie Makinney is a writer and speaker who ten years ago entered the fight against her husband's compulsive porn use. From the very beginning of her journey, Rosie has been bold and relentless about reaching other wives struggling with porn-invaded marriages and has built a recovery community on the central coast of California. Together with her husband, Mark, a certified sexual addiction therapist, Rosie founded Fight For Love Ministries, which takes a message of hope and truth into churches. Rosie is passionate about kick-starting this discussion among women to empower them with both the facts and the faith to fight against porn addiction and its effects on them, their spouses, and their families. THE POP CULTURE PARENT: HELPING KIDS ENGAGE THEIR WORLD FOR CHRIST

Parents often feel at a loss with popular culture and how it fits in with their families. They want to love their children well, but it can be overwhelming to navigate the murky waters of television, movies, games, and more that their kids are exposed to every day.

Popular culture doesn't have to be a burden. The Pop Culture Parent equips mothers, fathers, and guardians to build relationships with their children by entering into their popular culture-informed worlds, understanding them biblically, and passing on wisdom.

This resource provides Scripture-based, practical help for parents to enjoy the messy gift of popular culture with their kids. By engaging with their children's interests, parents can explore culture while teaching their children to become missionaries in a post-Christian world.

By providing realistic yet biblical encouragement for parents, the coauthors guide readers to engage with popular culture through a gospel lens, helping them teach their kids to understand and answer the challenges raised by popular culture.

The Pop Culture Parent helps the next generation of evangelicals move beyond a posture of cultural ignorance to one of cultural engagement, building grace-oriented disciples and cultural missionaries.

"Ted Turnau and his friends Stephen Burnett and Jared Moore have articulated essential counsel for parents struggling to adopt the right attitudes toward guiding their children, and themselves, into being 'in the world but not of it.' The book is founded upon nonnegotiable biblical principles: respect for children, the gift of culture, and the gospel against legalism or perfectionism. It is honest, at times painfully so, and real-life examples abound. But what permeates these pages is love, love that is based on God's grace and reflected in our understanding devotion to the family."
--William Edgar, Professor of Apologetics,
Westminster Theological Seminary, Philadelphia

Ted Turnau teaches culture, religion, and media studies at Anglo-American University in Prague, Czech Republic. He has a PhD from Westminster in apologetics and wrote Popologetics (2012) to help Christians engage popular culture. He and Carolyn have three grown children. He has also written for Christianity Today and Christ and Pop Culture. He and his wife, Lacy, live in the Austin, Texas area, and serve as church members and foster parents.

OUTBOUND TRAIN

FICTION: CONTEMPORARY

The Parker women struggle to make frayed ends meet in a town where they never quite do ... at least, not without expert weaving and a bit of brute force.

"Renea Winchester's storytelling is as real and authentically Southern as the clear water music of an Appalachian creek"
-- Lisa Wingate, #1 New York Times Bestselling Author

In 1976, memories from a night near the railroad tracks sixteen years earlier haunt Barbara Parker. She wrestles with past demons every night, then wakes to the train's five-thirty whistle. Exhausted and dreading the day, she keeps her hands busy working in Bryson City's textile plant, known as the "blue jean plant," all the while worrying about her teenage daughter, Carole Anne. The whistle of the train, the hum of those machines, and the struggle to survive drives Barbara. When an unexpected layoff creates a financial emergency, the desperate pressure of poverty is overwhelming.

Unbeknownst to Barbara, Carole Anne sneaks out at night to walk the tracks so she can work at Hubert's Bar. She's hoarding money with plans to drive her mother's rusty, unused Oldsmobile out of Bryson City, and never return. She only needs one opportunity ... if she can just find it.

When Carole Anne goes missing, Barbara finds herself at a crossroad—she must put aside old memories and past hurts to rely on a classmate for help finding her daughter. But this is the same man she blames for the incident years ago. Is she strong enough—or desperate enough—to do anything to keep her daughter safe?

Renea Winchester was born in Bryson City, North Carolina. She is the author of two nonfiction books set in Atlanta Georgia where she lived for 17 years. Outbound Train is her first novel.

FICTION: HISTORICAL

One forbidden love. Two broken hearts. Three little things.

Hattie Waltz should forget the troubled neighbor leaving for boot camp in 1917. He forgot about her ages ago. It had always been the Waltz's verses the Kreger's, his family pitted against hers. When she hands him a farewell gift, a chemistry lesson unfolds. The good kind.

One innocent letter soon morphs into many. Arno and Hattie share three little secrets in each letter and grow closer together. But he's on his way to a war across the ocean, and she's still in her father's house. Their newfound love will need to survive dangers on both fronts.

"Charming and moving, Three Little Things tells a sweet story of two wounded souls. Hattie and Arno are appealing characters, and their personal growth and their building romance will draw you in. The novel also sheds light on women's roles on the Home Front in WW I and the persecution of German-Americans, something rarely discussed. With touches of both humor and depth, this story is a keeper."
— Sarah Sundin, best-selling author

"I fell in love with Arno and Hattie...I want more...The promise of more books by Patti Stockdale. I want more!"
—Debbie Macomber, New York Times #1 Best-Selling Author

"A well-drawn cast of supporting characters creates a strong sense of community, and colorful colloquialisms ("whip-thin and homely as a cow pie") add flavor. Lovers of G-rated historical romance will be charmed by the earnest, emotionally vulnerable connection between these young lovers."
—Publisher's Weekly

DOUBT LESS: WHEN FAITH IS HARD

PERSONAL GROWTH

Is God good? Can I trust him with my life? Is the Bible true?

These are just some of the questions that can plague young adults as they stand at the crossroads of life, when new responsibilities loom large and the world around them treats God as a small or irrelevant part of life.

In Doubt Less, author and Cru campus minister Shelby Abbott comes alongside young Christians to help them honestly face their doubt and turn to God for the gift of faith. He reminds readers that biblical scripture recounts the stories of many men and women who have also faced deep misgivings and uncertainty in their walk of faith.

Using both Scripture and personal illustrations, Abbot shows us how to feed our faith in seasons of doubt through authentic relationships with other Christians, hearing from God in the Bible, and practicing thankfulness. Doubt should not scare us, nor should it become our obsession. He urges readers to see the difference between doubt and unbelief, assuring us that big questions can press us deeper into the heart and character of God rather than push us away from him.

Used for biblical reflection, group discussion, devotional reading, Doubt Less is full of gospel hope for those grappling with the mysteries of Christian faith.

Shelby Abbott is an author, campus minister, and conference speaker on staff with the ministry of Cru. His passion for university students has led him to speak at college campuses all over the United States and author the books Jacked, I Am a Tool (To Help with Your Dating Life), and Pressure Points: A Guide to Navigating Student Stress. He and his wife, Rachael, have two daughters and live in Downingtown, Pennsylvania.

THE VALUES OF JESUS: ALIGNING YOUR LIFE WITH HIS TEACHINGS

PERSONAL GROWTH

Are you a values-driven person? God has provided the standard. Learn how to live by His standards.

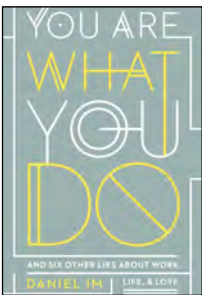

In a world of increasing moral relativism—where each person is empowered to decide for themselves what is right or wrong—The Values of Jesus reminds us God has set the standard.

Jesus, the ultimate authority and model of the Father’s heart, showed on earth and recorded in His Word what God values, and His teachings give us insight into the values that should shape our lives. He didn’t leave us to flounder. He left us empowered.

Pastor and storyteller David Crosby takes a look at the values reflected in Jesus’ teachings and shows us how to live those out in our own lives in key areas such as: love, family, finances, relationships, traditions, etc. As you align your values with His teachings, your life will change. As you live out the values of Jesus, those around you will be greatly impacted. Who will you begin to influence?

David Crosby is a pastor, author, and former who has helped countless people evaluate their values. Additionally, after one of the nation’s most horrific natural disasters, Hurricane Katrina, he and his church were responsible for deploying 21,000 volunteers to projects including 1,100 home recovery operations and 91 new home constructions. To this day, his former church deploys approximately 100 volunteers a week in a dozen intentional ministry outlets in the city. David, author of The Care Effect and Your Pain Is Changing You, is active in community and denominational affairs and has received many awards and recognitions for his civic involvement. He and his high school sweetheart Janet Rose Crosby split time between their farm in Texas and New Orleans and have three children and seven grandchildren.

CREATION REDISCOVERED: FINDING NEW MEANING IN AN ANCIENT STORY

SCIENCE & RELIGION

In this book, Jeffery Leonard writes to fellow travelers in the faith who want to take the biblical text seriously, while at the same time appreciate science's exploration of what we consider to be God's creation.

- Written by a Bible scholar Unique, timely, and fresh interpretation helps readers see the Bible's creation stories as vessels of healing and hope in God's larger plan for humanity.
- It attempts to redirect Christians to read the ancient creation stories within the context in which they were written.

Leonard guides readers through a contextual reading of the Bible's creation stories.

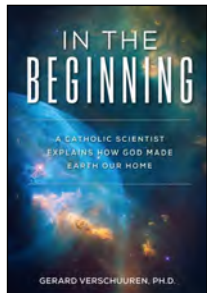

It is his contention that setting the Bible's creation texts back within their ancient context allows us to do both of these things. Indeed, Leonard believes that when we reread what the Bible has to say about creation in its original setting, We find meaning in the text far more profound than what we have previously imagined.

Over the last two centuries, few subjects have generated as much controversy for Christians as has creation. The whethers, whens, and hows of creation have often become a battlefield in which the pitched forces of competing sides—Darwinists and creationists, young-earthers and old-earthers, and literalists— have struggled for the upper hand. Like most battles, this fight has tended to inflict a fair amount of collateral damage along the way. This is especially true for those put in the terrible position of feeling they have had to choose between the Bible they have fallen in love with and the science they have studied.

While written for the classroom, the author writes in a "trade book" and engaging literary style.

Jeffery M. Leonard is Associate Professor of Religion at Samford University in Birmingham, AL, where he specializes in Hebrew, Hebrew Bible, and the ancient Near East. He received his MDiv from Alliance Theological Seminary in Nyack, NY, and his PhD from Brandeis University in Waltham, MA. When he is not sequestered away in his study or the classroom, Dr. Leonard will be found traveling, backpacking, reading, or just enjoying time with his beloved wife and two sons.

IN THE BEGINNING: A CATHOLIC SCIENTIST EXPLAINS HOW GOD MADE EARTH OUR HOME

SCIENCE AND RELIGION

The taste of fresh berries, the quiet cadence of waves lapping a lakeshore, the song of an owl in the night, the glory of a sunset: so many details manifest the reality that Earth is not merely the place where we are, but that it is truly our home and is meant to be our home. Most modern scientists dismiss this notion as romantic nonsense, arguing instead that Earth and, indeed, the entire universe is actually a cosmic accident, the mystifying result of billions of years of random events.

Here in this work of basic science written for non-specialists, scientist Gerard Verschuuren confronts those men and women on their own territory force for force, atom for atom, cell for cell, and even planet for planet.

With clear, well-documented explanations, he shows that the latest findings of modern cosmology, physics, chemistry, geology, and other sciences tell a remarkably different story. Instead of the vaunted randomness of our immense universe, scientists have recently discovered indisputable patterns in the structures of matter and energy. Over the eons, these distinctive patterns drove the universe inexorably toward formation of the Earth as what we experience it to be: our secure, exceptional, and singularly welcoming home.

In these pages, you'll learn, among other things:

- Why the universe is so old . . . and so vast!
- Earth's unique chemical and geological characteristics that make it a hospitable place for mankind
- How the moon became critical to life on Earth
- How volcanism, mass extinctions, and even changes in the Earth's orbit prepared the way for mankind
- Evidence that evolutionary changes are not, as the atheists claim, random
- Why the Catholic Church has always distinguished the Book of Scripture from the Book of Nature
- How science presupposes the existence of God without even realizing it!
- The limitations of the scientific method and how those limitations trip up scientists
- The many hidden, unscientific dogmas of science
- The errors of Stephen Hawking and other popular cosmologists
- Why science wrongly denies that the universe was made for mankind
- Evidence that we live in a purpose-driven world (and why science is blind to it)

Gerard Verschuuren is a scientist, writer, speaker, and consultant, working at the interface of science, philosophy, and religion. He is a human geneticist who earned a doctorate in the philosophy of science, and studied and worked at universities in Europe and the United States.

HANDLE WITH CARE: HOW JESUS REDEEMS THE POWER OF TOUCH IN LIFE AND MINISTRY

SOCIAL ISSUES

Our culture is in a time when reports of inappropriate touch are commonplace. In the church, we're not doing much better. On one hand, we give side hugs or instate six-inch rules. On the other, we find out—almost daily—about sexual misconduct, affairs, and abuse inflicted within our own walls.

Singles are staying single longer, dating is wrought with angst over purity, and marriages struggle to not interpret all forms of touch as sexual. We can't even talk about touching our own bodies without the underlying assumption that it must be sexual. There is simply no place in our culture—and in the church—where touch doesn't seem threatened or threatening.

In the laws within the Old Testament, there is a form of one statement made 38 times: "Do not touch." So much seems off-limits to the people of God. But a curious thing happens in the New Testament when Jesus begins His ministry: He touches. Jesus touches the sick and the outcasts, the bleeding and the unclean.

What could it mean for families, singles, marriages, churches, communities, and the world to have healthy, pure, faithful, ministering touch? Somewhere in the mess of our assumptions and fears about touch, there is something beautiful and good and God-given. As Jesus can show us, there is ministry in touching.

Lore Fergus Wilbert has lived all over the United States and is unsettled enough to call nowhere home, but she lives in Flower Mound, Texas, for now. She is a wife to her husband and a member of The Village Church where they both serve. She writes and edits full time for many publications like The Gospel Coalition, Christianity Today, Revive Our Hearts, Fathom Magazine, and The Ethics & Religious Liberty Commission on spiritual formation, faith, culture, and theology in life. You can read more of her work at sayable.net.
