LIFEWAY AND B&H PUBLISHING WON 25 AWARDS IN 2023!

In early December, the publishing arm of Lifeway Christian Resources, including B&H Publishing Group, received more than two dozen awards and acknowledgments from Christianity Today, The Gospel Coalition, Southwestern Journal of Theology, World Books of the Year and the ECPA Top Shelf Book Cover Awards.

"I'm so proud of B&H Publishing's authors and publishing professionals," said Devin Maddox, director of B&H books. "Year after year, their work is recognized as being among the top Christian publishers in the world. It's exciting to see the way God continues to use Christian books in His work to disciple His church."

invite RESOURCES

Invite Resources invites all people to discover a deeper faith and relationship with Jesus Christ. Their resources help you to understand what it means to live like Jesus. It's titles come from a Wesleyan/ Arminian theological perspective, emphasize the Lordship of Jesus Christ, minimize partisan politics, and are biased toward innovation over constitutionalism.

Categories they publish include Bible studies, devotionals, loss / suffering / grief, ministry, personal growth, relationships, spiritual growth, the new creation, and theology.

Their key backlist and new releases are in the catalog in their respective categories. However, these are their best sellers!

DYNAMITE PRAYER, A 28-Day Experiment by Rosario Picardo and Sue Nilson Kibbey

Break through the walls of your prayer life and discover miraculous new possibilities. This daily prayer guide will show you how to begin a practice of "breakthrough prayer", a way of praying where we ask God to open new doors and reveal new possibilities, fueled by the Spirit's power. This 28-day adventure will take you from feeling stuck, overwhelmed, and uninspired to curious and expectant as you surrender your own preferences and ideas and courageously follow the miracles God brings in your life through prayer.

TELOS: THE HOPE OF HEAVEN TODAY by Leonard Sweet and Len Wilson

Are we living through the beginning of the end? The end has indeed begun – but it is not the special effects explosion many of us imagine. For too long, we've gotten the end wrong, which leads to poor decisions with dead-end consequences. We need a better vision of the end to live a better Christian story. Telos argues for a new way of looking at the end: as the culmination of God's grand story. It introduces Jesus' most important word in describing the end: the Greek word telos. Telos is the rhythm of human history, God's presence, the plot, purpose, and completion of the story. The end is the kingdom of God, and the kingdom is here and now.

THE SECRET POWER OF KINDNESS, 10 Keys to Unlocking Your Capacity to Change the World by Greg Atkinson

Don't we all agree that the world needs more kindness? As Christians, we believe that kindness is one of the fruits of the Spirit that flows out of us naturally when we are abiding in Christ. The more time you spend with Jesus, the kinder you will be. But kindness is also a choice that comes out of a soul at peace with itself, a soul that feels free. Atkinson will show you some ways that you can begin to unlock the prison walls surrounding you, those fears and feelings that are keeping you from feeling God's joy within and from expressing that joy in kindness toward others.

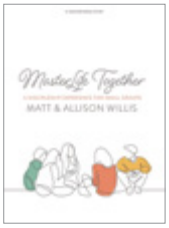

THE PING LIFE: HOW TO PICK UP THE SIGNAL WHEN GOD IS CALLING by Shane Bishop

The word "ping" is a noun: a prompt from the Holy Spirit; a heavenly signal in search of an earthly response. Pastor Shane Bishop teaches you how to establish a baseline of Christian discipleship and tune your receiver to the frequency of God's voice so you can hear "pings" from the Holy Spirit and develop sustainable spiritual rhythms. Filled with stories of ordinary humans who listened to God's pings and became part of Kingdom history, this is an entertaining, easy read that will inspire you, free you, and invite you into an adventure with God.

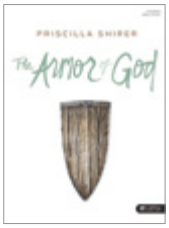

Lifeway global

RIGGINS RIGHTS MANAGEMENT has represented B&H Publishing, a Division of Lifeway since 2006. We are now excited to announce expanded representation.

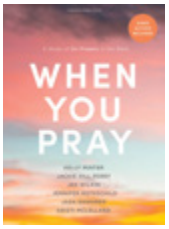

The Global Division of Lifeway Christian Resources and B&H Espanol have curated 20 of their best Bible studies and series to be licensed in other languages. Their resources will be doctrinally sound and faithful to the Scriptures while reflecting the diversity and culture of the broad evangelical faith. We are highlighting a few key global-appropriate studies. Ask your Riggins Rights representative for the full list.

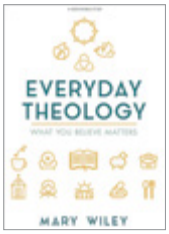

MASTERLIFE TOGETHER is a discipleship experience incorporating key components from the original MasterLife Series but is written for a new global generation of believers. Simple yet comprehensive, this resource offers five daily exercises to be done individually each week, enhanced by the authenticity and accountability of a small group study of 12 sessions. Designed to help both new Christians and experienced believers, participants will learn to follow Jesus with all that they have and all that they are.

THE ARMOR OF GOD by Priscilla Shirer - Best Seller with over 1 million copies sold!
All day, every day, an invisible war rages around you — unseen, unheard, yet felt throughout every aspect of your life. A devoted, devilish enemy seeks to wreak havoc on everything that matters to you: your heart, your mind, your marriage, your children, your relationships, your resilience, your dreams, your destiny. But his battle plan depends on catching you unaware and unarmed. The Armor of God study is more than merely a biblical description of the believer's inventory...it is an action plan for putting it on and developing a personalized strategy to secure victory.

WHEN YOU PRAY by Kelly Minter, Jackie Hill Perry, Jen Wilkin, Jennifer Rothschild, Jada Edwards, and Kristi McLelland
Amazon Top Seller! Join with six beloved Bible teachers who will help you study prayers in the Bible that can inspire your own. You'll learn that God welcomes your praise and lament, your thanksgiving and intercession. You'll see examples of how to pray when you're alone and when you're gathered with others. Above all, you'll notice there is no one right way to pray. As you draw near to God through prayer, you'll find your faith strengthened and your heart united to Christ. Each author contributes one chapter.

EVERYDAY THEOLOGY: WHAT YOU BELIEVE MATTERS by Mary Wiley
Theology is the study of God, what He has done, is and will do in the world. And it's not just for those with formal education or working at your church. It's for you in your everyday moments, questions, and decisions. It's for the big and little, the exciting and mundane. Our theology is the basis of our faith and touches every part of our existence. In this 8-session study by Mary Wiley, explore 8 essential doctrines: Scripture, God, Jesus, the Holy Spirit, humanity, salvation, the church, and the end times.

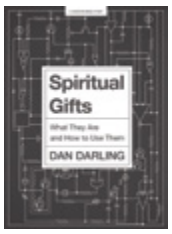

DESPERATE FOR HOPE: QUESTIONS WE ASK GOD IN SUFFERING, LOSS, AND LONGING by Vaneetha Risner
When life falls apart, it's easy to feel alone and slip into despair—disillusioned with God, hopeless about the future, and doubting your faith. Risner tackles the hard questions and offers a scriptural framework to help you find hope in your pain. She will be a gracious guide through this difficult topic, walking with you as you meet women in the Bible who suffered loss, and sharing her own experiences of longing and grief. In the end, you'll find that the answers to your deepest questions can be found in the character, goodness, and sovereignty of God.

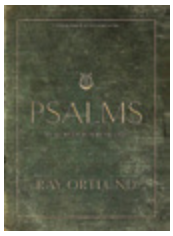

MY NEW LIFE

This study helps new believers grow in the knowledge of God's Word and provide a foundation on which daily trust in Jesus will grow for the rest of their lives. The new Christian can become easily overwhelmed trying to figure out how to be a Christ-follower. For the believer to grow, it's necessary to understand God's Word, God's character, prayer, the gospel, and so much more. This study explains these deep truths in short and simple-to-understand chapters. (Spanish published by B&H Espanol, all other languages available)

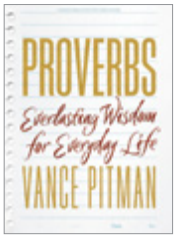

SPIRITUAL GIFTS: WHAT THEY ARE AND HOW TO USE THEM by Daniel Darling

The topic of spiritual gifts is both popular and often misunderstood. This Bible study examines spiritual gifts biblically, helping participants see what the gifts are (and are not). Each session answers a specific common question about spiritual gifts, including how to discover and use the gifts God has given you. There are seven sessions with personal study opportunities, a leader guide, and link to an assessment for how to discern and use spiritual gifts.

PSALMS: REAL HELP FOR REAL LIFE by Roy Ortlund

Psalms is an ancient book that spans many centuries and relies on multiple authors. But it is easier to understand than you may realize. And studying them can lead you to new discoveries, relief, awe, and surprise. In this study, Ray Ortlund will help you see that the Psalms are a place that God has provided to encounter Him and find help, rest, honesty, hope, courage, joy, and the confidence you need to face this crazy life.

PROVERBS: EVERLASTING WISDOM FOR EVERYDAY LIFE by Vance Pitman

Men will take a month-long journey through all 31 chapters of Proverbs to develop a daily habit of seeking wisdom from God's Word. Readers will learn how to understand and interpret proverbs, distinguish worldly wisdom from godly wisdom, and more as they explore major themes of Proverbs like wisdom, humility, hard work, wealth, relationships, and leadership. (Spanish and Portuguese licensed, all other languages available)

ANXIOUS: FIGHT ANXIETY WITH THE WORD OF GOD by Scarlett Hiltbidal

We live in a broken, sad, scary place. There's plenty to worry about, and the world is full of faulty solutions for our anxieties. But true peace comes when we learn to hold God's Word up to what worries us. The Bible tells us we can rest, knowing that Jesus walked into the broken, sad, scary places to rescue us and love us. He is the One who fixes. His is the only protection that matters. Also available: ASHAMED: FIGHT SHAME WITH THE WORD OF GOD by Scarlett Hiltbidal

THE DISCIPLES PATH SERIES

Disciples Path is a series of resources founded on Jesus' model of discipleship. These resources follow the principles of modeling, practicing, and multiplying. Appropriate for groups or one-on-one mentoring, each book uses teaching, questions, conversation, exercises, and individual study to facilitate transformational discipleship.

THE GOSPEL FOUNDATIONS SERIES

From the creators of The Gospel Project, this six-volume resource is comprehensive in scope yet concise enough to be completed in just one year. Each seven-session volume provides participants a clear understanding of how each text fits into the storyline of Scripture. The optional video component is easy to dub into your language. (Spanish published by B&H Espanol)

THE STORYTELLER SERIES

The Storyteller series makes Bible study beautifully simple. It is designed to be inviting, interactive, and intuitive. Each page draws you into the story revealed in the biblical text, the larger story of Scripture it's connected to, and how you have been invited to participate in that story yourself. It also includes an open, inviting design with stunning black-and-white photography.

MESSIANIC JEWISH Publishers & Resources

Jewish New Testament

A Translation by David Stern (updated)

Edited by David H. Stern

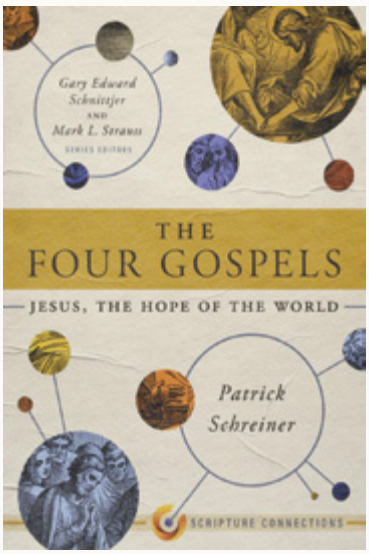

Messianic Jewish Publishers
ISBN 9781951833336 | 436 pages
Pub Date: 02/06/24

Why is this New Testament different from all other New Testaments? Because the Jewish New Testament expresses its original and essential Jewishness. The New Testament is a Jewish book—by Jews, mostly about Jews, and for Jews as well as Gentiles. Its central figure, the Messiah Yeshua (Jesus), was and is a Jew. Vicarious atonement, salvation, immersion (baptism), the new covenant and the very concept of a Messiah are all Jewish. In sum, the New Testament is built upon and completes the Hebrew Scriptures. The Jewish New Testament brings out Jewishness in three ways:

- Cosmetically—by using neutral terms and Hebrew names: "execution-stake," not "cross"; "Ya'akov," not "James."
- Culturally and Religiously—by highlighting Jewish features: "Chanukkah," not "the feast of dedication"; "tzitzit," not "fringe."
- Theologically—by correcting mistranslations resulting from anti-Jewish theological bias; for example: Romans 10:4 the Messiah is "the goal at which the Torah aims," not "the end of the law."

Freshly rendered from the original Greek into enjoyable modern English by a Messianic Jew (a Jew who honors Yeshua as the Messiah of Israel), the "Jewish New Testament" challenges Jews to understand that Yeshua is a friend to every Jewish heart and the New Testament a Jewish book filled with truths to be accepted and acted upon.

DAVID HAROLD STERN (born October 31, 1935 - October 8, 2022) was an American-born Messianic Jewish theologian of Israeli residence. Stern's background included a Master of Divinity degree from Fuller Theological Seminary, a graduate course at the University of Judaism (now the American Jewish University), and a Ph.D. in economics from Princeton University. He taught the first course in 'Judaism and Christianity' at Fuller Theological. One unique feature of Stern's translation is the wide usage of transliteration, rather than literal translation, throughout the Bible. For the New Testament, Greek proper nouns are often replaced with transliterated Hebrew words. Stern himself refers to this as a "cosmetic" treatment. Other notable characteristics of Stern's translation include the translating of Greek phrases about "the law" as having to do with "Torah-legalism" instead.

SCRIPTURE CONNECTION SERIES

The Four Gospels

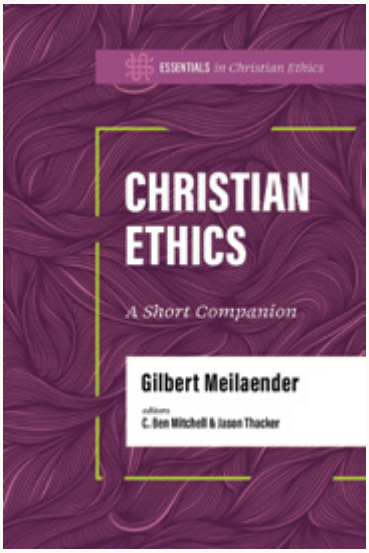

Jesus, the Hope of the World

By Patrick Schreiner

In The Four Gospels: Jesus, the Hope of the World, Patrick Schreiner demonstrates the critical importance of the gospel narratives, not only as the stories of our Savior, but also as the climax of God's story. Schreiner's close and nuanced readings of the Gospels skillfully illustrate how the stories of Jesus, and even his very words, interact with the preceding testimony of Israel. For each Gospel, he provides outlines, an overview of the book's content, and an examination of theological themes and emphases. Schreiner concludes each chapter with an examination of the Gospel as a discipleship text, giving insight into what it means to follow Jesus.

PATRICK SCHREINER (PhD, The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary) is associate professor of New Testament and biblical theology at Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

ESSENTIALS IN CHRISTIAN ETHICS SERIES

Christian Ethics

A Short Companion

By Gilbert Meilaender

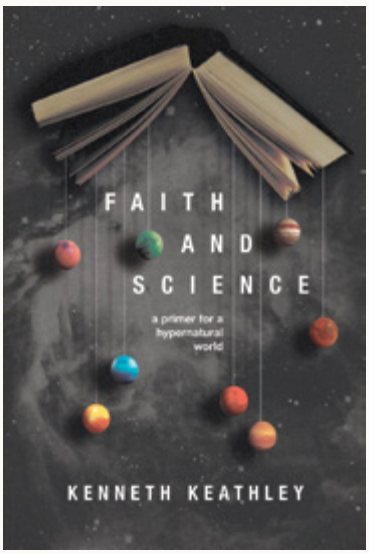

Christian Ethics: A Short Companion is a concise and illuminating exploration of the foundational aspects of Christian ethics. Readers will be empowered to live out their faith with wisdom, grace, and moral clarity—but most of all, with love.

Jesus's final command to his disciples at the Last Supper is a calling to an ethic of love. In Christian Ethics: A Short Companion, renowned ethicist Gilbert Meilaender makes the case that all Christian ethics are an outworking of this command to love one another.

Meilaender accordingly lays out a vision for the spirit and structure of the Christian life, while drawing directly upon theologians from the early church to the Reformation to today.

GILBERT MEILAENDER (PhD, Princeton University) is senior research professor at Valparaiso University and the Paul Ramsey Fellow at the Notre Dame Center for Ethics and Culture.

CHRIST IN EVERYTHING SERIES

Faith and Science

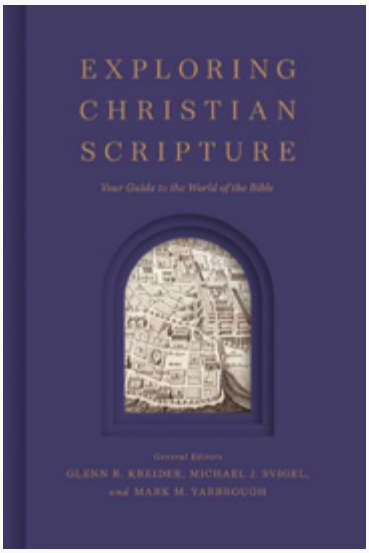

A Primer for a Hypernatural World

By Kenneth Keathley

The Christ in Everything series exists to demonstrate how Christ is connected to all of life. The primers in this series serve as introductions to important cultural topics, including science, freedom, politics, beauty, and the nature of truth.

Kenneth Keathley's Faith and Science demonstrates how science is a providential gift from God and why Christians should enter scientific vocations with enthusiasm and confidence. This work spells out what science is, explains its origins, and guides believers about the best ways to engage with science. Kenneth Keathley argues that, rather than acting as opposing forces, scientific inquiry and the Christian faith go hand-in-hand.

KENNETH KEATHLEY (PhD, Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary) is senior professor of theology and the Jesse Hendley Chair of Theology at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Exploring Christian Scripture

Your Guide to the World of the Bible

Glenn Kreider, Michael Svigel and Mark Yarbrough (General editors)

Exploring Christian Scripture provides a robust introductory overview of the narrative of Scripture and guides to how to locate the particulars of each biblical book within this narrative. It offers a collection of resources to familiarize lay and student audiences with the structure, context, and content of each book of the Bible and instructs on how to read it, with an eye toward personal spiritual growth and practical application.

GLENN R. KREIDER (PhD, Dallas Theological Seminary) is editor-in-chief of the journal Bibliotheca Sacra and professor of theological studies at Dallas Seminary. MICHAEL J. SVIGEL (PhD, Dallas Theological Seminary) is chair and professor of Theological Studies at Dallas Seminary. MARK M. YARBROUGH (PhD, Dallas Theological Seminary) is president of Dallas Seminary and professor of Bible Exposition.

THEOLOGY FOR THE PEOPLE OF GOD SERIES

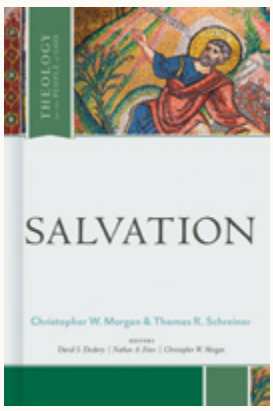

Special Revelation and Scripture

By David S Dockery and Malcolm B. Yarnell

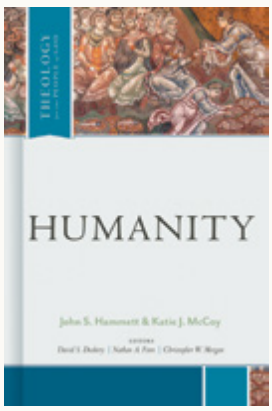

The doctrine of special revelation and the role of Holy Scripture have been central to the Christian faith for two thousand years. Yet, the nature, authority, and interpretation of the Bible continue to be discussed and debated. In their book Special Revelation and Scripture, David S. Dockery and Malcolm B. Yarnell III explore the fundamental elements of divine revelation, such as inspiration, reliability, and authority, and how these elements influence and shape the Christian's understanding of theological doctrines, ethical teachings, and matters concerning worldview.

The authors affirm the special nature of Scripture by highlighting its essential attributes of truthfulness, inerrancy, sufficiency, and authority. They conclude by emphasizing the Holy Spirit's role in illuminating Scripture for the development of theology and practice within the church.

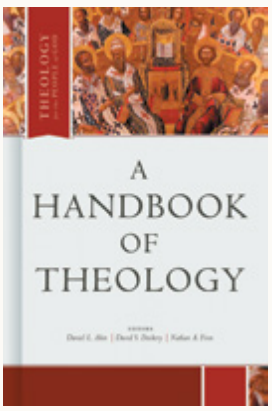

DAVID S. DOCKERY (PhD University of Texas System) is president of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and president of the International Alliance for Christian Education. MALCOLM B. YARNELL III (DPhil, Oxford University) is research professor of theology in the School of Theology at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

The Pastor as Apologist

Restoring Apologetics to the Local Church

By Dayton Hartman and Michael Mc Ewen

In The Pastor as Apologist, Dayton Hartman and Michael McEwen attempt to recapture the pastoral role of apologetics. By ably speaking to their congregations about apologetical issues, pastors can be the first line of defense against doubt and attacks on the faith. Interweaving historical, theological, and philosophical attention to the conversation, Hartman and McEwen argue that every pastor is an apologist who then invites the church to embody its apologetic identity.

DAYTON HARTMAN (PhD, North-West University) is the lead pastor at Redeemer Church in Rocky Mount, NC. MICHAEL MCEWEN (PhD, Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary) is the content editor for B&H Academic and serves as the associate pastor of equipping at First Baptist Church in Starkville, MS.

Telos

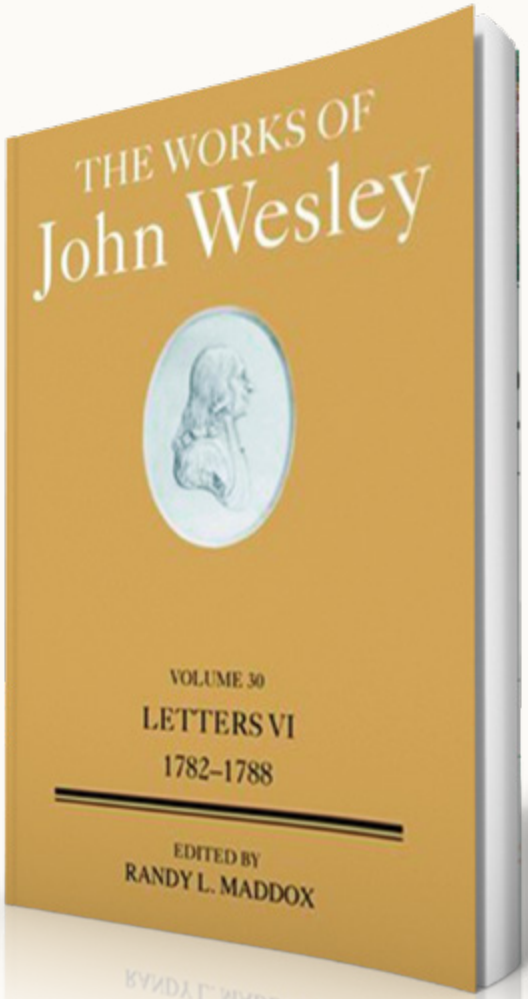

The Hope of Heaven Today

By Leonard Sweet and Len Wilson

Welcome to a better way of looking at the end: as the culmination of God's grand story. Jesus' most important word in describing the end is the Greek word telos. Telos is the rhythm of human history; the presence of God; and the plot, purpose, and completion of the story. The end is the kingdom of God, and the kingdom is here and now. Sweet and Wilson show how many of the political problems plaguing modern Christianity are rooted in bad theology. God's kingdom is the present reality of the presence of God that gives us hope for today and tomorrow.

LEONARD SWEET is the author of Giving Blood, Nudge, So Beautiful and I Am a Follower. Leo often appears on "Most Influential Christians in America" listings and was selected by the top non-English Christian website as one of the "Top 10 Influential World Christians of 2010". Len works with doctoral students at four institutions: Drew University, George Fox University Northwind Seminary, and Evangelical Seminary (Kairos). LEN WILSON is Executive Director of Invite Resources and publisher of Invite Press. Len's other works include Greater Things, Think Like a 5-Year-Old, Taking Flight with Creativity, and The Wired Church. Len holds a Doctor of Ministry degree in Semiotics and Future Studies from Portland Seminary, where he serves as Project Faculty to doctoral students.

THE WORKS OF JOHN WESLEY SERIES

The Works of John Wesley, Vol. 30

By Randy L. Maddox (Editor)

The correspondence presented in this sixth volume of Wesley's letters covers the period when Methodists in North America, by a "strange providence," were severed from their relationship with the Church of England. Wesley made heroic efforts to provide them with ordained clergy and other materials they would need in their life as a "church." It also illuminates the tensions that John's decision to ordain clergy for Methodists outside of England created within his connection in England—particularly with his brother Charles. The volume includes over 200 items not found in previous editions of Wesley's letters.

RANDY L. MADDOX is William Kellon Quick Professor Emeritus of Wesleyan and Methodist Studies at Duke Divinity School in Durham, NC, and general editor of the Bicentennial Edition of The Works of John Wesley.

10 Women Who Changed the World

Inspiring Female Missionaries Who Fulfilled the Great Commission

By Daniel L. Akin

10 Women Who Changed the World is seminary president Daniel L. Akin's powerful tribute to the transformational work done by some truly inspiring female Christian missionaries. With each profile, he journeys into the heart of that gospel servant's mission-minded story and makes a compelling connection to a similar account from the Bible. By reading each missionary story, and how each woman embodies a certain passage of Scripture, prepare to be challenged and inspired to follow in their footsteps—because intentionally living on mission isn't something reserved for heroes of the past. It's something each one of us can pursue in everyday life!

DANIEL L. AKIN is the president of Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Wake Forest, North Carolina. He holds a Ph.D. in Humanities from the University of Texas at Arlington and is the author of 10 Who Changed the World and God on Sex, as well as co-author of Pastoral Theology: Theological Foundations for Who a Pastor Is and What He Does.

Criswell

His Life and Times

By O. S. Hawkins

When the name W. A. Criswell is read or heard, certain thoughts come to mind. Many likely remember him as a president of the Southern Baptist Convention, or the founder of the Criswell College in Dallas, Texas, or the senior pastor for five decades of one of the largest Baptist churches in America, or even one of the key figures during the Conservative Resurgence. All of these are acknowledgments of the importance of the life of Criswell, but these do not necessarily capture who he was as a man, as a husband, as a father, as a friend and mentor.

O. S. HAWKINS, a native of Fort Worth, Texas, is a graduate of TCU (BBA) and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary (MDiv, PhD). He is Senior Advisor and Ambassador at Large for Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. He is the former pastor of the historic First Baptist Church in Dallas, Texas.

Painting With Ashes

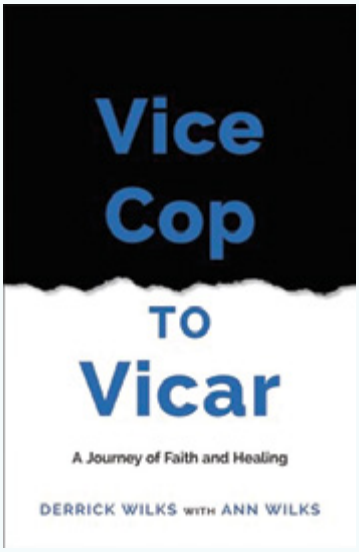

When Your Weakness Becomes Your Superpower

By Michael Adam Beck

A story about trauma, healing, and creating beauty from brokenness. In Painting with Ashes, Michael Beck tells his raw and powerful story of overcoming addiction and becoming a pastor on a mission to rethink church as a healing community that is safe, accessible, and real.

For anyone who has felt unworthy, who has hit rock bottom, who has been hurt by the church, or who has felt like an outcast, Painting with Ashes will invite you into a journey of healing where all are met with compassion, where transformation happens as we hold space for each other's wounds, and where everyone has beauty to share . Discover how God can bring forth beauty from ashes by getting down in the gray soot of our wounds to paint our lives beautiful again.

MICHAEL ADAM BECK was abandoned by his biological mother, biological father unknown, his grandparents died when he was young. He became a street kid, ninth-grade drop-out, and repeat felon. He was picked up by the local Methodist church and nurtured in a community of love and forgiveness. Today, Dr. Michael Beck is the Director of the Fresh Expressions House of Studies at United Theological Seminary.

Vice Cop to Vicar

A Journey of Faith and Healing

Derrick Wilks with Ann Wilks

Vice Cop to Vicar chronicles the extraordinary journey of one man through the darkest corridors of crime, trauma, and personal anguish to a profound transformation guided by faith, resilience, and compassion. This book is a poignant testimony of the human spirit's resilience, the transformative power of faith, and the unwavering hope that emerges from the depths of despair. It is a story of redemption, courage, and the unwavering belief that even in the face of unspeakable darkness, light can eventually pierce through.

DERRICK WILKS was born in a small market town in Yorkshire, England. He was studying industrial chemistry until a chance encounter with a policeman resulted in him changing careers and joining the police. He spent the next 22 years in a variety of frontline posts culminating in the CID. He left the police on ill-health grounds.

A MEDITATIVE COMMENTARY ON THE OLD TESTAMENT SERIES

Genesis

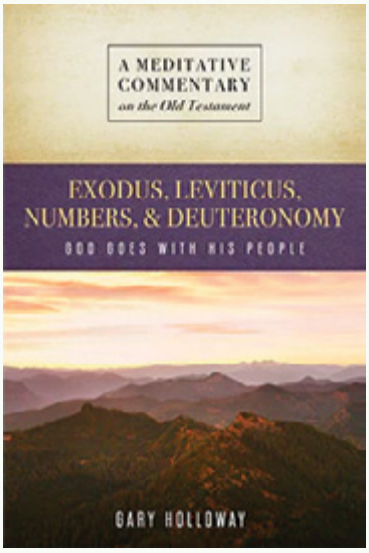

God Creates His People

By Gary Holloway

Genesis tells of a faithful God. And the Lord in turn expects his people to be faithful. That means trusting him, especially when his ways do not make sense. Abraham is willing to sacrifice his own son. Joseph trusts even when he is a slave and a prisoner. As we meditate on these stories of those who trusted, followed, and wrestled with God, let us open ourselves to his Spirit. Let us trust his inscrutable ways. Let us believe God so he might, through his covenant of love, count us as righteous.

GARY HOLLOWAY holds degrees from Freed-Hardeman, Harding, the University of Texas, and Emory University. He has written or edited over thirty books, including several volumes in the Meditative Commentary on the New Testament series.

Exodus to Deuteronomy

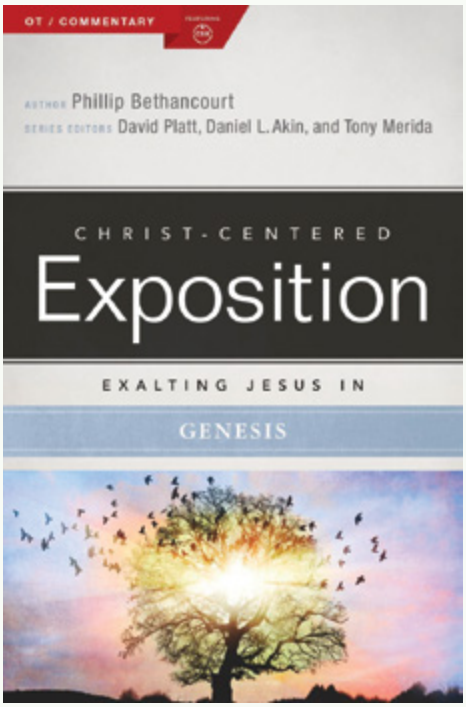

God Goes With His People

By Gary Holloway

Have you ever started reading the Old Testament and got stuck in the law of Leviticus? If so, get unstuck with trusted teacher Gary Holloway.

The stories of Exodus—Deuteronomy remind us that right relationship with God is reflected in right relationship with the neighbor. God's people are often reminded of their obligations to family, tribe, and nation. What's more, they are to have right relationships with strangers and foreigners, remembering that God has love for all nations. The Lord calls them to treat people, animals, and the land as God treats them. They are to be "for me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation" (Exod. 19:6).

While you might get lost in Leviticus, you must remember that obedience is all about relationship to God. That's why Israel is often reminded of what the law and obedience are about: "Love the Lord you God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength" (Deut. 6:5).

CHRIST-CENTERED EXPOSITION COMMENTARY SERIES

Exalting Jesus in Genesis

By Phillip Bethancourt

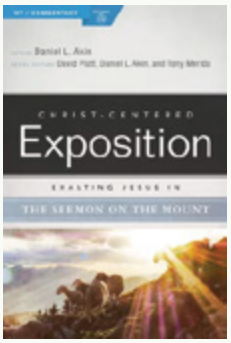

Exalting Jesus in Genesis is part of the Christ-Centered Exposition Commentary series. Edited by David Platt, Daniel L. Akin, and Tony Merida, this commentary series, to include 47 volumes when complete, takes a Christ-centered approach to expositing each book of the Bible. Rather than a verse-by-verse approach, the authors have crafted chapters that explain and apply key passages in their assigned Bible books.

Readers will learn to see Christ in all aspects of Scripture, and they will be encouraged by the devotional nature of each exposition presented as sermons and divided into chapters that conclude with a "Reflect and Discuss" section, making this series ideal for small group study, personal devotion, and even sermon preparation. It's not academic but rather presents an easy reading, practical and friendly commentary.

Habakkuk

By Susan Maxwell Booth

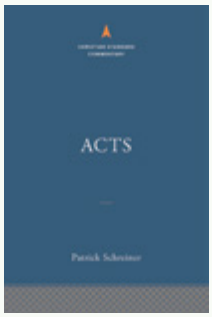

Habakkuk is part of The Christian Standard Commentary (CSC) series. This commentary series focuses on the theological and exegetical concerns of each biblical book, thoughtfully balancing rigorous scholarship with practical application. This series helps the reader understand each biblical book's theology, its place in the broader narrative of Scripture, and its importance for the church today. Drawing on the wisdom and skills of dozens of evangelical authors, the CSC is a tool for enhancing and supporting the life of the church.

SUSAN MAXWELL BOOTH (Ph.D. Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary) is Professor of Evangelism and Missions at the Canadian Baptist Theological Seminary & College in Cochrane, Alberta, Canada. Her writings include The Tabernacling Presence of God: Mission and Gospel Witness and Longing for Home: Tracing the Path of God's Story to Find Your True Home.

ULTIMATE GUIDE SERIES

Ultimate Guide to Heaven and Hell

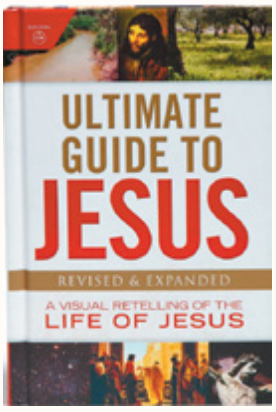

By E. Ray Clendenen

What happens after we die? The Ultimate Guide to Heaven and Hell is a summary guide to the afterlife that seeks to provide answers based on biblical teaching. Throughout, readers will encounter questions like: What is heaven, and how can I be sure I will get there? Is it different from the new heavens and the new earth? Will my body be there, or just my spirit/soul? What is hell, and how can I be sure to avoid it?

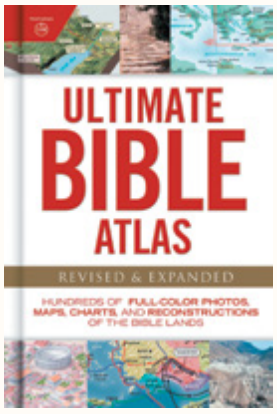

E. RAY CLENDENEN holds graduate degrees from Dallas Theological Seminary, Dropsie University, and the University of Texas at Arlington (PhD). He has written Bible commentaries, articles on biblical and theological topics, and a book on Bible translation.

TRAIL GUIDE TO THE SCRIPTURES SERIES

Trail Guide to the Scriptures | 1 Peter

By Shane L. Bishop

Part commentary, part historical nonfiction, part story that you can't put down, Trail Guide to the Scriptures take you verse-by-verse through a book of the Bible while showing you what it means for your life today. With each book broken into "episodes" that pull you into the plot, you will discover how engaging and exciting Scripture can be and learn what it says for yourself and how it applies to your life today.

Written to new converts in the early church who were learning how to withstand persecution, 1 Peter holds deep wisdom for our modern times where there is more pressure than ever to comply and conform to the culture around you. You will learn how to live peacefully in a society that thinks differently from you; find perspective, encouragement, and hope for when being a Christian is challenging, countercultural, and misunderstood; and hold onto eternal hope when your faith comes with a cost.

SHANE L. BISHOP has graduated cum laude in 1992 from Candler School of Theology at Emory University. With his strengths of vision casting, preaching, teaching, soul winning and leadership, Christ Church weekend worship attendance has increased under his leadership from 200 in 1997 to over 3,000 each week in 2021.

Biblical Answers to Your Toughest Questions

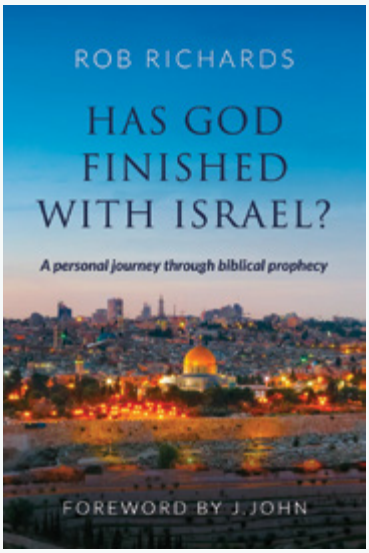

By Dr. Walter Ralston Martin

You've got questions? Walter Martin's got answers. "The Bible Answer Man" responds to over 100 questions on such topics as the Trinity, the Bible, the Church, daily Christian living, and others, culled from his radio show and live events. Compiled and edited by Dr. Martin's daughter, Jill Martin Rische.

WALTER RALSTON MARTIN (1928–1989), was a Christian apologist who founded the Christian Research Institute in 1960, specializing in information in both general Christian and counter-cult apologetics. He is best known as author of the definitive work on cults, The Kingdom of the Cults.

Walter Martin had a reputation for providing clear-cut answers to some of the thorniest questions about God, the Bible, cults, the end times, and other issues that often puzzle believers—and unbelievers, too. Here are his responses to queries from radio and live audiences over decades of ministry — all from a consistently biblical perspective. Got a question? Walter Martin has probably been asked it! Dive in and be prepared for some wise counsel from Scripture.

Context

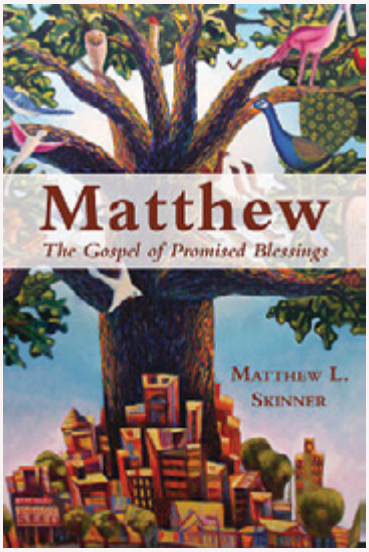

Putting the Scripture in Its Place

By Josh Scott

Context looks at verses we know by heart but may not know the people, places, and times that give them meaning. Josh Scott delves into well-known scripture verses, exploring their true meanings by examining them in their original biblical context. Through this process, he unveils fresh and enlightening interpretations that are often missed when these scriptures are taken out of context. The book can be read alone or used by small groups anytime throughout the year. Components include video teaching sessions featuring Josh Scott and a comprehensive Leader Guide, making this perfect as a six-week group study.

JOSH SCOTT has been a pastor for the last two decades, spending 14 years leading a progressive church in rural Kentucky before moving to Nashville and serving as the Lead Pastor at GracePointe Church in April 2019. Josh is an active voice in the conversation of imagining the future of progressive Christianity.

Tethered Trust

A Girlfriend Gathering Study of Isaiah 9:6

By Becky Harling

Trust. Sounds simple. But trust is a complicated and delicate matter. We know we should trust God, yet we grapple with the question: How do we actually do that?

Especially when life presents unexpected trials, trusting a God we can't see seems like a big challenge. In Tethered Trust, best-selling author Becky Harling invites you to look at one small yet life-changing verse. In this study, you'll learn how Jesus wants us to know and trust Him as the "Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, [and] Prince of Peace" (Isaiah 9:6).

BECKY HARLING is a best-selling author, popular speaker at retreats and conferences, and the host of The Connected Mom podcast. Her life experience as a pastor's wife, parent, grandparent, women's ministries director, and survivor of breast cancer all bring depth and transparency to her message.

WORD FOR WORD BIBLE COMIC SERIES

The Song of Songs

By Pillaro, Simon Armadeus

Passionate love, marriage and sexual desire intertwine in this ancient poem by the renowned King Solomon. This graphic novel includes every word of this scripture, chapter and verse, and is visualized within its historical, cultural and geographical context. While there is no nudity, the adult themes give an advisory rating of 12+. The central character in this ancient love poem is a woman who pursues and is pursued by her beloved. It is a celebration of love, marriage and desire between a man and woman, while poetically pointing to the deeper truth of the love between God and his people.

The Word for Word Bible Comic series is a word-for-word comic presentation of the Bible (NIV), using a bold contemporary style and historical accuracy to bring out the impact and excitement within the Scriptures.

SIMON AMADEUS PILLARIO has a degree in graphic design and has been professionally illustrating comics since 2002 and has a love of Dark Horse and Image comics, especially B.P.R.D. and anything by Mike Mignola.

Kids in the Bible

33 Bible Stories About God's Children

By Caroline Saunders and Carlos Vélez Aguilera (illustrator)

Miriam, Samuel, young Jesus—the Bible is full of stories about kids! In fact, it's one big story about a parent (God) and His children. Some of these kids are actual grown-ups who act like toddlers and refuse to look to God as their parent. Some of them are grownups who humbly see that they're just kids on the inside who desperately need God as their true Father. And some of the kids in the Bible are actual kids! Readers will find more than thirty stories—some favorites and some surprises, and each one will show readers that kids like them are part of God's special plan to bless the world.

CAROLINE SAUNDERS is a writer and Bible teacher who loves to help others know and enjoy God and His Word, and she hopes the children in this book point you to your good Father and the wonder of being a child of God! CARLOS VÉLEZ AGUILERA has illustrated more than 20 books for children's literature as well as recognized with two illustration awards in the catalogue for the International Children's and Youth Book Fair in Mexico.

The Dance of Easter

By Sally Cressman and Angela Edmonds (Illustrator)

"He is not here. He is alive!" the angels tell the women. All creation wakes from its slumber and bursts forth in celebration at Jesus's resurrection, even the sloth who's a little behind the beat.

The Dance of Easter sparks a spirited response of creation to Jesus's resurrection through lyrical verse and expressive illustrations. This fresh retelling of the Easter story will introduce four- to seven-year-olds to what happened on the first Easter morning, show that Jesus rose from the dead, and celebrate the good news of His resurrection.

SALLY CRESSMAN is an award-winning writer who has written children's Sunday school curricula, devotionals, and articles and has served in children's ministry for over thirty years. Her publishing credits include LifeWay Kids Ministry, Focus on the Family and Moms in Prayer. ANGELA EDMONDS graduated from California Institute of the Arts; her first job was with Disney Animation as a layout artist. Jesus Unchained

How to Rise Above the Agendas, Find Peace, and Be Set Free

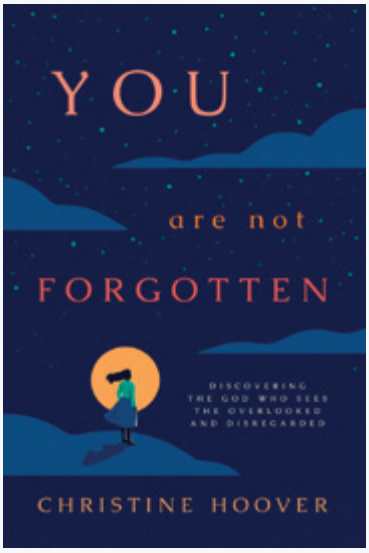

By Robert Glenn Johnson

We all have created false versions of Jesus that fit our agendas. We have Black Jesus and white Jesus, American Jesus, revolutionary Jesus, prosperity Jesus, etc. But is this really who Jesus is? And how have the limitations we've placed on Jesus chained his power in our lives?

Jesus Unchained is a book about Jesus in his culture and context. It challenges us to stop making an idol out of Jesus and gives us a fuller picture of who he really is. As you learn from different perspectives and communities while reflecting on your own, Jesus Unchained will point you back to the true Jesus and inspire a faith that transcends politics, religion, and even your deepest questions about God.

ROBERT GLENN JOHNSON is a graduate of Perkins School of Theology. A respected preacher, he seeks to find new, relevant ways to communicate across racial, educational, cultural, and generational boundaries.

You are Not Forgotten

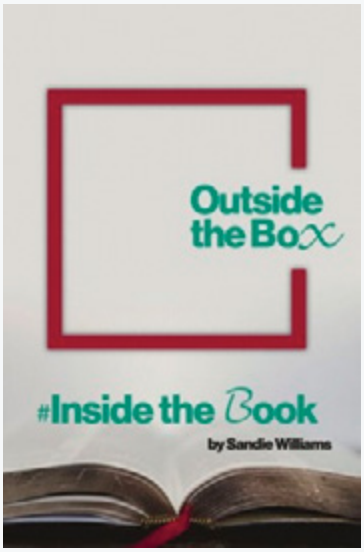

Discovering the God Who Sees the Overlooked and Disregard

By Christine Hoover

Oftentimes, we turn toward God with soul-wrenching questions: Where are you, God? Have you forgotten me? Are you paying attention to what is happening to me? Can I trust that you will act on my behalf?

If you've asked these questions, you are not alone. Author and Bible teacher Christine Hoover has asked these questions too, and she's found that none of us are the first to feel overlooked or forgotten—and yet God has always been a "God Who Sees."

CHRISTINE HOOVER has authored six books, including Messy Beautiful Friendship and How to Thrive as a Pastor's Wife, as well as a Bible study with Lifeway, Seek First the Kingdom. Her work has been featured on The Gospel Coalition, For The Church, and Christianity Today.

Pray! How to Be Effective in Prayer

By Ruth and Warren Myers

In this book, Warren and Ruth Myers will teach you how to pray, outlining the biblical principles, patterns, and practices of prayer. The Myers offer a rich theology of prayer, but also provide practical ways to enrich your prayer life. Whether shaping habits for your own Quiet Time (the devotional time Christians spend to study the Bible and connect with God) or explaining the Lord's Prayer, the Myers use Scripture as the foundation for their teaching. They exhort all Christians to practice prayer, dependent on the help of the Holy Spirit, to intercede for the lost and support God's global mission.

Learn how to pray, whom to pray for, and why prayer matters.

Friend of God

Letting Jesus Say Who You Really Are

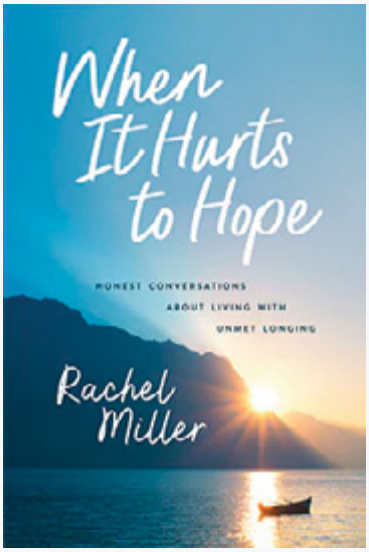

By Rusty George

Rusty George wisely sees that John called himself "the one Jesus loves" so every reader could see that Jesus values and deeply loves them. Friend of God takes you inside John's writings—his Gospel, his letters, and the Revelation—so you can discover how Jesus saw John, and thus how he sees you. The only person who gets to say who you are is Jesus.

Written as short devotional entries, Friend of God encourages you to take the next 45 days and see how your relationship with Jesus grows.

RUSTY GEORGE is the lead pastor of Real Life Church Ministries in Valencia, California. Rusty's heart for those far from God drives his organizational leadership, weekly teaching, and conference speaking engagements.

The Jesus Climb

Journeying from Student to Disciple

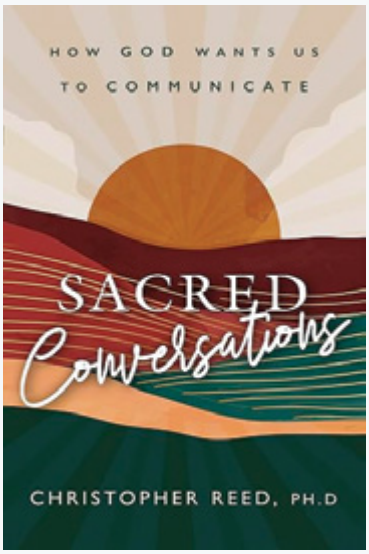

By Gary David Stratton

We cannot heal our broken world until we are transformed into the kind of people who are capable of loving God and neighbor as Jesus did—the kind of people he called "disciples." The Jesus Climb crafts the quest to climb the world's tallest mountain into a parable illustrating how Jesus trained his first students to summit the world's greatest commandment.

The Jesus Climb draws upon the teachings and example of Jesus and insights from the lives of some of history's greatest spiritual climbers to map out eight "expedition camps" through which Jesus guides every student seeking to become a disciple capable of joining him in his mission to heal a broken world.

GARY DAVID STRATTON (BA, Wheaton College; MA, PhD, Talbot School of Theology) is currently Professor of Spiritual Formation and Cultural Leadership and Dean of School of Arts and Sciences at Johnson University.

Praying with Jesus

Getting to the Heart of the Lord's Prayer

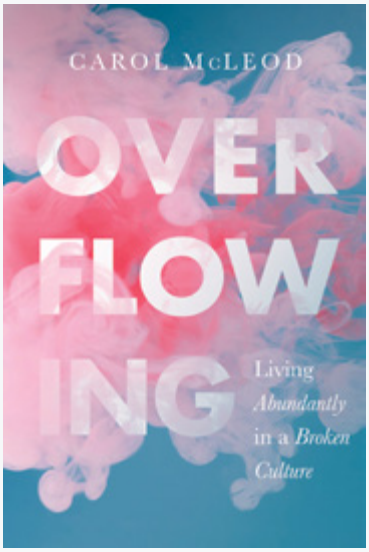

By Adriel Sanchez

In Praying with Jesus, Adriel Sanchez explores the most famous prayer in history, the Lord's Prayer, and gets to the heart of each thing Jesus told his disciples to pray for.

Using the Lord's Prayer as a framework, he unlocks the mystery of prayer, helping readers understand what prayer is, how to navigate the challenges of prayer, and how to form a habit of prayer. Sanchez points the way to how the Lord's Prayer helps us better grasp the essential truth that we are not meant to try to navigate life in our own strength and wisdom. Readers will learn that the daily practice of praying based on the Lord's Prayer transforms them.

ADRIEL SANCHEZ, MA, is the pastor of North Park Presbyterian Church and host of Core Christianity Radio, a daily live Bible Q&A radio broadcast. He's been published in Christianity Today, Modern Reformation Magazine, Tabletalk Magazine, and Credo Magazine.

Overflowing

Living Abundantly in a Broken Culture

By Carol McLeod

If you long to live a life overflowing with hope, peace, and joy, perhaps what your life needs is an intentional center. We all have one—that nucleus upon which we obtain our energy and discern our purpose. Perhaps until now, your center has been based on shopping, entertainment, or sports. Or maybe you are like many others and have centered your very existence upon your children, family, or career. What if those things you've placed at the center of your life will not bring you the abundance you desire? What if you need a true center?

By the end of this deep dive into the sacred pages of Scripture, using Jesus-centric epistle of Colossians, your life will shout to the world, "I am Christ-centered! He is my source, my joy, my all in all!"

CAROL MCLEOD is a best-selling author and popular speaker at women's events, where she teaches the Word of God with joy and enthusiasm.

Both/And

By Jason Moore

In a world of rapid cultural and technological change, how do we faithfully worship and share the good news of Jesus Christ? The global pandemic brought online worship of thousands of congregations to homes and people for the first time. To build on the incredible momentum, we cannot go backwards. Instead, we must dream about what the next iteration of worship and online ministry looks like in a post-pandemic world. This important, field-tested new work by worship technology pioneer and expert by Jason Moore helps us understand how to harness radical changes in technology and culture to faithfully worship and experience Jesus, his message, and ultimately our means for carrying out the Great Commission.

JASON MOORE in 2020, as the global pandemic took root, instinctively shifted his work, crafting a series of groundbreaking webinars on hybrid worship design. These trainings provide practical, results-oriented application, and are being utilized across the country. Jason, a graduate of The Modern College of Design, is the author of 12 books, a frequent keynote speaker, and a sought-after trainer.

Growing in Life, Serving in Faith

Doing Justice Together

By Michael Adam Beck and Stephanie Moore Hand

A model for the careful, grace-filled transformation of your church. Introduces a process for pastors and church people to move through together, to re-envision and reorient themselves away from old, often harmful habits. Shows pastors how they can, over time, lead the congregation to become a place where racial equity, justice, and liberation are intrinsic to the structure and life of the church. Teaches how a church can prayerfully and intentionally transform itself into a fresh expression of God's love for all.

MICHAEL ADAM BECK directs Fresh Expressions Initiatives for Discipleship Ministries, speaks and teaches at seminaries, churches, and conferences, and is the author of several books from Abingdon Press. STEPHANIE MOORE Hand is a dynamic advocate for justice. She draws from experiences as a Fortune 500 executive non-profit leader, in politics, as a Methodist clergy and consultant.

Sharing Jesus, Showing Kindness

By Alvin L. Reid

Many churches struggle with the impact of the dramatic and sweeping changes that mark our time. People identify as nones (no religious affiliation) or dones (formerly churched but now dechurched). So how do we reach people and disciple believers in this cultural shift? How does the church have a positive impact for Christ in a broken world? The answer is found in history!

Go back to what the early church did: show kindness to a broken world—the Great Commandment. Go back to the church's mission: share the good news of Jesus Christ—the Great Commission.

ALVIN "DOC" REID is Director of Life Bible Study, an Imprint of Iron Stream Media. A popular author, teacher, coach, and speaker, Reid has written over 20 books and has spoken or taught on four continents. He loves to encourage and add value to leaders.

Unstoppable Church

Embracing God's Development Plan

By Hugh Osgood

Osgood re-imagines church roles, focusing on individual callings over grandeur. It will challenge conventional ministry views, advocating for one-on-one ministry. It emphasizes hearing God's call to discipleship and transformative journeys for every believer. The book shifts from stagnation to vibrant living stones within the Church. Explores God's diverse yet cohesive discipleship plan, emphasizing unity's impact on communities. The author also weaves historical insights and South London experiences to illustrate tangible effects. He advocates urging active participation and servant-based leadership to model discipleship.

HUGH OSGOOD has planted and pastored churches, raised up ministries, and supported national and international initiatives for evangelism, prayer, and spiritual renewal. In 1997 he set up Churches in Communities International. He is the author of Is Kindness Killing the Church.

How Great Is Our God

Living a Worship-Led Life in a Me-Driven World

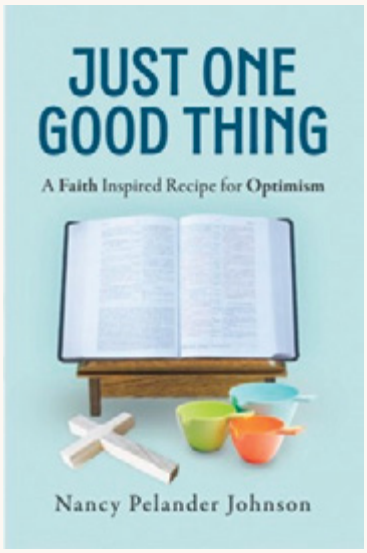

By Chris Tomlin, Foreword by Max Lucado

Recenter God in your life with How Great Is Our God: Living A Worship-Led Life In a Me-Driven World by Grammy Award-winning worship artist Chris Tomlin. In this intimate look at his songs, Tomlin shows how worship music is more than just music but a tool for putting God first.

How Great Is Our God calls readers to remember the true meaning of worship--singing God's praises both inside and outside of church. When you live a me-driven life, you choose to focus on yourself, but when you live a worship-led life, you choose to focus on God and others.

CHRIS TOMLIN is a husband, father, and renowned worship leader. Heralded as the "most often sung artist in the world" according to TIME magazine, Tomlin has dedicated his life to his personal mission—to help give people a voice to worship God.

Just One Good Thing

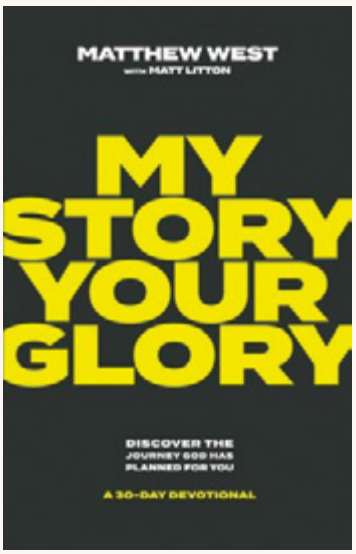

A Faith Inspired Recipe for Optimism

By Nancy Pelander Johnson

You, too, can overcome negative thinking and turn your “negatives” into “positives.” Join the author’s journey as she takes you through personal experience stories—hers and others (including scenarios of Biblical characters)—and how each found optimism through God’s goodness and Word. Just One Good Thing will guide you on a 28 day, three-step “recipe” to defeat negativity and face each day with a renewed outlook and faith. You work hard. You do your best to live by faith and care for those around you. But when you’re living in the "in-between times"—when the natural order of life becomes stressful and wears you down—it can be a challenge to maintain an optimistic outlook each day. If you’ve felt this way, you’re not alone.

NANCY PELANDER JOHNSON grew up in the mountains of Colorado. She became a desert dweller when she met her husband, a native Arizonan. She wrote her first poem, at age nine then later a call to puppet ministry ignited her desire to study ventriloquism and co-write skits with a fellow puppeteer. Later, she became the author of 95 Animals of the Bible and 44 Animals of the Bible."She has had other stories and devotionals published in Christian periodicals. She has a degree in "commercial" Spanish for business and spent a summer in Buenos Aires, Argentina.

My Story, Your Glory

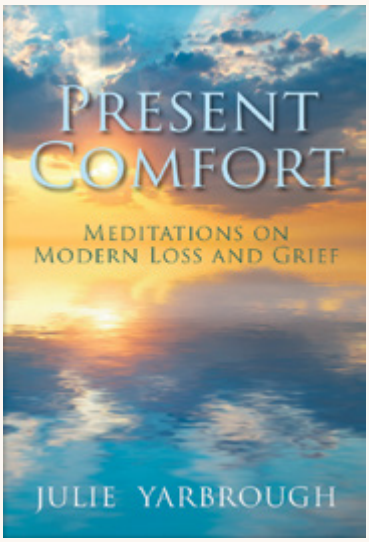

Discover the Journey God Has Planned for You

By Matthew West and Matt Litton

Discover how God's love can rewrite your story in My Story, Your Glory, a thirty-day devotional that explores how God's glory redeems every chapter of our lives--inspired by Dove Award-winning worship music artist Matthew West's song "My Story, Your Glory."

My Story, Your Glory reveals how God brings hope into all situations in our lives. We all have hurts, mistakes, and losses in our lives that we wish would disappear. God promises that He will work all things together for the good of those who love Him. The God of mercy doesn't mark up our stories with a red pen; He blots out our sins and then comes alongside us, encouraging us to keep writing.

MATTHEW WEST is five-time GRAMMY® nominee, dubbed by Billboard as "one of Christian music's most prolific singer-songwriters," has been awarded multiple RIAA Gold and Platinum certifications, notched 30 number one songs combined as an artist and songwriter, and has more than 250 songwriting credits to his name. MATT LITTON is the author of Holy Nomad: The Rugged Road to Joy, The Mockingbird Parables & coauthor of the contemplative devotional titled In the Presence of Jesus. He is also a bestselling collaborative writer with multiple #1 non-fiction titles.

Present Comfort

Meditations on Modern Loss and Grief

By Julie Yarbrough

Present Comfort is for those who have sustained a profound loss and for those who are at a loss to understand the range of emotions specific to grief. It is for those who feel deeply affected by any type of grief, whether it is the death of a loved one, loss of a job or financial security, illness, unprecedented natural disasters, political strife, or the chaos and uncertainty that is our current reality in the world.

The book offers direction and perspective from a spiritual perspective through the comfort and support of scripture. The unique perspective of each meditation is that God is present in every circumstance of life, at work in the world to give us victory over loss, destruction, death, and grief. The hope is that Present Comfort will inspire a deeper faith that in each whisper of comfort, there is the presence of God.

JULIE YARBROUGH has written extensively on grief, inspired by the life and ministry of her late husband. In writing about grief, her premise is that those who grieve seek answers found only when they understand their personal experience of grief. Learn more at https://www.beyondthebrokenheart.com/

Reaching Your Child's Heart

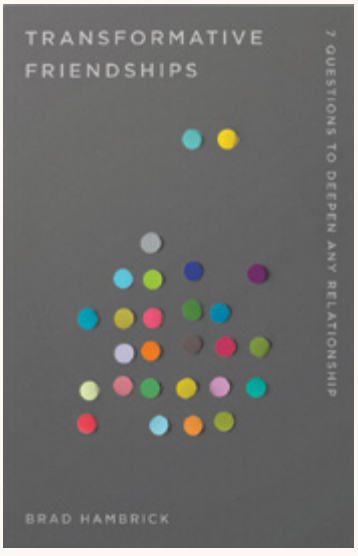

A Practical Guide to Faithful Parenting

By Juan and Jeanine Sanch

Raising children can feel overwhelming as you try to navigate the many voices telling you what to do and not to do, but God has already given you everything you need to be faithful parents! Even though you may be exhausted and discouraged, take heart from the simple, biblical principles shared by Juan and Jeanine Sanchez that will point you to Jesus as your guide and helper as you seek to shepherd your children through every age and stage of growth.

As they share their own journey of parenting five children, the authors highlight the importance of a team-based approach of parenting together. They emphasize focusing on children's hearts, rather than behavior modification, and illustrate how daily faithfulness in the routine cares of life is never a waste of time.

JUAN SANCHEZ, MDiv, ThM, PhD, has authored numerous books, including 1 Peter for You and The Leadership Formula. Juan is married to Jeanine, and they have five adult daughters. JEANINE SANCHEZ teaches English and writing to children and teaches the Bible to women. When not in the classroom, Jeanine enjoys reading, hospitality, watching Florida football, and spending time with her adult children and her grandchildren.

Transformative Friendships

7 Questions to Deepen Any Relationship

By Brad Hambrick

Building meaningful friendships is not as easy as we wish it was. A culture that is lonelier and more disconnected than ever proves how hard it can be. In Transformative Friendships, counselor Brad Hambrick encourages readers to develop new rhythms, habits, and lifestyles that will shape and grow their relationships, both with casual acquaintances and closer friends. The goal is not to develop perfect friendships, but rather learn to how to cultivate deep connections that grow steadily over time through conversations based on simple questions and common interactions. Hambrick's biblical vision for friendship calls Christians to engage with one another in the transformational way God intended.

BRAD HAMBRICK, THM, EDD, has authored several books including God's Attributes: Rest for Life Struggles, Making Sense of Forgiveness, and Angry with God, and served as general editor for the Becoming a Church that Cares Well for the Abused curriculum.

Three Gates to Hell

Hell's detours can lead to heavenly destinations

By B.F. Randall

After serving in Vietnam, Bobby Richards thought he'd left the jungles and adversaries behind. But becoming an Oakland cop proved to be a life-altering career choice. The world had transformed during his time spent in Southeast Asia. The poodle skirt was replaced by the mini, work jeans became flowered bell-bottoms, and the beatnik morphed into a hippie.

As a cop, Bobby encounters the best and worst of humanity. Later in life, as he reflects on his career as both a cop and a prison chaplain, he knows that his greatest challenge is yet to come—facing Death Row inmates inside San Quentin State Prison

When the Ocean Roars

By Charlsie Estess

Weeks before the Ultimate Fighting World Championship, Keane "The Golden Lion" Temple lands in Japan for the battle of his professional life. The adored prizefighter is primed to take the win. And nothing has ever distracted him from victory in the ring. But when his path collides with an intriguing woman, he gives in to impulse and asks her to spend his day off from training with him. Surely, he can keep his heart safe for one day.

Ami Ono cannot pass on the invitation but also hides her full identity. As their extraordinary day bleeds into night, both realize one day won't be enough. The excursion ends in disaster when Keane discovers who Ami is. Will Ami defy the domineering men in her life and accept it? Do they stand a chance against nature?

CHARLSIE ESTESS holds a Master of Business Administration degree and worked in international finance and strategic planning before tackling the full-time rearing of two strong-willed boys. She was an ACFW 2023 Genesis Finalist.

THE SEVEN SERIES

Darkness

By Troy Schmidt with Dan Lynch

In book three of the series, DARKNESS—based on Exodus 7-12—the journey continues as the kids chase Dr Bales back into the time of Moses and the plagues of darkness, locusts, and the final plaque, the death of the firstborn. And who is really Dr. Bales' target? The kids learn the true mission of Dr. Bales and hints of his identity! THE SEVEN time-travel adventure series follows a group of kids who are given incredible powers (mapping to the gifts of the spirit), which begin the day and then find each other over the course of the book series. They unite to battle a villain who is trying to disrupt Bible history. THE SEVEN carefully follows biblical history and even throws in some archaeology to show the truth behind the Bible.

TROY SCHMIDT has written for Max Lucado's "Hermie and Friends" series and "This Means War" and "Revealed" based on the movies of Alex & Stephen Kendrick. DAN LYNCH has spent over two decades creating, publishing, and marketing products for kids through teens including the successful Max Lucado's Hermie and Friends, Read and Share Bible Stories, Sheila Walsh's Gigi: God's Little Princess and Priscilla Shier's Prince Warrior series.

Who Did You See Today?

The Power of Outrageous Kindness

By Dustin Schadt

Kindness has become a precious commodity. We are fast-paced, busy, and often distracted. In a world marked by skepticism, loneliness, and anxiety, Christ-followers must be the ones who live beyond differences and distractions to see the people God places in our lives. Jesus saw us, drew closer, and gave Himself up to make a way for us to come to Him. He is calling us to do the same—to love people the way Jesus loved people, ears open and eyes widen to the beauty of the love of Christ shown in His gospel.

DR. DUSTIN SCHADT graduated from the University of Louisville with a degree in Finance, and then earned an M.Div and Ph.D. degrees from Southern Seminary.

God Is For You

Learning to Trust God's Wisdom Through Life's Crises

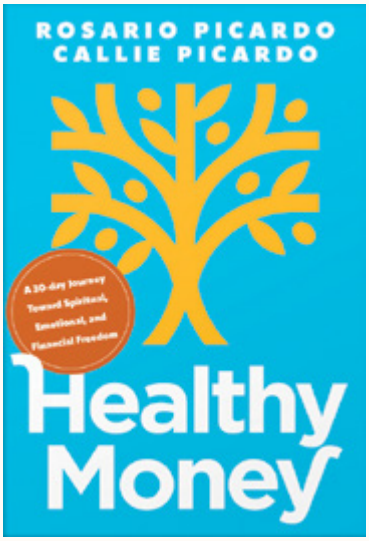

By Mac Brunson

In God Is for You, pastor Mac Brunson reminds you that you never have to face hard times alone - not through principles or pat answers, but by pointing you to the person and presence of a God who never stops loving you and advocating for you, even when it feels like the whole world is against you.

Born out of the most difficult season of his life, Brunson reframes crisis in light of God's wisdom and offers a new perspective on the common set-backs humans face, from being treated unfairly to feeling like you've been sidelined, and God can't use you.

"MAC" BRUNSON, JR. is graduated with a PhD from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and holds a DMin from Southwestern, along with an MDiv. He has published several books and articles and most recently a video series for Grace Ministries called Wisdom 101: Walking with Jesus in a Wacky World (2023).

Healthy Money

A 30-Day Journey Toward Spiritual, Emotional, and Financial Freedom

By Rosario Picardo and Callie Picardo

Your relationship with money begins with your relationship with yourself. Healthy Money is a 30-day guided journey that takes you beyond your budget and bank balance and into the emotional and spiritual roots of your money patterns, revealing your unique money mindset, unleashing deeper healing in your life, and transforming your finances from the inside out. As you explore and own the truth about your relationship with money, you will find more than just financial freedom; you will also find freedom from the lies you believe about yourself, the guilt and shame you carry, and the fear, scarcity, and comparison mindsets that keep you from reaching your personal and financial potential. This book is a tool to unleash deeper healing in your life.

ROSARIO PICARDO earned his Bachelor of Arts in Religion from Houghton College and in 2007 a Master of Divinity from Asbury Theological Seminary. He graduated with a Doctor of Ministry from United Theological Seminary in 2014 and an MBA in 2021 from Dakota Wesleyan University. CALLIE PICARDO earned a business major from Rhodes College in Memphis, TN, and worked in investment banking after college. She co-authored Money Talks: A Biblical Take on Earning, Saving, Spending, and Giving.

The Secret Power of Kindness

10 Keys to Unlocking Your Potential for Good

By Greg Atkinson

Imagine a world where everyone is kind to one another. Kindness changes the way we look at people. Cultivating kindness within ourselves not only helps us to be kind to others but gives us a fresher, easier perspective on life, one that is filled with grace, love, and hope. You never know the impact you may have on an individual simply by practicing the power of kindness. As humans, Christians too, sometimes our hearts can get locked into places of pain and fear caused by our experiences with the world, misunderstandings about God, or our own unreasonable expectations of ourselves. The good news? A little kindness goes a long way. It's time for this overlooked and underappreciated fruit of the Spirit to get its due.

GREG ATKINSON is a bestselling author, speaker, pastor, coach, and consultant who has worked with churches of all sizes, including some of the largest and fastest-growing churches in the country, as well as Josh McDowell Ministries and other nonprofits and businesses. Greg is the Founder of the First Impressions Conference - the annual event featuring the leading voices for first impressions and guest services from around the world. https://gregatkinson.com/the-secret-power-of-kindness/

Dancing When the Lights Go Out

Overcoming Grief

By Roger Greene

Dancing When the Lights Go Out is an emotional and profound exploration of grief, loss, and the societal taboo surrounding these experiences. When Roger's wife passed away from a rare form of dementia during the height of the 2020 COVID-19 pandemic, his world shattered. Grief consumed him, leaving him emotionally wrecked and questioning the cultural norms that surround loss. Through his journey, he unveils the stark reality that our society shies away from discussing grief and loss, leaving many ill-prepared to cope with the profound impact of such experiences.

ROGER GREENE is a Doctor of Philosophy with a career history as a Chief Executive in the NHS for 12 years and Director of the consulting company Tricordant for 15 years. He coaches, teaches, and trains people in behavior change.

When Good People Make Bad Choices

By Larry Dugger

In When Good People Make Bad Choices Larry teaches followers of Christ to be deliberate in their decision making. He points out that while others are happy to reveal our reckless actions without explanation, the Bible gives us a glimpse inside the minds of those who have made poor choices and why those choices were made.

We all make bad choices, but our story doesn't have to end there. In addition, like Job's prayers, each chapter becomes a hedge, guarding against behavior that could potentially no longer be under the control of the Holy Spirit.

LARRY DUGGER is the best-selling and award-winning author of 40 Days to Defeat Your Past, He Calls Me Friend, Raised Hunting, The Ultimate Hunter's Handbook, and Unshakable.

Culture Battles

Victim or Victor, Your Choice

By Paul H. Weaver

Most people have resigned themselves to accept the cultures around them and fail to recognize where they are contributing to conflict or blurring the battle lines. As a leader, you greatly contribute to the culture in your workplace and your home. The key to changing the culture is in your hands: you choose how to change the game.

What character principles will you choose to guide your life? How will you allow those principles to drive your core values? How will you allow those core values to set up a culture you can enjoy? Let Culture Battles serve as a compass and a guide for helping you create the culture outcome you desire.

PAUL H. WEAVER was born in Holmes County, Ohio, to an Amish family. In the depths of an economic downturn, he took over his dad's little leather business that has since thrived and grown to now celebrating 50 successful years. His first book, Business with a Higher Purpose, focuses on serving in leadership.

The Great Campaign

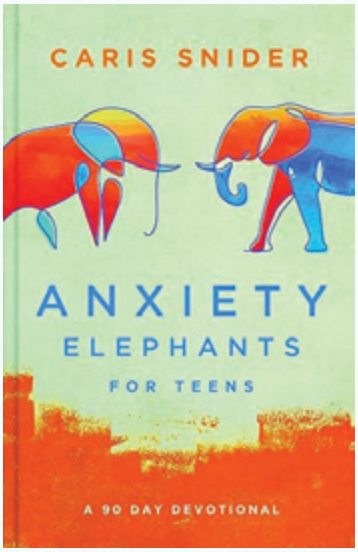

Against the Great Reset

By Jason Jones

Jones exposes the stealth tactics of the Great Reset leaders and reveals what they really mean by their "build back better" and "you'll own nothing and like it" slogans. Reflecting on historical precedents dating back to biblical times, Jones sounds a red alert and offers a plan for pushing back against the political, Church, and corporate apostasy still unfolding around us.

Through the lens of the Gospels and classical thinking, Jones challenges readers to reclaim reverence for life and prescribes the "emergency medicine" we need to apply to revive and renew our Church, our nation, and our world.

JASON JONES is a film producer, author, activist, popular podcast host, and human rights worker. He is president of the Human Rights Education Organization (H.E.R.O.) and the director of The Vulnerable People Project.

After Christendom

By Michael Warren Davis

We are living through the greatest catastrophe since the fall of the Roman Empire. Western civilization isn't dying: it's already dead. Christendom is no more. What we see around us now isn't Christian. It's not even a civilization. It's a walking corpse.

Of course, the West could be reborn someday. It died once before. But who brought it back? It was the mystics, the martyrs, and the missionaries. They must save the West again. In this book, we'll look at just how bad the situation is, and how much worse it's going to get. Then we'll discuss how Christians can survive—even flourish—in the coming Dark Age. And I believe that we will flourish. Once again, the tears of the mystics, the sweat of the missionaries, and the blood of the martyrs will become the seed of the Church.

MICHAEL WARREN DAVIS as served as Editor-in-Chief of Crisis Magazine, as U.S. Editor of the Catholic Herald, and as an assistant editor for Quadrant. His writing has been published in The Salisbury Review and The University Bookman.

Near-Death Experiences

By Scott L. Smith Jr.

Near-death experiences (NDEs) are endlessly fascinating for those who long for Heaven or are just curious about the things we cannot see (yet). Lost in all the discussion of NDEs, however, is their long, rich history. Saints and mystics have been visiting Heaven for thousands of years, and here, for the first time, Scott L. Smith provides you with a glimpse of what they've been seeing these past two millennia.

You will see remarkable similarities between the NDE stories of biblical figures, such as Jonah, St. Paul, and St. John the Evangelist, and those of more modern individuals, such as Thérèse of Lisieux, Faustina Kowalska, and Padre Pio. Smith shares an array of God's merciful messages from the great beyond through people's visits to Hell, Purgatory, and Heaven, documenting current-day stories.

SCOTT L. SMITH JR. is with Fr. Donald Calloway, he is the co-author of the Consecration to St. Joseph for Children & Families. His other books include The Catholic ManBook, The Lord of the Rings and the Eucharist, The Theology of Sci-Fi, Pray the Rosary with Saint John Paul II, and a new translation of St. Louis de Montfort's Total Consecration to Jesus through Mary.

Restoring the Lord's Day

How Reclaiming Sunday Can Revive Our Human Nature

By Daniel Fitzpatrick

Modern society has forgotten that the joie de vivre and the liturgical life are intertwined. Drawing from his experiences growing up in the Catholic culture, author Daniel Fitzpatrick juxtaposes the beauty of taking time to celebrate the Faith with the ongoing cultural drift toward eliminating the Sabbath. The result is a book that will awaken Christians from their spiritual sloth and enable them to appreciate the Lord's Day more deeply as a means of attaining happiness -- in the here and in the hereafter.

DANIEL FITZPATRICK lives in New Orleans with his wife and four children. He is the author of the novels Only the Lover Sings and First Make Mad. He is the editor of Joie de Vivre, a journal of art, culture, and letters for South Louisiana.

The Interior Life of St. Thomas Aquinas

By Dr Martin Grabmann

In this revealing book, you will gain insights into Aquinas's heart through his works and the acts of his canonization process. Msgr. Grabmann highlights three areas in the saint's interior life: wisdom, charity, and peace. St. Thomas asked God that he might think like Christ, love like Christ, and be at peace like Christ, so his soul and actions were ordered after those of Jesus Christ, and his writings on intimacy with God flowed from his own experience of this communion.

Msgr. MARTIN GRABMANN, Ph.D., was a German Roman Catholic priest, medievalist, and historian of theology and philosophy. He was a pioneer of the history of medieval philosophy and has been called "the greatest Catholic scholar of his time."

The Paths of Evil

Conspiracies, Plots and Secret Societies

By Roberto de Mattei

Conspiracies and secret societies exist because man, wounded by Original Sin, is inclined to evil and his social nature leads him to unite with other men in carrying out evil plans. With typical precision, historian Roberto de Mattei navigates us through this gloomy labyrinth of evil amid congiure, conspiracies, and plots — terms often used as synonyms but which, through their semantic and conceptual differences, can each assist us in understanding better the hidden dimension of the history of the past five centuries.

ROBERTO DE MATTEI is a Catholic historian who has taught in several Italian universities. Between 2003 and 2011, he served as vice president of the National Research Council, the highest Italian scientific institution. He is the author of thirty-five books, including The Second Vatican Council: An Unwritten Story (2011), translated into eight languages, and Love for the Papacy & Filial Resistance to the Pope in the History of the Church (2019).

Unveiling the Sixth Station of the Cross

Reparation to the Wounded Holy Face of Christ: 'Mother of All' Devotions

By Mary Jane Zuzolo

This spiritual classic that answers the key questions about reparation: Why reparation should be made? Who ought to make it? How should it be made? The great Jesuit guide Raoul Plus wrote in an era of immense suffering...war...early death...and religious indifference that co-existed with true and healthy Catholicism. He called not for scientific advance but for spiritual maturity in response to the Divine Knock. Otherwise, he admonished, we might perish eternally. Fr. Plus explained every facet of reparation for individual penitents, including: In what reparation consists; Why Our Lord wants it and makes it a fundamental obligation.

MARY JANE ZUZOLO is a great-great-great-niece of Sr. Marie de Saint Pierre, the French Carmelite who received approved revelations from Christ to initiate the Holy Face Devotion. She graduated summa cum laude with highest distinction in philosophy and as "Outstanding Student of Philosophy" from the University of Illinois. Zuzolo contributed the foreword for Fr. Lawrence Carney's The Secret of the Holy Face and was the keynote speaker for the first Conference on the Holy Face. She has published articles in The Remnant and Latin Mass Magazine, and her work has been discussed on media outlets including Sensus Fidelium, Spiritual Strength Catholic, Virgin Most Powerful Radio, Guadalupe Radio, and WSFI Catholic Radio.
